Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by ()? A ____ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Goo evening and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. Right after the show last week I came down with Omicron, so I can speak more from experience now regarding the Corona virus. I was going to report last week that the national statistics during the first week of December that you were five times, 500%, less likely to get the corona virus if you had the two vaccines plus the booster. Five times is a lot; we're not talking about 10%, 50% or 99% less likely. The fact is that Americans in the first week of December were five times less likely to get corona. Even more telling than that the likelihood of serious disease requiring hospitalization, or a mortuary death, was fifteen times greater for the unvaccinated. So worldwide what we had experienced in December and the months prior to that was a pandemic of the unvaccinated. It's a serves-you-right kind of thing. But something unexpected happened. We know that viruses mutate, and their standard mutation pattern has become virulent so that they infect a higher percentage of people more readily and less lethal because they don't want to kill their host because they can't survive without a host. So here comes the most modified version of the corona, called Omicron, and it's a wildfire. It should be in the country within two weeks and should become the dominate strain. For those that haven't been following it, the new cases of corona virus in the United States have tripled from their previous high. So this time a year ago, we on the worst days had 200,000 new cases. Now we're having 600,000 new cases a day. That's a staggering number in a country of 325,000,000 to have 600,000 tested positive cases. I'm here to tell you the actual number is somewhere between 10 – 15 times that. The reason for that is that no one in their right mind is going to get tested now. They aren't even tracking coronavirus positive testees anymore, the numbers are just too staggering. There is nothing that can be done to stop this. Interestingly, prior to this time the numskulls like Fouche that claim that they are following the science but are doing the exact opposite would have you believe that the compassionate, scientific and responsible thing to do was lockdowns, shutting down business and depriving people of their liberties. It was completely ineffective. All it did was destroy the currency, the economy, destroyed people's character and lives, it was devastating for children and women, for those having psychiatric, drug and alcohol problems; it was many times worse than the virus. And yet the Liberals won't apologize for it; they want to do the same thing and now we're dealing with something that literally is a wildfire being pushed by hurricane gust winds and virtually everyone is going to get Omicron. That's not such a bad thing.

The third overall shot in the vaccine regiment, the booster, has a ten-week useful life. After ten weeks it was only 35% effective. While it has a tremendous effect against the Delta variant that is still in the 90 percentile and while it will keep you out of the hospital and will keep you out of bed, which is always a good thing, there are many more options when you're not in the mortuary.

There are considerably more people who recover in hospitals than in funeral homes. So there is still a huge advantage in being vaccinated, but this virus is beating the vaccines and we have zero chance of vaccinating our way out of it. We are going to go through a really rough batch here. It's not that Omicron isn't deadly; it's just death is very rare and no one who has been triple vaccinated has died from it. While there are hospitalizations of triple-vaccinated Omicron victims, the percentage of the population hospitalized with serious illness is about the same as you would expect from the flu, a cold, or just the run of the mill things that go wrong in people's lives.

A positive thing about it is that for most people the symptoms are more like a bad cold or flu with the runny nose, fever, cough, body aches and pains and fatigue. About 25% lose their sense of smell and about half of that lose their sense of taste. One overall symptom is an excruciating headache that nothing treats; that's the headache I got.

The initial indication is of those who get Omicron and are triple-vaccinated have a vastly superior long-term immunity to the vaccines alone. It's not only greater length of time to the indication because we're seeing a very slight drop off in antibodies vs. a fairly rapid one, but you get super immunity. So this could be the perfect storm for solving corona. You're still a nincompoop if you don't get vaccinated, and you're risking your life and others, but so be it; Conspiratorialists are not the smartest people in the world. In fact they are probably the least smart. But that's where we are.

On stammering from time to time I sometimes trip over English and often Hebrew words. About 15 years ago Jim Doyle was the one who prodded me into doing this show. One of my concerns was that I don't want to embarrass Yah with my stammering. I was very concerned that my diction particularly in Hebrew words would be a problem, and I didn't want to do it. I wanted to stick with writing because then you have a chance, particularly with world-class editors and fact checkers like we have in the Covenant Family, to get it right. The spoken word is very different than the written word; Yahowah has an overwhelming preference for the written Word.

In the second volume of An Introduction to God which is now available for purchase on Amazon, Jacki and the edit team did a marvelous job on it, one of the things that God says over and over is that His final witness, the gowy that shows up during the last days to knock some sense into His People, that not only does he speak a foreign tongue, his diction isn't so hot. It's really funny in a way that Yahowah introduced His name to the world through a mumbler. I say "mumbler" but when you read what Mosheh said, I think he surpasses Dowyd in being brilliant and articulate. Nonetheless He thought that was a qualification for having the role of introducing Himself and His name to the world – somebody that did not pronounce words very well. And now that He is reintroducing His name to the world, He has picked someone whose diction is not very good.

There are a few news items I want to share. One is on the Ukraine. Now the Ukraine doesn't like being called "the Ukraine". They just want to be called "Ukraine" which is why I call them "the Ukraine". I don't like the Ukraine because in terms of Jew-hating and Jew-bashing it is in the top three or four worst countries in the world and are money-grubbing scumbags in terms of their governance, military, and everything else; they can't live independently, and they steal money from others. There is probably no other country on earth that is more readily prostituting its women. So it's not my favorite place.

Putin has himself in quite a fix. He has over 100,000 troops on the border of the Ukraine and has told the United States, "They are there because of you. You think that you can shoo Russia away from Cuba in the Cuban Missile Crisis because we had a military presence in America's back yard. So we agreed to remove those missiles with a commitment that the United States would never invade Cuba." The United States has invaded the Ukraine. We've given them countless weapons and want to make them part of NATO. Russia said, "No. We're not going to have a United States military presence and all your damned weapons in our back yard. So if you continue to do it, we are going to invade." And of course the United States being the most hypocritical nation on Earth said, "Nah, if you invade then we're going to put sanctions on you bad boys." It's ridiculous. Everybody wants to condemn Putin for being the bad guy when the belligerent here is the United States. We as a people have no context. The Russians aren't all that swell either.

This is a funny combination of things in a weird way, but I'm kind of a weird guy. You have Russian's ambassador, the lead Russian which is the dominate nation now in the Iranian nuclear talks. The media is having a field day saying that they finally have somebody that is willing to tell the unburnished truth as to why we ought not be so worried about Iran and a nuclear bomb. He actually said, "So what if Iran gets a nuclear bomb? Big deal. Why does it matter? Unless they have a ballistic rocket to put it in, they have no way to deploy it. We have no idea how far they are away from having a ballistic missile. We should all just take a chill pill and not worry about it if they develop a nuclear bomb." The next day Iran launched a ballistic missile and claimed they were doing satellite research. What are they researching, their ability to build a nuclear bomb? They claimed they were launching satellites. They were well below the orbit necessary for satellites, but perfect for a ballistic missile. And yet you still have the idiots that write for the media say they are ___ for civilian purposes and are not building a bomb. I hope it's idiots like that that are ground zero for the mushroom cloud that is about to emerge because Yahowah is not going to allow a nuclear bomb to roast Israel, but it is likely a nuclear strike from Iran that is going to imperil the world and bring it into World War Three.

That was an interesting combination of statements, and no one has written a story saying these talks are dead. France said, "It's such a shame that as we were making such progress in our negotiations, they would do something like launching a ballistic missile."

We had an amazing thing happen this week. Chaim Walder, the most popular author in the Hasidic Ultra-Orthodox world (the guys that walk around in the black mourning suits with the little curly ques on the sides of their head) is a best-selling author to other Hasidic Jews, not to anyone else with a brain. Walder writes books for Hasidic children. Life is miserable for them so he writes books to help ease the pain. He also had a psychiatric ___ that was associated with his ___. I guess that's what you like to do there is rape little girls. He has been accused by 20 women of having raped them. The Chief Rabbi David Lau visited the Ultra-Orthodox home of the dead author because he had committed suicide because he was too embarrassed for what he had done; he was a weasel on top of everything else. So the Chief Rabbi says, "This is my golden cow, man. We make money on everything, so we have to figure out how we can keep this gravy train going."

He went to Walder's home and cut a deal with his widow. Never once did he say it was tragic that this man went so far and raped little girls and never apologized for it. He never said he should go console the victims because rabbis hate women. He just met with the widow and then left. These boys are scum and I'm going to tell you God hates them. The only chance that a Jew has to return to Yah is to walk away from Judaism.

There is the possibility that Yah's last witness will also be one of the two witnesses that will stand beside 'Elyah in the last days. And based upon what is written in Yasha'yah, there is no Mr. Nice Guy. I always say, "Choose your words. If you don't have words and you can't make a good argument then just get out of the way." There's no purpose for fists, knives or guns unless you are defending your immediate family from immediate harm. That's not the way it's going to be in the end. God is going to extract recompense seven-fold.

There is a guy I would have no empathy for; his name is Hamas. He is accusing Israel of organized terrorism and ethnic cleansing. This is the a_hole that came up with the notion of Pay for Slay. He's the one that encourages Muslims to terrorize Jews and came up with this stupid map and says, "This is all Palestinian land. The Jews took it from us. Those dastardly Jews." There is no such thing as a Fakestinian; it is a complete lie.

It's worse than that. There is no land that was stolen or taken by the Jews. Arab leaders testified publicly under oath in 1937 as part of the Peel Commission and universally stated categorically that no land was stolen from Arabs by the Zionists. The land that the Zionists received was all paid for by legal contract. State lands and waste lands had been set aside for the Jewish population and were in the legal control of the colonial powers after WWI and particularly not so Great Britain. Even the testimony of the Grand Mufti and others to Sir Laurie Hammond and his commissioners categorically verified that there was no land stolen. It's not their land; it was not stolen. For what they have done in their perpetration of their lie trying to take the land that belongs to the Jews away from them terrorizing them in the process, should these witnesses encounter those supporting this, it's likely they are to roast them alive. You might say, Yah is not a vicious God; that's just not going to happen. Bull. He's going to hold the accountable recompense seven-fold. So the only way he can be just to His people is to do this not only to the advocates of Islam but also the leaders of Roman Catholicism, those who have promoted Hate the Jews Conspiracies, the Progressives who are anti-Jewish today.

One of the things I forgot to mention about the coronavirus is that in China they have a new policy called "Shaming". They have a bunch of guys who dress in black outfits and look like stormtroopers and then a bunch of them in white outfits that look like zombies. They stand on either side of somebody also wrapped in a white suit, hood and white everything; you can't see their faces. On their backs they have a large picture of their face with their name. They parade these people down the street and in cattle cars. Spectators watch as these people are paraded down the street. We're talking about people so far removed from moral decency it's even hard to fathom. But that's what's happening in China.

In Lebanon there's article after article now that says the country has been eviscerated by its financial crisis. That's not true. It's been eviscerated by its Islamic crisis. Hezbollah now controls it and has a single goal which is to use Iranian missile and drone technology to destroy Israel and in the process Lebanon. It's amazing.

So it's a crazy world out there and things are going to get exceedingly bad for the Chosen People. Yahowah is waiting with open arms but you "got a lot of 'splaining to do" if you're Jewish. You are our target audience; you are the people we are most interested in reaching, and you are the people that Yahowah is the most interested in reaching. But for you to engage in a relationship with Him you are going to have to leave rabbinic influence, in fact you're going to have to renounce it. You're going to have to leave all 4,769 political parties in Israel which should be easy to do. You've got a Prime Minister now that forms his government by giving some six billion dollars to Islamic terrorists so that they would vote for him. Think of how grotesquely immoral that is and it replaced a government that could have been as immoral as Israel has ever had, and they have had some bad ones with Netanyahu bribing the Hasidic Orthodox Jews to vote for him in forming a government by bribing them in every which way.

So this reads that Yisra'el is still going to be exceedingly divided. Yahowah's list of political parties is a little shorter than mine, but you get the point.

"Then the Land and Earth (ha 'erets – the region and material realm) shall mourn (saphad – shall be exceedingly emotional, sobbing ritualistically), with the nations and races, political and religious groups (mishphachah mishphachah – social and cultural entities with divided loyalties, families and clans, kingdoms and tribes, the common people and the aristocratic religious and political leaders; from my – to question shaphah – lip-service and verbose speeches, including divisive words which are laid bare and wind-swept) by themselves, boasting about their false prophets (bad – separated and isolated, still prideful with unwarranted confidence, placing their faith in that which is untrue, alone with some still bearing their crosses),

Their religious leaders, the Popes for example the political and religious divisiveness along with the social and cultural institutions with their discordant rhetoric (mishphachah – the divided loyalties of the families and clans, the growing chasm between the common people and the aristocratic religious and political leaders; from my – to question shaphah – lip-service and verbose speeches, including divisive words which are laid bare and wind-swept) of the House of Dowyd, a.k.a., Yisra'el (beyth Dowyd – the extended family of the Beloved which is racial and political Israel), isolated and by themselves boasting about their religious leaders (bad – separated and still prideful with unwarranted confidence, placing their faith in that which is untrue, alone with some still bearing their burdens), their women, ever prideful and mistaken, by themselves ('ishah hem la bad), the political and religious divisiveness (mishphachah – the divided loyalties and growing schism between the common working people and the religious) of the House of Nathan (beyth Nathan – Gifted Family, a prophet who intervened between Dowyd and Yahowah during the King's latter years, and also one of Dowyd's sons) by itself (la bad) and their women by themselves (wa 'ishah hem la bad), (Zakaryah 12:12) the divided loyalties and growing schism (mishphachah) of the House of Lowy (beyth Lowy – the son of Ya'aqob and Leah, the clan designated by Yahowah to unite and instruct the people), isolated by itself (la bad) along with their wives by themselves (wa

'ishah hem la bad), as well as the divisive and discordant rhetoric (mishphachah) of the Shimi'y (Shimi'y – the descendants of Shimei, a Benjamite of the House of Sha'awl who threw rocks at Dowyd, then later apologized) separated and mistaken by themselves (la bad) along with their wives (wa 'ishah hem la bad)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 12:13)

Shimi'y is famous for having thrown rocks at Dowyd, something Christianity and Judaism do quite well. If you want to find the fastest way to Hell, if that should be your intent, throw rocks at Dowyd. Take Dowyd's title as Messiah and Son of God and give them to someone else and see how God responds to you.

This is a multi-layered pronouncement. I suspect that the initial mention of 'erets in this context can be read as either "the Land," as in Yisra'el, or "the Earth." Both shall mourn, albeit for some of the same reasons. The world will be at war. Mankind has become ignorant and irrational, religious, political, conspiratorial, and militaristic. Currencies have been rendered worthless and the world's economies are in shambles.

Mishphachah is equally adept at distinguishing between nations and races, political parties or religious institutions. These have run amok in Israel and elsewhere. Just as we have witnessed in America with the widening schism between liberal and conservative, Israel is unable to establish a stable government. And in these places where 80% of the Jewish population abides, there is an irreparable division between those who work and contribute, and those who do not, considering themselves entitled. Through it all there is nothing but lip service and divisive rhetoric.

I came to the conclusion the other day, even my wife thought it might be extreme, but I'm convinced it is true – The reason for anti-Semitism, for conspiracies, the reason people believe the Protocols of the Elders of Zion is a true story. The reason the Holocaust happened and that there are so many derogatory images and statements said about Jews is not the fault of gowym, of right-wing wackos or Progressive Liberals. The reason is because of rabbis because they are exactly as they are stereo-typed. They are swindlers, dishonest, monsters really and are the reason that Jews have been slandered this way; it's your rabbis. They are pedophiles, child rapists, and are sucking the life blood out of the people and the country and are everything that the caricatures have depicted. Israel, meet your enemy, it's your rabbis.

While the world should be ashamed, there is an ever-growing, and yet completely unwarranted confidence. The boasting is derived from placing one's faith in false prophets or rabbis, as the case may be and has become particularly bad. And nowhere has blind faith in liars become more invasive than among the Haredi in Israel.

In this regard, it is useful to know that the Haredi are wholly dysfunctional, lacking everything other than arrogance and religious indoctrination. They value nothing beyond their Babylonian Talmud, which these incompetent and irrational nincompoops stupidly call "the Torah." They are unemployable by design, a rabbinic plot to control every aspect of their lives. They are in a religious ghetto, self-imposed, and are parasites, who will do nothing but cry when the world comes crashing down around them. Their women have no rights and have become as useless as the men. But sadly, like Muslims, they breed like rabbits, with an average of seven children per household. Currently at nearly 20% of Israeli Jews, and doubling every sixteen years, upon Yahowah's return, a third of Israeli Jews will be unsalvageable and worthless – a blight on the House of Dowyd. And they are as Yahowah has predicted, isolated and divisive crybabies.

I'm sure that there are some Covenant members and many others who would listen to this and say, "That guy is way too out of touch with political correctness, too pejorative, too critical and demeaning, has no respect for the religion or the people, and is being anti-Semitic." No, I'm probably the foremost lover of Yahowah's name on Earth. There's no one on this planet who has invested more time reaching out trying to save Yahuwdym | Jews. The problem here is that Jews have done this to themselves by making themselves ignorant. The rabbis have done a masterful job in doing something incredibly stupid – they have equated being Jewish with the religion and not with the ethnicity. Judaism has nothing to do with the ethnicity of Jews. God is calling His people home, that is the ethnicity, the race of Yisra'elites and Jews | Yahuwdym while completely excluding Judaism.

Personally I share Yahowah's disgust for them, which is why I am glad that they no longer learn English. The Heredi Masters, the rabbis, are so afraid of losing control, they will not allow anyone in the Heredi community to have access to the internet, access to a cell phone that will connect them to the internet, or to a cell phone so that they can have access to a rape, pedophile or spousal abuse help line. They are given what they call a "kosher phone" that has all of those numbers blocked and no access to a book series like Yada Yahowah.

Personally, I share Yahowah's disgust for them, which is why I am glad that they no longer learn English. They have no way of understanding what we have written. And we are not alone. Secular Israelis have heard more than enough of their demeaning and condescending rhetoric and will not continue to support their nasty habits.

The creation of the religious welfare state is the dirty secret of Benjamin Netanyahu, who bribed the rabbis to garner their votes in the dysfunctional parliamentary system of Israeli governance. If there ever was a place of "mishphachah – political and religious divisiveness and discordant rhetoric, an unsurmountable chasm between working men and women and the hopelessly religious," it is in Israel today. The Hasidic Haredim have "bad – isolated themselves by boasting about their religious leaders, they are separated and still prideful with unwarranted confidence, placing their faith in that which is untrue."

Let's stop a moment. If this bothers you, and if me holding rabbis accountable telling you what they really are by holding the religion of Judaism accountable telling you what it really is is bothersome, then go away. Yahowah isn't going to get along with you either. Yahowah is openly condemning of Judaism. The Towrah, Prophets and Psalms are filled with condemnation of Judaism and of rabbis in particular. At this time and in this culture is when He's condemning them, and if you don't like me because I'm condemning Judaism and rabbis, sure as hell you're not going to like Yahowah because He does so aggressively. Yahowah says of His last witness that he is going to follow his Father's example and be overtly condemning of the rabbis and of the Jewish religion. It's not the only bad religion on Earth. The four volumes of Questioning Paul will certainly dissuade you from being a Christian if you read them. Prophet of Doom in its 1,000 pages will certainly preclude you from being a Muslim if you'll read it. We are an equal opportunity hater when it come to religion and there's probably nothing more loving than you can do in life than hating religion, Liberal politics and conspiracies. Those are the worst influences in the world today.

So we have Yahowah saying things about the House of Dowyd, a.k.a., Yisra'el, that they are isolated and by themselves, placing their faith in their deceitful religious leaders. But what are we to make of the House of Nathan? There's no tribe called Nathan. Here we have two choices. On the positive side we have a prophet, a man who actually intervened between Dowyd and Yahowah during the King's decline in mental acuteness. He brought us one of the most important and misunderstood prophecies ever recorded. It is the prophecy that without it we are not here – the one presented in Shamuw'el / 2nd Samuel 7 – whose understanding is key to knowing the who, what, when, and why of the past and future. It is the prophecy that without it we are not here. It is the prophecy that began the translation and is the prophecy that started me questioning everything. Shamuw'el / 2nd Samuel 7 is Nathan's conversation with Yahowah on Dowyd's behalf. It is to my mind the single most misunderstood and the single most important prophecy ever recorded. Those who understand it know the who, what, when and why as well as the past and the future. They know it's going to happen.

And then there was the Nathan who was Dowyd's son. This Nathan was the fourth born to Bathsheba and the eleventh, overall. But other than being listed among Dowyd's prodigy, nothing is said of him. And yet we know that the seed of Bathsheba is tainted. The way Dowyd acquired her hand in marriage was exceedingly offensive to Yahowah, in that he sent a good man off to war, expecting and wanting him to die, so that he could take his wife. Their firstborn died as a result, even before he could be named. The second son was Solomon.

Talk about a guy that started off well and ended poorly. To a large degree the thing that brought Solomon down was the very thing he said he didn't want. He told God he wanted wisdom. God told him He was going to give him wisdom and everything else including a long length of days and riches. As he became richer, Solomon decided more wives were better than fewer wives. He was an international connoisseur, so his foreign wives had foreign gods. He didn't end his life very well because his lust for power, wealth, and women proved corrupting.

In that bad is a divisive and isolating term, perhaps it is this very distinction of the product of a prophet or the effect of lust of a man that was contemptable and is comparing the difference between these things. Such are the mishphachah divided loyalties of the House of Nathan.

There are two other names in this prophecy, and again, they provide a contrast considering what they represent. Yahowah chose the Lowy to serve His people. Their role was to help everyone understand the Towrah and capitalize effectively upon the Mow'ed Miqra'ey. Their purpose was ultimately negated, not by God, but instead by the wiles of men. The priests became corrupt, something which became especially apparent during the row between Jezebel and Elijah. They were better off dead. And later, rabbis would replace them, claiming their authority for themselves.

Shimi'y | Shimei started off badly and then became duplicitous. He is known for throwing dirt into the air and stones at Dowyd. He was like the raving wild man that we would normally associate with the house of Benjamin and came from the same stock as King Sha'uwl as well as the wannabe prophet and apostle Sha'awl | Paul. In him we see Sha'awl | Paul who did far worse than cloud the air while seeking the demise of Dowyd. He wrote and spoke the most duplicitous and divisive mishphachah religious and political rhetoric conceivable. He was bad – arrogant and dishonest, writing letters and inspiring gospels which would lead directly to this showdown between the Benjamite and Yahowah's Lowy on Kipurym.

So that's a lot from that passage and you can look at it from several different angles, and many are true simultaneously. Did you take any words in particular Kirk?

PLEASE NOTE I DO NOT HAVE ACCESS TO KIRK'S NOTES, RESEARCH, OR PRESENTATION THEREFORE IT IS NOT INCLUDED IN THIS TRANSCRIPT BECAUSE I COULD NOT MAKE AN EDUCATED GUESS AT WHAT HE WAS SHARING. I APOLOGIZE FOR THE INCONVENIENCE AND THANK YOU FOR YOUR UNDERSTANDING.

YADA: Speaking of both scabs and religion tonight is "Janis Eve". Janis is the god of duplicity and beginnings and endings in Rome of which the day is January, and the month was named. I think it was Steven writing in the chatroom earlier that it is from Janis that we get the English word "anus", and it is exceedingly appropriate for Romans. There were and are lots of anuses in Rome; it is easily the most despicable civilization in human history. And one that grew out of Imperial Rome, the Roman Catholic Church, became probably the most menacing institution in all of time. So that is what this evening is, and my guess is that no one that is part of this community celebrates the Roman's god's day. Even the idea of a "New Year's Day" is totally inconsistent with Yahowah. His New Year begins in the month of Abib and is known for the first light of renewing light on the moon closest to the time that barley is still green and growing and receptive in the ear of the plant. That is essentially the new moon, the first sliver after the new moon, closest to the vernal equinox, which would be the best way to figure the time today. That would be the first month of the year; He does not have a New Year's Day celebration, of course, but Jews do. They go with the Babylonian head of the year with Rosh Hashana replacing Yahowah's Taruw'ah. They have no idea that Taruw'ah is their last hope. We are Taruw'ah.

So many people want to know when is the Taruw'ah Harvest coming? That ought not be the question you are asking. How can we fulfill Taruw'ah? What we're doing tonight is the living embodiment of the fulfillment of Taruw'ah. It isn't so much the harvest it is what we are doing now. Taruw'ah is to openly condemn the things that are hostile and are leading people away from Yahowah and then to announce the good news particularly to Yisra'el and Yahuwdah that Yahowah is calling you back home; that He has a name, a plan, a way, and that He wants you to reject the way of man and embrace His. That is the fulfillment of Taruw'ah and is one of the reasons why Taruw'ah is the only one of Yahowah's seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey where we don't have a specific date. Yes, the harvest part of it is likely to occur on Taruw'ah in 2029 but that truly is irrelevant. What's relevant is that we are Taruw'ah now; we are fulfilling Taruw'ah. Our exodus doesn't fulfill Taruw'ah. There is no benefit of openly condemning Judaism and Israeli politics and advocating the Towrah about us being swept off the planet. We are Taruw'ahing now. This is the fulfillment of it, and we have perhaps just seven years left to accomplish that mission.

So here is a recap of what we have been considering in the 12th chapter of Zakaryah. And remember now, every word of Zakaryah serves one purpose – to describe the events before, during and immediately after Yowm Kipurym because Yowm Kipurym is the single most important day not only annually with Yahowah but the fulfillment of it in year 6000 Yah is the single most important day in His entire existence. This is the day that He is reunited with His People, so the entire book is devoted to it.

And that's not uncommon. Yasha'yah is becoming a very simple book even though it is enormously long, and the vocabulary is the most complex read anywhere. The book of Yasha'yah is very much like Zakaryah. Yasha'yah means "Yahowah Saves", Zakaryah means "Remember Yah". The message of Yasha'yah is that religion sucks. God damn religion. "My People suck because they are religious, and I can't relate to them. I had to reject them and walk away from them. I couldn't find a single one of My People that I could work through because they all were either religious and political or both. Because of that I had to resort to working with a gowy. He's a gowy so I had to give him all seven spirits and make even a gowy functional." And from that point on it's all about three topics; what this gowy does to educate and awaken God's People, how unbelievably stubborn and counterproductive a huge percentage of God's People remain even until the end, and then finally Yahowah's return with Dowyd and how the day of return, Yowm Kipurym, is very much like the word that is used in conjunction with it, the verb 'anah. Yahowah's return is a celebration of 'anah because on the positive side for those who will listen to what God is trying to convey to you 'anah means "to reply, to answer". You are answering the Invitation that God has issued on this day. But 'anah also means "to afflict" and there's going to be an enormous amount of affliction. Every gowy that came to attack Israel is going to be destroyed and ___ the religious on the Earth. This is the 12th chapter:

"This is the prophetic pronouncement (masa') of Yahowah's (Yahowah) Word (dabar) concerning ('al) Yisra'el (Yisra'el): Yahowah (Yahowah), who spread out and curved (natah) the universe (shamaym), and established (yasad) the Earth ('erets), and who shaped the impulse for (yatsar) the Spirit (ruwach) inside (ba qereb) 'Adam | humankind ('adam), predicts (na'um), (Zakaryah 12:1) 'Behold (hineh), I am preserving (sym) Yaruwshalaim ('eth Yaruwshalaim) as the threshold and doorway (saph) of reeling and staggering intoxication (ra'al) for all of the surrounding people (la kol ha 'am sabyb) and also for those against (wa gam 'al) Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah).

This will exist during (hayah ba) the siege, the methodical confining and process of surrounding the city and blocking off access during this time of trouble (ha matsowr), against ('al) Yaruwshalaim | the Source of Instruction on Reconciliation (Yaruwshalaim). (Zakaryah 12:2)

It shall be (wa hayah) during this time (ba ha yowm ha huw') that I will cause (sym) Yaruwshalaim ('eth Yaruwshalaim) to be an immovable stone and difficult challenge ('eben ma'amasah) for all of these people (la kol ha 'am).

Everyone who attempts to move it (kol 'amas hy') will lacerate and impale themselves (sarat sarat). And yet (wa), gentiles from every ethnicity, nation, religion, and place on Earth (kol gowym ha 'erets) will gather against it ('asaph 'al hy'). (Zakaryah 12:3)

Sometimes we just can't seem to get out of our own way.

During that time (ba ha yowm ha huw'), Yahowah (Yahowah) declares prophetically (na'um), 'I will strike and destroy (nakah) every (kol) fast-moving and flying weapon of war (suws) by confusing (ba ha timahown) the drivers (wa rakab huw'), causing them to be irrational and erratic (shiga'own).

So for the sake of the House (wa 'al beyth) of Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah), I will keep My eyes open (paqach 'eth 'ayn 'any) and, therefore (wa) every one of these peoples' (kol ha 'am) fast-moving and flying weapons of war (suws) I will afflict (nakah) with the inability to see (ba ha 'iwrown). (Zakaryah 12:4)

Then the close friends and lovers (wa 'aluwph) of Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah) will use their best judgment (ba leb hem) to say ('amar), "For me (la 'any), those who live and remain in (yashab) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim) are supported and empowered, strengthened, equipped, and enabled ('amtsah) by (ba) Yahowah (Yahowah), their God ('elohym hem), and His conscripts who assist (tsaba')." (Zakaryah 12:5)

In that day (ba ha yowm ha huw'), I will cause (sym) the close friends, related family, and lovers ('eth 'aluwph) of Yahuwdah | the Beloved of Yah (Yahuwdah) to be like (ka) a flaming rostrum (kyowr 'esh) in the timbers (ba 'ets), and like a blazing torch (laphyd 'eth) among stalks of fallen grain (ba 'amyr).

And they will devour them (wa 'akal) to the right and to the left ('al yamyn wa 'al sama'owl), enveloping all of the surrounding armies and peoples ('eth kol ha 'am sabyb), while Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim) shall continue to be inhabited, now and forevermore (wa yashab 'owd), succeeding, with one thing logically following another, through time (tachath) all in (ba) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim).' (Zakaryah 12:6)

Yahowah (YaHoWaH) will rescue and deliver, save and protect (yasha'), Yahuwdah's (Yahuwdah) homes and households ('ohel) first and foremost, and in the initial phase (ba ha ri'shown), so that (la ma'an) the honor and glory (tiph'areth) of the House (beyth) of Dowyd (Dowyd) and the splendor (wa tiph'areth) of the inhabitants of (yashab) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim) are not surpassed by (lo' gadal) Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah). (Zakaryah 12:7)

On that day (ba ha yowm ha huw'), Yahowah (ﷲ) will defend (ganan) the inhabitants of (yashab) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim) and He will have their backs (ba'ad).

There's only one group of people being talked about here. God is coming back for His People, Yisra'el and Yahuwdah. You'll notice that there is only one God and His name sure as hell isn't Jesus Christ or Allah, who was modeled after Satan. He most certainly is not the "Founding Fathers of the United States of America", and He ain't a pope. His name is Yahowah, and you either know Him as Yahowah or you do not know Him. One of the impediments of the rabbis is that they will not speak, will not write or acknowledge Yahowah's name, and yet they claim to speak for a God whose name they despise.

On that day (ba ha yowm ha huw'), Yahowah (יְהוָה) will defend (ganan) the inhabitants of (yashab) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim) and have their backs (ba'ad).

So it will exist (wa hayah) that the wavering and weak-kneed (kashal) among them (ba hem) on that day (ba ha yowm ha huw') will be likened unto (ka) Dowyd (Dowyd), and the House of Dowyd (wa beyth Dowyd) will be like God (ka 'elohym), similar to a spiritual implement and heavenly messenger (ka mal'ak) of Yahowah (Yahowah) in their appearance (la paneh hem). (Zakaryah 12:8)

God is saying there are some tough-as-nails Israelis. There are some women who could kick my behind every way from the Shabat in the IDF, and I'm not going to kid you, the IDF has some tough soldiers. But for the most part the rabbinical types with the little curly ques have hands that tell you they have never done any work. Tel Aviv has the highest percentage of homosexuals anywhere in the world. I've got nothing against homosexuals, but most are not big, brawny dudes. God is saying that even the smallish, more feminine Yisra'elites as they exist today are going to be likened unto Dowyd. They are not going to be wishy washy; God likes strong men and women, who will stand up and be accountable, are not afraid to represent Him and to condemn those things which are opposed to His People. God prefers strength not weakness.

So it will exist (wa hayah) that the wavering and weak-kneed (kashal) among them (ba hem) on that day (ba ha yowm ha huw') will be likened unto (ka) Dowyd (Dowyd), and the House of Dowyd (wa beyth Dowyd) will be like God (ka 'elohym), similar to a spiritual implement and heavenly messenger (ka mal'ak) of Yahowah (Yahowah) in their appearance (la paneh hem). (Zakaryah 12:8)

'And it will come about (wa hayah) at that time (ba ha yowm ha huw') that I will seek to hold responsible and thus accountable, thereby choosing (baqash) to decimate and exterminate (la shamad), all of (kol) the Gentiles (ha gowym) who will have come against (ha bow' 'al) Yaruwshalaim | Source of Guidance on Reconciliation (Yaruwshalaim). (Zakaryah 12:9)

And I will pour out (wa shaphak) upon ('al – over) the House (beyth) of Dowyd (Dowyd), and on the inhabitants of ('al yashab) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim), the Spirit (ruwach) of genuine mercy, compassion, loyal love, and favorable acceptance (chen), pleading for clemency and forgiveness (tachanuwn).

So they will look (nabat) to Me ('el 'any) whom by association ('asher) they have pierced (daqar), and they will lament, being exceedingly emotional (wa saphad) over Him ('al huw') as one shrieks (ka mishped) when reunited with someone special, making the family whole ('al ha yachyd), anguished (wa marar) over him ('al huw') as one despairs (ka marar) over the firstborn ('al ha bakor). (Zakaryah 12:10)

At that time (ba ha yowm ha huw'), the shrieks and shouts (ha mishped) will be loud and mournful (gadal) in Yaruwshalaim (ba Yaruwshalaim), will be like (ka) the outcry (ha

misphe'd) of Hadad Rimown (Hadad Rimown) in the valley (baq'ah) of Megiddo | the gathering, invading, penetrating, and attacking of innumerable troops (Magidown). (Zakaryah 12:11)

Then the Land and Earth (ha 'erets) shall mourn (saphad), with the nations and races, political and religious groups (mishphachah mishphachah) by themselves, boasting about their false prophets (bad), the political and religious divisiveness along with the social and cultural institutions (mishphachah) of the House of Dowd, a.k.a., Yisra'el (beyth Dowyd), isolated and by themselves boasting regarding their religious leaders with undue confidence (bad), their women, ever prideful and mistaken, by themselves ('ishah hem la bad), the political and religious dissention and the discordant rhetoric (mishphachah) of the House of Nathan (beyth Nathan) by itself (la bad), and their women by themselves (wa 'ishah hem la bad), (Zakaryah 12:12) the divided loyalties and growing schism (mishphachah) of the House of Lowy (beyth Lowy), isolated by itself (la bad) along with their wives by themselves (wa 'ishah hem la bad), and also the disruptive and contentious prose (mishphachah) of the Shimi'y, the Benyamite of the House of Sha'uwl who threw rocks at Dowd (Shimi'y) separated and mistaken by themselves (la bad), along with their wives (wa 'ishah hem la bad).” (Zakaryah 12:13)

It's a time of great divisiveness; it is a time like none other. It's a last call. This time it's not a bar, it's the Door to Life and is the last time any Jew is going to hear God's voice calling out to them to come out of Babylon and to come home.

It's time to turn the page. I think there are five chapters in the Mow'ed volume ... Kipurym. You might ask why we would call this one of the top three best of the 21 books that we have rewritten. Because it was our coming out party in our overt condemnation of Judaism. It was gradually written into the rewrites, but it comes full flower here. Secondly, there are two days a year that are exceedingly important. Chag Matsah is the most important day for us because it is the day we are perfected by our God and can be adopted into His family. Kipurym is the most important day to Yahowah where He gets to reconcile His relationship with His wayward family. So this entire volume is incredibly meaningful to us because it's focused on the day that is the happiest day in all of Yahowah's history.

So this is Kipurym Chapter 4 in Volume Six, Mow'ed, Appointments Coming Home...

More than anything, Yahowah wants His people to know the truth. It is the only cure for what ails them and the only way to survive the onslaught which is headed their way. God is the only cure for the illness that really matters, religion, and the world is going to turn against His People, and God is the answer.

“During that day (ba ha yowm ha huw') there will be (hayah) a resource opened eliciting a response (maqowr patach – a fountain and wellspring which is released, flowing for all to hear and respond) for the House of Dowd (la beyth Dowyd – for a united Yisra'el representing the Family of the Beloved) and for the inhabitants of Yaruwshalaim (wa la yashab Yaruwshalaim) to reconcile having been misdirected and wrong (chata'ch – to purify those who had previously missed the way) and to purge detestable corruption (wa la nidah – to resolve being defiled and filthy because of being common and polluted, immoral, idolatrous, especially impure).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 13:1)

It is astonishing that Christians could carry this around in the book of Zakaryah and not figure out that it obviously Dowyd that is returning and that obviously Dowyd is the central figure in God's overall relationship with humankind means it's not 'Jesus' and that, obviously, 'Jesus' is not the King of Kings who is coming back, and there is no second coming of Jesus Christ. It always has been and always will be Dowyd. Here's the second to last of the Prophets and he's not fixated on Mosheh or Christianity. He's fixated on the House of Dowyd which is Yisra'el and this one individual man that represents the living embodiment of the Covenant. He is the expression of what the Towrah does for us. He is what God loves; he was passionate, articulate, brilliant, Towrah observant. He defended Yisra'el against all adversaries and wrote the most beautiful songs ever sung. This is God's man.

“During that day (ba ha yowm ha huw') there will be (hayah) a resource opened eliciting a response (maqowr patach – a fountain and wellspring which is released, flowing for all to hear and respond) for the House of Dowd (la beyth Dowyd – for a united Yisra'el representing the Family of the Beloved) and for the inhabitants of Yaruwshalaim (wa la yashab Yaruwshalaim) to reconcile having been misdirected and wrong (chata'ch – to purify those who had previously missed the way) and to purge detestable corruption (wa la nidah – to resolve being defiled and filthy because of being common and polluted, immoral, idolatrous, especially impure).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 13:1)

God is looking for Dowyd to come back to put himself in the position of the final harvest and to eradicate all those who would harm his people. Again, it is the ultimate fulfillment of Taruw'ah, and it is Dowyd that will be doing it.

Apologies are a good thing, I think. I've spent the last two years, and will spend another one, rewriting and correcting mistakes I had made in my initial writing of Yada Yah. The series when finished will have 27 books. I had been too Christian in my condemnation, and should not have been. I was too partial to Yahowsha' as the Passover Lamb, missing the fact that we shouldn't be celebrating his life at all but rather realize it's Dowyd that God cares about and celebrates that we can learn from and that's why I have rewritten the books, and it has turned out to be a blessing. The unified theme is gorgeous. Leah was right. We are much better off with a consistent theme all the way through, and the entire physical presentation of each volume is well done. The insights are so profound, and the translations are so much better. I'm not tooting my horn. I'm tooting Yahowah's, it's an astonishing piece of work. Correcting my mistakes has turned out to be perhaps the most rewarding thing the Team and I have ever done and Yahowah is very happy. Together we have done well for His People and for Him.

Happy Shabat. For those who were offended by my critique of rabbis and Judaism, I would encourage you to read the three volumes on the Miqra'ey, the Harvest, and Appointments followed by An Introduction to God 1 and 2. I don't think it's possible to defend Rabbinic Judaism after you've read these. With that note, let the facts fall where they may. I'm going to be with Yahowah. I hope you will be too. Happy Shabat to one and all. Good night.

During that time (ba ha yowm ha huw'), Yahowah (Yahowah) declares prophetically (na'um), 'I will strike and destroy (nakah) every (kol) fast-moving and flying weapon of war (suws) by confusing (ba ha timahown) the drivers (wa rakab huw'), causing them to be irrational and erratic (shiga'own).
