Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A____ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to Yada Yahowah. Before we get started with the review of Ezekiel, I'd like to offer some appreciation to four individuals. We have made tremendous progress in social media over the last four to six weeks, which I've done everything in my power to avoid. I am not a social media person, I've never used it, nor do I like social media, but I recognize in today's world it is the most effective way to disseminate a message. Fortunately, we have a woman who is very effective at it and has devoted herself to it. Tonight the outreach is in Buenos Aires, Argentina so I want to thank Dee for the effort she is making to provide content to our social media accounts as well as the marketing efforts that she is undertaking to convey Yahowah's message.

I say "marketing effort" a bit cautiously because we are not selling anything. This show is without advertisements. You are free to accept or reject what we have to say. We do not have a "donate button," we don't take money from anyone, and our books are entirely free online and are royalty-free if you prefer to order the printed material from Amazon. We do this because we love Yahowah and have committed ourselves to calling His people home.

So I want to thank Dee for the work she has done. She has worked tirelessly with Leah and others and has done a marvelous job.

The second is Jacki who is the editor and publisher of all the books we have written. She not only is a phenomenal editor and is becoming a spectacular publisher, but she is also the glue that holds it all together, the discipline that makes it happen so that we are presenting a product worthy of Yahowah. I want to thank the extraordinary and wonderful Jacki.

It is also important for us to recognize how professional and user-friendly the Yada' Yah website has become. There are many tools, like "David's Sandbox," developed behind the scenes. David, thank you for the work that you've done on the yadayah.com website. The presentation is spectacular, user-friendly, with an enormous amount of information that is exceedingly accessible.

We do a better job linking the community that supports this work, like Steve, who presented our work on his YouTube channel, and James, who presents the audio archives of these programs on his Site. So thank you for that.

I've done something that I never thought I would do, and I can't in good conscience stop doing it. It has changed the amount of your amount of input in these programs. Your input is exceedingly valuable and desired, but somewhere along the way, something changed during the rewrite of these books.

What changed is that Yahowah has much to say about what we're doing. What we are doing is exceedingly important to Him, so once we recognized it would be inappropriate to deny that or, in any way diminish the involvement Yahowah and His Spirit are having in the message that we are conveying, my writing changed. It wasn't all my words anymore but words that Yahowah was, to a large degree, inspiring.

KIRK: It's noticeable too.

YADA: Yes. It is different. We are not claiming to be a prophet; that's not true, but simply a witness – probably the last one. We have people like Mike doing a spectacular job of making sure what we say is accurate. Because the insights and commentary are so much richer and precise pertaining to Yahowah's message, I've come to the point that I'm sharing what I was inspired to write as opposed to previous programs where I shared the translation, but from the translation on it was all extemporaneous which for me was slightly more enjoyable just because by doing so we always came up with fresh ideas and new insights. But at this point, I just cannot do that in good conscience because there's too much that accompanies these translations now that Yahowah wants His people to hear.

So we are sharing it as it was inspired.

I want our listeners to know that this is a labor of love. I'm in this chair at 5:00 am Atlantic Time most mornings, translating and commenting. I leave this chair most days around 7:30 or 8:00 pm. We, of course, have personal gain – we learn and enjoy our time with Yah. That is rewarding. But that's not why we devote much time to doing it.

There is very little time left; there are very few Yahuwadm who are listening and have committed to having a Day of Reconciliations. So, it's essential to make sure that there are some Jews there who finally recognize Yahowah's name, the terms, and conditions of His Covenant and begin to turn from their Talmud to His Towrah.

Before we pick up where we left off last week, which was Yachezq'el 7:19, I want to talk a little bit about the Ukraine. There are probably less than 20 people in the world that are saying what I'm saying on the Ukraine. In fact, if you combine all that is said here on this program and one-on-one, I am telling you emphatically that the Russians were provoked into invading the Ukraine. They were given no choice and that this was a replay of the Cuban Missile Crisis, but this time we didn't have someone with Kennedy's character or intellect in the White House.

Rather than say, "We will demilitarize Turkey," where we had our missiles at the time. "And we will commit to not reinvading Cuba and make Cuba part of the sphere of American influence," the Russians withdrew their missiles, we removed our missiles from Turkey, and we avoided world war. This time we're aggravating world war. It's perplexing because while I can understand why Biden wants it, his popularity had plunged to the point where he was going to be trounced during the midterms, and it's hard to oust a wartime president, that's the way Americans are. "Remember the Maine," the Gulf of Phnom Penh, the sinking of the Lusitania?

Americans will swoon and sacrifice their lives on the grandest of lies. It's something about a deficit in the American character. So I understand why he did it and why the progressives that dominate this administration want it; COVID made a great stride to a one-world government to nationalize control over business and peoples' liberties, even a unified control over the media. It turns out that everything they said was wrong.

Here's an interesting antidote. This week the chief entomologist from Sweden was asked to be part of the World Health Organization's leadership related to viruses going forward. A journalist, a Progressive no doubt, took exception and said that he was head of Sweden's controversial program where there were no lockdowns, no deprivation of livelihood. As a result, they had among the highest death rates in Europe. I realized that it would have taken him 30 seconds to fact-check. If evidence and reason meant anything to a Progressive who dominates the media and politics, it would take them 30 seconds to check. The fact is that Sweden ranks 57th in mortality per 100,000 people with COVID. Europe ranks 25th. It was much safer to be in Sweden than in the United States, France, Italy, the UK, Spain, and countries that were vicious with their government-imposed lockdowns.

The opposite of what the journalist wrote was ... effect. The opposite of what was said about COVID through the fearmongering and the unified voice in the media turned out to be true.

Precisely what I said was true about COVID; two months into it, you can read that because I wrote two months into COVID in the West. I devoted two chapters in Coming Home to showing how the deprivation of livelihood and liberty was counterproductive.

So here we are with two things. We don't just have the democrats trying to salvage their tattered reputation by provoking the Russians to invade the Ukraine; we have the republicans. I watched a video, which I don't often do, and was spellbound. It shows Lindsey Graham, who recently said that Putin should be assassinated, and America as the ultimate peace-loving nation. He was in, of all places, the Ukraine with John McCain, whom I knew pretty well, maybe two years after the Obama Administration decided we could make NATO viable again if we sponsored a coup in the Ukraine toppling the popularly-elected democratic government, making the Ukraine pro-Western and pro-Europe, and making the United States dependent upon the IMF as opposed to a client of Russia. It backfired and led to the invasion.

This video shows Lindsey Graham telling the Ukrainians eight years ago, "Your enemy is our enemy. Your war is our war. We stand beside you in this fight." What war? The war they wanted. So the republicans are as guilty of conspiring and provoking this war and anticipated it eight years ago. Putin said the other day that the West is an empire of lies, and it's true.

I am still wondering why that no matter Biden became more popular, NATO became vital, that those things turned out exactly as they had schemed, the republicans are still trying to fight the Cold War, their military-industrial complex gets funded again, I get all that. But you're spitting in the face of a man that has the largest nuclear arsenal in the world. That is brain dead and beyond stupid. Why would anyone engage in suicide like this? Sure, the liberals want the great reset. They want to continue to destroy the reserve currency status of the United States upon which the economy disintegrates; they want to continue to destroy the credibility of the US dollar and the economy, of which they are doing a magnificent job. Inflation is roaring again, and the currency only has value in the lives of those who believe in it. They are moving toward the destruction of America and obliteration of the world; and it's a uniform voice, an echo chamber out there. It's bewildering that man can be so stupid.

I'm in the final chapter of Volume 3 of An Introduction to God, the longest volume so far. I've learned that as shrill as the voice is of Yahowah through Yachezq'el (He despises Judaism and hates Christianity, Islam, and Secular Humanism) He views Judaism as the most significant assault ever waged on His people. You quickly learn that the methods through Daniel, Mal'aky/Malachi, Yasha'yah/Isaiah, Yirma'yah/Jeremiah, and Zakaryah/Zachariah are all the same.

God is saying, 'I despise Judaism. I despise the religion of My people. It is repulsive; it's an abomination and a complete rejection of who I am. It's so bad and unforgivable that the only option is to obliterate them.'

And that brings me back to the Ukraine.

The birthplace of Hasidic Judaism was in the early 1700s in the Ukraine by Baal Shem Tov/Israel ben Eliezer. It is the most popular and fastest-growing, the most ... form of Judaism today. It is the most antisemitic place on Earth in terms of pogroms, the torturous and murderous treatment of Jews before and during the Holocaust, where 80% of the world's most vicious attacks on Jews took place in the Ukraine, many of them 200 and 300 years before the Nazis even rose to power. So the most antisemitic place on Earth, the place that has been the most brutal to God's people, and the religion that has been the most destructive to God's relationship with His people, both emerged in the Ukraine. As we move towards the end of days and Yahowah's return on October 2, 2033, in the year 6000 Yah, God must clean house and remove the vermin for His people to dwell safely, and what better place to start than the Ukraine?

We've been doing this now for 20 years and have been doing the audio part of this program for the better part of 12 years. For the most part, the written and audio presentation of Yahowah's Testimony has been exceedingly uplifting, empowering, enlightening, liberating, joyful, and thrilling as God presents His plan and desire to do these wonderful things for His family and us.

We have, not entirely but considerably, avoided what Christians call eschatology. We didn't get into great detail about what was going to happen between now and 2033 until I wrote the presentation of Kipurym. It is why we spent so many of these programs covering all God had to say about Kipurym, which is the day of His return and the Day of Reconciliations. There we learned that there are not going to be many people reconciled, that most of God's people (Yisra'elites) are going to die, and that more non-Yisra'elites per capita overall are going to die than Yisra'elites. It is going to be a very small reunion.

As I transitioned into the Introduction to God, the first volume was very uplifting. Proceeding through the second volume, we saw what God had to say about His Towrah throughout the Towrah, Prophets, and Psalms, and we were moved to realize that most of the time that He brings up His Towrah it is also in conjunction with, 'But you didn't listen to Him. But you didn't follow Him. But you paid no attention to Him. But you rejected Him, and consequently, this is what's going to happen.' Volume Two was biting because of that but nothing compared to Volume Three of An Introduction to God, where we have proceeded to convey what the prophets had to say about the Towrah. Almost every time the prophets bring up Yahowah's Towrah / Teaching, Guidance, Instruction and Direction, it is to tell Yisra'el and Yahuwdah that by rejecting it, by replacing it with the Talmud, by being religious as opposed to being responsive in the relationship, that they are committing suicide. That's what Ezekiel is saying.

I provide that background because, moving forward, this is not a pretty picture, but it is something that Yahowah's people need to hear. This message is not a happy picture, and there is a tendency to write it off by saying that Yachezq'el / Ezekiel was disgruntled. Still, as I said, it's the exact same message as in Zakaryah/Zachariah, Yasha'yah/Isaiah, Yirma'yah/Jeremiah, Howsha'/Hosea, and Mal'aky/Malachi. The exact same message. And the inspiration for all these words are the same God. There is no way to excuse it, to justify it, to wiggle around it, and no way to sanely or intelligently pretend that this is not God's indictment against His people.

There are so many caveats before we begin. There is a tendency to say that anytime you speak against Judaism or any Jewish custom, you are being antisemitic.

If that's the case, then Yahowah is antisemitic. That's rather hard since shem is a word that He conceived. Shem means "name," and He is exceedingly fond of His name and the name He gave to His people.

Yahowah gave them the name Yahuwdym which means "Beloved of Yah." I don't think Yahowah is antisemitic. In fact, He has devoted more energy, more sacrifices, more words, and more tears to Yahuwdah than all the rest of the people on Earth combined. They still remain His people, and they are still His family.

So what we are doing here is reporting and considering the implications of the words that Yahowah conveyed. To write that off as antisemitic is to use an ad hominem argument against God. And while it's never wise to use that against a man, it is stupid to use it against God.

While the Great Reconciliation and Reaffirmation of Yisra'el and the Covenant will proceed as planned, although it will be a lightly attended affair, the Great Reset is when the Bidens of the world continue to destroy the value of currencies and economies such that money becomes meaningless and useless. It is already a debt instrument, a liability, and will soon have no value whatsoever. You might as well throw it away because it will be useless. So the Great Reset is to replace the world's currencies with a different currency that is controlled and regulated by the most elite and empowered around the world.

"Their money and valued property (keseph hem – their currency and coins) they will throw into the streets (ba ha chuwts shalak) and their gold and precious metals (zahab hem) will come to be sullied, devalued, and corrupted (la nidah hayah).

Think about that. Money before the creation of fiat currency (a currency based on debt as opposed to being based on an asset). What an unbelievably destructive idea. Fiat currency was propagated around 1920 by Woodrow Wilson and Colonial House through a scheme to create a Central Bank in America. It has no checks and balances. The currency is constantly devalued by inflating the money supply and is something that fundamentally changes the nature of money because money previously had all been assets based on gold or silver. So you had a real, tangible asset that had value around the world that you were offering. Even when paper money was created, it was a silver certificate or backed by gold. There is no backing of the currency now; money is created as a debt instrument, a liability.

Only now can this happen. It didn't happen during the Great Depression; money still had value because there wasn't very much of it, people didn't have very much of it, so people starved and were out of work. We're coming to a time when money is just no longer of value.

That's only possible today. So this 2,600-year-old prophecy should be enough to get your attention to say, 'How in the world did this fella Ezekiel predict that a time would come when money and precious metals have no value?'

But he did. He said,

Their currencies and coins (keseph hem wa zahab hem) will fail them, as they will be incapable of prevailing (lo' yakol) so as to deliver them or save them (la natsal hem – so as to spare them) during the Day of Anger and Rage (ba yowm 'ebrah – in the Time of Fury and Wrath) of Yahowah (YaHoWaH).

We have a new wrinkle, “the Day of Anger and Rage.”

Yahowah has had moments where He has intervened in human affairs, where He has done things because He was disappointed in humankind, where He was trying to accomplish something important, and many people died. During the Flood, He destroyed the land around the Black and Caspian Seas and up through the Tigres-Euphrates Rivers, where humans with a neshamah had become religious, political, viscous and militaristic and He despaired that He created humankind; but He gave us a fresh start.

When liberating His people from the crucibles of religious and political oppression in Mitsraym (misnamed Egypt), when the Egyptians refused to let His people go, He assured them they would pay a dear price for abusing His people. But since that time, other than to tell us that if you abuse His people, you will find that life is short, look at the nations of Imperial Rome. It is Gone. Greece has essentially gone, the Roman Catholic Church disintegrated, and the Ottoman Empire and Nazi Germany are both gone. It doesn't work. Look at the Ukraine, the pogrom capital of the world being destroyed.

Nothing compares to what is going to happen upon Yahowah's return. Up to this point, He has created the opportunity for us to be as bad as we want to be, free will and all, choose to know Him or not to know Him, bleak for a long portion of that. For thousands of years there wasn't a single person that listened to Yahowah that wanted to engage in a relationship with Him. We're reaching a point where there may be no one in Yisra'el that is willing to pronounce Yahowah's name boldly, that understands that His Towrah means "teaching and guidance," to understand that the Covenant has conditions, responsibilities and benefits, understands the relationship between the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, the seven annual invitations to meet with God and how they facilitate the benefits of the Covenant and structure time from our exodus from the Garden to our return to the Garden over a period of 6,000 years, no one. God has to deal with that.

He will come back with Dowd as the Messiah and King to reconcile His relationship with Yisra'el and Yahuwdim on Yowm Kipurym in the year 6000 Yah on October 2, 2033, at 6:22 pm as the sun sets in Yaruwshalaim . He doesn't say how many, other than to say there will be very few, and there will be some Gowym along with them. But everyone else, no. God is not happy upon His return. He will be delighted come Sukah when all the rubbish is gone, but as He returns, it's a day of anger, rage, and disgust for the religious and political, particularly for Judaism.

Their souls (nepesh hem) will not be satisfied (lo' saba'). Their guts (me'eh hem – their internal organs and bowels, their innards and entrails) will be emptied out and spilled (lo' male').

This is a visceral, graphic portrayal.

For indeed (ky), their propensity to pervert and corrupt the truth ('awon hem – their iniquity for having been wrong and subsequent guilt, their own depravity and faults) has been and will be (hayah) the obstacle in their way and a stumbling block (mikshowl – the thing over which they are misdirected and fail, trip over and fall). (Yachezq'el 7:19)

The perceived status of his glorified trappings and adornment (wa tseby 'ady huw'), that he has used to feed his arrogance and pride and to convey his lofty and majestic appearance (la ga'own sym huw'), in addition to their reprehensible religious objects of worship, their role models' fanciful representations and venerated images (wa tow'ebah hem), are among the vile and filthy, even repulsive, things they have engaged in, profited from, and celebrated (shiquwts hem 'asah ba huw').

And therefore ('al ken – as a result and for this reason), I will give him over to their corrupt and defiled things (nathan huw' la hem la nidah – I will equate him with their menstruation and vaginal discharge). (Yachezq'el 7:20)

Let's take a moment to consider what God just said.

Money no longer has any value; throw it into the streets. Precious metals are devalued. Currencies and coins fail, incapable of prevailing. We are approaching a day of anger and rage. The world is headed that way at breakneck speed. As I said, by the West sanctioning Russia, we've assured that the damage already done to our economies and the stupidity of the COVID response is now complete. It is a series of decisions of which there is no return, guaranteed destruction.

Their souls (nepesh hem) will not be satisfied (lo' saba'). Their guts (me'eh hem – their internal organs and bowels, their innards and entrails) will be emptied out and spilled (lo' male').

This is very graphic and personal with God. He is disgusted with the religion of Judaism for pretending to speak for Him, for pretending to be Towrah observant when they are looking at their goddamned Talmud, for centuries failing to disclose His name, despising His name, for choosing to be religious over establishing a relationship with Him. He's spilling their guts. You don't like it, tough. Stop being religious.

For indeed (ky), their propensity to pervert and corrupt the truth ('awon hem – their iniquity for having been wrong and subsequent guilt, their own depravity and faults) has been and will be (hayah) the obstacle in their way and a stumbling block (mikshowl – the thing over which they are misdirected and fail, trip over and fall). (Yachezq'el 7:19)

You don't want God being mad at you? Stop twisting His Testimony! Share it the way He conveyed it. I'm doing these translations in English because more Jews speak English than any other language including Hebrew. God-forsaken ultra-Orthodox Hasidics speak Yiddish, yet Yahowah's Testimony is in Hebrew, but it is so badly rendered in modern Hebrew you might as well be translating it, and if you're going to translate it why not translate it into the language more Jews and people around the world understand than any other?

Judaism lies about everything. The ultra-Orthodox in Israel hold about 50% of the power in that country, there's a split between the secular and the religious, and there's only one accepted religion in Israel, and they are vicious about it. The ultra-Orthodox, the black suit dudes with the curlies and black hats, are insistent that the only religion that matters and has any influence is the Hasidic. This is not an old religion. It was conceived by Baal Shem Tov in the Ukraine around 1700, and it is nothing but a perversion of the truth. But they have status in Israel. They decide who gets to be a citizen, who is viewed as a convert, (if you're not a convert you are not considered "Jewish"). The Hasidics in Israel do not consider you Jewish based upon your ethnicity, but instead upon your religiosity. They have done exactly the opposite of what God said. God says, 'You cease to be a Yahuwd/Beloved of Yah when you become religious, but it is the genetic descendants of Ya'aqob that I love.' God's view and the religious view in Judaism are the opposite. And, of course, there's a head rabbi for everything. They control the food supply in their ridiculous "kosher" laws, their source of income from them, and they are the ones who decide who gets married and who gets divorced. Netanyahu was the idiot that gave them this power so that he could be empowered in the parliamentary system.

Tow'ebah is a very strong word, but so is 'ebah. God calls their religion reprehensible; He says they worship role models, and they do. Why are there so many Jews in the grave? Because they worship Baal Shem Tov.

And therefore ('al ken – as a result and for this reason), I will give him over to their corrupt and defiled things (nathan huw' la hem la nidah – I will equate him with their menstruation and vaginal discharge). (Yachezq'el 7:20)

God is fair. You want to be religious? You can be religious, it's just that the consequence of religious is an express ticket to She'owl. Religious Jews deny that She'owl exists. I have news for you, you are headed there, and when you arrive, you're going to find lots of like company because all the other rabbis and Hasidic Jews will be there with you.

So I will allow him to be given (wa nathan huw') into the hands (ba yad) of unauthorized and illegitimate strangers (ha zar – loathsome and nauseating foreigners who are not related and who do not belong) to be plundered (la baz – to be spoiled, robbed, and looted through armed conquest), by the wicked and the unrighteous of the Land and Earth (rasa' ha 'erets – to those who are the furthest away from the truth on the planet) to be preyed upon (la shalal – to be ravaged). And they will corrupt and defile it, desecrating and dishonoring it (wa halal hy' – and they will profane, besmirch, taint, sully, and pollute her [speaking of the Land]).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 7:21)

That's what happened. Had Yahuwdym been Towrah observant, had they listened to Yahowah and had celebrated His name, then they would never have had the time out in Babylon and would never have endured the influence of the Greeks under Alexander or the three Roman invasions. They would never have been part of the Diaspora or endured the Holocaust. But it all did happen because Jews rejected God. They turned their back on Him and so He turned His back on them.

As you move forward in time your money will not buy a reprieve, no matter if it's invested in gold or bitcoin. Your possessions will not provide protection, even if it's a gun and you've got hollow point bullets. You cannot eat silver and there will be no market for gold. Upon Yahowah's return, money will have no value.

Having endured the pettiness of His people while rescuing them from the crucibles of religious and political oppression, and then having experienced their unfaithfulness for the next 3,500 years as they pursued their ever-evolving religious interests, it is fair to say that Yahowah has been reasonably patient. So for God to grow sufficiently furious for there to be a Day of Anger and Rage, the overwhelming preponderance of His people have had to do a lot to offend Him. And since Jews are no more or less immoral or political than the rest of us, the only institution engendering such animosity from God is Judaism, where Jews are defined by their religion. It is the religious who have perverted the truth about God.

Yahowah is furious. Therefore, God is not returning to satisfy souls but, instead, to disembowel the religious, eviscerating them.

If you are squeamish, you may want to distance yourself from the rabbis. I am and I have! Otherwise, their propensity to corrupt God's testimony will remain an obstacle, precluding your return and restoration. The religious will literally be stumbling over themselves.

Religious dress-up is not sanctioned by God; in fact He thinks it is ridiculous. Those who do so, offend Him, from rabbis to popes. But there is something worse than wearing a black mourning suit or white robes, and that is to adorn men as gods. This is what Christians have done with "Jesus" and rabbis have done by venerating their own, even elevating their words above His.

The second statement Yahowah etched in stone while upon Mount Choreb asked us not to be religious. And yet, Judaism is replete with fanciful citations, misleading role models, and objects of worship – all which Yahowah sees as revolting. Even enraged, however, He remains fair – giving His people over to their religion. It has always been a simple choice between religion and the relationship, and these Jews will be offered their heart's desire. Unfortunately for them, since God hates religion, their choice will forever estrange them from Him – which suggests a long stay in She'owl.

Outside of God's protection, the worst of men will plunder, the people will die, and the Land will be savaged. While preying upon Jews has never turned out well for anyone, and will cost the latter-day imposters their lives, the world will continue to find Israel to be an irresistible target.

I just finished translating the opening lines of Daniel, and it's so appropriate in this case. I was reading the opening text of the prophet, particularly Yirma'yah. And as I read that text it became apparent to me by making the connections needed to understand that our time here would be 70 years. He explains how systematically, diligently, thoroughly studying, closely examining and carefully considering the word of God that he was able to put the pieces together so that he was able to understand God's timeline. It's the same for us. We can look at what God said and understand what happened when and why and what's going to happen when and why in the future; it's all there for us.

As we consider what is being said here, understand that God has given us all the tools that we need, all the answers that we could ever want on what's going happen, when and why.

“So I will turn My face away from them (wa sabab paneh 'any min hem – and My presence will be removed from them) as they profane and defile, corrupt and besmirch (chalal – dishonor and treat with contempt, taint and sully), My treasured and cherished place ('eth tsaphan 'any).

God can't even bear to look at them.

And then (wa), the brutally ruthless and ferociously violent and destructive thieves (paryts – the cruel, murderous, and lawless thugs) shall come upon her (bow' ba hy') and desecrate her (chalal hy' – pollute and profane the land). (Yachezq'el 7:22)

I was in Yisra'el, and I ... never go back unless it was after Yahowah had done considerable urban renewal because it's a repulsive place. You've got religious morons and shrines everywhere and until that stuff is gone, it stinks to high heaven. And God is saying it's going to get worse. They are going to continue to profane, defile, corrupt and besmirch what He treasures. What could be worse than building a shrine to Satan on top of Mount Mowryah, the Temple Mount? What could be worse than having the most repulsive of Jews stand at the Western Wall of that Temple Mount bobbing their heads with rote religious prayers, fighting these last days against even the Israeli police to keep women from being able to pray and to keep any other than the ultra-Orthodox from being even able to approach the site?

Since they claim to be Towrah observant, there is no Hebrew word that can be translated as prayer in the Towrah. God has no interest in us praying to Him. God ... us listening to Him. It's hard listening to Him when you are jabbering.

And then (wa), the brutally ruthless and ferociously violent and destructive thieves (paryts – the cruel, murderous, and lawless thugs) shall come upon her (bow' ba hy') and desecrate her (chalal hy' – pollute and profane the land). (Yachezq'el 7:22)

Fashion the chains ('asah ha ratowq) because (ky) the Land (ha 'erets) is filled (male') with deadly judgment and bloody decision-making (mishpat dam) and the city (wa ha 'iyir) is replete with injustice and terrorism, maiming and plunder (chamas – destructive forces and violence). (Yachezq'el 7:23)

Then I will allow (wa bow') the worst of the Gentiles (ra' gowym – the most evil, harmful, and destructive people from different races and places) to take possession, steal, and possess (yarash) their homes ('eth beyth hem).

For I must put an end to (wa shabat) the arrogance of the empowered (ga'own 'az – the prideful nature of the leadership and conceit of the most powerful people) such that their sanctuaries, shrines, and temples (wa miqdash hem – their holy places, sacred things, and religious edifices) are treated with contempt (chalal – are seen as defiled and desecrated).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 7:24)

Looking the other way and allowing the words of the Gentiles to slither in such that the rabbis and all their sanctuaries, shrines, and temples are treated with contempt shall all be deemed defiled and desecrated.

For the past 6,000 years, God has given humankind the choice to live with Him or apart from Him. And while this exercise in freewill has seldom worked out as Yahowah would have liked, the option to extend our lives is about to end. The many who have decided that they prefer religion to the Covenant, man's promises to Yahowah's testimony, must die in order for the Earth to be as ‘Eden. And for mankind to live, those who would kill must die. Terrorism must subside for shalowm to commence.

When you put the pieces of Yahowah’s timeline together you realize that the story of ‘Eden, which is the first story we are told after creation, is detailed so that we would understand it. This is what God wants. This is the kind of relationship He desires; it is the seventh step along the path to God which means “to camp out with God” is the return to ‘Eden. Mankind was kicked out of ‘Eden which is now 12 years shy of 6,000 years ago, and we are about to return. But for us to return the conditions on the earth must be as they were in ‘Eden; and in ‘Eden there was no money, government, politicians, religion, temples or shrines, militaries or police. All these things will go.

Pride is a stubborn beast to break. And power is something few give up without a fight. Therefore, the time has come to bring down the rabbis and break His people’s self-esteem. The blunt implementation of this exercise will include the worst of the Gentiles. And they will do as they have always done – they will respond by ransacking and pillaging.

Should you want a preview of what is going to occur, and have an interest in seeing the mindset which will unleash hell on earth, walk into a church, synagogue, or mosque. But don’t stay very long, lest you be infected by their plagues.

“Anguishing terrorism (qaphadah) will come (bow’ – will occur) and they will seek (wa baqash – enquire about and attempt to achieve) peace and reconciliation (shalowm – safety and salvation), but there will be none (wa ‘ayn).” (Yachezq’el / God Grows / Ezekiel 7:25)

Mankind has been vicious for all 6,000 years of recorded civilization; the history of civilization is of war and viciousness. It’s not viciousness to just one’s neighbor, but to one’s own people. The number of Romans that Romans killed was enormous. The Greeks were murderous of Greeks and the Spartans were murderous of Spartans. Most nations sacrificed humans to their gods. They were all war like and ravaged their neighbors.

One thing is different today is that we have a religion based upon terrorism, Islam. That religion exists primarily to aggravate and annihilate Jews. So we are witnessing the fulfillment of Ezekiel 7:25. No one seeks peace more than the Jews. But not only has there been none, there will be none. The so called “Two State Solution” is the Final Solution, and I mean that with all the implications of Nazi Germany.

The viciousness and hopelessness of terrorism has been deployed by the ignorant, by the irrational and the immoral, especially the religious, to harass and oppress humankind for countless centuries. You’ve got Kamala Harris who has to be dumbest cumquat in the orchard. I cannot even imagine a country electing a less qualified individual than her. Two days before Russia invaded the Ukraine she said, “We value and praise and support the Ukraine’s decision to become part of NATO.” That was the triggering event for the invasion. And now she says that the viciousness and carnage of the Russian invasion is the worst the world has ever seen. It isn’t even in the top 30 of current wars or even within a snip of what we did in Japan firebombing cities and dropping two atomic bombs. It isn’t within a million miles of our white sulfur bombing of Dresden and other German civilian centers without any war consequence whatsoever just simply to make life miserable. It doesn’t even approach what Sherman did in his terrorist march to the sea or close to what Stalin or Mao Zedong did to their people. It isn’t even in the hemisphere of what we did in Iraq, Afghanistan, and Syria. We are such hypocrites! Terrorism has become the order of the day. Only in Islam, among all the world's religions, was the founder a terrorist. So once again, we see specificity in Yahowah's prophetic predictions.

Islam, however, is not alone. Nothing in human history has wrought more misfortune, more tragedy and catastrophe, than religion – especially Judaism, Christianity, the aforementioned Islam, and Socialist Secular Humanism. Each is predicated upon lifeless and stupefying messages – appalling hearsay which causes the Towrah's | Teaching to be squandered. That is not my opinion but, instead, God's conclusion.

With the West having provoked the Russian invasion of Ukraine with their designs to bring it into NATO and supply copious amounts of advanced weapons, we now find Western leaders vying with one another for who can spit the most effectively at a man who may be a psychopath. Stupid is too kind a word to describe such idiocy, particularly since he has at his fingertips more nuclear weapons than any other nation on Earth.

And with all the rhetoric, weapons, threats, and sanctions, with the epic miscasting of the players and events which lead to war, the world is playing a deadly game of continual escalation. There is no solution to be found in imposing sanctions or sending more weapons. Both will serve to increase animosity and body bags. The disaster these political miscalculations are precipitating would have been obvious if people were capable of rational thought. But alas, in war, the first casualty is the truth – which was already in short supply.

Today the news came out of Israel and the Ukraine that the Prime Minister of Israel, who has been trying to play peacemaker between the Ukraine and Putin, that Bennet was privy to the Russian armistice agreement with the Ukraine that came out. I've not read it, but I assume it is surrender. Bennet's response to the Ukraine is negative. If you value the lives of your people, take it. If you don't take it, they are going to die. Of course, the Ukrainians said "No," and it is a terrible and tragic mistake.

Should you wonder why I continue to mention the invasion of Ukraine, other than to present the devastating and deadly consequence of the degradation of evidence and reason sweeping the world, it is because I wanted to show the specificity of Yahowah's prophecies. From the outset, God has been accusing today's most virulent, outspoken, and hostile embodiment of Judaism of misleading His people and sealing their fate. Therefore, the specific sects He is lambasting is comprised of Haredim (Ultra-Orthodox) and the Datiim (Orthodox) – which are only slightly more civilized variations of their more insular brothers. This archaic and dysregulated expression of Judaism is the fastest-growing religious cult in the world. At current birth rates, its population is doubling every 16 years. The Haredim will rise from 19% of Israeli Jews to represent 25% by Yahowah's return – comprising the overwhelming preponderance of overtly religious individuals in a state that is equally secular.

These Talmud-toters are viciously aggressive and famously intolerant, such that they have cowered and silenced all dissenting religious influences, including the Reform and Conservative movements, which now comprise only 5% of Israeli Jews. Today in Israel, the only rival to the Orthodox and Ultra-Orthodox strains of Judaism are secular Jews, who currently represent half of the Israeli population, but they seem to have no power over the religious.

The Haredi (from chared, means to tremble in fear) are identified by their black mourning clothes, black hats, and curlicues. The women don't have curlicues because they must shave their heads as part of their humiliation. They travel in swarms and are often seen bobbing their heads before the Wailing Wall. Representing the most devoutly religious community in Israel, they have become a cancer, quickly metastasizing to suck the life out of the nation and its people.

The lives of Haredi men are consumed studying their religious texts at yeshiva seminaries instead of working. And yet, despite state funding, their yeshivas do not provide curriculums in math, the sciences, or English so that the rabbis can keep their victims locked away in an intellectual ghetto, where the expectation is that secular and working Israelis will continue to provide these parasites with a lifelong stipend to remain religious. Haredi women make babies – over 7 on average per female. Everyone's life is consumed with Halakha | Jewish Religious Law, monotonous prayer, and antagonizing Yahowah.

Haredi Judaism, the voice of the religion in Israel, was conceived and developed in, and spread like a virus out of the Ukraine near Khmelnytsky in Okopy and Tluste (bordering Romania and Moldova). The instigator of the cult most identified with Judaism today was a Kabbalist rabbi, the mystic Israel ben Eliezer, who became known as Baal Shem Tov | the Lord of the Good Name.

During the mid-18th century, when Jews were fighting Jews in the Ukraine, Israel Eliezer first opposed, then sided with, the Talmudic who were opposing the Frankists. It's common for Jews to be engaged in a civil war; Judaism emerged out of one. The Maccabean Revolt was over should Yahowah's plan where the priests inherit the job by being born into the tribe of the Lowy and serve without compensation during the Mow'ed Miqra'ey or should men who covet religious power take their place. The most conservative, orthodox strain of Judaism was also born in the middle of one of these civil wars, this time between the Frankists and the Talmudists in the Ukraine.

The instigator of this, Baal Shem Tov, initially decided he was going to be on the Talmudists who were opposing the Frankists. The founder of the Frankists was Jacob Frank, a Polish Jew who claimed to be the reincarnation of the self-proclaimed Messiah Sabbatai Zevi (who claimed to be the reincarnation of the patriarch Ya'aqob, but then recanted and converted to Islam when faced with death – which is an odd choice for someone who believes in reincarnation). Nonetheless, after the Church sided with the Frankists and burned every available copy of the Talmud, the followers of Jacob Frank converted to Christianity rather than assimilate under the mystic rabbi.

Eliezer filled the ensuing vacuum with his words. He never actually wrote anything, leaving an empty slate upon which his disciples and successors, most notably, Rabbi Jacob Joseph, could compose whatever served their interests. For example, the Besht, as he was also known, is now said to have claimed to have achieved devekut | adhesion, such that his soul could ascend to heaven and speak with anyone he wished. While not true, if it had occurred, it would have been in direct violation of Yahowah's Towrah instructions on communicating with the deceased. Nonetheless, legend has it that Eliezer's lone ascension was to speak with the Messiah, not Yahowah, Moseh, or even Dowd. Through "prayer," he allegedly asked the unidentified ha Mashyach to intervene between G-d and man to ward off a plague. While Dr. Messiah did not make the requested house call, he was conveniently supportive of Der Rabbi, stating that his arrival would be delayed until "your learning is made known and revealed to the world and its source will spread and all can recite Yahuw'dym and experience spiritual ascent as you can." If you believe such a thing, then Yachezq'el | Ezekiel is composing your obituary.

I find it intriguing that this paradigm of evil shared a fascination with Chabaquwq | Habakkuk, as did Paul, the Plague of Death who became the founder of the Christian religion. He cited the otherwise obscure prophet frequently to justify his fallacious claims. In his case, Israel ben Eliezer misquoted Chabaquwq / Habakkuk 2:4 to suggest: "The righteous can vivify by his faith." His misappropriation of Yahowah's statement and inclusion of "vivify" is the kissing cousin to reincarnation.

And lest we forget, since Yahowah is revealing that unmitigated disasters and ruinous conspiracies would plague Yisra'elites at this time and as a result of their reprehensible religion, it is telling that the birthplace of Hasidic Judaism is also the scene of the most frequent and vicious pogroms – with over 80% occurring in the Ukraine. The worst, and one of the most traumatic in Jewish history, was the Khmelnytsky Uprising. From 1648 through 1656, the Cossacks under Gogdan Khmelnytsky murdered tens of thousands of Jews. This is particularly sickening considering Ukrainians still venerate this psychopath, with a statue of him sitting proudly on his war steed in Kiev, directing his butchers to terrorize Jews and his hideous mug on one of their banknotes.

Keeping it in the family, the Ukraine was also the site of the earliest and most egregious Holocaust massacre. It occurred at the onset of Operation Barbarossa, the war between Germany and Russia. On August 27 and 28, 1941, a Ukrainian Police Battalion, the SS Einsatzgruppen, Hungarian soldiers, and the Ukrainian Nazi Auxiliary systematically murdered 23,600 Jews, many from the Kamianets Ghetto. It was the prelude to the Final Solution.

Should you be wondering why the Ukraine is under assault and if the Ukraine is worth defending, you may want to consider what has occurred from Yahowah's perspective. The moment this occurred, I took a very different approach to the Ukraine than everyone else because I knew this history. It repulsed me. It repulses Yahowah. The most debilitating villain His people would ever endure – Hasidic Judaism – was conceived and metastasized in the Ukraine and the Christian Ukrainians who surrounded them were infamously vicious toward Jews – exterminating them. What worse place than for us to approach the end of days?

I would also be remiss if I didn't share that the Poles were second to the Ukrainians to torturing Jews in their pre-Nazi era of pogroms. It's little wonder that the worst of the concentration camps were in Poland or that the Poles are so insistent in whitewashing their anti-Semitic past. So do not be surprised if the current battleground between NATO and Russia spills over into the state ripe for American troops and weapons.

"Disaster upon disaster (howah 'al howah – calamity upon calamity, misfortune and disaster) will come (bow'), and rumor upon rumor, hearsay and conspiracy (shamuw'ah 'el shamuw'ah – unverifiable opinions and false testimony, fake news, lifeless and stupefying messages, horrifying reports which are unsubstantiated; from shamem – that which astonishes and destroys, bewilders and stupefies), will come to exist (hayah).

And they will seek (wa baqas – they will yearn and search for) a revelation (chazown – an inspired communication) from a prophet (min naby') while (wa) the Towrah (Towrah – the Teaching and Instruction, Guidance and Direction) is lost on ('abad min – is squandered on) the ministers, priests, and clerics (kohen), and on (wa min) the counsel and advice of the society's leaders ('etsah zaqen – the purpose and retelling of the most prominent individuals).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 7:26)

You wonder where the material in Revelation came from? You're reading it.

“Disaster upon disaster (howah 'al howah – calamity upon calamity, misfortune and disaster) will come (bow'), and rumor upon rumor, hearsay and conspiracy (shamuw'ah 'el shamuw'ah – unverifiable opinions and false testimony, fake news, lifeless and stupefying messages, horrifying reports which are unsubstantiated; from shamem – that which astonishes and destroys, bewilders and stupefies), will come to exist (hayah).

While I said that the fastest growing religious cult growing in the world today is Hasidic Judaism, the fastest broad-based religion in the world is Conspiracy and at this point

And they will seek (wa baqas – they will yearn and search for) a revelation (chazown – an inspired communication) from a prophet (min naby')

Remember Revelations speaks of a prophet and the Mashyach? They are going to seek a prophet; they will believe anybody so long as that person besmirches the Towrah. I'm translating Paul's letters and writing the four volumes of Questioning Paul, and it became obvious to me that should there be an anti-Mashyach, should there be a false prophet, that person is going to be indistinguishable from Paul, if you wanted to know what they are going to be like. Paul too was a rabbi. They are going to seek a prophet because they don't listen to the Towrah. I can tell you for certain that I'm not seeking a prophet because I don't have enough time between now and when Yahowah returns to do ... So the last thing I want is another prophet. There is ample material here. You want to know what's going to happen? God tells you what's going to happen. I'd like somebody to do what we are doing which is to explain what the prophet said and to convey it in a way that is riveting and compelling, so some people wake up to the Towrah, but we don't need another prophet. We could use some witnesses; we have the Towrah, Prophets, and the Mizmowr. God provided the answers that we need.

The consequence of religion and human governance is “disaster upon disaster.” That's why we begin our programs covering the news. And for both, it is a steady stream of unfounded opinions – none of which are verifiable.

We've entered an era that is like none other in history where the voice in the media, the shrillest voice in the public domain, the dominant voice now in politics worldwide, the voice of academia is that of the Progressives, Cancel Culture, Woke. This voice goes so far beyond liberalism, Social Secularist Humanism, Political Correctness, they go all the way into the realm of complete ignorance and being totally irrational. Evidence no longer means anything, and reason is irrelevant. This is the politics and academia of make believe. We've entered the realm that God spoke of, hearsay and conspiracy, rumor upon rumor, unfounded opinion. This is where we are. That's why I began a program about a month ago saying I'm afraid of what's happening. I'm not afraid for me or you, Kirk, or any Covenant member. I know what's going to happen. But the world is tumbling out of control at such a rate, and there are so few voices of reason, rational, evidence and reason-based people. There are so few of them ... to imagine how we don't tumble into complete economic chaos and world war years before I thought it was going to occur. God doesn't tell us if the last three wars are fought between 2030 and 2033 or if they begin a little sooner, we just know there are going to be multiple wars. He told us that terrorism, conspiracies, and lies and disinformation will rise, and we know that all that is going to happen and that we only have eleven years left and that a lot has to happen in a short period of time. But I had hoped that we would have had more time before the onslaught of utter and complete idiocy and stupidity. ...this because with this happening it's only a matter of time now between now and the time that a country that I really like, Taiwan, is taken over by China before China pulls the plug on the free enterprise experiment and goes full tilt Communism, between now and the time that world governments choke out all liberty and economic prosperity either through their mythical war on the virus, climate change, or now this self-imposed war against Russia. In the midst of this it's only a matter of time that one of those casualties of this conflict, Iran, which now would have no reason to capitulate because you can't preclude the world having access to Russian and Iranian oil without quadrupling the price of oil and devastating the world's economies. The moment you do that, you've given the Iranians the ability to create their bomb and they are the most likely to use it, starting a nuclear war. There's nothing to preclude the world the way it is right now for Hezbollah to begin its assault on Israel or for Hamas, the Islamic jihad, the PLO to resume their attacks. Assad has nothing to lose at this point. We are in a position where the elevation in academia and politics of Progressives who are almost universally anti-Israel are so stupid they actually believe there's a thing called Palestine and a Palestinian people and that these mythical people are the ones being oppressed.

Jews are getting it from all sides. The Biden Administration has been as destructive to Israel as probably any in American history, reversing years of progress. We talked about that even when Donald Trump was creating such a positive aura around Israel that that was going to end and that the next president was going to exceedingly anti-Semitic, and he is. His vice president is worse, and we come to a "Weekend at Bernie's" and we're going to have unmitigated disaster.

So we don't have a lot of time. I was telling my wife this morning, agonizing a bit over this. I live in a wonderful place, I have the best job in the world, and am as happy and content as a person can be, but I'm still concerned for God's people because as the world tumbles into economic chaos and war, freedom of speech is going to go away and it's going to be more and more difficult to disseminate this message. So if you're not listening now, I don't know when you are going to be given that opportunity. You don't have as much time as you might think.

If you've come upon this because of the outreach of social media or because it was recommended by a friend or a web search of a term that was interesting to you, whether you are Gowym or Yahuwdym, you have very little time left. Yahowah is calling His people home – it's now or never.

KIRK: I've been thinking all the same thoughts; it's interesting the Timeline. I know certain things are going to happen according to certain events, but there has to be some way for this to get out. But Yahowah will do something.

YADA: He has actually said that He's going to do very little until His return. There's not going to be a lot to clean up. God is going to eliminate the religious, political and militaristic upon His return so it's safe for His people, but the fact is the way we are headed right now there won't be a lot of that to clean up. Most humans will have annihilated themselves based upon their bad choices. We're headed to nuclear war and the consequence of that is grievous. There is no putting that genie back into the bottle. ... economic collapse. There is no reset that is going to work. It's going to be devastating the pain that is going to be perpetrated on people.

So if you are a Yahuw/Jew please listen. Yahowah is your God; He is the God of Yisra'el. He is calling you home. If you are a Gowym, you are welcome to participate in the Covenant Family and join us in entering God's Home to be part of His Family.

The entire works, nearly 25 volumes at this point, are available at yadayah.com. If you prefer to actually turn the pages of a book, you can buy them under the Yada Yahowah Series at Amazon. Yada' means "to know, become familiar with, to acknowledge and understand." Yahowah is God's one and only name. The complete series is located under the title Yada' Yahowah. For those who are new to this message I would suggest you begin with the three volumes of An Introduction to God. Then you can begin with The Beginning, the story of Creation, the story of Man, the story of the Covenant called the Family, and then three volumes on the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, Invitations, Harvests and Appointments followed by five volumes of Observations where we talk about what God had to say about religion, politics, His Towrah, His People from Perspective to Covenant to Growing to Teaching and Understanding, and thus far what will be three or four volumes of Coming Home. The first is the Voice, the second is the Messiah. For those coming out of Christianity or for those who are Jews or Secular Humanists and want to understand how in the world this religion could grow to be so many people and how could so many people be so wrong, then I would recommend the four volumes of Questioning Paul – Liars Lie, Towrahless, Devil's Advocate, and Incredible. In those volumes the entirety of the Christian New Testament is destroyed, and we use Yahowah's words to dispel the myth of the Christian religion. If you have a problem with that, take it up with God and see how that works for you.

Alright, Kirk, it's my pleasure to be with you. Again, I apologize for having a message that is harsh, but this is a message that God wants His People to hear. It's in every one of the prophets. You don't cherry pick the prophets to find it – it's the dominant theme. God is not happy with His People, and He's disgusted with the religion of Judaism. The Covenant has always had a prerequisite which is to walk away from babble, from the influence of religion and politics. God is not about to change.

So Happy Shabat to one and all. We look forward to being with you at this time next week. There's a lot to read. I hope that even those of you who have read all the books in the Yada Yah Series will read them again. They are so much richer, fuller, more accurate, more complete and compelling. There may have been several hundred unique insights that had not been considered for the better part of 3,000 years in the originals. There has to be five to ten times that now. God has been very open with us in conveying His message. He wants you to know it. He wants you to know who He is, what He is offering, and what He is asking in return. And He is offering everything you could possibly want – immortality, perfection, being adopted into His Family, to be enriched, empowered, and enlightened. He wants to transform you into a witness for Him and for His People so that there can be a wonderful celebration on the Day of Reconciliations and then when it's all over we can camp out with Him as we return to the conditions experienced in 'Eden.

May Yah bless. Thank you, Kirk, for being part of the program and for those of you listening and for those of you who are helping disseminate this message. Good night.
