Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. I'm proud of our website, yadayah.com. It has been so beautifully presented, and we are soon to add a passage search that enables you to click on a passage to bring up all the places it is found within all the volumes on the bookshelf. I now constantly use this feature my writing.

We talked about this before the beginning of the show, Kirk, and I do not state this as an authority, but rather as a teacher for others to benefit from what I've learned so they can do their own studies.

My view of the Miqra'ey is that God is a whole lot less concerned about when we celebrate them than whether or not we understand what they represent, accept them and capitalize upon them. It's not about having the perfect meal for Pesach or celebrating Matsah exactly at the right time or whether it's seven days of Matsah or seven days including Pesach. We eat Matsah during Pesach and I view Pesach as part of Matsah; I think Yahowah does too. It's not so much as being precise on the timing as it is about understanding. Pesach is the Doorway to Life. Pesach without Matsah is counterproductive because you would be immortal and separated from God and imperfect because Matsah is the day that our souls are "unyeasted," the fungus of religion and politics are removed from our souls so that we appear perfect before God so that He can adopt us into His family. In the Covenant family we are immortal and perfected. That's the benefit of the first three Mow'ed Miqra'ey with Pesach, Matsah and Bikuwrym all under the umbrella of Chag Matsah leading to Shabuwa'ah which is the promise of the Shabat where the beneficiaries of Pesach, Matsah and Bikuwrym are enriched, empowered, and enlightened. We are these things for our own benefit, but also for the benefit of others so that we can be effective troubadours explaining and sharing God's message as a constant celebration of Taruwa'ah.

I think one of the reasons we don't know the year that Taruwa'ah will be fulfilled is because it is the constant Miqra'. We've been celebrating it now six and seven days a week for almost 21 years; it does have an eternity to it. And, of course, those first five Mow'ed Miqra'ey lead to Reconciliations which is the celebration of Yahowah's relationship being restored with Yisra'el/Israelis and Yahuwdah/Jews because they have been on a timeout from Yahowah for the past 3,000 years, and there haven't been any Yisra'elites that have been willing to openly engage and learn what Yahowah is offering and share vociferously His people, openly exposing and condemning Judaism while revealing the truth about Yahowah's name apart from those who came through the door because of the work we are doing here, the books we have written and the shows that we have provided. So there are now Gowym such as ourselves who are committed to awakening the Chosen People so that there will be a sizable reunion come Yowm Kipurym in Year 6000 Yah at sunset on October 2, 2033 in Yaruwshaliam. Five days later the Earth is restored to the conditions found in 'Eden and we celebrate life on Earth with Yahowah in His home with Dowd as our King and Shepherd for 1,000 years beginning on Sukah in Year 6000 Yah, which is also in 2033.

Many of you know that Israel is going through a triple heartache. The first is that the Muslims are going berserk again; the way they celebrate Ramadan is to kill Jews. They are returning to their savage roots and murdering Jews, so it is a very tough time for Yahowah's People. We are saddened by the response of Muslims to Jews.

The second trauma is the abandonment by this administration. It not only is trying to undermine Israel for the benefit of the Fakestinians and impose a Two-State non-solution, or what I would call the Final Solution, which is the ultimate destruction of Israel, as soon as the Two-State Solution is imposed Israel will become the next Czechoslovakia with Peace in Our Time as Neville Chamberlain so ignorantly purposed. This trauma is materializing in what has to be the worst administration in the history of America now working on a nuclear deal with Iran that not only assures they will have a nuclear bomb but that they will have enormous amounts of monies to build all manner of drones and missiles to deliver that bomb. It's a very sad thing that America has done, but if you read the Towrah and prophets, particularly Yasha'yah 17 and 18, it becomes abundantly clear that in the Last Days Yahowah is most angry at the United States of America, and it's for this kind of stupidity and belligerence.

During dinner we watch newscasts from around the world. We don't watch American newscasts unless it's some political commentator that we find interesting. A couple nights ago we were watching news from Australia, and the mainstream media was doing a series of prime time news shows mocking the United States. This is supposed to be our friend. They were mocking the United States as they played clips of Biden saying things like, "Sanctions are not a deterrent; they are there to create pain." Then he continues to plunge the world into __ food shortages, roaring inflation, energy shortages, and actually provoked the war that we are experiencing in the Ukraine and continues to impose sanctions and says, "Okay, they don't exist."

They would show clips of public speeches and addresses of what is easily the least qualified person to ever hold the office of Vice President of the United States, Kamala Harris. After playing perhaps three minutes of her clips they would look awestruck and say, "How is it possible that America has sunk this far that they would have such an unqualified person as a leader of the country?" The Vice President of the United States is wholly and totally, absolutely, unequivocally unqualified for that position, dangerous to this country, and a laughing stock around the world, as is the Biden Administration.

About six months to a year ago I did a show where one of the news items was the finding of Hunter Biden's laptop, and that the initial reports on that laptop affirmed that Hunter Biden and his father, Joe Biden, had profited considerably in their dealings with the Ukraine and with the Communist Chinese government. For mentioning what was a mainstream news story at that time, this program was banned from You Tube because "it was interference with election policy." Interestingly, my commentary was fact-based and five months after the election, maybe even longer.

The FBI now has Hunter Biden's laptop. The dealings between Hunter Biden, the inclusion of Joe Biden, and dealings with the Communist Chinese government to the tune of millions of dollars, the records show that Joe Biden was compensated along with Hunter Biden. The records also show that Joe Biden also tried to assist those that Hunter Biden was dealing with; that's bribery. He flat out denounced and denied it during the presidential debates, and it turned out to be an absolute lie. He knew it, it happened, so it was a huge issue in that presidential election. Not only did Biden lie knowing, it should be an impeachable act. The news media, except for a few political commentators who had the story right, not only denied that there was any validity to the claims that Hunter Biden and Joe Biden profited mightily from deals that were being done in the Ukraine and with the Communist Chinese government and they attacked and tried to besmirch the reputation of any one, including Trump, who claimed otherwise.

Now they are running retractions, and are trying to bury them. They will have a benign opening paragraph and will say in the middle of the article that it's verified and far worse than anyone could have imagined. It is sad how the U S news media has become an echo chamber of the Progressives, and how little of what they say is correct. It's very frustrating in today's world how truth has become so endangered.

If you pay any attention to the Ukrainian war you will recognize that the West banned any report from Russia so that we don't have access to what one side says is happening, and the information we are getting from the other side is not the least bit credible. Virtually everything they have reported thus far has turned out to be not true. It's a disaster and there's no sense of responsibility for us weaponizing the Ukraine or the consequence in lives.

The third thing I want to talk about regarding Israel is that there are two Knesset members who both were in the Yemenite Party which would be the current prime minister's party. The sad thing about the parliamentary system is that a man with 10% of the seats in the Knesset became prime minister by cobbling together a coalition of very different groups of Liberals, Conservatives, even Muslims. He was able, particularly by bribing the Muslims, ___ to come up with the 61 seats. He's had two defections. One was the chairman of the coalition. It comes out that she spent the night before her announcement with Netanyahu at three o'clock in the morning, scheming to be Minister of Health, and her position within the Likud hierarchy.

There was a time when I had respect for Netanyahu because he was the one person who on occasion would say that there's no such thing as Palestine or a Palestinian. He would say it very bluntly. I appreciated his willingness to criticize the Obama Administration for the deal that they struck with Iraq. So Netanyahu had merit from those points of view, but he was a disaster in terms of his alliance and therefore bribery for the Hasidic ultra-Orthodox religious parties such that their festering cancers continue to destroy Israel because they were needed for his coalition. During the time that he was stripped of power, his only interest was personally regaining power. He was never interested in what was best for Israel, only what was best for him. His true nature came out when he was an opposition leader, and it was revolting.

So we sit now in Israel where the current prime minister, Bennett, has two votes shy in the Knesset in order to confirm his government and yet there are all sorts of maneuvering taking place trying to maintain that government. It's sad in a way because he doesn't have the backbone to stand up to the United States for anything. So it is time for a change. We care deeply about Israel, so this is a subject that is important to us.

Netanyahu turned down a plea deal that would have kept him out of jail on the bribery charges. When you read what he did, I can't see how he stays out of jail, so it's not going to be pretty if this trial finally resolves and he is prime minister and you have Israel's prime minister thrown in jail. It's a frustrating time for God's People.

If you were Yisra'el today and you were to say, 'We need to listen to Yahowah. We need to recognize that Yahowah is God's name and that He is vehemently opposed to Judaism. He's not pleased with our politics either. If we are going to form a relationship with Him we have to disavow religion and politics. Can you imagine saying that as a Jew in Israel?

This is the last passage we covered last week.

“Then I listened (wa shama’ – so I heard) to the One speaking to me (dabar ‘el ‘any) from (min) the Family Home (ha beyth – the Household of the Covenant).

That's a nice introduction. What we tend to call the Temple Yahowah doesn't refer to as a temple. There are a couple words in Hebrew that are sometimes translated as such, but 90% of the time when we read temple in an English translation the actual word that is being mistranslated is beyth. Beyth means “family, household, home, and house.” Beyth does not mean temple. Beyth is the basis of beryth which is “the family oriented Covenant relationship.” So just this introduction to this statement, “I listened,” this fellow, Yachezq’el, is a prophet. He has an inside track to God and yet he began by saying, “I listened.” I've been translating until recently Daniel, and all Daniel says is that he studied the Towrah, the prophets, and he listened to God. These are the prophets, and that's what they do. Don't you think we ought to do it? Now if you want to do it,

“Then I listened (wa shama’ – so I heard) to the One speaking to me,”

All you have to do is recite the Towrah and prophets. You are listening to God speaking to you when we read what He said to Yachezq’el. These are the words, and it comes from the family home. When Yahowah returns and reestablishes the Earth, the kingdom of Dowd/David, and Yisra'el, makes Earth His home, and fills it with His light, He calls it a Home because it is a home for the Covenant family; it's our home too. You'll notice is says,

“from (min) the Family Home”

Yes, it's Yahowah's home, but it is also Yisra'el's home and our home as part of the Covenant family.

This Individual (wa ‘ysh) came to be present, standing (hayah ‘amad – was upright, taking a stand) beside me (‘etsel ‘any – by my side, right next to me). (Yachezq’el 43:6) And He spoke as God to me (wa ‘amar ‘el ‘any), Yahowah can transform a small portion of His light energy and present Himself as an individual. He does that because it's easier for us to relate to without us being intimidated. He doesn't want to intimidate or overwhelm us, He wants us to be comfortable around Him so that we can listen to Him. So when He presented Himself and was standing beside Yachezq’el He spoke to Yachezq’el as God.

Yachezq’el/Ezekiel is constantly called ben ‘Adam/son of man. It's an interesting title – it's a descendant of the first man created in Yahowah's image.

‘Son of ‘Adam (ben ‘adam – child of the first man created in God’s image), this place where I am standing is the Home of My throne (‘eth maqowm kise’ ‘any – this dwelling is the location of My seat of honor). And in association with this place, the soles of My feet stand firmly (wa ‘eth maqowm kaph regel ‘any).

For that to have been said by Yahowah, He would have had to taken Yachezq’el forward in time, which was easy for God to do. God can take any of us, or He Himself can go forward or back in time because He is basically light energy, and on a photon of light, time exists. Time simply is, it's not timeless, it's the fullness of time on a photon of light. So as a seven-dimensional construct, if you will, so long as you are more than four dimensions, or fully four dimensions, you can maneuver in time; you can witness the future. This concept has tremendous benefits for us because this is what He did for Yachezq'el.

The universe is very large, approximately 95 billion light years across. If you are traveling at the speed of light it would take 95 billion years to get from one side to the other. That's a long time. Even if we could move at the speed of light it would make most of the universe, even at the speed of light, way beyond anyone's reach.

But here's the thing that makes the future as light so spectacular. On a photon of light it doesn't take 95 billion years to get from one side of the universe to the other – it takes no time because on a photon of light time simply is. So you can get from one side to the other in no time at all. That is a fascinating thing. But also because time for us is linear and we are stuck in the flow of it, to be at the greater dimensions, which Yahowah is, He has to be at least seven dimensions, (and is likely seven dimensions because He created a six-dimensional universe). A being can always create a universe in one less dimension relatively easily without expending much of their own energy to do so. So all Yahowah has to be is seven-dimensional to create a six-dimensional universe. But as you pass the fourth dimension, then you have the ability to go forward or back in time.

So what happens here with Yachezq'el is that Yahowah took him to the future, and he is witnessing the aftermath of Yahowah's return. So he is standing there in Year 6000 Yah which is 2033. I hear a Jew listening to this and saying, 'No. Wait a minute. It's only year 57 and change, so what are you talking about, it's 5989. How can that be?' That's because Maimonides was a nincompoo. His dates have nothing to do with the genealogy in the Towrah.

The genealogy in the Towrah is to enable you to know what year was 1000, 2000, 3000, 4000, 5000, 6000 Yah so that you can know that in 2000 Yah, 40 Yowbel after expulsion from 'Eden, the Covenant was formed with 'Abraham. So that you can know that in 3000 Yah Dowd established the Cornerstone for the House of Yahowah on Mount Mowryah. So that you can know that in 4000 Yah, 40 Yowbel from the expulsion from 'Eden, which happens to be 2033 on both the Julian and Gregorian calendars, the first four Miqra'ey were fulfilled, and so that you would know that Year 6000 Yah is 2033 on our current calendars.

But Maimonides didn't do that. He had what he called “the sanctification of the moon” and then fell in love as the Muslims do, you can see that he was tainted by Islam. He was a Vicar of Salidan; he lived among Muslims and was one of their champions.

The big thing about the Qu'ran is this “multiple of nineteen,” a prime number. The Rambam became fascinated with the prime number 19. It was 19 times moon phases, and that's how he came up with his timeline. He said his timeline was back to creation which is stupid. The earth is 5 billion years old ... 14 billion years old, the timeline goes back to 'Adam and Chawah being bolted from the garden. But the Rambam wasn't smart enough to figure out any of that and therefore has a bogus timeline that makes no sense and is extraordinarily easy to disprove, but if you're a religious Jew you don't bother because to question the rabbis or Maimonides, oh my goodness, they would have a tizzy fit over that.

We have eleven years to go until Yahowah returns in 2033 which is Year 6000 Yah, and that is what Yachezq'el was taken forward to so that he could see Yahowah standing in His home next to His throne, which by the way He's not sitting on. He was standing there, that's what it says, "He was standing there. Why? Because His throne is not for Him. His throne is for David and for every Covenant member. It is the seat of Dowd but the cool thing about living with Yahowah is that we all get to sit on it. As for me, I prefer just to look at it. There's too much inference that if you sit on it you've got responsibility, and I don't want any more. I'm happy to see Dowd sitting on it. But we can sit on it if we want to, and if Yahowah is standing there I may go over there for a moment just because it would be cool to snuggle up to Dad.

Happily, as a result of the relationship ('asher – as a blessing and benefit of the association), I will dwell here in this place where My name endures (shakan shem – this is My dwelling place, My home, where My name abides) in the midst (ba tawek) of the Children of Yisra'el (beny Yisra'el – of the offspring who engage and endure with God) forevermore (la 'owlam – for all time).

So I'm here to tell you that unless a whole lot of of the Children of Yisra'el start reading Yada Yahowah, stop being political and religious, the number of the Children of Yisra'el that are going to be gathered there is going to be very small. It's sneaking up on us; the last sands are going through this hourglass. And if you are a Yahuwd/Jew or of the other tribe of Yisra'elites, you have a maximum of eleven years to be among the few where Yahowah's name is part of your life. I'm hoping there are many thousands and we will continue to do everything we can to expose and condemn Judaism and Israeli politics, religion, politics, and militarism as a whole and will continue to condemn those things that God hates so that more and more people start questioning them because until you start to question them, leave and disassociate from them you cannot pursue a relationship with Yahowah. We will continue to share the terms and conditions of His Covenant and the meaning of each of the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey.

There's no short cut to this if you're curious about getting to know Yahowah as He revealed Himself, understand what He is offering and expecting in return. There are now over 20 volumes of the Yada Yahowah series that have been rewritten expressly for you available at yadayah.com that you can read for free. David has instituted a bookmark system so that you can mark where you left off in any book, or multiple books, and you can share your bookmarks by emailing the bookmark link to another Covenant member or a friend and say, "Hey read this," and you can read together.

So, you don't have a lot of time, so I want to share two things with you. Two-thirds of Jews are going to die between now and then, and most Jews who survive those eleven years are going to be wiped out by Yahowah upon His return. I'm not stating this as my opinion, I'm not stating this because I want it to be so. I'm stating it because this is what Yahowah says. Two out of every three Yisra'elites are going to die between now and 2033, and God is going to aggressively annihilate, embarrass and humble the religious and political who survive up to that point. God despises religion and politics, and they are never going to have a relationship with Him. So you want to be careful that you don't push the envelope because you may not make it. While one in three surviving until His return and the majority of them then being wiped out is better than what's going to happen to Gowym. A higher percentage of Gowym are going to die over the next eleven years.

So why wait? Yahowah is not demanding; He doesn't have a single law. He doesn't ask you to bow down to Him, or pray to Him, He doesn't ask you to make donations to Him because you can't buy your way into Heaven. He does not care that you are not perfect – his favorite guy, Dowd, was pretty imperfect. He's not asking you to be perfect and He's not asking you to do anything but walk away from religion, walk to Him along the path that He has provided, which are the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey, which are nothing like the way that is practiced by the rabbis. You can read about them in the volumes that exist just on the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, volumes 4,5 and 6 of Yada Yahowah! After you have walked to Him along the path that He has provided, trust and rely upon Him. You can't trust and rely upon Yahowah unless you come to know Yahowah and understand what He's offering. That is why we have taken this time to translate and comment on so many passages to try to help you understand how these things apply to your life.

Then God says He wants us to be especially observant. Observant doesn't mean keep or obey; it means "to closely examine and carefully consider." He wants us to explore and evaluate the terms and conditions/mitswah of His Covenant relationship to understand what He is offering and what He is expecting in return. I've given you the first four of what He is asking, and you have five fingers on your hand; there is a fifth. The fifth is that He asks us to circumcise our sons on the eighth day. If we are not circumcised as men, we must be circumcised to engage in the Covenant. Those are the five conditions.

The five benefits I have already shared with you. They are provided by the first four Miqra'ey and were fulfilled in Year 4000 Yah. Eternal life, being perfected by God, being adopted into His family, and being enriched and empowered by Him, that is what He is offering.

Happily, as a result of the relationship ('asher – as a blessing and benefit of the association),

'Asher is the word that began all this for us and is the reason 2 Samuel 7 has been translated 8 – 10 times throughout these many volumes because 'asher is in that prophecy. English Bibles all say, "When he sends or if he sends I will not spare the rod." I had been misled by my former religion. I am absolutely and equivocally anti-Christianity now, although at one time I was one. This passage is used to suggest that it speaks of the Christian "Jesus." There was no such individual; he was most certainly not the Messiah and there was no "Christ." His name was Yahowsha'. I thought it spoke of Yahowsha', and so when it says, "If he sends, when he sends I will not spare the rod," and it caused me to say, "If he sends then he's no longer the perfect Passover Lamb and he's now paying this price for himself and this can't be true." So I began translating it to find out what it said, and I found out that 'asher is a relational term so it's "When son is associated with him." The more we translated and studied it the more we learned.

Translation requires learning; you can't do an effective job of translating Yahowah's testimony simply by saying, "This word means this today so I'm going to render it as such." No. You have to understand the story and know what God is talking about. In 2 Samuel 7 He's talking to Dowd and about Dowd; we learned that as we moved through.

It was that word 21 years ago that caused now twenty-some-odd books of translations. 'Asher is a verb, a preposition, and a noun. It means many things, but you can distill it down to that "it is the proper path that shows the correct way to walk to receive the benefits of the relationship." It is the way to get the greatest joy out of life. So any and all those thoughts apply when we see 'asher.

Happily, as a result of the relationship ('asher – as a blessing and benefit of the association), I will dwell here in this place where My name endures (shakan shem – this is My dwelling place, My home, where My name abides) in the midst (ba tawek) of the Children of Yisra'el (beny Yisra'el – of the offspring who engage and endure with God) forevermore for all time.

So for Yahowah's name to endure, the rabbis have to go bye-bye. There will be no Hasidic Jews, no Orthodox, ultra-orthodox, reformed, no conservative religious Jews left because they are all against saying or recognizing Yahowah's name. There will be no Roman Catholics, no Protestant or Orthodox Christians, no Muslims or any Secular Humanists. It will be a place where Yahowah's name endures.

When you become a member of Yahowah's Covenant, Yahowah's name endures as part of you. He says, "I'll give you a better name." The name He's giving us is His name. We become His children and so we inherit His name.

Keep in mind here that the last part of this phrase is, beny Yisra'el. God's focus has been and continues to be on the descendants of Ya'aqob, He's not interested in a Gentile association. Gowym can become part of the Covenant. How do we become part of the Covenant? By becoming part of Yisra'el, not trying to steal what belongs to Yisra'el. These books are written for Yisra'el. You may wonder how can you be anti-Judaism and be pro Israel. Because God is and we are following His example.

And so (wa) the Family of Yisra'el (beyth Yisra'el – the family of those liberated and empowered by God) shall never again besmirch or corrupt (lo'tame'owd – will not ever again throughout the whole of time desecrate, vandalize, taint, defile, or sully) My Set-Apart name (qodesh shem 'any) – they (hem) or their religious and political leaders and advisors (wa melek hem) with their unfaithfulness and spiritual adultery (ba zanuwth hem – in their harlotry and whoredom or with their religious immorality) or with their leaders' shrines to worship their corpses (wa ba peger melek hem bamah hem – with their reverence for their leaders' exhaustive and deadly rhetoric, with the worship of the memory of dead religious and political authorities in high places).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 43:7)

That is such a powerful statement. There was no religion, politics, no police or IDF, court or justice system in 'Eden, no taxation, donations, or prayer services existed. We are told about 'Eden/the Garden of Great Joy because it's God's idea of an ideal experience with us. We enjoy life and nature together, we explore and talk, learn and share together. That's God's idea of perfection. When He starts with the Doorway that is Pesach and ends with Sukah/Shelters which means “to camp out with God,” through those seven Miqra'ey we are returning to 'Eden. In Year 6000 Yah, 2033, God is going to cleanse the earth of all religious and political corruption and return it, starting with Yisra'el, back into the conditions experienced in 'Eden. He says, “All the religious edifices and host of religious people will be incinerated.”

So we are returning to a time when Yahowah's name will never be besmirched again. The most prevalent way that Yahowah's name is besmirched and corrupted is to not say it, to write it out of His Towrah. You will never find a religious Jew ever writing or even saying Yahowah's name. The same is true of Christians and Muslims. Yahowah is serious about His name. His name is set apart/qodesh; His name is a do-or-die issue. Knowing, using and loving and respecting His name is not enough alone for you to enter Heaven. But not using His name, calling Him “the Lord,” Adonai, “May He Be Blessed” or G-d is enough to exclude you from Heaven. It is the unforgivable sin among the Ten Statements that were carve in stone. So God is saying His name means a lot to Him and if it does not mean a lot to you then you do not know Him, you are not part of His family and you do will not be among those who are celebrating His return entering His home.

“My set-apart Name will never again be besmirched or corrupted by religious or political leaders.”

It is essential that we recognize that since this is Ezekiel in Yahowah's home at the time of His return, that right up to that point religious Jews were continuing to devalue Yahowah's name, right to the bitter end. So this is a direct assault upon Judaism as it is practiced today. Now you could ask, "Why are you picking on Judaism when Christianity, Islam and Social Secular Humanism are all as guilty?" Yes they are. But Yahowah didn't give the Towrah to them; He revealed it to His people, Yisra'el, and He's returning to His people, Yisra'el. So it's true that Christians, Muslims, Social Secular Humanists, Progressives, and the Conspiratorial are not going to be part of God's family and will not enter the new 'Eden and return to God. This is written to the Children of Yisra'el and the religion He is condemning is Judaism as it is practiced today.

And so (wa) the Family of Yisra'el (beyth Yisra'el – the family of those liberated and empowered by God) shall never again besmirch or corrupt (lo' tame' 'owd – will not ever again throughout the whole of time desecrate, vandalize, taint, defile, or sully) My Set-Apart name (godesh shem 'any) – they (hem) or their religious and political leaders and advisors (wa melek hem) with their unfaithfulness and spiritual adultery (ba zanuwth hem – in their harlotry and whoredom or with their religious immorality)

When Yahowah speaks of adultery He is not speaking of a man having or of a woman having a physical relationship with someone who is not their spouse. We know that because 'Abraham had more than one wife. Dowd ... by far, who Yahowah constantly says is right, had eight wives and ten concubines. The only one He says anything about is Bathsheba because of the way Dowd acquired her for his wife. Mosheh had more than one wife. That's not God's issue when He speaks of adultery. When He wrote it as one of the Seven Statements on the Second Tablet, He was talking about spiritual adultery where His people choose to worship false gods. That's the nature of Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Even Social Secularist Humanism has their false gods, which are men.

And so (wa) the Family of Yisra'el (beyth Yisra'el – the family of those liberated and empowered by God) shall never again besmirch or corrupt (lo' tame' 'owd – will not ever again throughout the whole of time desecrate, vandalize, taint, defile, or sully) My Set-Apart name (godesh shem 'any) – they (hem) or their religious and political leaders and advisors (wa melek hem) with their unfaithfulness and spiritual adultery (ba zanuwth hem – in their harlotry and whoredom or with their religious immorality) or with their leaders' shrines to worship their corpses (wa ba peger melek hem bamah hem – with their reverence for their leaders' exhaustive and deadly rhetoric, with the worship of the memory of dead religious and political authorities in high places).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 43:7)

Judaism has a greater fascination with the graves of dead rabbis than any other religion on earth. Muslims aren't bowing down to Muhammad's grave, Christians don't bow down to Jesus' grave, Social Secular Humanists don't prostrate themselves at grave sites. My favorite American is Thomas Jefferson. I have visited his home and his grave site and there was no genuflecting or religious experience there. But the rabbis and religious Jews make countless pilgrimages to the sites of dead rabbis, and God's got their number.

So that was the passage we ended with in last week's program. I'm sorry for going into such detail, but I love this stuff. Every word that God communicates interests me and I want to share why it should be relevant to you.

Some of the commentary I want to share with you about this is that Yahowah is exceedingly serious about Yisra'el. The series of books we have written are all published under the name Yada Yahowah.

Yada' means “to know, to be aware of, to acknowledge, to be familiar with and to understand Yahowah.” There is no trick to pronouncing Yahowah. He told Mosheh that it was based upon the verb hayah, which tells you how to pronounce the yah/hayah. The book we celebrate is called the Towrah. The “o” sound comes from the wah. So between hayah and towrah you've got all four letters of Yahowah's name. You could add shalowm if you're still curious as to how to pronounce the wah. The “o” sound in shalowm is the wah. This is not difficult. The four letters in Yahowah's name are all vowels. YaHoWaH.

After introducing Himself by name in the first of the Three Statements He etched in stone. Yahowah said that, “You will not exist with another god in My presence.” He also let us know that He is liberating us from the ways of man; that's what the First Statement says, “I am the One that freed you from being held in bondage in Mitsraym/the Crucibles of Human, Religious and Political Oppression.” He is liberating us from the ways of man and is asking us not to be religious in the Second Statement.

The Second Statement that Yahowah etched in stone from beginning to end is, “Do not be religious. Don't associate with any aspect of religion not under any circumstances, because when you are religious you corrupt your children to the third and fourth generation.”

Yahowah states that the nullification and renunciation of His name are unforgivable in the Third Statement that He etched in stone. That's the entire statement. He says, “It's absolutely unforgivable if you negate the value of My name,” which every religious Jew does, every Christian, Muslim, and Socialist Secular Humanist does. If you devalue Yahowah's name God will not forgive you. And if He does not forgive you, you have no chance of being part of the Covenant, which means the end of your life is either the end of your existence and your soul fades into oblivion or if you have been part of the problem and you are leading others astray, then your soul will go to the place that rabbis pretend doesn't exist, She'owl, which is eternal incarceration in what is equivalent of a black hole.

The only crime so designated amongst everything that Yahowah wrote throughout the Towrah and prophets is the negation of His name, and what is the single most salient aspect of Judaism? The unwillingness to say God's name, the unwillingness to write God's name, the unwillingness to celebrate God's name is unforgivable.

And now upon His return to His family and home, the highlight of His arrival as He shares this moment with Ezekiel/ Yachezq'el is never having to hear anyone desecrate His name again. Writing a “G-d” or a “His Name Be Blessed,” by writing HaShem, Adonai, the Lord, never again. That's a wholesale review of Judaism.

And let's be clear – this crime is still being perpetrated by religious Jews. They never say it, write it, or even acknowledge it. They do not associate themselves, the Towrah, Beryth, or Miqra'ey with it. And they are the reason Yahowah's name remains unknown, the sole reason four billion people believe that it is either Jesus or Allah. The only reason that four billion people believe that God is Jesus and Allah is because religious Jews, rabbis, chose to desecrate, hide and never say or speak His name. There is zero chance that Christianity could have taken root in the third century CE if rabbis had proclaimed boldly God has but one name and His name is Yahowah therefore you can't have a god named “Jesus.” There would be no god named “Allah” if the rabbis in Yahthrib when they recited their Talmud stories to Muhammad to give him the message that he bastardized and twisted to create his Quran had referred to God as Yahowah. Then you would know that he can't say, and he does, that Allah inspired the Towrah, that the Quran confirms the Towrah, that God was Allah. You can't say any of that because you would be laughed out of Arabia. (Muhammad didn't grow up in Arabia, but in Petra, today's Jordan) Had Jews referred to themselves as Yahuwdym/Yah's Beloved, had they celebrated His name and His Towrah as it is written, had they recognized that the prophets predicted the exact day that the Passover Lamb would arrive in Yaruwshalaim on our calendar in 33 CE four days before Passover, had they done these things, they wouldn't have had the menacing religions of Christianity and Islam that have so tortured them over these years to finally give up on the failure that is Judaism. Therefore, Yahowah is holding Judaism and its practitioners liable for the most egregious crime ever perpetrated by any individual or institution in all of human history.

More than Judaism, every religion man has conceived is “idoltrous and immoral.” The statue of “Saint Peter,” in front of the Roman Catholic Cathedral bearing “his name,” was originally carved by pagans to represent the Roman god, Jupiter. The obelisk at the center of the Vatican still bears the Egyptian inscription, certifying that Amen is god. The Ka’aba, which was moved from Petra to Mecca, is a rock shrine to rock gods, the largest of which is represented by a Black Stone. Judaism is proclaimed under the “Star of David.” David did not have a star. It is a legacy of Kabbalah. America’s most treasured symbol, the Statue of Liberty, depicts the Greek goddess, Athena. The Christian cross was first associated with Tammuz in Babylon and then combined with the sun to form the Egyptian Ankh – the symbol of god and eternal life in that pagan religion.

From a political perspective, the Washington, Jefferson, and Lincoln Memorials in America are actually called “temples and shrines.” Tributes to Marx, Lenin, and Mao were god-like in Russia and China. Even in the Promised Land, the words of Rabbis Hillel, Akiba, and Maimonides are considered “scripture” among religious Jews, and Christians have more saints than brains. Religious and political capitols are littered with tributes to the forefathers of these institutions. But sadly for them, and those misled by them, this is all that will ever be known of them, because they will be excluded from heaven, along with their memory. The monuments to their lives, like their rotting carcasses, will be no more.

The rhetoric so loved by men is hated by God. The forefathers so esteemed by men, with enormous edifices erected in their honor, will be seen as less than worthless by the God who has already rejected and shunned them. He has been to our future; He has already destroyed them.

It may seem odd to our ears to hear Yahowah speak of the religious leaders of Israel committing religious adultery by establishing shrines to venerate the gravesites and rotting carcasses of their most esteemed individuals. But this is what they have done, not just in Israel but in Diaspora as Judaism was developed not just throughout Europe but in the Ukraine. There's reason that World War III began in the Ukraine. It is not only the birthplace of Judaism as it is practiced today, and yes, Judaism as it is practiced today was created in the Ukraine, and God hates it. It is also the place where the European animosity towards Jews festered and grew. It is in the Ukraine that more Jews per capita were hunted down and killed over a longer period of time than any other place on Earth. It is the place where there is a higher percentage of armed Nazis than any other nation on Earth. That's why the Ukraine became ground zero for what will grow into World War III.

Some pages ago, I emphasized the point Yahowah was making when He spoke of rabbis plastering over and whitewashing His Towrah testimony. That is to say that they covered over what He conveyed so that they could write their Talmud over His Towrah. In fact they went so far as to call their god damned Babylonian Talmud the Torah. They even call their religious party Torah when in fact they celebrate the Babylonian Talmud. It is the same point Yahowah is making here but now in reference to the Mow’ed Miqra’ey, whereby Pesach and Matsah provide the Doorway and Threshold to His Home.

“With them offering (ba nathan hem – with them appointing) their doorway and threshold (saph hem – their approach and entrance) juxtaposed against and in opposition to (‘eth) My Doorway and Threshold (saph ‘any – My approach and entrance), and their doorframe (mazuwzah hem – their framework of a doorway which provides access to a home) beside (‘etsel – in juxtaposition and proximity to) My Doorframe (mazuwzah ‘any – My doorposts and framework of the passageway into My home), so now there is this wall (wa ha qyr – now there is this chilly and deep divide, an agonizing barrier) between Me (bayn ‘any) and between them (wa bayn hem).

This is the problem with religion. Judaism was not made out of thin air with Baal Shem Tov and the rabbis that were before him. They plastered over and created their edifice right next to, and in many cases, right on top of Yahowah's testimony. Jews speak of the fact that they will soon be celebrating Passover. For them, Passover is simply a historic event about the exodus from Egypt. They don't speak of it as being the Doorway to Life. The central ingredient of Passover is the recognition of the sacrifice of the Pesach Lamb/Pesach/'Ayl which all they will do is put an inedible bone that they call a “zarowa” on the plate.

Zarowa' happens to be one of the most powerful, prophetic tools. Zarowa' is a “Sacrificial Lamb,” “a Protective Shepherd,” “the Leader of the Flock,” and is “one who sows the seeds of truth” which can take root and grow. Mosheh, Dowd, and Yahowsha' were Zarowa's. It's hard to imagine, but God couldn't find a Jew that was willing to listen to Him, and so the final zarowa', according to the prophets, is the person now speaking to you. And yet there's no understanding of that, even though God was very clear about it throughout His Towrah and prophets. One of the great tragedies of Judaism is that in trying to besmirch the reputation of Yahowsha', who Christians call “Jesus Christ,” they fail to recognize even though Gabriel told Daniel exactly when he was going to come into Yisra'el on Pesach in 4000 Yah, he gave him the exact date when he was coming to town, they do not accept him as the Passover Lamb. If you don't accept him as the Passover Lamb, how in the world are you going to have the right doorway? You're not going to know how Yahowah fulfilled the promise He made to 'Abraham and Yitschaq on Mount Mowryah back in Year 2000 Yah so that He fulfilled it 40 Yowbel later in year 4000 Yah by putting His nepesh into Yahowsha' so that He Himself became the sacrifice. You don't accept it; you reject it. You are rejecting the Doorway to Life and and worse you are putting your own damned doorway right next to it. If God's doorway leads to life, where in the hell do you think the fake doorway leads?

And by the way, the thing the Christians do is the same thing that religious Jews are now doing. The worst possible outcome is to celebrate Passover and not Matsah. And if you think that Matsah is simply about a missing ingredient and it's still Passover but without yeast, you are mistaken. It is Chag Matsah of which Pesach is part. If you don't capitalize on the purpose of Matsah which is where Yahowah's soul, His nepesh, was sent by the Set-Apart Spirit into She'owl to remove and to pay the ransom to purge our souls of religion and politics to perfect us. If you don't celebrate Matsah, Pesach is counterproductive because now your soul is immortal and eternally separated from God.

You have to think it through. In Judaism there is no celebration of Chag Matsah; matsah is simply yeast, an ingredient that is simply missing from the diet of Passover. That's not good enough. It's wholly counterproductive; it's like Jews celebrating the death and resurrection of their god having no clue that God didn't die, the Passover Lamb gave its body, and that Matsah followed immediately thereafter, integrated as part of the overall sacrifice so that not only we might live but we might live perfected with the fungus of religion and politics removed from us so that we could be adopted on Bikuwrym, a day religious Jews do not celebrate.

They don't like to celebrate Shabuw'ah either because they think it was confiscated by those pesky Christians as Pentecost when Shabuw'ah represents the promise of the Shabat. God is enriching, enlightening and empowering us. And oh, by the way, since it's seven shabats, and that's what Shabuw'ah means, it's sounding like God is working on that day, isn't it? He's empowering and enriching us. There's no edict about making the Shabat a day of a thousand rules on how to do nothing. No. It's about being enriched and empowered and then celebrating being enlightened.

So this says that Judaism has created their doorway that is juxtaposed against and in opposition to Yahowah's doorway. Yahowah's doorway leads to life – the Jewish religious doorway leads to death. And beside their door frame, their threshold, is Yahowah's. We've long said that Matsah is the Threshold into Yahowah's home. That's what this says, but it also says in Judaism they have their own, and in so doing, they have created a wall between Yahowah and the religious.

They defiled, vandalized, and besmirched (wa tame' eth – they desecrated, tainted, and sullied) My Set-Apart name (shem qodesh any)

The single greatest and most perpetrated crime, because not only did it mislead millions of Jews, causing them to be excluded from the Covenant and from Heaven, causing them to be tied up in their underwear over all the things that the rabbis tell them they can't do or must do, is that at no time do they tell them to love, revere and accept Yahowah's name. And of course, because they didn't do that, there was a religion that grew up that called themselves Christians as they attempt to rob Dowd of the title of Messiah.

They defiled, vandalized, and besmirched (wa tame' eth – they desecrated, tainted, and sullied) My Set-Apart name (shem qodesh any) with their detestable abominations and repulsive religion (ba tow'ebah hem – with their loathsome and abhorrent worship) which they have engaged in (asher asah – which they have acted upon and participated in).

This proclamation is being conveyed to Yachezq'el upon Yahowah's return in Year 6000 Yah, 2033 on our calendar, and God is besmirching and condemning the religion of His people at that time. God is condemning Judaism.

I'm frustrated with Netanyahu returning to power is because his ability to form a coalition is wholly dependent upon the three religious parties and him making all sorts of concessions to them so they control the Western Wall and immigration into Yisra'el, they determine who is qualified to be a citizen, they determine who can be married, who can be divorced, where and what Jews can eat, and how they live their lives. That should never be the case, but with Netanyahu it is what he must do to satisfy his lust for power.

So, I have grown weary of them and have decided that they should perish (wa kalah eth hem – so I am done yearning for them) in My resentment and animosity (ba aph any – as a result of My disappointment and displeasure over this situation).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 43:8)

Somewhere in the midst of our program here I said that two out every three Jews will die between now and 2033 when Yahowah returns and that of the one-third that survive, the majority of them will perish at God's hand because He is not going to allow a religious or an overtly political person into the Promised Land upon His return. God is disgusted with them,

So, I have grown weary of them and have decided that they should perish (wa kalah 'eth hem – so I am done yearning for them) in My resentment and animosity (ba 'aph 'any – as a result of My disappointment and displeasure over this situation).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 43:8)

God has said it, we must say it. If you are a Yisra'elite, if you are a Yahuwd/Jew the only opportunity for you to become part of the Covenant, to come to know Yahowah and become part of His family, to survive His return, which is imminent – it is going to happen within eleven years - is for you to reject Judaism. Period, no exceptions.

So, I have grown weary of them and have decided that they should perish (wa kalah 'eth hem – so I am done yearning for them) in My resentment and animosity (ba 'aph 'any – as a result of My disappointment and displeasure over this situation).” (Yachezq'el / God Grows / Ezekiel 43:8)

The rabbinical observance of Pesach has become a Cainian affair, mimicking the offering of Qayn | Cain, which was comprised of vegetables. Yahowah rejected it in favor of the lamb presented by his brother, Hebel | Abel. Therefore, just as religious Jews universally denounce the role Yahowsha' served in fulfilling Passover, they forgo the benefit of Pesach because they remain clueless as to its purpose.

Matsah is the Threshold we cross to enter Yahowah's Home. It is the day Yahowah perfects us – removing the stench and stain of religion from our souls – so that He can adopt us on Bikuwrym. However, the rabbinical variation of UnYeasted Bread is so pathetic Chag Matsah has been relegated to the exclusion of chametz.

By having done both, rabbis have constructed a wall separating the victims of Judaism from Yahowah. And this is no small thing, because it means for the past 2,000 years rabbis have precluded Jews from eternal life and from access to Heaven. This is part of the damage we are trying to undo not only with this Introduction to God and Yada Yahowah but with the entire Yada Yahowah presentation.

For those that think that we are overemphasizing Yahowah's condemnation of Judaism, I'm here to tell you it doesn't matter where you read in the prophets, Yahowah through Mosheh condemns the religion of the Jews, Shamuw'el, condemns the religion and politics of the Jews, Dowd's enemies that he is besmirching are religious and political. In the first 12 chapters of Yasha'yah Yahowah is condemning religion as it was practiced not only back then but all the way to Yahowah's return; the whole story of Judiasm in all of it's flavors. In the last twenty chapters of Yasha'yah it's the same thing – wholesale condemnation of Judaism. The same thing is true here in Yachezq'el and in Yirma'yah/Jeremiah, Howsha', and Daniel. They are all talking about today over the next eleven years and are all condemning religion amongst Jews today with no exception. We're not cherry-picking; it's overwhelming.

With that said, God does have a lot of bad things to say about Islam and Christianity. When Yahowah asked me to begin this process twenty years ago, the beginning was His request that I expose and condemn Islam. The resulting book, Prophet of Doom is probably the most complete condemnation ever written of Islam. It uses the Quran and Hadith to prove that Muhammad was a pedophile, a rapist, a liar, a mass murderer and terrorist, and is among the most disgusting people who ever lived, and that every word of the Quran is a lie.

Now there are four volumes devoted to exposing and condemning Christianity. There is no way anyone who is the least bit rational can read Questioning Paul and remain a Christian.

The rewrite of the Yada Yahowah series has been dedicated to conveying Yahowah's message that while both Islam and Christianity are horrible, and He hates and condemns them, God's focus is on exposing and condemning Judaism because Jews are His people, and it is essential that we recognize that and convey it. God hates all religions, but He hates Judaism the most.

It is impossible to overstate Yahowah's disgust with His people for having vandalized His name with their repulsive religion. God affirms His antipathy so often it is astonishing that religious Jews continue to antagonize Him in this way. And so now you know why He wanted this witness to be entitled Yada Yahowah.

I'm tell you, wherever you are listening, whether it's from our outreach in St. Louis this evening, Boston last week, Yahuwdym in Yisra'el the prior week, it does not matter where you are. There's nothing more important to Yahowah than His name. You might ask why is he so fixated on His name. Because he is real, He is not "Jesus," "Hashem," "Allah," or any other god or any unknown deity, because his name isn't "God," it's Yahowah. There's only one real God and He has only one name, Yahowah.

If you don't know Yahowah you do not know God and God does not know you. Why? Because His name says it all. It's an open hand reaching down and out to grasp hard. Two people who represent the mother and father of the Covenant, 'Abraham and Sarah, are standing in the midst of His name reaching up to His hand. Between them is the ten peg which increases, adds to, makes more secure, and enlarges the home. That is Yahowah's name, based on the verb hayah/to exist. If you want to exist you need to know and celebrate Yahowah's name. His name means something; in His Towrah He told us how to pronounce it, and religious Jews have done everything they can to hide it so that Jews will venerate the names of rabbis and not Yahowah's.

I think this is a good place to end for this evening. I'm delighted we were able to use the text that Yahowah revealed to Yachezq'el to speak about the doorway and threshold known as Pesach and Matsah because we celebrate both of them.

So I wish everyone a wonderful celebration of Pesach as we celebrate Pesach next week leading to Matsah and Bikuwrym. May Yahowah bless you and may His wonderful Set-Apart Spirit be upon you. May you celebrate His Name, may you observe His Towrah, and may you learn from His prophets. We look forward to being with you at this time next week. May Yah bless. Good night.
