

Shabat Study by Yada, November 4, 2022

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ( )? A___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to Yada Yah. I'm going to start this evening by talking about the Israeli elections. I think it's probably natural that anyone listening to this program is keen on what's happening there. It's God's country and His people even though they are absolutely and unequivocally estranged from Him.

Benjamin Netanyahu's coalition won the election this time with some 64 coalition votes in the Knesset. Even before all the votes were counted one of the comments by a member of his coalition, MK Yitzhak Pindrus, of the Netanyahu-aligned ultra-Orthodox United Torah Judaism party [torah does not mean the Towrah that we celebrate, as in Yahowah's Towrah but instead their torah which is the Talmud] told the Ynet news, "We won't treat you cruelly like you treated us. We're civilized people, not animals like you. In the government you stole, you trampled on us. You thought we were just rags. We're human beings."

The hypocrisy of Orthodox Jews is amazing. The previous government didn't do anything to them. What they wanted to do was to stop paying religious Jews to be parasites. They wanted to stop paying them to spend all day to do nothing but read their own ridiculous religious material, and that was a very wise thing. The sad thing about the Netanyahu coalition winning reelection is that the Haredi Ultra-Orthodox Jewish religious parties will continue to be bribed so that young boys will continue to be indoctrinated and young girls will be subjugated and mistreated, harassed and given no rights. The young men will not be prepared to do anything of value – they will not be given a reasonable education, they will have no access to the internet, they will be given no freedom of choice, and these men who are animals in the way they treat and herd their flock are saying, "We are not animals," and yet he immediately calls them animals. It's pure hypocrisy and I am very saddened by the election results because while I did not like Lapid, I think he was disastrous. He is an admitted Progressive, which I think is the worst of all politicians. He advocated to the United Nations a two-state solution which when enacted will be the final solution for Jews and the world will collapse upon them the moment that is imposed upon them, and to be a Jew and advocating for it is an inexcusable offense.

In this particular coalition, in addition to bribing the Haredi parties to support him [and that is a disaster for Israel both financially, economically and also in terms of freedoms of the people] the coalition has an Ultra Ultra-Orthodox religious party that united with it that are thugs. Their chants are “Death to Arabs.” They will clean it up for election night and say, “Death to terrorists,” but they are purposely provocative and are largely responsible for the settler abuse that is taking place in Israel. At one time I besmirched the Biden Administration and the U S Press for making a big deal of it, and I think they did overexaggerate it but as we came up to this election gangs of roving Orthodox Jews tormenting Arabs was absurd, sad, exceedingly disappointing and the fact is by having a coalition comprised of these kinds of people the world is going to have lots of justification for turning on Israel and no longer taking Israel seriously and continuing to advocate against Israel. So, it will be exceedingly counterproductive. And, of course, Netanyahu is a lying, self-serving scumbag. So, they were really in a position, like in this last election, where you had the worst of the worst. I’m sorry for Israel, but Israel continuing to turn away from God is really what is predicted so that we enter the Time of Troubles.

One of the interesting things Netanyahu did to win the election was that he claimed he would have never put together the Frankensteinian coalition that included (Habbas)? and the Arab parties, and it did cost Israel dearly, I think about six billion dollars to bribe them to be part of the coalition; that’s why I can’t stand parliamentary politics. Netanyahu, who denied that he did it and said that he would never do it, not only did it but told (Habbas)?, “I’m the only one who can lead this integration of Ra’am into Israeli coalition politics. And he’s right. It’s why I’ve said for years that if you are political and favor the Republicans in the United States, over the Democrats, for example, you are being played for a fool because governments spend more money under Republican administrations because no one is as watchful, and they can do what the Democrats can’t do. Under Reagan, Bush and Trump we had horrible inflation and deficit spending. But clearly Netanyahu was a liar when he said this is something that separates him. It’s also important to realize the reason that Israel went so far right, and by right, I mean religious in this case, is because that cobbled-together government Bennett and Lapid put together was disastrous for Israel and the people recognized it.

There have been two numbskulls that I haven’t spoken much of, Kyrie Irving and Kanye West, both Blacks and both who have spoken out against Jews, both of which are getting time outs. Kanye West’s time out may be permanent although there are lots of people waving banners saying Kanye is right. Both are motivated by one of the most internationally villainous movements today whose roots were here in the United States during the late 19th century. It is called Black Hebrew Roots or Black Israeli Movement. They now call themselves Black Israelites but used to call themselves “Black Jews.” Their claim is that they are the real Jews of the promise, and the actual Jews are just imposters. When they are asked to demonstrate how that is possible, they will turn to the Falasha Tribe in Ethiopia that has falsely claimed to have the Ark of the Covenant and to be Jewish. They are Jewish in religion and not Jewish ethnically. I think I had long ago thought that they had taken a substantial number of DNA tests showing they had some J1; they do not. There is no evidence whatsoever that the Falashas, in fact all evidence is to the contrary. They have no Jewish ethnicity. There is only one tribe of Africans that has any meaningful Jewish ethnicity, and it is exceedingly small and it’s where a bunch of Jews for a short period of time during one of the Diasporas lived to escape the travesty being imposed upon them.

Then they will claim they intermarried and had babies with the Egyptians and the Egyptians were black. I’m sorry but not only were the Egyptians not black, they are Caucasians. Even the stories they want to claim that Cleopatra was a black queen – no, she was Greek. We really have ... the world upside down. They will claim that some of the Diaspora Jews then filled in the African continent and then were sold as slaves here and will then claim the fake Jews were the ones that owned the ships that took them here and blame Jews for it. They even claim that because the Towrah speaks of 400 years of captivity in Egypt that it’s really speaking of them because they were slaves for 400 years in America. They were not slaves for 400 years in America, not even close, and I can assure you that Yahowah did not intervene in America to liberate them. There were no signs and wonders, so they are not those people. Those people were taken to Israel, not to America.

I’m not speaking here to try to dissuade someone who is stupid enough to be fooled by the Black Israelites. If you are that stupid, no amount of evidence and reason is going to resonate with you; you are just a buffoon. Stop breathing and do the world a service. I’m saying this because there are people listening, and will listen in the future, who may wonder what it is about these people that is so asinine.

They are growing evermore belligerent. More and more of them have bought into conspiracy theories and will cite the Protocols of the Elders of Zion like it’s a real book unaware that it was a complete hoax. They will quote the conspiracy theory that Jews control the world, which by the way, if they did it’s just like the theory of Jews killing “Jesus.” If Jews can kill God and at two-tenths of one percent of the world’s population they can run the world, then we ought to be bowing down to them. Neither are true.

And this notion of claiming to be the Yisra’elites is something you may want to rethink because if you read the Prophets God is really upset with them. God has divorced Himself from them, He has disowned them, He has exposed and condemned them in every possible way and says they are appalling and repulsive. So, if you want to claim that legacy for yourself, as Christians do in Replacement Theology, wear that badge because in the end, while He will reconcile His relationship with a few, it will be precious few and all of those who have been religious will be annihilated. So, if that's what you claim to be, good luck with that.

Kenya West's quotations were all part of Black Israelites. "That's why I said if you know where I came from you know I can't be anti-Semitic." Yes, pal, you are an anti-Semite and where you come from is stupidity. He also has a sign on his social media that says, "We believe in all religions and all gods, even religions that don't have gods." He has Hella as his sign off. Hella is the name of the goddess of the underworld, Hella because it's supposed to be hot in Hell means that's really "I'm wonderful because I'm hot," associated with it. That's how stupid these people are and yet there's enough people out there that buy their music; they care about them. To be attracted to a numbskull makes you a numbskull.

Kyrie Irving is the most recent. He posted a video on his Facebook page thinking he was doing a swell thing after talking about the fact that he was the representative of the real Jews in previous Facebook pages. The video was of a book that was written by an advocate, one of the leaders in the Black Israelite movement who, in his book says all of the manner of stupid things that I've already shared – that the Jews that we know as the descendants of 'Abraham, Yitschaq and Ya'aqob are not Jews but instead African slaves were the real Jews although they were mostly taken from West Africa, mostly enslaved by Muslims and brought here on boats mostly owned by Europeans. Nonetheless, that is their claim. It's sort of like the claim the Mormons have that the Jews fled Israel on a big boat and crossed the Atlantic and that the native people in the Americas were really Jews. Of course, they have done the DNA testing and found that the Native Americans all came from Mongolia, Eastern Russia and Northern China, but don't let science stand in the way of a good story.

That is the nature of these people, and the thing that is most concerning is that, for example, when Kyrie Irving, a basketball player for the Brooklyn Nets, posted his apology (he never did really apologize) and said, "When I was studying YHWH, I came upon this; I didn't know it was bad." Many of these Black Israelite movements actually steal __my transliterations and translations and use them in this perverted mix of black racial hatred, black supremacy and a little Rabbinic Judaism and some Christianity thrown in to create quite an illusion that is very profitable for the thugs that run it. So, it is a serious problem, and it is violent and seriously anti-Semitic, and we should be quite concerned about what they have done.

Keven Durant was the other part of that Brooklyn Nets team and his beautiful quote that came out today I'll read to you because words only do it justice. "I ain't here to judge nobody or talk down on nobody for how they feel, their view or anything. I just didn't like anything that went on. I feel like it was all unnecessary. I felt like we could have just kept playing basketball and kept quiet as an organization. I just don't like none of it." Clearly money does not buy intelligence. People looking for stars to admire are not turning to their vocabulary or grammar. Let me tell you something, Mr. Durant, when you promote an anti-Semitic lie as vicious as the one Kyrie Irving posted, there will be consequences, and we do care. These are the kinds of lies that led up to the Holocaust, that justified the three Roman invasions of Judea, that have caused the Progressives to think that Israel doesn't belong to the Jews and that instead it belongs to the Muslims. When people promote this kind of stuff and you're in the public eye associated with an organization that is paying you millions of dollars it matters. Kenya West found out that even a German company that participated in the Nazi regime, both of whose founders were Nazi Party members, even they when they are making billions off you, will drop you. So, think people. Don't be stupid. The world is very quickly turning into an anti-Semitic mess with the promotion of disgusting conspiracy theories, and it's amazing how many people are willing to follow them.

There's an article this week about the Presbyterian Church. In my youth I was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was the youngest elder in the history of the Church, which is a tremendous embarrassment to me now, of course, looking back, but yet a huge advantage. It's not nearly to this extent, but it's like Moseh growing up in Pharoah's household and understanding the ... was Pharoah and the integration of religion and politics into the caste system and enslavement and the military in that country and why he stood up for his people, who didn't take that very well – they turned on him. But he did the right thing and stood up for his people because he understood the Beast. Having grown up in the upper echelons of the Presbyterian Church I learned a lot about the Beast that is mainstream protestant Christianity, and it helps me now when I'm translating and commenting on Yahowah's testimony because I know when God is specifically besmirching Christianity.

The Church is losing members, I would say like a sieve, but a sieve does restrict the flow of water and they are not doing so. The numbers are staggering. I'm looking at them now and it's all because of their progressive agenda. The Presbyterian Church is more interested in supporting LGBTQA+, whatever it is, more than their own religion. As such they've gotten to a point where I think they have lost 700,000 members in the last decade on what was a membership of about 1.7 million people. So, over the last decade they've lost about 40% of their membership. Isn't that amazing? Currently they boast 1.1 million active members which is down 700,000 members since 2012. This was based on a 2021 report, so in nine years they have lost some 40% of their membership. So, continue down the path you are on because obviously that's working out really well for you.

There are a couple of very disturbing news items I want to share. Leah shared with me the story of Samuel Little, a black man, born June 7, 1940. By 1975 he began raping, torturing and killing women. He raped, tortured and killed 93 women and is the most proficient serial killer in American History and perhaps in the world. Of course, nobody speaks of him because "Black lives matter." Eighty percent of his victims were black, and he was a black man.

I bring this story to your attention because by 1975 he had been arrested 26 times in 11 states for crimes such as theft, assault, attempted rape, fraud and physical attacks on government officials. He was arrested and charged for the murder of a 22-year-old woman who had gone missing, but the Grand Jury declined to indict him. He was charged with the murder of a 26-year-old woman whose body was found, and yet because the jury decided to mistrust witness testimony, he was acquitted of the crime he committed. Here's a man that if he had just been locked up after what, the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 25th time that he had committed a crime then no one would have died. Ninety-three women were raped, tortured and killed because of progressive politics where "We don't want to incarcerate the perpetrator," which is, of course, causing places like Seattle, WA, Portland, OR, San Francisco and Los Angeles CA to be unlivable.

Another story from California is very similar. A young UCLA sorority girl was working the evening shift alone in a furniture store. A black man entered the store and had a really nasty vibe according to the woman. She texted her manager and said, "I'm afraid. This man has walked in and he's really giving me the creeps on the way that he is staring at me. I need help." Two minutes later she had been stabbed 26 times. The man who stabbed her was out on parole and had already committed some ten offenses where he had been convicted and served jail time, and yet they let him back out, and he was out even after assaulting a police officer. Because of some liberal agenda we let him out and he killed this poor woman.

I feel like it's important just to counteract stupidity. The headline Climate change: Kilimanjaro's and Africa's last glaciers to go by 2050. I'm here to tell you they will be gone by 2033. It's astonishing that we have such groupthink now in the world now and that science has been so coopted by politics. The evidence is overwhelming that the earth has gone through cooling and warming periods for the past several hundred million years and that every 300 – 600 years we go through one of these cycles with the average cycle being about 600 years long. Even in recorded history going back about 5,000 years we can track them, and we know when we were in a cooling period or a warming period. And, of course, there were even bigger swings during the last ice age which was 10,000 years ago. The earth goes through these cycles. It has to do with our orbit, our rotation on our axis and also the sun has various phases which collectively cause these warming and cooling periods.

Interestingly mankind and animals do much better during the warming periods than they do during the cold periods. Things like the Black Death and Black Plague occurred during a cold period. We came out of the last cold period in 1850 and began this warming period, which is now, of course, blamed on this industrial age. Sorry, the earth has endured this and will continue to endure it. The glaciers have come and gone.

I picked up another story this week about the Greeks. Having translated Daniel, you must get into Greek history. There's this myth in America that Greece was the birthplace of democracy and that they were enlightened and philosophical people who treated others well and used their words wisely. It's just not true. The Greeks were savages. In the Greek culture women had no rights. She was property and was very seldom able to leave the home; if she left the home, she could not speak to anyone. She would have to be veiled. She had no rights to own anything, her husband could beat her, cheat on her, what ever he wanted to do she had no say in the matter. And they were vicious. This idea that this is a lovely bastion of humanity, all you have to do is read Greek history from Alexander the Great. Learn how he came to power, learn what he did to places like Tyre and Gaza, how he treated his defeated foes, what he said of himself in places like Egypt, and the debauchery during the final years of his life where he was parading around as a god, and then the conniving disaster that followed in the generations of the successors that followed him and the way they treated the world that they carved up among them and fought among themselves. We're dealing with an exceedingly despicable community.

One last news item is that in the Ukrainian war we are hearing the following: a) the Russians are having discussions about the deployment of nuclear weapons and that the Americans are having similar discussions, and that we now have an official statement from the U S government saying that if the Russians used nuclear weapons in the Ukraine that America will instantly wipe out the entire Russian military.

We went through this period of threats; if you invade the Ukraine we'll put on the mother of all sanctions. What did it do? The Russian economy and the ruble have never been stronger, and the American dollar and economy has seldom been weaker. It didn't work very well. And, of course, the people who paid the heaviest price are the undeserving, the Ukrainians who we continue to send billions of dollars of weapons. Now that the Russians are saying, "Because you've sent the Ukraine all these weapons and we can't use the kinds of warfare tactics that would spare people's lives, as if the United States ever cared about that – we used cluster bombs and all manner of shock and awe when we attacked Iran for absolutely no good reason and then invaded Afghanistan, we didn't care how many civilians we killed. We would gun them down with our Apache helicopters, giggle at it, and then lie about what happened. But nonetheless we want to blame the Russians.

Now that they say, "You've given us no choice but to respond this way particularly if you continue to give them weapons like this," what do you think that Russia is going to do? You don't have to be all that smart to figure this out. We threatened them, we threatened to turn the Ukraine into a war zone to arm it with all manner of missiles and defense systems from the West so that the Soviets were neutered and surrounded, and so they invaded to keep that from happening. Now that we have supplied the Ukraine with all manner of weapons, and if the Russians were to use tactical nuclear weapons, what do you think they will do if we were then to declare war on them and take out their navy and army? ... With a 100% likelihood if we did that there would be countless nuclear missiles headed to the United States. Guaranteed! You might say it would be sure annihilation for them. It would be annihilation for them as soon as you took out their military. That's 100% likely. And we will say that as if we think we're smart, we're moral, as if we think we hold the high ground. We do not.

We are returning now to Howsha' 1:6. Howsha' was asked Yahowah to marry a temple prostitute because Yahowah wanted His prophet to be able to passionately convey why Yahowah had to divorce and estrange Himself from His people, why He was disgusted by them, why it was not possible to continue to have a relationship with them and why they would have a very long time out. So, the best way to do that was for Howsha' to marry a temple prostitute.

Howsha' did as he was asked, and his wife conceived and gave birth to a daughter.

So He said to him (wa 'amar la huw'), 'Call her name (qara' shem hy' – announce and proclaim that her reputation shall be known as) "Lo' Ruchamah | No Mercy, No Favors, and No Compassion for being Unlovable (Lo' Ruchamah – No Affection, No Forgiveness, and No Benefits: from lo' serving as a negation of racham – love and compassion, mercy and pity, favor and forgiveness)," because (ky – indeed, affirming and strengthening this statement) it will be a long time ('owd – well beyond the point which would have been expected, particularly regarding being allowed to convey the eternal testimony and to serve as witnesses) before I once again (lo' yasaph – I return to the relationship and provide any additional) perceive as lovable, show mercy toward, or beneficially favor (racham – I am compassionate, loving, or affectionate (piel imperfect – the object consistently and continually receives the benefit of being loved or pity)) the House of Yisra'el ('eth beyth Yisra'el – the Home and Household of those who Contend with and Strive against God), such that I will lift them up, honor, or forgive them (ky nasa' nasa' la hem – that I will incur or carry their burdens away, I will respect or support them, or consider raising them up so as to spare them (qal infinitive imperfect)).” (Howsha' / He Saves / Hosea 1:6)

Do you think God told the truth? What did He say?

“...it will be a long time ('owd – well beyond the point which would have been expected, particularly regarding being allowed to convey the eternal testimony and to serve as witnesses) before I once again (lo' yasaph – I return to the relationship and provide any additional) perceive as lovable, show mercy toward, or beneficially favor (racham – I am compassionate, loving, or affectionate (piel imperfect – the object consistently and continually receives the benefit of being loved or pity)) the House of Yisra'el ('eth beyth Yisra'el – the Home and Household of those who Contend with and Strive against God), such that I will lift them up, honor, or forgive them (ky nasa' nasa' la hem – that I will incur or carry their burdens away, I will respect or support them, or consider raising them up so as to spare them (qal infinitive imperfect)).” (Howsha' / He Saves / Hosea 1:6)

This was 7-something BCE. It was a really long time, wasn't it? That time is still ongoing because Israel just isn't willing to listen; 2,700 years later they are still religious, repulsive and unlovable. That's a long time to be obstinate.

If you're part of the stupid Black Israelite movement, think it through! You don't want to be identified with that. It's only once that Yisra'elites reject their religion, become unreligious and unpolitical, and choose to honor the Covenant that is explained in the Towrah that they will be accepted again. You can't be in the Covenant if you are religious, so you're screwed, blued and tattooed if you're in the Black Israelite movement.

Yahowah is announcing to the Northern Kingdom (Yisra'el apart from Yahuwdah, thus ten of the twelve tribes) that they are no longer lovable. As a matter of fact, they wouldn't even exist as a political entity in a very short order. Therefore, until their attitude toward Him changes, they will receive neither compassion nor mercy. Furthermore, they would remain unapproachable for a very long time – much longer than they would have expected. God's very clear with this; we read it clearly in Daniel that there would be no more prophets – that's it's the end to prophecy. That's a real problem for the rabbis and their Talmud because they claim to be prophets. God said nope there would be no more; not then, not a little bit later, not ever, never again. That's also a problem for the Christian New Testament. Of course, it's no problem for Islam because if you're going to believe that Muhammad was a prophet when he never issued a single prophecy that he got right then nothing is a problem for you.

For the next 140 generations, there would be no favors and no forgiveness from God toward Yisra'el. And, of course, during that time they would be bludgeoned, by the Assyrians, twice bludgeoned by the Babylonians, by the Greeks because they didn't give two hoots about them. They only cared they were between that which they cared about in Syria and Egypt. So, several of them did harass Jews. Then there were the three Roman invasions. Even our edit team, when I wrote about let's never forget about what happened in 66 BCE because it was the first of these Roman invasions and not just look at what happened in 69 CE said, "What happened in those three years, BCE verses CE?" The first Roman invasion of Judea was by Pompei. He came because the Jews were acting badly. In fact, Jews had become Greeks; they all bore Greek names, and they were fighting among themselves for who would be king and who would be brothers fighting among themselves. Brothers of Alexandria was their mother's name, and these two Greeks were fighting among themselves for who would be High Priest and who would be King. You would think they would want to be King, and that High Priest would be booby prize but no – the big money was being Hight Priest. It's like big money in Israel today is not being a politician; it's being a rabbi.

So, there would be three Roman invasions. After the Romans would come the Roman Catholic Church, then the Muslims, then the Nazis, and somewhere along the line, "Maybe we should be going at this differently because clearly it is not working or us." One hundred and forty generations and no forgiveness from God.

Yisra'elites would not only be on their own, they were put out of business. God would cease speaking through them.

I just finished translating a passage in Ezekiel 5; I'm going to be in Ezekiel for a while because it's a long book. OMG I can't wait to get out of Babylon. If I had to do one more book written in Babylon, I would opt for my retirement early! I would say I cannot do this anymore. I understand that Yahowah had a message that needed to be delivered and I guess He picked the best of the two options He had available to Him, but oh these are guys I never want to meet, I'll tell you that for certain.

Anyway, so God stopped working with them. I'm reading here where God says, "Because of your repulsiveness, your religiosity and the fact that you're not going to give up on it because you're stubborn, recalcitrant, you are pig headed as a mule, I'm going to do something I've never done before and will never do again." This would have been on the eve of the final assault on Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians. God says, "I'm going to do something with a witness among the Gentiles because of your religiosity and your stubbornness that I have never done before, and I will never do again.” So, it is God specifically engaging to do something He has never done before and He will never do again, and it’s happening specifically because of the religiosity and stubbornness of His people, and it is with a Gentile who is a witness.

So, I went through it. God’s promised from that point to this time that there would be three engagements of Yahowah: 1) when He came to fulfill the first four Miqra’ey. He didn’t fulfill them because of the stubborn, pig-headed religiosity of the Jews and He didn’t fulfill them with the Gowym as the primary witness. He couldn’t say He was never going to do it again because He’s coming back here in eleven years and fulfill the last two Miqra’ey. So, it can’t be that. And, of course, here in eleven years, in 6000 Yah, 2033, He’s going to fulfill the last two Miqra’ey, not because of Jewish religiousness or as a witness to the Gowym, but instead for those who give up their religiosity to choose Yahowah instead. And it is clearly something that He has done before. So, it can’t be that.

There’s only one thing I can think of that God promised to do through His prophets and in His Towrah with gowym as the primary witnesses that was being done because He couldn’t work with His people because they were too religious, that He’s never done before and will never do again, and that is call on gowym to witness to His people to call them home. We are the living embodiment of that prophecy. We’re not taking any credit in this case because God clearly said, “I’ll do it this once but never again.”

There is a bit of good news that I want to share because we are really now operating as a family and have been for a goodly number of years. We have now a beautiful web site that I’d be very proud for both Yahuwdym and Yahowah to point to that is wonderfully interactive and provides all 25-some-odd volumes freely so they can be read on a pc, tablet, or smart phone. It’s really well done with wonderful search features and links. This particular program where now the interface of it is tied in with everything else and the same theme and where the shows are being logged in and explained for those who want to listen.

We have a marvelous social media outreach that is coordinated and managed with promotions on things like Twitter with rich coordinated content throughout the social media platforms like Facebook.

If you go to amazon.com and either search my name, Craig Winn, or the Yada Yahowah Series you’ll see some 25 volumes are available for the cost of printing and shipping, royalty free. The Kindle versions are $.99, the paperbacks are in the low teens and the hardbacks are available in the high teens. They are all beautifully laid out and professionally published; all of them are current and have been retranslated and rewritten within the last two to three years. That's a lot of people working together to share Yahowah's testimony and to call His people home. Everybody is working for free. None of us receive or accept donations. None of us do anything other than a freewill offering out of love for Yahowah and His people to share the truth. So we are, plural, gowym who are serving as the witnesses in this case to call Yahowah's people home, to "Call them out of Babylon," to quote the Prophet Yirma'yah, and to call them back home to Yisra'el.

So, that is what He was talking about, and it is a direct implication of Howsha' 1:6 where God says, "I'm sorry but it's going to be a long, long time before I'm able to work with you again."

Since Yahowah had promised to bless people from every race and place by way of the Covenant He established with 'Abraham, He would continue to love Yahuwdah for the sake of His Beloved, Dowd, and for the remnant of His people...

"Yet (wa) with ('eth) the house and family (beyth) of Yahuwdah (Yahuwdah – Beloved of Yah and Related to Yah), I will continue to love them, favoring them and providing forgiveness and mercy through them (racham hem – I will retain an affectionate association with them, manifesting kindness and compassion through them).

I will liberate, deliver, and save them (yasha' hem – I will keep them safe and free them (hifil perfect)) as (ba) Yahowah (YaHoWaH – our 'elowah | God as directed in His ToWRaH | teaching regarding His HaYaH | existence and our ShaLoWM | restoration), their God ('elohym hem).

So, to be saved as a Jew / Yahuwd, Yahuwdym, plural, you have to recognize that Yahowah is your savior, and you have to acknowledge His name. There is no g-d, Adonai, Lord, ha Shem here.

I will liberate, deliver, and save them (yasha' hem – I will keep them safe and free them (hifil perfect)) as (ba) Yahowah (YaHoWaH – our 'elowah | God as directed in His ToWRaH | teaching regarding His HaYaH | existence and our ShaLoWM | restoration), their God ('elohym hem).

Yahowah is a tripping stone for a lot of people. They believe the hogwash of the rabbis that no one knows how to pronounce His name or that His name is too respected to state it; they are both lies. In the 22 letters the comprise the Hebrew language 17 are consonants, 5 are vowels which are open-mouth sounds (yod, wah and hey). The yod is pronounced very much like the "y" in English. The "y" is a vowel-consonant in English. The "w" is a vowel-consonant in English, just as it is in Hebrew. It makes the same sound in English as it does in Hebrew as does the “y”. It's all the legacy of Hebrew which was the first written phonetic alphabet. The hey is exceedingly easy to pronounce. It was in the verb that Yahowah introduced Himself to us where He said, “I Am Who I AM.” “I AM” is hayah. Hayah begins and ends with a hey. Towrah is a perfect example; no one doubts that it is properly pronounced Towrah. The “o” sound in Towrah is from the wah, the “ah” sound at the end of Towrah is from the hey, so it is Yahowah. It takes 15 minutes to figure it out.

However, I will not liberate, deliver, or save them (wa lo' yasha' hem – but I will not free or protect them) by bow, shooting projectiles, or being harsh (ba qeshet – by being stubborn, difficult, or burdensome; from qashah – hard to deal with), by a sword or any kind of weapon (wa ba chereb), by fighting a war (wa ba milchamah – by fighting; from lechem – by battling), by horsemen and swiftly flying aircraft (wa ba suws), or by mobile military vehicles (wa ba parash – war chariots and those riding within them).” (Howsha' / He Liberates, Delivers, and Saves / Hosea 1:7)

Well then, He would never be elected to the Congress or Senate of the United States for damn sure because America wants to save the world by fighting wars, and we're good at it. We call ourselves “The World's Peacemaker” and we have the biggest military in the world, larger than all the rest of the world combined. It's one of the great lies.

Yahowah says, “That's not how I saved My people. I saved My people, delivered them, with Myself being their Savior when I fulfilled Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym and Shabuw'ah. And the remnant of Jews that I will save in the End I will give a second chance through Kipurym, which is the Day of Reconciliations.” So, Yahowah was promising to forgive.

This is interesting. When I was reading about the Black Hebrew Yisra'elite movement and the Black Hebrew Roots movement, both anti-Semitic conspiracies and cults, two authors of books published to debunk them are both Christians. They were both claiming that by trying to observe the Torah they were precluding themselves of salvation because as Paul said, “You have to be perfect to be saved by the torah and that the torah will just condemn you. You have to accept Jesus Christ.” Well, there is the wrong condemning the wrong. It's where, I guess, two wrongs make a wrong.

So, here is Yahowah saying He is going to save Yisra'el, and He did so and the house of Yahuwdah through Dowd and Yahowsha'. Placing His nepesh / soul within Yahowsha', they were the people that would play the starring roles. The Towrah clearly does not condemn; you don't have to be perfect for the Towrah to help you. In fact, the Towrah would be of no value to you if you were perfect – the Towrah's value is if you are imperfect. Dowd is a wonderful example of an imperfect man being perfected in God's eyes by observing the Towrah. Moseh is a less flawed individual but clearly a man who was perfected by the Towrah. Moseh is also a marvelous example, of a man who at times did things that he wasn't supposed to do and yet Yahowah embraced him and took him to Heaven after giving him a birds-eye view of the Promised Land. Yahowah has a plan and that is that He paid the price to serve as the Pesach 'Ayl / the Passover Lamb to give His people life. He allowed His soul to go in our stead to She'owl, the place of separation, to cleans us of religion and politics so that we could be part of His family, in which we were adopted on Bikuwrym. He then enriches, empowers, enlightens and emancipates His children on Shabuw'ah so that we are prepared to function appropriately on Taruw'ah and call His people out of Babylon and to home through the Towrah so that they will embrace Yahowah on Reconciliations and come to camp out with God in the conditions very similar to 'Eden.

Dowd is presented as the Son of God. He is referred to as God as he will certainly qualify as the means to Yisra'el's salvation. Read his Psalms and come to embrace him as the Son of God and Messiah and Yahowah as his Father, follow his example of observing the Towrah and being part of the Covenant, and you too will enjoy an eternity with Him.

This is yet another renunciation of Judaism as well as its derivatives, Christianity and Islam, because the God whose name they do not recognize is the source of our salvation. It is something we have been emphasizing since the beginning: when it comes to knowing God and developing a relationship with Him, acknowledging His name is an essential first step.

Be careful. One of the things I despise most about these cults calling themselves either Black Yisra'elites or Hebrew Roots movement is that they will forlorn from these writings, the transliteration of Yahowah's name, and they will jump and down and sing Him a song when they clearly do not know Him. There may be only one thing worse than negating the value of Yahowah's name, as we see in Christianity, Islam and Judaism, that is misusing His name as we witness it in those cults. So be very careful when you hear Yahowah's name that it is set in the context of His testimony.

The phrase, yasha' ba Yahowah | Salvation by Yahowah, serves to explain Yahowsha's name, his nature, and his purpose.

One of the reasons that we never read Yahowsha's name, there isn't a single prophecy about Yahowsha', the name of the person Christians have misnamed "Jesus." The reason for that is that the role he plays is important. Yasha'yah / Isaiah 53 speaks of him as the Passover Lamb, Dowd wrote two Mizmowr / Psalms, 22 and 88, speaking of the sacrifice that he would make as the Passover Lamb. That role is essential, and God speaks of it. He told 'Abraham on Mount Mowryah that He would provide the Lamb; however, there is no reason whatsoever to know the name of the individual who would serve as the Passover Lamb and carry Yahowah's nepesh / soul as a probe so that Yahowah could experience everything that was happening and the pain of that sacrifice because it is Yahowah saving us, as He states here. Since it's Yahowah saving us, to create a religion even if you knew His name, Yahowsha', would be stupid, and to create a religion with "Jesus" and call him "the Christ" is dumber than dumb. Yahowah is the savior. It is Yahowah saving us in the fulfillment of Pesach and Matsah leading to Bikuwrym.

That's one of the great problems of Judaism. Rabbinic Judaism, as it is today, is coterminous with the rise of Christianity, and the Jews in power at the time didn't like the threat of Jews recognizing that Yahowsha' was the Passover Lamb and celebrating Yahowah's fulfillment of these first Miqra'ey so they went after them with a vengeance and then when the Christians came up with this idea that this "Jesus" was somehow the Son of God and the Messiah, rather than just simply announce "That's not true. The Messiah and Son of God is Dowd / David, he is the returning King," they created this religion to besmirch the reputation of Yahowsha', and in so doing they besmirched Yahowah's reputation. They denied Yahowah's promise and denied their people the knowledge of the fulfillment of Pesach / Passover. That is the birth of Rabbinic Judaism. If you don't think so just study the life of Akiba and learn about his false messiah, Bar Kokhba, and how he was put in position so as to deny the Christian mythos of a "Jesus Christ." Look how well that worked out for the Jews, too; it led directly to the Diaspora.

So, it is Yahowah's soul fulfilling the Miqra'ey of Pesach and Matsah. His name therefore is the only name that matters. And as such, Judaism and Christianity are misnomers.

Since it is by fulfilling the Miqra'ey | Invitations to be Called Out and Meet with God that we become immortal, perfected, adopted, enriched, and empowered, during the first four Mow'ed Miqra'ey, all of which were fulfilled in Year 4000 Yah, 33 CE, Yahowah is not liberating us from the deadly nature of religion through the deployment of armaments or by fighting battles but instead by fulfilling the first four Miqra'ey. And while there will be copious amounts of weapons deployed in horrible wars as we migrate through the last days, no one will be saved by such malfeasance.

We don't save people by attacking them with weapons. We humans will be killing one another at an even more prodigious rate, but that is hardly the path to Heaven.

“When she had weaned (wa gamal – while she reared) Lo' Ruchamah | No Mercy, No Favors, and No Compassion as a result of being Unlovable ('eth Lo' Ruchamah – No Affection, No Forgiveness, and No Benefits: from lo' – no racham – love, compassion, mercy, pity, favor, or forgiveness), she conceived (wa harah – became pregnant) and bore a son (wa yalad ben). (Howsha' 1:8)

Then He said (wa 'amar), ‘Announce that his name is (qara' shem huw' – call him), “Lo' ‘Am ‘Any | Not My People (Lo' ‘Am ‘Any – Not My Family),” because (ky – indeed) you are not part of My family ('atem lo' 'am 'any – you are not related to Me) and I am not your God (wa 'anoky lo' hayah la 'atem).” (Howsha' / He Delivers / Hosea 1:9)

You want to be really careful, those of you who are touting this “Black Yisra'elites.” It's not my family. Even if you were right, you are wrong

...because (ky – indeed) you are not part of My family ('atem lo' 'am 'any – you are not related to Me) and I am not your God (wa 'anoky lo' hayah la 'atem).” (Howsha' / He Delivers / Hosea 1:9)

They had chosen other gods; gods they had made and gods they had inherited.

Are you listening, Yisra'el? You have become so annoying with your perverted religion that Yahowah has disowned you! I'm not being anti-Semitic here; I'm telling you what God said! This Book was written to you in your language by one of your prophets, one of the most important prophetic recitals in all of history, and this is what it says. God is saying that worst of all you worship a god who is not Yahowah, leaving you with no god at all. Judaism is not a monolithic religion; it is a religion without a god. Introduced to the one true God, you have joined the ranks of those who irritate and annoy God.

Yisra'el, apart from Yahuwah, was entering history's longest intermission. And while God could no longer endure them, He would assure that they would endure long enough to eventually be saved.

“Yet the number of the children of Yisra'el shall be (wa hayah misphar beny Yisra'el – the census of those who Contend with God will be) as the sand of the sea (ka chowl ha yam), because it cannot be counted ('asher lo' madad – which cannot be measured), numbered, or recorded (wa lo' saphar – cannot be told).

And it shall come to pass that in the place where (wa hayah ba maqowm 'asher) it was said of them ('amar la hem), ‘You are not My family (lo' 'am 'any 'atem),” it shall be said to them ('amar la hem), 'You are the children of the living God (ben 'el chay).’ (Howsha’ 1:10)

Then the descendants of Yahuwdah (wa beny Yahuwdah – the children of the Beloved) and the children of Yisra’el (wa beny Yisra’el – the children who have engaged and will endure with God) will be gathered together and be as one (qabats yachdaw – will be collected, assembled, unified, and in accord).

They will appoint for themselves (sym la hem – they will assign and put in place) the best one as the leader (ro'sh 'echad – the most excellent one as it was in the beginning, first and foremost).

And then (wa) they will ascend upward to a higher place ('alah – they will rise and be carried away (qal perfect)) out of the Land (min ha 'erets – from the Earth), because great, intensely important, and empowering shall be (ky gadowl – enabling growth and increasing; from gadal – to grow, be magnified, and empowered) Yowm Yzra’el | the Day God’s Seeds are Sown in Jezreel.” (Howsha’ / He Saves / Hosea 1:11)

Well, there’s a turnaround, isn’t it? ___ where Jews and Yisra’elites worshipped Ba’al and Asherah, engaged in the most murderous of behavior, where the worst of the Jewish leaders rose to power and died, that place is going to be celebrated again. And there will be enough Jews such that there will be a remnant that gets to hear these words, “You are the children of the Living God.” That’s not being pronounced anywhere, is it?

We are still, even though eleven years away, it seems like millennia away from the descendants of Yahuwdah and the Children of Yisra’el being gathered together. The Sepharadi Jews and the Ashkenazis are having a tough time. This idea that being a Yisra’elite and a Yahuwd and that the two merging is something that God promised; it’s what Yirma’yah 31 is all about. It speaks of the reconciliation between Yisra’el and Yahuwdah and then of them being reconciled unto Yahowah and then both having the towrah written inside them along with Yahowah’s name. They will be gathered together as one. And they will appoint for themselves the best one as their leader, Dowd. Dowd loved this job; he loved defending and leading Yisra’el; he loved singing to and teaching Yisra’el. He loved being a shepherd. Dowd is perfectly suited for this job; he’s the best of Yisra’el, and he will be the leader forever. If you don’t like Dowd, you don’t want to end up with God in Heaven because Dowd will be king forever. This thing that God is doing, certainly that one He wasn’t speaking of Dowd because He’s done it before, and He’ll do it again. You read Dowd’s psalms and you look at his character and the way he loved Yah and Yah loved him, it’s easy to see why.

And then (wa) they will ascend upward to a higher place (‘alah – they will rise and be carried away (qal perfect)) out of the Land (min ha ‘erets – from the Earth),

The higher place out of the Land is Shamaym | Heaven. And this is a celebration of the

Day God’s Seeds are Sown in Jezreel.” (Howsha’ / He Saves / Hosea 1:11)

It was a rapid downward progression. Yisra’el had fallen from being unlovable and undeserving to being disinherited. They were no longer Covenant. Having rejected Yahowah, God rejected them.

In the matter of quantity over quality, they were long on one and deprived of the other. Clearly, God was not running a popularity contest.

While their downgraded status would plague them for centuries, even millennia, the relationship was slated for resolution, and we’re just eleven years away from it now in 2022. Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, at sunset on October 2, 2033, in Yaruwshalaim, for them was a distant light on the horizon. It’s much closer for us today. Some of the descendants of those who had been ostracized for having become obnoxious, will be restored to fellowship, becoming children of the living God.

The rift that had torn them apart will be mended. Not only will Yisra’el and Yahuwdah come together again, they will be one in the Covenant Family with Yahowah. Having been dispersed throughout the nations, they will be collected and gathered in one accord – something that seems unfathomable considering the propensity of Jews to disagree with each other and their God. But it’s going to occur.

You have 40% of the world’s Jewish population in the United States of America but He’s talking about all of those who are part of the Covenant coming to Yisra’el and, of course, with the Haredi now reempowered the only people who can apply for ... citizenship are Orthodox Jews, and they are not going to be part of Yahowah’s Covenant family. So, this is something that is still future, and we don’t have a lot of days of future left.

One of the many areas of agreement will be on their leader, their shepherd and messiah. They will choose the best one – Yahowah’s Beloved, Dowd.

There is only one way to ascend upward out of the Land, and that is to be given access to Shamaym | Heaven. Of course, Muslims will think you can ride a winged ass | Burāq, leave a hoofie-print on the Temple Mount and ride up to the seventh heaven, in which you’re going to be meeting with Jews. That part you’ve got to deal with, but that’s what the Quran and Hadith say. And, of course, on the way to the Islamic heaven you must pass through the Islamic hell. So, the first stop to Heaven is Hell. But fear not, if you are a woman, because the Islamic hell is filled with women hanging by their breasts with meat hooks because they were not grateful to their husbands. It is a lovely place. When you finally get to the Islamic heaven the only message is, “I want you to prostrate yourself and bow down to me 50 times a day.” What a lovely god that would create an inferior species to worship him. That is a god I never want to know.

Now this transformation from a three-dimensional, physical being in Yisra’el, to a seven-dimensional spiritual being, the subsequent enrichment, empowerment, and liberty necessary to make all that happen exceed our comprehension. What had been deprived of Yisra’elites will now be restored. There will be a new day, a different and better outcome, even in Yzra’el.

With so much having occurred in and around the Jezreel Valley, God is returning our attention to Yisra’el’s thoroughfare, her breadbasket, and her battlefield. Something exceedingly good and very important will transpire to counteract the often hellish history of this place.

Beyond the stories we addressed in the previous chapter, there is another worthy of our consideration. It is Gideon who was triumphant in Jezreel, Sha’uwl was defeated and committed suicide, and Dowd was victorious. But that is not the story Yahowah is addressing here. Yowm Yzra’el | the Day God will Reap what He has Sown in Jezreel is directing our attention to Gog, along with the millions who will invade Israel in the Last Days. He will die and be buried in Jezreel. It will be the mother of all battles. As is so often the case with the Almighty, and fitting, Yahowah will prevail over religious, political, militant, and conspiratorial gowym in the place Yisra’el acted most like them.

In Ezekiel 5 when Yahowah is condemning Yisra’el, two things He says really get your attention, “When it comes to being repulsive and religious you are now worse than the gowym.” Jews had become worse than the gowym when it came to repulsiveness and religion. Then He said, “You’re even worse as it relates to (hamown.)? Hamown is an interesting term. ‘Abraham, the great grandfather of the Twelve Tribes, his name when it was changed to ‘Abraham has two roots – ‘ab / father (it means father in both) but it can either be racham / merciful father or add hamown / father of the belligerent and boisterous, father of the argumentative and warlike, father of the loud-mouthed and confused. That’s what we’re ... is that there’s going to be lots of hamown / army troops that are exceedingly noisy as they march in. So, the very place that Israel was like the Muslims, Christians and being militant, loud-mouthed and confused / hamown is the very place that Yahowah will rescue them in the Last Days.

Yowm Yzra'el | the day the seeds sown by God come to fruition in Jezreel is illustrative of one of the last battles Yahowah and Yahuwdym will fight for the survival of Yisra'el. It draws upon an intriguing history. God's not going to win this battle by bringing in the big guns; He's just going to annihilate everyone who has come to fight against Israel. It draws an intriguing history. Sha'uwl would commit suicide in the valley after his army was annihilated by the Philistines. He chose his fate as surely and he chose to consult with the Witch of Endor. By contrast, Dowd would fight 66 battles, and win them all, even ridding the Land of the Philistine problem in this place, because he always relied on Yahowah, which was the secret of his success.

Fast forward 3,000 years, and we find Yahowah engaged again to protect the remnant of His people. As is foretold in Yasha'yah, Yirma'yah, Dany'el, Yow'el, and especially Yachezq'el, countless millions of Muslims under the Magog Federation and Gog's leadership will flood into Israel with the intent of annihilating Jews while claiming the land for Allah.

Yahowah does not quantify the number of enraged Muslims who will flood into Israel, but the metaphors He deploys throughout the prophets suggest that we should expect in the range of 100 million. As for Jezreel accommodating that many, the math is rather interesting. The Valley is approximately 100 square miles. Whether marching or in an encampment, each armed and provisioned combatant requires around 3 square yards of space. With 3 million square yards per square mile, up to 100 million Muslims will receive what they intended to inflict in the shadow of Megiddo.

While we have broached this battle periodically throughout the prophets, the final determination of its timing, the identity and quantity of the combatants, and whether it is one war or two spreading from Jezreel to Jerusalem is something we have tabled because it's really something where we should put all the pieces together. I think I'll survive my last day in Babylon and get to Ezekiel 32 through 36 and cover this battle fought in the Jezreel Valley, Gog and Magog. Then we will return to what Yasha'yah and Yirma'yah have to say about a battle outside Yaruwshalaim and come to understand if they are one or two battles. Certainly, they are all fought in the last three and one-half years of the Time of Trouble, which means I wouldn't expect either to occur prior to 2029, perhaps even 2030 being the earliest this will happen. We have every indication, from what Dowd told Daniel in Dany'el, that the UN 242, the treaty restricting Israel's right to live in their own land will be imposed upon them and that it will likely be imposed seven years prior to Yahowah's return, and then things will get really nasty three and one-half years prior to His return when I think it is Mayday in 2030 the Towrahless One will proclaim that he is God and will outlaw the participation in any one of Yahowah's Mow'ed Miqra'ey or His Shabat.

So that is where we are headed, and it will be interesting to see if it is one ongoing battle or two specific ones that are fought during the Last Days. We will continue to translate and then comment based upon what the words say. We still have a lot on our plate to survey and digest.

In the order of things, this, the 8th volume of Yada Yahowah, is one of only three remaining to be retranslated and rewritten to complete our final edit of the Series. I am happy to say that sometime last week with the final edit of Volume 9 of Yada Yahowah after the four volumes of Questioning Paul, the three of Introduction to God, the two of Coming Home, the five of Observations, and now the nine of Yada Yahowah, the rewrite is complete. I'm writing now Volume Ten of Yada Yahowah and this is material I've never translated. This is the first new book in some time.

I picked Ezekiel / Yachezq'el because with Daniel speaking of how we get from here to there in the Last Days and I think we did a good job of making sense of everything that was predicted in Daniel, exactly how things are going to transpire and the exact timing of things as we reach the end. Ezekiel does pick up from there and takes us right to the end with these battles and even talks about the new Temple and New Jerusalem and that sort of thing. It is a natural follow-on, so we will stay in Babylon long enough to get that out because I think we have provided a sufficient base that the idea is that we're going to stay on future prophecy for awhile because we've done a pretty comprehensive job of presenting how you prepare for Yahowah's return.

An Introduction to God goes through all the source material, explains why we are here, who you are, who we are, how we have access to the oldest manuscripts, how the language itself works through some of its unique qualities in Hebrew, its stems, moods and conjugations, and then it goes through the fundamentals in the three volume set of An Introduction to God and from there are soon to be ten volumes of Yada Yahowah that begins with Creation, the second volume is In the Garden which takes you through the Flood. The third volume speaks of the Covenant family and how to become part of the Covenant. From there are three volumes on the Mow'ed Miqra'ey – the first one focusing on Pesach, Matsah and Bikuwrym, the second one focusing on Shabu'w'ah and Taruw'ah, and the third on focusing on Kipurym and Sukah. There's a lot to understand between the Covenant and those Invitations to Meet with God. From there we take readers through this volume on Howsha', then there's volume on Separation through Daniel. And now this tenth one devoted to what Ezekiel was shown. This then takes us through the five volumes of the Observation Series beginning with the Mashal / Proverbs which is Dowd speaking as the Son on behalf of his Father, Yahowah, and Mother, Ruwach Qodesh, and walks us through these prophecies where God speaks of our time and how we got here. Then that leads to the two volumes of Coming Home where we go through the Mizmowr where Dowd is allowed to speak to us, and he calls his people home prior to his return.

Then for Jews wanting to know what it is about Christianity that was so hostile to them for so long and how Christianity came to be born out of a twisting perverted version of what God revealed to His people, the four volumes of Questioning Paul is a very good read. It explains how disgusted Yahowah is with Paul; He calls him the Plague of Death. It's a good read for Jews to understand how this religion grew in their midst and how to effectively disprove it.

There are three other books. I built a company from nothing to take it public and it's just a way of getting to know one another and really understand economics and corporate dynamics. It's called In the Company and is also available as is my meeting with the Islamic terrorists right after 911 called Tea with Terrorists. Lastly, so that you know that when I am criticizing Judaism consistent with what Yahowah has to say throughout His Towrah and Prophets, that I'm not just picking on Jews in addition to destroying the credibility of Christianity in Questioning Paul, I wrote Prophet of Doom which is the most comprehensive and chronological presentation of the Quran and Hadith so that it is Muhammad's terrorist manifesto in his own words.

So, all of that is available, and because of that wealth of material I think we can spend a goodly amount of time just talking about prophecy and what's going to happen between now and the time Yahowah returns to Yisra'el with Dowd to reconcile His relationship with His people which means there can be no Christianity, no New Testament, no Replacement Theology, no Black Hebrews, or Christian Church replacing Jews. He's returning to Yisra'el and Yahuwdah just as this has stated, and He is going to reconcile His relationship by placing His towrah literally inside these individuals so that it becomes part of the fabric of our lives guiding our decisions as we go forth into Eternity. So, that is where we are and that is what Yahowah is speaking specifically about at this point.

In the order of things, as I've shared, this is now the third chapter of Volume 8 of Yada Yahowah and is one of only two remaining to be part of the old Series. Once finished and properly positioned in their places on the bookshelf at yadayah.com, we will turn our attention to the events pertaining to Yowm Yzra'el, what will happen on the Day of Jezreel. It will be a massive undertaking because it will include a comprehensive and integrated analysis of Dany'el / Daniel 7, which is where the prophecies begin, and went through 12, translating every word. We're fairly thorough in terms of discussing what comes in chapters 1 - 6 which is prophetic of all bad things and is a nasty story. We have translated most of Zakaryah already but have to return to do 12 through 14. We translated most of Zakaryah because prior to that point it's all regarding Yahowah's Yowm Kipurym return. Then we will turn to Yow'el / Joel chapter 3. We will find ourselves investigating the fate of Babylon and Yisra'el, beginning with Yasha'yah / Isaiah 17 and 18, which we translated previously and shared on numerous occasions. Then we have to return to present all of 47 through 66, much of what we've covered in the past, but pulling it all together is strictly prophetic proclamations about the End Days. We will pursue this same storyline in Yirma'yah / Jeremiah, beginning in Chapter 49 running through Chapter 51. I had thought that we would turn to Yachezq'el / Ezekiel 32 followed by a tumultuous journey commencing in Chapter 35 and not ending until we conclude our review of God's response to man's mayhem in the 39th chapter, but I actually began with verse 1 of Chapter 1. I couldn't help myself because the two depictions of what God allegedly is like, one was written by Daniel, and it isn't what God is like at all. It's what Satan was like when Paul encountered him on the road to Damascus. That was quite an eye opener to recognize he's in Babylon and what he is seeing is the King of Babylon, Satan. I thought that was enough for one lifetime in terms of, "You're not going to believe this, but it's true." But Ezekiel 1 and 2 go right back to the same Beast. The revelation in Ezekiel 2 is not of God; it is of Satan rising out of Babylon to be the god of religion. He is the god of Christianity, Islam, Judaism and politics. It shows what he will be like. It even talks about the four astrological faces which are the four religions, the Babylonian pagan religion that manifested itself throughout what is called the 'Abrahamic religions becoming Judaism, Christianity and Islam and it is a monstrous beast. The same reference to the beast is that it is a living corpse, so it's of Satan.

So, that's where we are. I finally finished those translations and am now in Chapter 5 of Yachezq'el but even there is one surprise after another. One surprise in Yachezq'el 5 is that God says something I thought I would never hear from Him. He says, "The religious are going to die. When the religious die and I find out that you didn't bother to warn them, you made no effort to teach them, and after you making no effort to teach them and they die, I'm going to hold you accountable." That's something I thought I would never read because I'm looking at it from our perspective. We've come to the Covenant and to Yahowah's Towrah, and we've come to Yahowah and every moment of the way ... Babylon and I'm not talking about Paul, is joyous, uplifting, enriching, empowering, liberating and marvelous so we want to share it. We want to tell people that religions that are casting God into a very different light and leading people astray are wrong so that people break free of them and then they come to embrace what Yahowah is offering. And you just can't imagine not doing it. Kirk, I've never asked you to do these things, you just volunteered. Jacki, our lead publicist, we don't ask her to do these things, she volunteered. David, who manages the website, volunteered. We volunteer because we love Yahowah, we're excited to be part of His family, and we recognize that this not a net zero gain. The fact that He is going to give His Covenant members the entire universe, our share is not diminished by having a larger family; it's actually enriched by having a larger family. So, we're naturally predisposed to share this. I don't think there's been a single day where I've said, "Boy, I had better do this or God's going to be mad at me."

Where was Ezekiel? In Babylon. So, from His perspective Yahowah had to say, "I'm going to show you all this stuff, but if you don't have the courage, fortitude and character to convey it, then I'm going to hold you responsible." It's a very different place than where we are. I can see why He said it, but it certainly wasn't what I expected. ishat's a lot and is a perspective I never considered before.

That's where we are in the progression of events. We continue to grow, to learn, to celebrate our relationship and we continue to share.

Those of you who have listened and are a marginal Christian, we would encourage you to read Questioning Paul, walk away from your religion and then begin this journey to Yahowah with us.

If you are a Jew and are a Haredim you are not listening to this program because you are prohibited from internet access and are precluded from learning English, the language most spoken by Jews than any other in the world because they don't want you to learn the truth, so you weren't listening to us anyway. But if you and are a marginal Jew in the sense of questioning your religion and you are not dominated by your love for one of the 4,000 political parties in Israel, then we welcome you to join us in this search. Leave your religion and politics at the door; come and listen. We do this for you and if you think we're being unkind by criticizing Judaism and Israeli politics then I want you to understand ... that we say what Yahowah says. Yahowah wants this known; He was exceedingly verbose about it. It is the same message in the Towrah as it is with every Prophet. It is the dominant theme of what He conveys, that He is disgusted by the religiosity of Jews. So, if you don't want to hear it, then you're not interested in listening to God. It is the prerequisite of becoming part of the Covenant; you cannot become part of the Covenant family unless you are first willing to walk away from your religion and politics, from your country, from Babylon. That's why we say these things; we're not trying to be unkind to Jews. We are devoted to calling Yahowah's people home, and the first step in that is for them to recognize that their religion has led them astray, to disavow it and Israeli politics and to trust Yahowah, observe His testimony, listen to Him and embrace His name, accept the terms and conditions of the Covenant, and attend His Mow'ed Miqra'ey. He then will take care of the rest.

Thank you, we appreciate your contribution and all of you who are listening and everyone who is working together to share Yahowah's message with His people to call them home at this time.

May Yahowah bless. Goodnight.