Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by ()? A ____ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. I'm Craig here with Kirk. It's a pleasure to be with you here on this Shabat evening. It was a very disheartening week, and weeks like this will become more common. The world met for a festival of the new religion called Climate Change. It sounds like a funny name for a religion, but if you look at any of the images or listen to any of the speeches that came out of this conclave you would recognize that this is the Progressive religion. It isn't a religion based on facts but on conspiracy, and the purpose of their environmental movement is not to restore the earth but instead to redistribute money. Just as COVID has become, it is a means to deprive people of their livelihoods, to control individuals, to diminish and punish success, and a means to reward failure so that those failures will support them. Their images and speeches were more zealous than typically witnessed in a religious revival meeting. There is no validity to their claims. I am not a climate denier; I readily acknowledge that there is a climate. Moreover, I am not a climate change denier because I will readily admit that outside of where I live here in paradise there is a thing called "seasons" and that climate does change. Where I live the difference between winter and summer is about 4°; a blistering cold night here is 70° and an exceeding hot day is in the high 80s.

I mentioned last week that the founder and former president of Greenpeace, a scientist, said that the entire climate change movement is a hoax. He said that Greenpeace was started based upon a scientific agenda recognizing that atmospheric testing of atomic weapons and the slaughtering of whales was a bad idea, so it was eventually stopped. But once they were successful in stopping those things their movement was taken over by political and liberal influences and became a stupid agenda.

The same thing is true with the climate change myth. Here is the reality. The earth goes through a warming and cooling megacycle and mini-cycle with a variation of warming and cooling from 1 – 2 °C every 300 - 600 years which is what we're headed for this time. I'm speaking of the mini-cycles, which typically have 300 – 600 years of cooling followed by 300 – 600 years of warming. We can record these cycles in the sedimentary layers in the oceans and lakes because various things thrive in warmer and cooler weather, and we can monitor them going back millions of years. Unless I'm mistaken, millions of years ago there was no internal combustion engine, and nobody was burning coal. So the warming and cooling periods go back millions of years. There are four or five cycles during the period of recorded history, so we know how mankind fared during cooling and warming periods because we have almost 6,000 years of recorded history now whereby we can monitor the effects on humanity.

We find two things: The average body mass of Homo Sapiens changes about 20% during the warming and cooling periods. There's enough time for the survival rate of smaller humans to do better during global cooling and larger humans to do better during warming. There is less food during the cooling period, so humanity grows smaller. We can measure that now back a couple hundred thousand years; the fossil record is very clear.

During the period of recorded history we find the most tragic events like the devastation of the black deaths and the plagues throughout the world, in Europe in particular, occurred during a cooling period because during a cooling period people were malnourished because food was harder to grow particularly in the northern hemisphere where most people lived and were more susceptible to this disease. When there is less food, people come into the places where food is gathered into and distributed which is in the cities and of course it gets spread more rapidly because of that. The fall of civilizations typically take place during the cooling periods. The medieval periods of catastrophic collapse of civilizations are cooling periods; the growth of civilizations, warming periods. The last global cooling period ended about 1825 – 1850 which happened to be coterminous with the Industrial Revolution. So not willing to tell you the whole truth they just say, "Well just look at glaciers. Since the time of the Industrial Revolution in the 1850s. They have retreated and that is proof that the Industrial Revolution and carbon fuels are warming the earth and causing the retreat of glaciers and with the retreat of glaciers we are going to have less reflective sunlight and the Earth is going to warm and we're all going to drown." It's just not true. Yes, these events were reasonably conterminous, but one was unrelated to the other. It's just that the last cooling period ended. After 600 years of a cooling period we entered a warming period which is good for humanity and for almost all forms of animal life. Almost all life on Earth does better in warmer weather than it does in cooler weather. That's the reason why if you went to Antarctica on a beautiful summer day you would find very little life. Yet if you go to the middle of a rain forest, no matter what time of year you will find life thriving.

There are three factors: A solar rhythm in which the sun has a rhythm of warming and cooling (there is a rhythm to solar flares and storms, etc.), Earth's orbit and axis are not always consistent, so these things all contribute to it.

The other is that if mankind were to divert 100% of his resources to climate change, it's unlikely that we could make even a 5% difference because 95% of the factors are outside human influence. If we were to do that it would be like the response to COVID-19. Because people were deprived of their livelihoods and their freedoms, far more people died and will die of COVID, especially exclusively of COVID as opposed to deaths reported as COVID even though there were three other comorbidity issues involved.

The same thing is true of climate change. If we were to divert our activities away from improving the burning of coal, for example, and using fossil fuels while we transition to other forms of renewable energy, which are still challenging. If we were to do that on a reasonable basis and we're not crippling the economy, and by not doing so we could produce more food, we are able to build more shelter, develop more medicines, better health care facilities, and better education; everything is better if we don't punish success and reward failure because the whole global climate change mission is a Socialist endeavor. It is to redistribute wealth with the people who are doing the redistributing profiting as a result of it. So that is our reality. You don't hear a lot of voices saying it, even though the research is plentiful to validate what I'm saying, is because in today's world you are mocked, censored, you have the Thought Police, you have everybody going after you because they don't want you saying these things. Truth isn't even an alibi. So it's very difficult for someone to speak out because they will lose their livelihood and credibility and will be attacked, so it's not something folks are willing to do. What I've shared with you is reality and ... conspiracy that man has manipulated it for the purpose of individuals gaining more influence and control which is why people ___ to government.

KIRK: These people who are in charge of making this happen, turning this into reality, are they not afraid of anarchy or overthrow of the governments? People get really mad when you take away everything you have. There is a big tax bill coming.

YADA: It doesn't really matter because here's what they do. The initial estimate for this Phase 1 of the climate change process is $100,000,000,000,000 and that's why LBJ's estimate for the cost of Medicare and Medical said it would be 2% of the US economy at full implementation, and of course they closer to 30%. The only way to come up with $100,000,000,000,000 is through fiat money and to create the illusion of solvency which debases everyone's assets; so they steal it through inflation.

The second thing they do is what they have done worldwide. They have decided it doesn't matter how much money a corporation makes or that corporate taxes are taxation without representation because they can't vote, or that the employees of the corporations are the ones that should pay income tax if you're going to have an income tax not a ___ entity. They have decided that worldwide there will be a minimum tax of 15% on corporations, and it's not necessarily on profits. Then they have this billionaire's tax which they say, "It doesn't matter that we have rules on capital gains which encourages an investment in the economy, and that low capital gains rates are essential to a vibrant economy. If you are worth a certain amount of money, we're just going to confiscate it." For a while they had an alternative minimal tax where even if you had liabilities and expenses that offset your income, it didn't matter; we're just going to attach your revenue and not even consider any other factor. So they simply continued to penalize success to the point that no one gives a crap anymore.

Look at the State of California. In California you have a mass exodus of businesses and entrepreneurial kinds of people because you are taxed into oblivion. There's no incentive to create anything new. So that is where we are. It is a wealth distribution act and the most recent confab was nothing but a religious revival, and if you don't think so, just listen to the speeches. Progressiveness, in which there are many conspiracies, has a religious aspect to it as does Social Secular Humanism. One conspiracy within progressiveness revolves around the Woke movement, around the critical race theory, Black Lives Matter whereby claims of institutional racism are used to explain why African Americans are doing poorly relative to others in the society when in fact the most upwardly mobile nation, the least racist and least stratified nation in human history is the United States of America. It's the furthest from a caste system that the world has ever known, and it has been exceedingly prosperous until the Progressives, Liberals, and Social Secular Humanists managed to burden it to the point to where it's essentially a Socialist economy and they have crippled which was once magnificent and now all they are doing is moving the deck chairs around on the Titanic.

That is where we sit. I may be forever banned for telling you the truth, but folks that is the truth and you need to know because just as COVID was used to deprive you of your liberty and livelihood which is right now we have what they call the “Great Resignation” worldwide where a huge percentage of the workforce has refused to go back to work, they broke the economy. I’m not second guessing this; the moment they discussed this I used every statistic analytics that I could possibly muster to tell you what the consequence of this was going to be and it turned out exactly to be exactly as I had foretold. So global warming and climate change is the same thing and is being used in the same way, and it is going to garner trillions of dollars of squandering monies around the world and with rich companies paying an abnormal share.

What’s interesting, of course, is in its most recent confab while Biden recommitted the United States to _____. Three of the world’s top five contributors to all forms of carbon monoxide and various kinds of pollution are not signatories. So what good does it do if three of the top five nations say, “We’re not going to play?” They include China, which is the biggest polluter now in the world, India and Russia. If they are not going to play why is the rest of the world making sacrifices just so that those economies can prosper at our expense? We are devolving exceedingly quickly.

In another story there was a 55-year-old, white-bearded Muslim, who looked 85, dressed in what looks like a diaper standing next to a nine-year-old girl. It’s an exact replica of a 53-year-old Muhammad having sex with a six-year-old girl. This 55-year-old disgusting diapered Muslim man bought this little nine-year-old girl for a sex toy. And, of course, the mother that is selling this child (has the two holes in the black tent that she is wearing because women have no rights in Islam) is so corrupt she is there profiting from the sale of her daughter. She sold her daughter into what is essentially sex slavery. And the world gives Islam a pass. Isn’t it amazing?

There’s a new trend across the country that since the Biden Administration signed an executive order that says once a large company gets to a certain size you are required to have every employee vaccinated and any unvaccinated employee cannot work there. That’s kind of like the government telling businesses they need to collect taxes for the government and dictating to businesses that they need to pay health care for the people. It’s not their responsibility to pay for the people’s health care or to collect the government’s taxes. Rather than paying the companies to do those kinds of things the government confiscates their profits. No wonder America’s corporate world is collapsing. A percentage of these corporations’ employees are saying their rights are being infringed upon and the government is going to control them. They’ve come up with one of two schemes. One is that a small percentage is saying a medical exemption. I would guess that if it could be shown that there was some prevailing ailment or condition that you have no influence over, that if you have type A+ blood that you had a 50% chance of having Bell’s palsy that you could say you want a medical exemption, which, of course, is not the case. So that lies in the face of you’re going to have to prove it and so far there’s no evidence.

Second, they are claiming a religious exemption by getting pastors to say, “My religion is devoted to being anti-vaxx.” You’ve got places like Liberty where Falwell, who you never see, which will send out lawyers to defend conspiratorial nincompoops. They are destroying what little credibility their religions had and that they had by claiming a religious exemption for doing what’s sensible. I’m no fan of the Christian New Testament but I know it pretty well, and I can assure you there is no comment in there about “Thou shalt not be vaccinated.” As a matter of fact in the Christian New Testament it actually says to trust your government and submit to your government and do what it orders you to do. If you are a Christian, you damn well better live up to what Paul wrote in Chapter 13 of Romans and submit to your damned government. Either that or don’t be a Christian. There’s no mention of vaccines; it is emphatic in Romans 13 that you submit to your government. I’m here to tell you that Paul lied and that he was a scallywag; he was the Plague of Death and therefore you should throw out your entire Christian New Testament. If you do, you can disassociate from your government if you wish to, but it still doesn’t give you the right to be stupid medically and to make other people susceptible because you are being stupid. Good grief, folks, get vaccinated. It is the intelligent thing to do; it makes not only you imminently safer but also those you love.

Anti-vaxx became an exceedingly popular aspect of the conspirators’ repertoire in the last 15 years. It began with a nincompoop in Great Britain who was exposed and condemned as a fraud. He had invested in a competing mumps and rubella vaccine, and he fabricated, there was no trial, data information to show that the measles, mumps and rubella vaccine caused autism in children. The fact of the matter is that it doesn’t. He never conducted any research, was a fraud and a financial huckster who was immediately found to be wrong with hundreds of articles proving he was a fraud and that there was no correlation between autism and those vaccines. And yet the conspirators are so unbelievably stupid that they will believe literally anything. The truth can be exceedingly well-defined right before their eyes, their lies can be proven upside down and all around as being lies and it doesn’t faze them. With a conspirator evidence and reason is about as effective as it is with a religious person. So that is the sad reality. The bottom line is, get vaccinated and stop pretending there is a religious exemption. You are making a fool of yourself and particularly sad because the Christian New Testament tells you to listen to your government.

Now let’s return to the study of Zakaryah 2:7.

“Howy |

When you read ‘Howy’ that is not a good thing. That means that God is telling you something that you had better pay attention to because the consequence of not paying attention to it could be grievous and could cost you your life.

I am warning and admonishing you (Howy – alas this warning and encouragement to incite action), Escape (malat – flee so as to be delivered, rescued, spared, and saved (nifal imperative)) to Tsyown | to the Signs Posted Along the Way (Tsyown – the ridgeline on Mowryah which included Dowd’s home on the lower part of the ridge and Yahowah’s on the top part of the ridge), daughters (bath – those living in the environs, connected with, and belonging to, even the effeminate offspring of; from banah – to have built upon and caused the continuance) of Babel |

Babylon | Confusion through Commingling (Babel – Land of the Chaldeans, to confound by intermixing; from ba – with and bel – the lord, as in associated with Satan).’ (Zakaryah / Zechariah 2:7) For this is what was conveyed by (ky koh ‘amar) Yahowah, of the spiritual implements (YaHoWaH tsaba’).”

There are a number of things here. One is that God is issuing a warning. The entire book of Zakaryah is speaking of a single event – what is going to happen prior to His return on Yowm Kipurym, who is returning with Him on Yowm Kipurym, why He is returning on Yowm Kipurym, and what’s going to happen immediately after. It is focused on this single act and preparing God’s children for His return and preparing the rest of the world so that they are left without excuse. He’s giving His people this warning so that if they want to continue to be religious, they are left without excuse. He is saying

Escape (malat – flee so as to be delivered, rescued, spared, and saved (nifal imperative)) to Tsyown | to the Signs Posted Along the Way (Tsyown – the ridgeline on Mowryah which included Dowd’s home on the lower part of the ridge and Yahowah’s on the top part of the ridge),

You can look at Tsyown under the circumstances one of two things. You can look at it as a place and is therefore He is calling them back home to the heart of the Promised Land; it’s a little hard for a lot of people to gather on the ridge line of Tsyown. In this case Tsyown is being used symbolically, and all you need to know is what Tsyown means which is “a sign that is posted along the way”. He’s asking us to return to the signs that Yahowah has posted; where He has posted His signs is in the Towrah.

He is really disgusted with humankind which has become very effeminate. Men have been emasculated in today’s world. We have come to the point where we are doing everything imaginable to feminize men and to masculinize women so that there is minimal distinction between the two. Men are being neutered in every possible way. If you look particularly at religious Jews, you will see the most effeminate men in the world from their curly ques to their skinny arms, hands without callouses because they’ve never done any work, lack of muscle, backbone and stature, they might as well be girls. Then He says these people are affiliated with Babylon, asking them to leave Babylon. The empire of Babylon was destroyed in a slow, misquote-infested death from around 450 BCE to about ... So Babylon is long gone, so Babylon itself is serving as a metaphor or symbol for something or somethings.

Let’s think about it. This is not the only place where Yahowah is calling people out of babel. It’s emphatic in Yirma’yah and is also the same timing. He’s calling His people out of Babel before His return in year 6000 Yah/year 2033. So the Hebrew word babel means “to intermix and comingle and thereby to confuse”. Rabbinical Judaism intermixes the Towrah and the Talmud and the Zohar and this blending together of God’s message and man’s message only confuses. So it’s intermixing to confuse. Christianity has tried to blend together very awkwardly what they call an “Old Testament and a New Testament”, emphasizing their “New Testament”, so this is intermixing, which confounds. Islam began by intermixing the (Heine)? poetry from South Yemen and their god __ and then the pagan religion of Quraysh Hashim Tribe of Mecca within stories they pilfered from rabbis in Yathrib. It was this comingling of religions that gave Islam an air of credibility which managed to confuse.

You look at the modern religions of Progressivism, Woke, Social Secular Humanism, and Political Correctness, they too blend things together. For example they will blend misinterpretations and manipulation of science with politics, and they create a religious zeal from having done so, and they confuse. So all these things represent babel and babel has never been as pervasive as it is today. I'm here to tell you that there are four categories, broad strokes of babel from which God is calling His people; it could be five.

The first is religious Babel which is broken into two; Roman Catholicism and its influence on Christianity as a whole. In Daniel Yahowah is very clear as He presents the evolution of the satanic beast beginning with Babylon, Media Persia, Greece, Rome, and then Roman Catholicism. Obviously, Roman Catholicism is the beast that has tread upon the whole world. So Roman Catholicism is Babylon.

Second, Yahowah goes to great lengths to describe the nation most similar to Babylon politically today, and Yasha'yah 18 delineates that nation as the United States of America. So political Babylon would be the United States. The United States is important in this regard because 40% of Jews worldwide live in the United States.

The third form of Babylon is one that I did not mention until fairly recently. The core scriptural text of Judaism is the Babylonian Talmud; they make no effort to hide the fact that it is the Babylonian Talmud. If God is speaking to His people and He is calling them out of Babylon, you have political in the United States, that's 40% of Jews worldwide. About one-third of Jews worldwide are religious and are being called out of the Babylonian Talmud. There are many converso Jews who converted to Roman Catholicism rather than being tortured and killed.

The last form of Babylon is the actual geographic environs. The reason that is important is that now with DNA testing we were able to find that Yahowah was correct when He said that He was going to harvest His people and He gives the names of the places that are consistent with where the ten tribes of the Northern Kingdom were hauled off into slavery by the Assyrians, and today when we do DNA testing, we find a very high percentage of Jews. So these places would be geographic Babylon.

One of the surprises, of course, is the Taliban Quashiqin Tribe has a very high correlation of J1 genetics. The leaders throughout the world of Islam are mostly from Muhammad's tribe, the Hashem Tribe and have a very high percentage of J1 genetics as well. It's kind of funny they attack Israel. So these are the Babylons ...

KIRK: You said there might be five.

YADA: You've got Roman Catholicism and Judaism as two. Politically you have the United States. The one I didn't mention I excoriated at the beginning of the program is Progressive mentality. The reason I speak of Progressivism as a form of Babylon is that a very high percentage of Jews in America and even worldwide are not overtly Orthodox or Hasidic, they are Progressives. Their religion now is their politics. They will deny Israel and as all Progressives are wont to do, they will claim that Israel is the terrorist nation and will claim apartheid and everything that is true of the Islamic nations, projecting it on Israel when none of it is true of Israel but is of the surrounding nations that are trying to destroy Israel. Amongst Progressives evidence and reason do not matter, like in conspiracies and religion, and it is exceedingly pervasive among Jews. So the fifth form of Babylon is the growth of Liberal Progressive mentality, that new religion the Woke mentality. I don't like using "mentality" after Woke because there is nothing cerebral about it. It's nothing but conjecture, myth and lies that are woven together to provide excuses for peoples' miserable lives. Those are the things that Yahowah is calling you away from. If you don't want to leave, if you want to maintain your view as a Liberal politically, Progressive, Woke, support critical race theory, wealth distribution, large government, there's no place for you in the Covenant. If you want to be conspiratorial, anti-Semitic, Christian, Roman Catholic, if you want to value and read from the Babylonian Talmud, and if you continue to identify with the religious and political influences in geographic Babylon and don't come home, there's no place for you in the Covenant. As much as we are devoted to writing, editing and providing these books through Amazon or by googling my name or yadayah.com or yadayahowah.com, the reason we do this is to call Yahowah's people back home. Even with that enormous effort and the benefit of these programs, we recognize that there are not going to be a lot of people.

When Yahowah touches back down here on Earth with Dowd there's not going to be a big crowd. We would love for there to be millions of Jews and Gentiles, but there will be very few. But that's okay. So long as we have done our best to call Yisra'el and Yahuwdah back to Yahowah, so long as Yahowah is pleased with the results of His return and with us for being devoted to doing His job as well as we can, then it's all good. We're not responsible for changing people's minds. We're not responsible for saving Israel. We are only responsible for correctly conveying Yahowah's message so that those who want to come home, those who want to embrace Yahowah and come to know Him and learn what He's offering and what He's expecting in return can do so. We would also like for, like you Kirk and for so many others in the Family, to be able to grow. So our primary purpose is to awaken Yisra'el and Yahuwdah so they can as this passage says they can come out of the various forms of Babylon.

Our second most important responsibility is to make certain that the Gentiles who want to know this have it available as well so that they can also make a good decision as to how to embrace Yahowah and become part of the Covenant.

Our third most important responsibility is to feed, nurture and educate the members of Yahowah's Covenant Family because God does not want us to stay infants; He wants us to grow, to learn, to be enlightened, and to be more effective. We do that by studying His Towrah and prophets.

Our fourth responsibility is to openly, bluntly, boldly expose and condemn the various things that have led people astray, be it religious, political or conspiratorial. That's our calling and it's enough for a lifetime.

The first yatsa' | exodus, as we know, was from Mitsraym, representing the crucibles of religious and political oppression. The second will be from Babel, confusion. Babylon was not only the birthplace of organized religion, and where it was integrated into politics and the military, it is the place where nationalized belligerence and a repressive caste system fundamentally changed the course of history. This is something that the critical race advocates, the Woke mentality, (Woke is slang; it's bad grammar. It was bad grammar and now it's being embraced by those who would want us to view them as enlightened when they are anything but. God is saying that the way the world has been is unhealthy, and yet those who favor large government seem to be ignorant of the fact that you would be hard pressed to find any civilization in recorded history that didn't have a caste system. Americans in particular have no idea of how much better they have it than has any people in the history of humanity.

Rome had the most complex caste system probably in the world. If you were born into a caste, there was typically no mobility even one rung up and the only place of any consequence where you could move upward was if you devoted more than 20 years of your life to the Roman Legions which were brutal, a place of no freedoms, and ultimate savagery, and were able to survive by being an exceedingly effective savage you could move up from equestrian class to the next rung up. That was it; there was no other upward mobility. You couldn't be a successful merchant and move up to run for senate. The caste system existed everywhere and throughout the realms controlled by the Roman Catholicism. If you were a serf, you were never going to be anything but a serf; if you were a commoner, you were never going to be royalty. If you were a slave, you were a slave forever. That's the way the world was. This experiment of upward mobility with no caste system, of people being able through good choices and effort and inventions to make their lives better is an experiment that is unique to America. And to now try to change that history and claim that it is the opposite of that is just ignorant. I am no fan of America; you know I am not patriotic; I don't pledge allegiance to the flag, I don't vote and am not affiliated with any political party. I am anti-political, but I can still tell you that what I've shared with you is true. God is saying you've got to walk away from it and disassociate yourself from these human political systems that have been so debilitating over time confounding people by mixing truth with lies. That's really the essence of it all, mixing truth with lies. That is the nature of every effective scam.

Conspiracies all work by intermixing truth with lies. They will call condensation trails chemtrails; there are chemicals in condensation and in water vapor, yes indeed. They are trails just like a contrail is a chemtrail. Is it a government plot to poison you? No. That would be the dumbest idea ever at 31,000 feet ___ parts per billion and the explanation is exceedingly simple. The jet engine consumes fossil fuels which when broken down creates carbon dioxide, water vapor and cold air holds less water than does warm air, hence the air coming out the back of a jet engine is very warm. When it is cooled in the resulting atmosphere it condenses in the form of condensation and clouds. Is there some truth to what they say? Yes. Are their conclusions valid? No. But they do mix truth and lies. That's the nature of all these things.

There are five incarnations of Babylon, as I mentioned earlier, and God is calling His People out of them all.

At this point in the prophecy, Zakaryah inserts himself into the story as Yahowah sends him to survey the modern purveyors of Babel | Confusion. God is not going to overlook what they have done over the last 2,000 years to His people.

“Next, and without hesitation, after (‘achar – immediately following and without delay, in the end) the glorious appearance (kabowd – the honorable and splendid manifestation of power of the rewarding presence), He sent me to (shalach ‘any ‘el – He dispatched me to (qal perfect)) the gentile nations (ha gowym – the people of different ethnicities who are estranged and opposed to Yisra’el) who plundered and victimized you (ha shalal ‘eth ‘atem – who removed you, looted you, and sought to control and oppress you).

This is because (ky), he who touches you, especially if they assault you (ha naga’ ba ‘atem – the one who makes contact with you, striking you, and who harms you in any way, afflicting or traumatizing you, plaguing you with their fungus (qal participle – actually defining themselves by their antagonism toward you)), they are antagonizing and abusing (naga’ – they are messing around with, assaulting and harming, afflicting and traumatizing) His little children from His viewpoint, whom He adores (ba babah ‘ayn huw’ – His youngest family members from His perspective, and therefore the focus of His eye and His beloved).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 2:8)

There is no institution in human history that has been as abusive for a longer period of time to Yahowah’s little children, Yisra’el, than the Roman Catholic Church. Because the Roman Catholic Church has literally based their religion on misappropriating all things Jewish and then condemning Jews, it’s the basis of their damned religion and it is completely hypocritical since their “Jesus” was Yahowsha’ and he was Jewish. Even their pied piper wannabe prophet Paul also was Jewish. They carry around the Torah, which was in Hebrew to Yisra’el, and begins by addressing the birth of Yisra’el and Yahowah’s ongoing commitment to His people. So it’s nothing but hypocrisy and contradiction. Because of Roman Catholicism and resulting Christianity anti-Semitism has run rampant. It has created the protocols of the elders of Zion which is a complete myth. It has created the conspiracy that Jews are manipulating Gowym and are somehow trying to control the world and wipe them out in some kind of ghoulish experiment, which is completely untrue. It perpetrates the myth that Jews are controlling the world’s economy, which is also completely untrue. Because of Roman Catholicism we were given things like Nazism.

Even before Nazism, this is one of the tragedies of peoples’ recollection, they want the ___ nations like the Ukraine, France, Poland and many other European nations, they want to blame the Nazis. But they were anti-Semitic and intensely hostile, torturing them in pogroms long before the Nazis. Roman Catholicism was pervasive throughout Europe torturing, robbing, and afflicting Jews for 1,000 years before there was even a notion of Nazism. So while Nazism took the decimation of Jews to another level, the undercurrent and exemplars of anti-Semitism and grotesque abuse of the Jews permeated all these countries to the point they were all abusing Jews for many hundreds if not a thousand years before Adolf Hitler and the Nazis.

God is saying what He has said throughout His Towrah and Prophets, those nations and institutions that harm His people, Yisra’el, are going to be destroyed. If you want to have Yahowah treat you well, it is essential that you accept Jews and that you stand with them. That doesn’t mean you can’t criticize them, you can. You can’t promote anti-Semitic theories, you can’t promote conspiracies, you can’t side with institutional harm of Jews, but you can say that the Talmud is counterproductive, and there are many things you can say that are effective and should be said, but if you are anti-Jewish, you have absolutely no part in Yahowah's family and it's important that you recognize it. That is our reality.

KIRK: I know it's bashing upon bashing but the Roman Catholic Church under the Pope in the late 1930s told the Catholic people in Germany to vote for Hitler.

YADA: It's far worse than that. The Pope and Hitler spent long periods of time negotiating a deal that said the Roman Catholic Church would acknowledge amongst all Roman Catholics in Germany and throughout Europe that the Nazis were the sole governing entity of Germany, and the rightful governing entity of Germany and would allow them to essentially meld the Catholic political party into the Nazi party. In return the Roman Catholic church was given unfettered religious control over those Nazi Germans. It's the same deal as ___ throughout Europe is this amalgamation of Church and State and they were saying we will endorse you as the head and the legitimate government if you will acknowledge that we are the only legitimate religion. So the religion intermixes – babel, they go hand in hand. It's like Christianity and government hand in hand; there is not separation of Church and State just as there was none back there at that time.

KIRK: The second part of it was the United States with its corporate power in IBM that they gave the list to the Nazis so when they went into the towns, they knew where all the Jews were.

YADA: If it wasn't for IBM the Holocaust would have been probably diminished over 90%. The only reason that Germans were able to go into a town, city or community, show up at the door of a Jew, call them out, check their name and give them a number, steal their goods, know how wealthy they were and what they owned was because the IBM card-finding system was used throughout Europe for census purposes, so all Jews were registered along with their assets and names. The system that, Watson who was the head and founder of IBM, gave to the Nazi Germans and supported them, developed all those itemizations. As a matter of fact, today's news showed a macabre artifact of the Holocaust has just come up for auction, which is the very thing that IBM sponsored. It is a partial tattoo kit that was used on inmates at the Auschwitz death camp. That was part of IBM's identification code. So it's far more than Germans who are anti-Semitic. The Greeks, Ukrainians, French, and there's a lot of rhetoric in America now promoting anti-Semitism; a lot of it is from Progressive Jews who have lost their minds. The core of conspiracies is 'blame the Jews'.

God is saying if you are conspiratorial, religious or political, all these entities are abusive to my children. You might say that the United States supplies Israel with aid. Yes, and we supply Israel's enemies with aid, like Jordan and Egypt.

KIRK: This week Biden approved $600,000,000,000 worth of missiles for Saudi Arabia.

YADA: And Trump gave $100,000,000,000 worth of weapons to a government that has a mass-murdering lunatic as its head. It's stunningly asinine. The only reason Saudi Arabia weapons is to make it impossible for its people or any other nation to rebel against its authority. We are the supplier of weapons to Israel's enemies. The Biden administration has done exactly everything we had said it would do. Trump was overwhelmingly pro-Israel; the Biden administration has been decidedly anti-Israel and is now promoting again the two-state fiasco and are doing everything they can to provide lip service in favor of the Fakestinians over the Israelis that are being terrorized by them. So the list of gentile nations where Jews have been victimized includes every nation in Europe and the Middle East. God sent Zakaryah to these places because He wants the people living there to realize that by abusing Jews, they were assaulting God' children.

I'm here to tell you I am anti-violence; I will do everything I can to try to use words to convince people that they are wrong. And yet if you abuse my children, I am justified in coming after you. Now the person who has the grievance is God, by abusing Jews, who are the favorite target of Muslims, Christians, and Progressives, God has every right to come after them, and He's going to do so.

In its lone appearance in the prophets, babah is almost always rendered pupil, where I have written "His little children from His viewpoint whom He adores", that's how I translated ba which means "with or in"; ba babah 'ayn huw'. So they will always translate babah as "pupil of the eye or apple of one's eye". There is no reference to either pupil or any reference to focus in the word. Babah, particularly followed by huw' would be -his youngest family members from his 'ayn – perspective and therefore the focus – 'ayn – is an eye so would be "viewpoint, focus, or what you can see". Babah would be from the sound of a young lamb, bah bah or a baby bébé will make and particularly the lamb. It is a transliteration of the sounds they make. It speaks of little children. So babah would mean "with or concerning little children". 'Ayn – "viewpoint, what can be seen", huw' – "his". And yet they want to make it "pupil or apple of his eye". Babah speaks of children and babies and of a parent's devotion to a child, so adored by a parent they have become preoccupied with it and are imitating their infant's prattle." The sound of the word is not only bébé, but also similar to that of a young lamb: bah bah. Yahowah's perception of Yahuwdym, Yisra'el, and gentile Covenant members is that we are His little sheep, His flock.

Those who robbed Jews and who have worked them to death will have their ill-gotten gains confiscated and returned to those from whom it was so unjustly taken. The Yatsa' | Exodus will be reprised in yet another way. As the Children of Yisra'el were leaving Egypt, the Egyptians gave them vast amounts of things such as clothing, cooking utensils, gold and silver as retribution, recompense, if you will, for having been there for 400 years as slaves. So as the People are being called out of these abusive countries, out of the modern incarnation of Mitsraym, those who have abused Jews have their wealth confiscated.

"You may want to pay attention because (ky hineh) I will wave my hand ('any nuwph 'eth yad) over them ('al hem) and they shall have their possessions confiscated (wa la shalal) by those they treated as their slaves (la 'ebed hem).

Then you will know (wa yada' – as a result you will realize and appreciate, even understand) that Yahowah of the assembly of spiritual envoys (Yahowah tsaba') has sent me (shalach 'any)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 2:9)

This is Zakaryah speaking; this is another example of ... God loves to work through people, and Zakaryah is a prophet who speaks prolifically about the time prior to Yahowah's return, and he's been given this role.

“You may want to pay attention because (ky hineh) I will wave my hand (‘any nuwph ‘eth yad) over them (‘al hem) and they shall have their possessions confiscated (wa la shalal) by those they treated as their slaves (la ‘ebed hem).

Then you will know (wa yada’ – as a result you will realize and appreciate, even understand) that Yahowah of the assembly of spiritual envoys (Yahowah tsaba’) has sent me (shalach ‘any).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 2:9)

There will be retribution and recompense, a concept we’ve lost site of the in the progressive world of no responsibility. But that’s not God’s world.

Zakaryah realizes that Yisra’elites have earned a bad reputation for ignoring and discounting Yahowah’s prophets. So he tells those who would rather listen to their own that, when what he is revealing transpires as it has been disclosed, the fulfillment of the prophecy will demonstrate that Yahowah sent him to alert them.

The difficulty of this is that Zakaryah has already said this is after the glorious appearance. So the people who are going to know that Zakaryah was sent are Covenant members and those who are now having their wealth confiscated. That is part of recompense – knowing that you didn’t get away with it. So that’s going to be a part of this period of time particularly between Yowm Kipurym and Sukah in Year 6000 Yah.

You can mark your calendar, warm up your vocal cords, and be ready to sing if you are among those who have been guided by Tsyown | the Signs Posted Along the Way between Dowd’s home and Yahowah’s. The choir will be assembled on October 2nd 2033 when Yowm Kipurym commences at sunset.

“Sing and rejoice (ranan wa samach) daughters (bath) of Tsyown (Tsyown – of the Signs Posted Along the Way), for behold (ky hineh – look up now), I am coming (‘any bow’ – I, Myself, will arrive) and I will dwell (wa shakan – will live and remain) in your midst (ba tawek ‘ath),’ prophetically announces (na’um) Yahowah (εφει – the pronunciation of YaHoWaH as guided by His towrah – teaching).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 2:10)

A simple statement. When God returns it isn’t a fearsome day for those He is returning to embrace; they are going to sing. Who is He talking about?

daughters (bath) of Tsyown (Tsyown – of the Signs Posted Along the Way), for behold (ky hineh – look up now), I am coming (‘any bow’ – I, Myself, will arrive) and I will dwell (wa shakan – will live and remain) in your midst (ba tawek ‘ath),’ Is Israel.

Tsyown is in Israel. He isn’t coming for Roman Catholics or Americans; He’s coming for His people, Yisra’el. Therefore all the claims of the Church that its right to exist is because they replaced Jews is a lie. It is Yahowah who is returning, not Jesus. Throw away your God-forsaken New Testament – it’s not true. And for the rabbinic Jews, I’m sorry, but the principles upon which Judaism is based are also untrue because it says, “I will return, I am coming, I Myself will arrive, and I’m going to dwell and live and remain in your midst.” And oh by the way, He has a name; the name no religious Jew will say which means there will be no religious Jews that are part of the Covenant that are going to be celebrating on this day because His name is Yahowah. That's a lot in a brief statement.

It is from this moment on the Day of Reconciliations and forevermore that Yahowah will be residing in the midst of His people. And as we are about to discover, God's eternal family will be comprised of gowym, too.

Speaking of global warming, can you imagine how warm it's going to be when the most powerful, most energetic source of light in the Universe is on this planet? Thank goodness. We'll melt the arctic, the Antarctic, weather will be a thing of the past. Everybody will have the same opportunity that I have living in an ocean paradise. There was a reason 'Adam was comfortable with Chawah in the Gan 'Eden | Garden of Great Joy without a stitch of clothing.

“And numerous (wa rab – then a considerable number of greatly esteemed) gentiles (gowym – people of different ethnicities) shall engage in the relationship with and accompany (lawah 'el – shall join in and be associated with, attending to and abiding with) Yahowah (YaHoWaH – an accurate presentation of the name of 'elowah – God as guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence) at that time (ba ha yowm ha huw') and they shall become (wa hayah – they will be) My people as part of My family (la 'any la 'am).

Then I will live and remain (wa shakan – I will reside, dwelling) in your midst (ba tawek 'ath). And you will realize (wa yada' – as a result you will know and appreciate, even understand) that Yahowah of the assembly of spiritual envoys (Yahowah tsaba') has sent (shalach 'any) me to you ('any 'el 'ath).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 2:11)

I'm going to go out on a tsemach | branch, the one that represents Dowd and say that had it not been for these books and these shows, that would not have occurred. There would not have been a significant number of gentiles that Yahowah would have considered family because all the gentiles that Yahowah is considering as family came to know His name as Yahowah, they came to know and accept the five conditions to the Covenant, they have come to know there are seven Invitations to meet with Yahowah and they attend them, they know that God has one source of teaching which is His Towrah, that His chosen language is Hebrew; they know these things. I think prior to this program there weren't any gentiles or Jews that knew these things. So the very fact that there is a meaningful number of gowym is largely because Yahowah saw fit to invite, encourage, ask a Gowym to awaken His people while simultaneously sharing this message with all who would listen such that they would be gowym who would join Israel who would become the equivalent of Yahuwym | Beloved of Yah. That's a powerful statement. What that means is that again Rabbinical Judaism is wrong because the only way you can immigrate to Israel now and obtain Israeli citizenship is to pass muster with the rabbi. They have the rabbis check you out and be convinced that you have converted not to just Judaism because they just despise Reformed and Orthodox Judaism and only accept the most primitive Babylonian version of the religion, which is the Hasidic Ultra-Orthodox. To be part of this family you not only aren't Jewish by ethnicity, but you are also not engaged in Judaism. So once again, Yahowah is at odds with the rabbis.

It is a deserved and yet hilarious turn of fate. Those considering themselves rab | greatly esteemed as rabbis will be cast aside on this day, while the gentiles they despised are incorporated into Yahowah's family. This is not because God is turning away from His people or that He prefers gowym to Yahuwdym. That is not true. He is clearly coming to reside within Yaruwshalaim. He just said, "I'm going to strike out against those who have abused my little children" which is the Children of Yisra'el. These gowym have joined Yahowah in support of His people. They are Covenant, and thus, they are family.

Our mission since we started was to awaken Yisra'el and Yahuwdym and call Yahowah's people home recognizing that Yahowah said there is one Towrah for gowy and for Yisra'el. There's only one set of annual meetings, only one Covenant, only one God. So by doing our primary mission, which is to call Yisra'el and Yahuwdah home, that message has resonated with as many gowy as it has with Yahuwdym | Jews. God was explicit when He was saying simultaneously gowym are going to listen. The gowym who become Covenant aren't rejecting Yisra'el are rejecting Judaism but not Jews. They are embracing Jews and Yisra'el while renouncing those things which are hostile to His people, foremost among those things is Judaism.

Kirk, you did a study on babel. What did you learn how it is connected to Bible?

KIRK: This was just for fun. I noticed when I did babel, Bible, confusion, all those things that were correct. We talked about the direction of the letters and what they applied to. When you look at the word ba'al it starts out with the first letter going from right to left followed by a lamed/shepherd's staff. I suggested to you that it means to lead away from the house or home and it's also the root meaning "to mix, to confuse, to comingle" in the standard lexicons.

YADA: So babel is a home, a home and a shepherd's staff and ba'al | lord and Bel was the name of the Babylonian religion, so it's home and a shepherd's staff with the shepherd's staff pointing away from the home. That home is two homes. Religion and politics again and the shepherd's staff reaching out away from it. Bbl would also be the closest Hebrew equivalent to Bible. If we were to do babel, a compound of ba | with and bel | the lord, so babel – bible means "with the Lord" and the Lord is Satan. As a word it means to "intermix and confuse".

KIRK: It is the strangest thing you could think to do, and I love the term "Twistian" that came into our vernacular very much like "Fakastinians". It does mean "to twist and turn it into a lie".

YADA: It doesn't matter what you precede bel with, it's bad. Kebel is "a slave and king in shackles", Hebel was the son of Chawah who becomes "a worthless breath", babel is the home of Babylon "intermix, to twist and to confuse" (that's really bad), ... ('ebel)? is "mourning for the dead and flowing of tears", (siblowth)? is "a heavy burden", and (chabal)? is ... ruined and destroyed. So it is not good to be a bel.

KIRK: I quickly looked at some positive ones and leb, of course, is "heart". It points in the direction of home, heart, mind, understanding, wisdom.

YADA: Okay, the difference here now is that the shepherd's staff is pointing towards the home. Now what you're doing is looking at words that have the lamed and they beyth in them but in the opposite order. So ...

KIRK: Everything we do is pointing people home. The things that have resonated with me for the last 14 years has been how do I find my way home, the path along the way is through the Mow'ed Miqra', it is participating in those things that I find is the easiest thing in life to pursue Yahowah. It is the way to get there. He says this is the way if you want to be part of My family; there's nothing difficult about it. There are some consequences of walking away when your family doesn't want to go with you, but that's a choice you have to make in any situation in life where relatives or friends or associates. But in this case every time you find the lamed going to the beyth you find something positive. One is enclosed and protected in a garment (I think in terms of garment of light)

YADA: The bush

KIRK: White is always a symbol of purity, chalab – “cream or richest part of the milk”. You have a welcoming hand at the door leading you home. ‘

YADA: You found that out of 10 of the 22 Hebrew letters 9 lead from right to left which is the direction that Hebrew and one flows the other way, which is the gimel, the foot and is walking in the wrong direction. Any time the letters in a Hebrew word looks toward Yahowah's name it is positive and negative when they look away from Yahowah's name. Here, since Yahowah and Dowd His shepherd are associated with the lamed, shepherd's staff, Yahowah announced that Dowd was the shepherd for His people. If the staff is facing away from the home, that's a bad thing. But if the staff is pointing toward the home, that's a good thing.

KIRK: Consider one other thing in 20:11, I think it is. The wa . When you look at gowy the root gow or the w, that means “the core people”. This is kind of the core people of the gentiles that have recognized Yahowah, this group we get to participate with all the time. It also means “the back, the part that lifts the weight”. I have to say when I put that down I thought to myself nobody has lifted more weight than Yada. It's his backbreaking work that he does all the time. It wears me out doing such a small portion. And the people on what I call Team Towrah that work on this great thing and make sure it comes out as a beautiful product at the end. Just like in the beginning when He was talking to ‘Abraham anyone that wants to be part of His family that want to abide with them, participating with them in the same way, they are all Yah's children.

YADA: God is being quite clear with us here. There is going to be a lot of gowym who are going to be considered family with Yah. That means when he returns, we're going to be right there with Him at His side. We will to some degree have earned that distinction by the fact that Yahowah introduced Himself to us and we embraced the opportunity.

I'm translating passages for Volume 2 of Introduction to God and it's just a series of __ where God is saying, “I want you to listen to my choq”, which are the prescriptions for living that are inscribed that cut us into the relationship, and I want you to pay attention to my mishpat which is the means to exercise good judgment as these things are presented in my Towrah, and if you do that you are going to live.” And then He'll come back and say, “I want you to observe, which is to closely examine and carefully consider, my mishpat which are the instructive conditions of the relationship agreement of the Covenant, and then I want you to observe my lamed | teaching so that you can 'asah | to act upon what I have said. Then you can inherit all that I have to give.”

God's not asking a lot of us, and what He does ask is very enjoyable, rewarding, invigorating, empowering, enlightening, and the best thing you can do with your time. It provides a marvelous true perspective on the world.

I began this show talking about several things that have evolved recently creating a very hostile environment and a dismal future for humankind, but they were not surprises to us because we've been talking about them for 5 – 10 years now. We diagnosed the fraudulent nature of Black Lives Matter in its first week and the fraudulent nature of Woke the first time it was used. We recognized critical race theory being inconsistent with reality immediately and recognized how global warming and the war on terrorism were being collectively used to rob you of your freedoms, the opposite of what Yahowah wants, and to use fear to manipulate you. The first week we became aware of COVID-19 we began saying this is what's going to happen, and this is why it's counterproductive. The reason that we have been consistently right, and very seldom wrong, on all these things is because what we have accomplished in studying Yahowah's Towrah and Prophets is that our perspective now is Yahowah's perspective, and we look at the world through His eyes. He told us what was going to happen, why it was going to happen, why we should be wary of religion and politics, and be opposed to them. He told us how they manipulate people. So from the education that Yahowah has given us we are able to look at the world unlike anyone else and read right through the news and say, "This is reality and the truth of the matter." It's a powerful gift He has given us.

An advantage of that is that we can be completely relaxed and live without fear. We know where we are headed, we know where the world is headed, there are no surprises and there's nothing to worry about.

KIRK: It's going to protect us the whole way as the world gets really nasty. It's the 91st Psalm on and on. I don't worry for myself at all.

YADA: I'm really looking forward to presenting the Why You? Why Me? chapter and then the following on the Last Witness. It is so clear how Yahowah has chosen to use us and why He has chosen to use us which has nothing to do with us and all to do with His people.

Let's end. We'll come back to it next week.

“And so then (wa) Yahowah (Yahowah – the proper pronunciation of YaHoWaH, our ‘elowah – God as directed in His ToWRaH – teaching regarding His HaYaH – existence and our ShaLoWM – restoration) will legitimately receive and possess as His own (nachal – will accept and inherit, obtaining) Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah – the Beloved of Yah) as His apportionment (cheleq huw’ – as His share and as a reward) of the ground (‘al ‘adamah – of the earth) which is set apart (ha qodesh – which is separate and unique, very special).

He will choose (wa bachar – so He will select, preferring) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim – the Source of Teaching and Guidance on Reconciliation, Jerusalem) once again and forevermore (‘owd ba).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 2:12)

So how do you get a Vatican and a Roman Catholic Church? How do you get a Mecca and a ___? How do you get Progressive mindset and one world government or a confab on global warming and make it sound like that is a great god? Yahowah says, “It is My place that is My own that I am going to possess is Yahuwdah. It is my apportionment, and I am going to choose Yaruwshalaim.” Muslims, if you want it to be your trophy, sorry, it’s not yours and it never was. It’s God’s and He gave it to His people, and He’s reclaiming it on behalf of His people. So long as you remain a Christian or Muslim, or a Progressive Liberal from a European country advocating a two-state solution where Jerusalem goes to the Muslims, you’re going to be on the outside looking in and you won’t be able to look in very long, and then you’ll be gone. God is choosing us forevermore and He’s not including you in His plans. His forevermore begins on His return which makes the Replacement Theology of Christianity highly suspect.

We’ll return to this point next week. I appreciate you being with us Kirk. I enjoyed your analysis. Thank you very much; may Yah bless. Shabat Shalown.
