Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by ()? A ____ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Welcome to Yada Yah, it's my pleasure being with you this beautiful Shabat evening. We have Kirk with us from the People's Republic of California. We are broadcasting from the middle of the Caribbean Sea on a little island that is part of the Virgin Islands.

I have one news item that I would like to cover; we mentioned it briefly last week. The United States is just beside itself trying to flex itself justifying NATO, play international cowboy, judge and jury regarding the Ukraine. I had originally thought that Russia would coordinate its invasion of the Ukraine with China's capture of Taiwan. What I shared with you may not be popular with many Americans, but my view is that the capture of Taiwan by China will be an exceedingly dark day in the long history of humanity. The Taiwanese deserve their freedom, and the Communist China is a despicable nation. So that part saddens me, but I think it is inevitable and I don't think there's anything the world can or will do to stop it.

I have a very different view on the Ukraine. I think the United States did something horrific when we undermined the freely elected government and started the riot that led to the fall of that government, through our meddling, and then decided that rather than having Russia prop up the Ukrainian economy, that America would do it through the international monetary fund which means that we have now lost billions upon billions of dollars.

The Ukraine is one of my least favorite places on earth. Maybe second only to Nazi Germany the Ukraine was the place of greater abuse of Jews than any place on earth. They were abusing Jews in their pogroms long before the Nazis came into power, and once they did it became a killing field. So I have no respect for the Ukraine, nor do I have respect for it being an honorable government worthy of anyone's support. It is as corrupt as any nation on earth. I'm disgusted by the fact that the United States has used our overturning of the popular-elected government of the Ukraine to justify the existence of NATO, which is something when this occurred, I was very outspoken in saying, "This is what's happening. Don't believe what you're reading in the news." And I'm disgusted by that because there is no purpose for NATO, and it is NATO that is going to be principally responsible for World War III.

I was having trouble seeing how a world having barely survived World War II would find itself in World War III, but the answer is World War I. In WWI it was the treaties between nations that turned a nonevent into a world war, one in which the nations deployed the most heinous of chemical weapons. In this case it's going to be treaties between nations, NATO in particular that is going to cause World War III. Russia doesn't want to invade the Ukraine, they don't want the Ukraine any more than any sane person would, but they do not want NATO on their southern and western borders not only in control of their pipeline of natural gas to Europe but to also have NATO missiles and military presence there. This is much more serious for Russian survival than were missiles in Cuba back in 1962.

If you want to understand Russia's position on the Ukraine, all you need do is turn back the clock to 1962 and consider what American's position was when Russia brought missiles into Cuba. The deal we made with Russia at the time was that if they removed their nuclear missiles from Cuba, we pledged never to invade Cuba. Russia is looking for the same thing and for the same reason Remove the NATO military support and hardware, don't allow the Ukraine to become part of NATO, and all will be fine; that's all they are looking for. But the United States is belligerent, and if there is war, it's because the United States caused it because the United States is not willing to forego either of those two sensible things, and we're trying desperately to get the rest of the world to fan the flames of war threatening Putin, threatening Russia like we're scolding a child. Ultimately when you push people into those positions where you do not respect superpowers bad things happen. Universally the media is so stupid in our country they are not willing to tell you why we should not be supporting the Ukraine and why the Ukraine situation is no different than 1962 in Cuba. That's the truth and because of our belligerence we are putting the world at risk of world war.

I had thought that Russia would invade the Ukraine because America gives Russia no choice simultaneously with China trying to occupy Taiwan because the world can't deal with both those problems. Economically the West would collapse. Right now there is no chance that Taiwan is going to be invaded by China in a matter of weeks prior to the Winter Olympics in Beijing. So we most certainly have three if not four weeks to resolve these issues because I think they would be done as a joint event because then the world is not able to marshal its sanctions and the like against both countries at the same time.

I can tell you that America has essentially killed itself. The lockdowns and deprivations of livelihoods from our COVID 19 response was even more counterproductive than I had previously shared with you. Without admitting it, it's now common knowledge.

My wife told me this morning that the RO on Omicron has reached 4 which means for every person that contracts it they share it with four more, and since the incubation period is two days, that one person becomes 16 four days later and then becomes 64 immediately after that. It is why my conclusion has been that the reported numbers which were at one time a million a day contracting Omicron in the United States was actually __ times higher than that number and that collectively across America we have probably neared, if not reached, herd immunity. Viruses are funny things in the way that they mutate to survive. There are so many different variations already of Omicron and Delta that what we do not know is that whether or not the natural immunity from Omicron will be better than the vaccine immunity which kept most Omicron victims, such as myself, out of the hospital. I was triple vaccinated, I got Omicron; five days later other than a slow processor I was fine. My wife, not so good. She has related problems that COVID has aggravated. While the first vaccine was marginally effective, the second vaccine was exceedingly effective for five to six months, and the booster for only ten weeks. The booster's booster, they are thinking, may be only four to six weeks. So we cannot vaccinate our way out of this, and herd immunity seems to be now the only option, and all means of trying to prevent people from getting it have become futile. So now we're strictly at the mercy of whether or not this vaccine will outsmart us and come up with a variation that breaks through the natural immunity from those who have had it. But I can tell you we are not through with pandemics. The greatest pandemic the world has ever known is religion, Christianity in particular, which is the plague of death.

I would like to say something about Christianity, something I've written a lot about recently and that I think is helpful for particularly our Jewish friends to hear. I think in social media the word went out to the Jewish communities in Ft. Lauderdale and Miami. Thank you, Dee, Leah and Jacki, for the work you are doing in that area. Christianity exists because of rabbis. The greatest plague the Jewish people would ever know is a direct function of rabbinical malfeasance. I've shared before, and have been called an anti-Semite for this. I'm the opposite of an anti-Semite because I love the shem/name of Yahowah and of His people Yahuwdaym as much if not more than any person on planet Earth. I shared that if it had not been for rabbis, Islam would not exist. That rabbis in what we believe was Yathrib, sold Talmud stories to Mohammad. He ran out of material, bought the Talmud stories from the rabbis, then twisted and bastardized them to serve his purpose and gave the Qur'an an air of legitimacy and authenticity just as Paul misquoted the Towrah and Prophets to give his books this veneer of authenticity they would have never otherwise had. Had rabbis not done is, Islam would have been stillborn. It's interesting to note it would not have been stillborn in Mecca because we now have absolute proof that Mecca was not the birthplace of Mohammad (Yathrib was Mohammad's birthplace) and it was not the town of the Kaaba. Islam was not conceived in Mecca. We have absolute proof of where in Jordan where the Kaaba was conceived and know exactly how early Muslims had the one mention of Mecca rewritten in the Qur'an to create what is a tragic deception on behalf of Muslims.

Let's turn to Christianity. While Islam is a plague on Jews and it's a plague that only exists because rabbis sold Talmud stories to Mohammad and otherwise would not exist or have any credibility, there's a little different twist as to why Christianity arose in the midst of Yaruwshaliam because rabbis were blinded to the hundreds if not thousands of prophecies about Dowd being the Messiah and the Son of God and of his impending return. Because rabbis either through ignorance or deliberately elected to diminish the accolades according to Dowd, and the promises Yahowah made to him, it was possible for Paul and early Christians to pull off phases one and two of Replacement Theology. They would claim that Jesus was the Son of God when in fact the Son of God is Dowd. Full stop. The only person that Yahowah says, "He is My son. I am His father," is Dowd. All the rabbis had to say is, "Why are you talking about this Jesus as the son of God? Dowd is the son of God." When the religion of Christianity which is based upon "Christo" ascribed the "Christo" Messianic title to their "Jesus" all rabbis had to say was, "The Messiah is Dowd; he was anointed as the Messiah three times. He is the returning Messiah." There is nothing in this life of Yahowsha' who you are now calling "Jesus" that pertains to the Mashyach. Every Mashyach prophecy speaks of Dowd being a great governmental leader, a great fighter on behalf of his people. Everything you are claiming here applies to Dowd. If you read any one of these prophecies there's only one name mentioned and that is Dowd, never Yahowsha', much less Jesus. Had the rabbis correctly recognized that Yahowsha' was the Passover Lamb, Christianity would have never existed. Because of rabbinical malfeasance Christianity became the greatest menace in the history of the Jewish people. Imperial Rome and then the Roman Catholic Church would hunt down and terrorize Jews, and ultimately mass-murder them all because of the ignorance of the rabbis. So sometimes we have to expose and condemn the people who are to blame for the conditions we witness in the world today. Yes, it's a shame that today two and half billion people are misled by Christianity because the rabbis failed their responsibilities, that rabbis in a get-rich-quick scheme that turned against them made Islam possible and that we have 1.5 billion Muslims wanting to wipe out every Jew on Earth. But let's let blame lay where blame belongs so that the Chosen People can finally separate themselves from these disgusting individuals.

If you think I'm being too harsh and that we should all respect the religious, that the rabbis are speaking on behalf of God and they are "torah observant", I got news for you. God begs to differ. The Towrah and Prophets are clear. God despises all religious influence, particularly among Jews, and He is vociferous about it. Jews are not Towrah observant, they are Talmud observant.

God is also clear that the Jews are His Chosen People. Christianity attempted to misappropriate Dowd by stealing the titles that God had given him, Son of God, King of Kings, Messiah, and give them to this artificial construct they had created out of the Dionysian myths, "Jesu"s, to give him the veneer of credibility that would cause people to worship the Passover Lamb. But because Dowd also represents Yisra'el, the reason we find so many antagonizing and anguishing stories in his life is because he not only represents the Son of God, he represents Yisra'el. After stealing the titles and promises that God afforded Dowd, the Christian Church would steal all the promises offered to Yisra'el.

As I'm translating the 119th Psalm, the most repeated theme is God and Dowd lamenting, hating what Christianity has done and what Jews have allowed to be done to Dowd and Yisra'el by the misappropriation of the promises that God has made to His people.

With those things said, I'd like to return to where we were in Zakaryah. Zakaryah, from beginning to end, exists to explain what is going to occur leading up to and immediately after the fulfillment of Kipurym, which is the Day of Reconciliations and is the day that Yahowah is returning with Dowd as the Mashyach, literally a resurrection of Dowd. So yes, there is a second coming, yes there is a resurrection, yes there is a Son of God and a Messiah, and all these things coalesce in Dowd and he is returning with Yahowah on the Day of Reconciliations, Yowm Kipurym in 6000 Yah which is October 2, 2033, on our Roman pagan calendars, at sunset which is 6:22 pm in Yaruwshaliam.

During the five days between the return and the celebration of Sukah, which will commence on a natural Shabat and be a celebration of the Shabat for a thousand years. The Earth will be transformed to the conditions that existed in Eden, which is why we are told the story of Eden. We are returning there although there won't be many of us. Just as there were no negative influences in Eden, they were all kept at bay outside the walls, the same thing is going to be true as Yahowah transforms His Land and much of the earth into conditions we found in Eden where there will be no religion, politics, militaries, no police or judicial systems but instead just us with the luxury of camping out directly with Yahowah.

Make no mistake. While Yahowah is disgusted by Judaism and by the politics of Israel and even more disgusted with Christianity and Islam and the politics of the gowy. As a father sometimes my sons have done some things that have been very disappointing and hurtful. You don't stop loving them, and that's the same with Yahowah and the Children of Yisra'el.

As man's sixth millennia comes to a chaotic close, there will be war and pandemics. When we talk about war we're talking about nuclear war. There will be enormous natural disasters; an asteroid strike, and a likelihood of major tsunamis. There will be a climate change where the sun is going to go through a very rough period for us. It's going to be hellish on this planet. Most of the pain will be inflicted by man. We are going to reach a period when there will be no indecision. I think during that last three years from the time that 'Elyah returns as one of the witnesses on Pesach in 2030 to the time that Yahowah returns with Dowd in October of 2033, that's the time of no indecision. You're going to be deemed as either with God or against Him. God has got to bring everything to a close, and I don't think He is going to see anybody as neutral. Those who remain will either be with God or against Him. Those who oppose Yahowah will be brought to Jerusalem for a rendezvous with their Maker. And they will provide evidence against themselves right to the bitter end.

“I will gather (wa 'asap – I will assemble) all ('eth kol) of the people from different races and places (gowym – of the foreign nations opposed to Yisra'el) to ('el) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim) for the war (la ha milchamah – to form the battle lines and wage war).

The city (ha 'iyir) will be seized (lakad – will be taken by force and captured). And the families and their houses (wa beyth – the homes and households) will be plundered (shasas – will be raided and ransacked, pillaged and looted) and the women (wa ha 'ishah – wives and mothers) will be raped (shakab – ravished).

Half (chatsy) of the population of the city (ha 'iyir) shall leave (yatsa') as exiles (ba ha gowlah), but the remainder (wa yether – however the remnant) of the people (ha 'am – of the family) will not be cut off or banished (lo' karat – will not be uprooted) from (min) the city (ha 'iyir).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:2)

What is so very sad about this is that as the world is becoming more and more inhospitable towards Jews, most of it no fault of the Jews, although I think the rabbis have contributed to the stereo-type that has become the fuel to the conspiracy theories and I think that progressive Jews have done their ethnicity and their nation of Yisra'el an enormous disservice, so both from the far left and the far right Jews have been counterproductive to their interest. The fact that for the average Jewish family that is cultural and secular, not overtly political or religious, the world is closing in on them and it's going to be more and more difficult to survive. The one place that will be sort of hospitable is Israel. I say sort of hospitable because the rabbis still have too much control over immigration into Israel and that makes it less hospitable. Jews are not good at creating value. Israel is among the most difficult and expensive places on Earth to live. There are problems within the bureaucracy; it is nation without a constitution, a nation that is trying to divide power between an exceedingly misguided and counterproductive religion and politics that is unfortunately in the Parliamentary system which is exceedingly subjective to compromise and bribes. So it's a country fractured. And yet that's going to be the only place where Jews have a chance to survive and even there, God is saying there will be war, most of the households will be affected, and many of the women will be raped.

You might say why would God allow it to go that far? The answer is that it's the most compassionate thing to do. God isn't encouraging the women or making them available to be raped, but He's not going to initially intervene to stop them from being raped either; He didn't intervene to stop the Holocaust. Why is God Who is going to intervene at this time, waiting though for the militarism of the jihadists to be so belligerent and hostile to His people?

KIRK: I've got a couple thoughts on it. I was feeling really bad about this when I first went over it because I probably spent more time on this verse than any in the chapter, and it's obvious what He thinks of not only the gowy but of what He thinks of people that act like the gowy, which are His Children. Every time they have been really religious and political, just like the gowy, and this is what this is about, He tells them you can't live this way in My house and My home.

YADA: Israel is trying to improve their situation with Russia, they are doing all sorts of deals with China. I think ... trading partner. I think Russia's the third largest trading partner, the Ukraine is among the top ten of their trading partners, they are trying to negotiate deals with Turkey and Saudi Arabia which is the homeland of where Muslims are trained to hate Jews. So politically they are doing a lot of stupid stuff by allowing a third of the population to be religious all day and not support the country with either jobs, productivity, taxes, or serving in the nation's defense. Politically they are reaching out and looking for love in all the wrong places, they are not willing to be aggressive in telling the world "There is no such thing as a Palestinian, there's no such place as Palestine, the two-state solution is absolute rubbish, the truth is this is our homeland, period, end of story. When we are here, we have created the most freedom and the most upward mobility for Muslims anywhere in the world, and they have chosen to terrorize us. When we gave them land as we did with Gaza, look what happened. It's not our problem, it's yours. You are misled." I don't know why there aren't any Jewish leaders making these claims, but it's straight on fact.

God is saying to His people that when the rabbis butchered the stories through the Prophets and allowed Christianity to form in Rome and through Roman Catholicism, look what happened to you in 133. This is what you brought upon yourself, and yet rather than say we did this to ourselves, we failed to identify the real Messiah, we failed to identify the Passover Lamb and then we foisted a false messiah on the people and brought the wrath of Rome upon us causing us to be killed en masse, enslaved and the beginning of the Diaspora, we turned to the very guy that was the most belligerent and the most errant, and made him the father of our religion. Here they were bludgeoned and rather than returning to Yahowah they went further astray. The same thing happened during the torments in the pogroms that preceded the rise of Nazi Germany and the concentration camps, and it became worse during the Holocaust. And even now there isn't any reference to Yahowah or Yahowsha' as the Passover Lamb in Israel. There's no acknowledgement that Dowd is the Messiah, the Son of God and that he is returning, and we don't have a lot of years left before the fulfillment of these promises in 2033; let's get our act together. Why don't we start celebrating Pesach as God intended and actually put Matsah on the calendar and understand what Bikuwrym represents and celebrate the empowerment of Shabuw'ah so that rather than celebrating a Babylonian new year we can proclaim the truth to our people on Taruw'ah and be prepared to be reconciled to God as opposed to afflicting ourselves on Kipurym so then maybe we get to be part of the remnant that gets to camp out with Yahowah?

So the answer to that question is that until these stubborn and hard-headed people are put in a position where it's obvious they need to abandon their politicians and rabbis and once they have rejected Judaism and all of the 14,000 political parties in Israel that comprise their parliamentary system and they turn to the actual Towrah and Prophets and begin to understand what Yahowah said and accept Yahowah by name, accept the five conditions of the Covenant and embrace the Invitations to Meet with God and it's only through absolute desperation that combined with a clear and unequivocal and compelling presentation of Yahowah's position, particularly on the cusp of Kipurym, there has never been a time that it was more important to explain the book of Zakaryah than right now. This is the text that calls the Chosen People home. This and a huge portion of the 119th Psalm is specific to righting the wrong that I began this program describing of how rabbis enabled Islam and Judaism by misappropriating the promises that God had made to Dowd and how that will finally be resolved in favor of Dowd and his people. This is the message that will finally resonate when there's no hope.

Last week we talked at length about how a Talmud-toting Orthodox Jew was spending his life trying to discredit me on social media. I said it was exactly as I expected. If they didn't recognize Dowd, if they don't recognize what the Prophets are saying, if they have no idea of who Yahowah is, if they don't understand how to celebrate the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey, if they don't understand the terms and conditions of the Covenant, they are certainly not going to like what I have to say. So we're expecting them to do exactly this and the more attention that the defenders of Islam pay to what we're doing, the better because they will bring it to the attention of Jews who actually aren't under the spell of Judaism and they will realize that Yahowah's presentation is compelling, inviting, liberating, credible, consistent, and that the rabbinical arguments against it are as ludicrous as is the entirety of their religion itself. Until this remnant of Yisra'el sees that they need to abandon these numbskulls and trust Yahowah instead, what I think is likely, read Yada Yahowah because I think it will be right to the very end the most complete, accurate and clearly presented presentation of who Yahowah is, what He's offering, what He expects in return, as well as how the events will play out that leads to this moment in time.

KIRK: In that first sentence He sets up to the end of this chapter. If you'll read through it, He describes, if you look up gowy, pictographically he's walking away from being increased and lifted up by Yahowah.

YADA: Yes. Yahowah is saying ... gowym in plural would be to walk away. The gimel is the foot walking in the wrong direction from the wah, which is to be secured, empowered and connected to ... the yod is Yahowah's hand reaching down for us, and the mem is Yahowah's Spirit. So it's walking away from being increased and secured by Yahowah's hand and His Spirit. That is the essence of the preponderance of gowy. That doesn't mean that every gowy is counterproductive, but most are and God's going to hold them accountable for what gowy have done to the Children of Yisra'el.

KIRK: I was saddened when I got down to the word yatsa' which pictographically and otherwise is describing the people as being exiled, which are excrement and need to be flushed out. Gowlah is to cover up and remove the dead carcasses, so I was really depressed by that time.

YADA: Yatsa' is the term Yahowah uses to describe the exodus. Exodus is a derivation of a great term that has been ... into Latin and becomes "exodus". God's term is actually yatsa'. The term that follows yatsa', which is gowlah, is not a happy word. Gowlah and gowym are related words. Most people don't know that the secondary definition of gowy is "corpse". The terms I've used a number of times is "zombie" which is a ... man or woman walking is a gowy – "a zombie, a living corpse".

YADA: Half (chatsy) of the population of the city (ha 'iy) shall leave (yatsa') as exiles (ba ha gowlah), but the remainder (wa yether – however the remnant) of the people (ha 'am – of the family) will not be cut off or banished (lo' karat – will not be uprooted) from (min) the city (ha 'iy)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:2)

So the half that does not leave, that remainder. I am of the conclusion that there is going to be a very vibrant community by this time of Covenant members in Yaruwshalaim and Yisra'el. The ones who are fleeing are not Covenant members because they are going to be scared to death and will be saying, "We're out of here." But "out of here" in every direction is right into the teeth of the menacing gowym armies. He's saying the remainder are not the ones who said, "I'm out of here." The remainder are the ones who stayed and are going to be cut into the Covenant, not cut out of it. So I think the remainder are children of the Covenant. And as children of the Covenant, they are not among those who are raped and plundered because God is protecting them.

I think most of this is good news. Keep in mind that the places where God says that two thirds of the children of Yisra'el are going to die as we approach His return in 2033, for this to be half the City of Yaruwshaliam, that's actually a better fate than Yisra'el as a whole, but I think at this point we're at a very late date and well into the early months of 2033.

Yahowah is telling us that, during the final battle, Jerusalem will endure everything that Satan's advocates and man's stooges can throw at her, but that a significant remnant of Yahuwzym will hold out and endure, half of those in the City of Jerusalem. This will be a hellish time. The final crucible of the Time of Ya'aqob's Troubles.

To retain the proper perspective on all of this, the lives of Covenant members taken on this day, should they be among those who are ravaged, and I don't think they will be, will be revived on the next day. There will be no memory of the abuse, and the property seized will be immediately restored. I think God is going to allow the attack on Yisra'el to proceed to the point that it has the maximum possible influence on the surviving remnant of Yisra'el so that the maximum number of people come to know and accept Him because they have to do something that Jews have not done since the time of Dowd. It's been 3,000 years since Jews have openly acknowledged Yahowah's name. And so long as there is rabbinical influence in the land, so long as there are politicians coddling the rabbis there will be no significant pronouncement of Yahowah's name. It is still the greatest obstacle precluding Jews from returning to Yahowah's Beloved/Yahuwdym. And for those who are victimized who are not Covenant, there will only be fleeting moments left of their lives. Therefore, what this is showing is that Yahowah knows that there will be men and women who will all be destroyed without His intervention. He knows this is the time He must act for the maximum benefit of His people.

“Then Yahowah (יְהוָה) – the pronunciation of YaHoWaH as guided by His towrah – teaching) will come forth to serve (yatsa' – will extend Himself, descend, and arrive) and He will oppose (wa lacham – He will attack, showing hostility while fighting against) the Gentiles (ba ha gowym – foreign nations and people from different races and places).

This statement, and the previous one, means that Paul lied when he promoted the notion that because Jews allegedly schemed to kill their god, that God had decided that Jews were no longer deserving of Heaven and would be excluded from Heaven, and that all promises made to Jews and to Yisra'el would be transferred to the Gentile church. Not only would that make God a liar, not only is there no statement that says that anywhere (it is a bold-faced lie) there are hundreds upon hundreds of statements like this where it says that Yahowah is returning (not Jesus), and where it says His opponents are the Gowym that were the ones who claimed the promises of the Jews. This means that God is not only returning to oppose the Gentiles He is returning to oppose Christianity, Islam, Communists, and Secular Humanists to protect His people.

For them (ha hem) it will be like a day (ka yowm) he engages in battle, fighting a hostile force (lacham huw' – of him being attacked) during a time of war (ba yowm qerab).”
(Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:3)

Yahowah is not coming back as the Jesus god with open arms that wants all the little children to come to him. No. While Yahowah is going to lovingly embrace His children on the Day of Reconciliations, for that to occur He is going to eliminate most Gentiles, and is going to obliterate Christianity, Islam, Social Secular Humanism, Communism, Progressivism, Wokeism, Hinduism, and the like. For them it will be like a day He engages in battle fighting a hostile force during a time of war.

I can't imagine we puny old men with all our pathetic weapons coming up against Almighty God who had the power to create the Universe. Me thinks that the Author of Life and the Creator of the Universe is no match for everything man can wield. This is a losing battle. You are highly advised to disassociate from Christianity, Islam, Communism, Social Secular Humanism, and Judaism so that you're not among those that God is going to fight against and destroy on this day.

God isn't going to fight in a manner that man is accustomed to; He's not going to fight a tank with a tank or a nuclear bomb with another nuclear bomb. He's not going to fight bullets with bullets, swords with swords, or stones with stones. God is simply going to incinerate everyone who has come against His people; it will be instant obliteration. For those who say being instantly gone isn't bad, they can continue to be stupid right to the very end. Be careful about that because while the body of all those who have come against Yisra'el, all the Gowym, will be destroyed, their souls will not, and there will be a time of judgment and recompense. If you have been deemed opposed to Israel, to Yahuw'dym and opposed to Yahowah, you are going to spend eternity in She'owl. So the very best that anyone can expect at this time who is not Covenant is to have their soul destroyed along with their body. That's the best you can hope for, and towards the end I don't even know if that's going to be possible.

So I would ask, how is it that Paul and pals managed to convince billions of gentiles that they replaced Jews when they carry around prophecies, like this one, which reveal that Yahowah is fighting the gowym on behalf of the Yahuw'dym and they carry it around in their God-forsaken Bibles? Did Paul just prey on the universal ignorance of gowym expecting that once the religion he conceived was imposed that he would ultimately silence reason? Because that's what happened.

How is that so many people have been duped into believing that "Jesus" is returning when the inspired text reads "Yahowah"? They have this all wrong, presenting statues and images of their man god descending with flowing robes and open arms when, He's not just fighting them, He's obliterating them. They are even clueless to the fact that this will be occurring on Yowm Kipurym in the year 6000 Yah. Jews don't recognize it. Muslims don't recognize it ... not a clue. It's so obvious when He's returning. This entire text is about His returning on Yowm Kipurym, and the prophecies are ___ Dowd returning on this day and what they intend to accomplish.

That said, there is not a single rabbi who knows when Yahowah is returning, nor is there a single rabbi one who would recognize Him. They remain oblivious to the fact that Yahowah despises all of them.

“On that specific day, His day (Yowm Kipurym, the Day of Reconciliations) (ba ha yowm ha huw), He will be present, His feet standing ('amad regel huw' – He will take a stand, setting foot) upon the Mount ('al har) of Olives (ha Zayth)

So who is returning to the Mount of Olives? It sure as hell isn't "Jesus". The Passover Lamb doesn't come back to life. Yahowah, His feet standing on the Mount of Olives. Why?

which, for the benefit of the relationship ('asher), faces ('al paneh) Yaruwshalaim (Yaruwshalaim – the Source of Guidance on Reconciliation) on the east (min qedem – toward the sunrise forevermore).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:4)

I've been there standing on the Mount of Olives overlooking the disgusting Islamic shrines on the Temple Mount and the disgusting Islamic graves outside the eastern gate, Muslims wanting to be buried there so that when the Messiah arrives, they want to be there to fight him off so he can't come into the gate. All those graves will be pulverized, the Al-Aqsa Mosque will be obliterated, and the Dome of the Rock will finally be gone. All the synagogues will be gone and all of the Christian cathedrals and churches.

All the Temple Mount will be returned to something glorious. There will be this wonderful waterway that will flow right through the Mount of Olives into the Dead Sea turning it back into life on one side and on the other into the Mediterranean. Dowd's home will be reestablished on the southern flank of the ridgeline of Mount Mowryah, of Tsyown, and up the hill across the Bridge of Light, Yahowah's home for His Covenant family will be erected of which we will have the opportunity to work, should we choose, contributing to the building of our family home. And Yahowah will be there to oversee it all. This is the most marvelous time in Yahowah's entire existence which is been an eternity. He is returning with His favorite person, Dowd. He's embracing His wayward children who have returned to Him recognizing Him by name, and they love Him. He has eliminated and wiped out every irritant and foe of His people. There is no better time than moments after His return, there is no worse time than moments before His return. Think about it. The single worst moment in all human history will be moments before the return of Yahowah. The most glorious for God and man will be a second after His return.

Yahowah's consistent use of "on this day" or, more literally, "in this specific day, His day," and sometimes as "during this essential and corporeal day" throughout the prophecies regarding His return to His people in Yaruwshalaim is significant because there is only one event on His calendar referred to as a "Yowm Kipurym | Day of Reconciliations." This is not a coincidence.

It is about a thousand paces for an ordinary man to walk from the Mount of Olives to the Temple Mount and about twice that far to Golgotha and the original summit of Mowryah. The Mount of Olives lies due east of the intersection between the site of the original temple and the City of Dowd.

The earthquake which occurs as a result of energy unleashed by Yahowah's presence will create a fissure running east to west, all the way from Sea to Sea, from the northern extremity of the Dead Sea to the eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea. A number of hideous structures will be devoured within this rift. This is again the instant that Yowm Kipurym is fulfilled as we're told through Zakaryah 14:4.

"Then (wa) the Mount of Olives (har ha Zayth) will split into two (baqa' – will be divided) down the middle (chatsy huw' – in half) from (min) the east (mizrach – from the direction of the sunrise) and to the west (wa yam – to the Sea).

A great valley (gay' gadowl – a large and important) resulting from the tremendous force (ma'od – releasing enormous energy) will move (muwsh) half (chatsy) of the mountain (ha har) northward to conceal (tsaphown – to the north to hide what has been esteemed) and half of it to the south, toward the Negeb (wa chatsy huw' negeb)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:4)

I took the time to look up what a rift running from the Mount of Olives through Mowryah and then to the Sea would devour. Here's a partial list. At the very least, the resulting valley would devour the Chapel of the Ascension, the Mount of Olives Ascension Monastery, the Pater Noster Church and Monastery, the Dominus Flevit Church, the Church of Mary Magdalene, Absalom's Tomb, El Marwani Mosque, Al-Aqsa Mosque and the original Masjid Al Aqsa, the Islamic trophy known as the Dome of the Rock, a marble orchard of Muslim graves, the Tomb of the Virgin, the Western Wall, the Christian Information Center, the Hurva Synagogue, St James Cathedral, the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Via Dolorosa, Mosque of Omar ibn al-Khattab, St. Anne's Church, El-Hamra Mosque, Les Soeurs Sion Monastery, Makki, St Mark's Church, Saint Savior Monastery, Holy Joseph Abby, and much of Sultan Suleiman Street. Let's call it "Urban Renewal."

The resulting valley will likely be narrowest near the epicenter and then radiate out to the north and south as it travels east and west. Tsaphown, which is the word depicting the northward movement, reveals that its purpose will be to conceal the religious rubbish man has wrongly esteemed. South is from negeb, which suggests that by the time the valley reaches the sea it will devour Gaza. Yahowah will be ushering in a lasting peace with a One-State Solution.

"Flee (nuws – withdraw and escape) to the valley (gay) of My Mountain (har 'any) because (ky) the gorge (gay) will reach (naga' – will make contact with and level) the mountains (harym) of 'Atsal | Being Withdrawn and Separated so as to be Beside and Near ('el 'Atsal – of being set apart and joined unto).

You should withdraw (nuws – you should escape to safety) in the beneficial manner (ka 'asher) you escaped (nuws – you withdrew) from the presence (min paneh) of the earthquake (ra'ash) in (ba) the days (yowm) of King (melek) 'Uzyah ('Uzyah – Yah is Mighty, transliterated Uzziah) of Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah – Beloved of Yah and Related to Yah)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:5)

When Yahowah speaks of "My Mountain" there are two, one of which is near the Mount of Olives – Mount Mowryah – the site of the Temple and City of Dowd. And while 'Atsal is self-explanatory, the most credible study of its location was advanced by the 1984 geological study conducted by Daniel Wachs and Dov Levitte. They located a large landslide that had been the aftermath of an earthquake on the Mount of Olives directly adjacent to the Wady 'Atsal. This area had formerly been the King's Garden. It is located at the juncture of the Hinnom and Kidron Valleys.

The Kidron Valley runs north, separating the Mount of Olives from the City of Dowd. It intersects with the Hinnom Valley just below Dowd's City. This is the same site affirmed in Titus Flavius Josephus' account of an earthquake causing a landslide during King Uzziah's reign blocking the King's Gardens in the valley.

Understand no one is leaving Yaruwshalaim at this point. This place that he's talking about is in the center of Yaruwshalaim and it is even closer to the spot where Yahowah is actually returning.

Beyond 'Atsal meaning "to be withdrawn and separated to become beside and near," this location at the southern tip of Tsyown would confirm the obvious: the remnant in Yaruwshalaim is being invited to withdraw from the carnage by ascending the Mountain of God through the Home of Dowd to the Home of Yahowah on the summit of Mowryah. They aren't fleeing any place; they are coming home.

Since Yahowah mentioned him, 'Uzyah | Uziah | Strength of Yah was king of Yahuwdah from 790 to 740 BCE, 200 – 250 years after Dowd. He inherited the throne when he was only sixteen and died a leper for having violated Yahowah's instructions. Serving during the time of the prophets, Yasha'yah and Howsha', he fortified the Valley Gate, which is pertinent to this discussion. Gay', translated "valley," is based upon gewah, meaning "to lift up," but it also serves as the name of the "Valley Gate."

Upon 'Uzyah's death, Yasha'yah witnessed a vision in which he saw Yahowah sitting on a throne with the train of His robe filling the Temple / His Home – a vision of this very day. (Yasha'yah 6) It is germane to this story because it suggests that the prophet's words would begin to resonate with his people in advance of this day. It is Yasha'yah's words, combined with Dowd's Mizmowr, that are ultimately going to be the catalyst for the Chosen People to come home.

I wrote in the chat room before the beginning of this program, "Here's kind of where we stand. You go to the Yada Yahowah site what you'll see is that Jacki and Dowd/David have cleaned up the bookshelves considerably. We renamed some of the volumes to a single-word name so it's superior in that point of view. In fact the cover of Volume 3 the word T-o-r-a-h is going to be spelled the way Jews are accustomed to seeing it.

We also have to combat the likes of some of the most disgusting people on Earth, the Black Hebrew Roots Movement, the black Yisra'elites who are like a lot of the conspiratorial nut cases, they garner credibility by usurping the transliterations that I've come up with, for Yahowah's name for example, and my translations to draw in an audience and then take advantage of them. On the site what was "Contact Us" it's now "About Us" and after presenting who I am and how I came into this responsibility, it has a copyright statement which clearly articulates who we are not associated with and who has no right to use this material. So the site is cleaned up and significantly better.

What I said in the introduction to the show is that after I complete the 119th Mizmowr, David is going to present it under the Towrah Volume in An Introduction to God. It's worth doing because the 119th Mizmowr isn't just a celebration of the Towrah, it's a celebration of Dowd's life and what Dowd means to us, to the Chosen People, to Yahowah and what role He plays in the separation of God's People from Him and also in their return to Him.

Upon 'Uzyah's death, Yasha'yah witnessed Yahowah's return. He saw a vision of this day. Even the earthquake referenced here is connected to 'Uzyah in Amos 1:1, although it is more completely developed in Yasha'yah | Isaiah 13, which is a parallel presentation to what we are currently considering. Both passages are presented in Observations, the first in Growing and the second in Teaching. What we're reading now is supportive throughout the Prophets, and should be. This is the single most important day in the infinite history of Yahowah and certainly the most important day in the history of humanity.

“And then (wa) Yahowah (YaHoWaH – an accurate presentation of the name of ‘elowah – God as guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence), my God (‘elohym ‘any), will return (bow’ – arrive) and all (kol) of those who are set apart with Him (qadowshym ‘im huw’ – those who are separated unto Him will be beside Him, those special to Him and devoted to Him included with Him).” (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:5)

Ponder that. Why isn’t there one of the 13 Pillars of Judaism that says that Yahowah is God’s name, Yahowah is God, and Yahowah is returning? How is there the religion of Christianity that carries around this book in their “Old Testament” that makes this statement and they can’t figure it out?

“And then (wa) Yahowah (YaHoWaH – an accurate presentation of the name of ‘elowah – God as guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence), my God (‘elohym ‘any), will return (bow’ – arrive)

Not “Jesus”, “Allah”, “ha Shem”, not some nameless messiah

“And then (wa) Yahowah (YaHoWaH – an accurate presentation of the name of ‘elowah – God as guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence), my God (‘elohym ‘any), will return (bow’ – arrive)

And who is going to be returning with Him? The set apart. Set apart is such an important term, so misunderstood, and it is never translated correctly. Set apart means that you are set apart from one thing to another. And since they are returning with Yahowah they are obviously set apart from the gowym and the religious Jews that are menacing His people. They are set apart from them and set apart to Yahowah. So they are set apart from the ways of man which are religion and politics, militarism and conspiracies, and they are distanced from those things so that they can be set apart unto Yahowah. It is one of the most profoundly important concepts throughout the Towrah and Prophets. And it is mistaken, misappropriated and misunderstood.

For that to occur there must be a harvest of the set apart Covenant members prior to this day, Yowm Kipurym. And indeed there is. What is the Mow’ed Miqra’ey prior to Kipurym? Taruw’ah. The purpose of Taruw’ah is the harvest of the set apart. In Yasha’yah 17 and 18 we learned that the timing of the Taruw’ah harvest occurs right around the time of Israel being narrowed at the waist and right before the flood of jihadists inundates Israel, which my best guess is in 2029. We know that it will occur prior to the time that ‘Elyah and the final witness return on Passover in 2030, and it really has to occur at the last moment to give the greatest opportunity for a wonderful reunion here on Kipurym. So that is our timing. That remnant of Covenant members, including hopefully many Yahuwdym, which is harvested at that time on Taruw’ah, are going to be returning with Yahowah. We get to watch His triumphal return and His transformation of Yaruwshalaim first and Yisra’el second into the Garden of Eden. It’s going to be a marvelous event and we are going to be all at that time ...

The marvelous aspect of this declaration, beyond the fact that Yahowah, Himself, is returning, is that the Covenant members harvested during Taruw'ah will be coming with Him. They are represented by the Qadowshym, plural for qadowsh.

Qadowsh, meaning "to be set apart and purified," qadosh is directly related to qadash, meaning "to kindle a fire which provides light." As such, it provides another confirmation that Qara' / Leviticus 23:27, the verse which provides Yowm Kipurym's most essential instruction, was correctly rendered with:

"And your soul shall respond and answer the summons to appear before and approach the maternal manifestation of the fiery light who purifies, enlightens, and elevates ('isheh / 'ishah) to approach Yahowah."

Zakaryah explains...

"There will not be (lo' hayah – it will exist) on His day (ba ha yowm ha huw') a diminishing (qipa'own – a reduction or dwindling (qal imperfect paragogic nun)) of the esteemed and beloved, valued and respected (yaqar – splendid and beautiful, worthy, influential, and magnificent), light ('owr – illumination and source of enlightenment)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:6)

When Yahowah presented an aspect of Himself initially to Mosheh on the top of Mount Choreb, and then led the Children of Yisra'el through the Wilderness towards the Promised Land, He was a pillar of fire by night and a pillar of fire on the whole blazing top of Mount Choreb during the time the Towrah was being revealed. That was an enormous diminishment of His light. Yah didn't want frighten or overwhelm His People. We're being told here that there will be no diminishment of His light at this time. What does that mean specifically? All of Yahowah does not fit into ... All of Yahowah won't fit into four, five or six dimensions. All of Yahowah even coming into the 6th dimension would blow the earth to smithereens, so He's certainly not going to fit into Jerusalem. So when it says there's no diminishment of His light, I think it's saying that the set apart who are coming back with Him are now going to be undiminished in the sense of we are now seven-dimensional constructs ourselves; we are radiating Yahowah's light, and we are eternal beings. We are the sons and daughters of Yahowah. We're told that Dowd is going to be as brilliant as the sun on this day. We're told that Yahowah's presence is so brilliant that you don't need the sun during the day or the moon at night. So Yahowah's and Dowd's presences are going to be astonishingly brilliant, but I think also the set apart who are coming back with Yahowah, we are going to experience what it means to be enriched and empowered by Yahowah and His Covenant. So that is an amazing statement. Upon Yahowah's return

"There will not be (lo' hayah – it will exist) on His day (ba ha yowm ha huw') a diminishing (qipa'own – a reduction or dwindling (qal imperfect paragogic nun)) of the esteemed and beloved, valued and respected (yaqar – splendid and beautiful, worthy, influential, and magnificent), light ('owr – illumination and source of enlightenment)." (Zakaryah / Remember Yahowah / Zechariah 14:6)

Yahowah is light. He is the closest analog we have in our universe to explain His nature is light. Light is a very important consideration because on a photon of light all time exists. The reason Yahowah can be 100% accurate in His prophecies is because He's not predicting anything, He's simply reporting in our past what He has witnessed in our future. On a photon of light time exists so you can witness past, present and future simultaneously. It's light that explains how all that occurs. Light as a form of energy is exceedingly more energetic and powerful and substantive than is matter. So this whole transition as we transition from matter to energy is an enormous escalation in our power and capability. When we are light, we can travel the expanse of the universe in no time. It may be 94 billion light years from one edge to the other, although it's expanding every moment, we can transverse from one side of the universe to the other in no time. So the distances no longer matter because time is eternal, and as illuminated energy-based beings we become immortal. Where there is light there is no darkness, so we become perfect in this regard. We become enormously empowered, liberated in time and as energy-based beings we can transition into other dimensions that we would otherwise not be able to experience.

Also the verbs in Hebrew, the language we are translating for this program, are symbolic of light. All Hebrew verbs are liberated in time and what they say was, is, and will be true. There is no past, present or future tense in the Hebrew of the Towrah and Prophets. The verbs are. They are literally symbolic of the very nature of light. So the language that Yahowah used to reveal His words resemble the closest analog there is to Yahowah's nature, to our future nature, which is light. So that's pretty spectacular.

With something this spectacular, if you're going to do a depiction of something, why not do a depiction of this brilliant light coming out of the sky? Don't depict a statue of "Jesus" with his robes and arms outstretched. That's the Passover Lamb. He did his thing, thank God he did, but that's over. Why not dazzle people, show them the brilliance of what we can expect just through light?

My wife and I both have two offices with a café room between them. This room right next to me only had windows on one side, the other side was just a wall. So I chose to put three 4' wide x 2' high pictures of vibrant colors on glass on the wall. You're talking about what happens when you paint on glass, and you have the light shine through it. It's an amazingly beautiful visual to color the glass and then to have the light shine through it. Everybody has their thing. Mine is that I want everything bright. I love light. I love light at night and brilliant light during the day. The light here is the most wonderful of any I have ever experienced. There is something uplifting, empowering, enlightening, rejoicing for me the more I am exposed to light. So when I read this kind of thing, it resonates with me. It probably does for you as an artist because light is the essence of art. And Yahowah is going to come back as dazzling light. That's why I view Dowd's home, our collective Covenant home, the waterway between them, and the bridge that goes over them as all being constructed out of energy being dazzling, brilliant, illuminated and somewhat even transparent so that you can take in the view. So that's what we are expecting. I don't know how you find a better place to say, "I think that's been a very good program. We've covered a lot of territory."

This is the most magnificent presentation of Yahowah's return. It is something we should all be anticipating and celebrating, and it is so very near. Here we are in the last few days of January 2022, and October 2, 2033, is when this is going to transpire. The very darkest moment in human history is going to be followed by the most brilliant. One instant to the next and what side of that you are on is going to determine where you are going to spend eternity. I would encourage our Jewish and Gowym listeners to step away from the darkness of religion, politics, militarism and conspiracy and embrace the Light. The Light is reflected in Yahowah's Word and in His Towrah through His Prophets, and in Zakaryah as we read it this day.

May Yahowah bless you all. Have a wonderful Shabat. Good night.
