Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those which were inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to another episode of Yada Yah Radio. I'm here with Kirk and Dee. This has been an eventful week in Israel. For those who are paying attention to what's going on in God's home where His people reside, two cute boys, six-year-old Yaakov Yisrael Paley and his eight-year-old brother, Asher Menahem Paley were riding through a very antagonistic pro-terror Fakestinian town, and for doing so they were gunned down and murdered at point-blank range by a Fakestinian. The Jews who live in the area responded inappropriately, but understandably, by taking the law into their own hands and with the encouragement and blessing of the new finance minister in Netanyahu's exceedingly religious and crazed coalition, decided they would burn the town down, that the right thing to do would be to torch cars, stores and homes. To their credit, they were not hunting to kill people but wanted to eliminate the blight of this place that had encouraged so many terrorist acts and murdered these two young boys. It was grossly inappropriate.

We've talked about violence before, and it is something Israel, which we care deeply about, needs to understand. There is only one justification for using anything other than your words. Words should always be used first, and you must know how to use them. You need to know there is no such place called Palestine. There is no such thing as Palestinians. They have no history there, they have no rights there, they do not belong there, and they are doing everything in their power as a community to eradicate Jews. There is no two-state solution. Use your words, tell the history of the actual Philistines and then compare them to these Arab Muslims. But instead, they rioted and killed an individual.

The one justification for using violence is if you witness someone harming an individual who cannot independently defend themselves, you can better that situation. If your child or spouse is harmed, you have a right to use violence, even sacrificing your own life to prevent someone from harming them. If you see someone raping your child, you can grab a two-by-four and knock them dead; you've done a good thing. If you see someone raping an innocent woman and you can stop them, and you have a gun, a knife, or a club, take it after them. If you see someone about to behead or murder someone else and you have the means to stop them, do so. Those are the only justifiable uses of violence. If someone comes into your home and you have reason to fear they're going to do bodily harm to your family, you can use physical violence to stop them.

But you've got no justification for doing as America is doing, going into the Ukraine with weapons so we can use them as a proxy to fight and kill Russians. We can't go into a place like Iraq or Afghanistan and kill a million people. We have no right to do that, and these Jews had no right to go into a community of Fakestinians and start torching the place and burning it down. When you do that, you are no better than the perpetrators of terror. But unfortunately, this government is encouraging those kinds of acts, not Netanyahu himself but those he has partnered with, to prevail as prime minister.

There is a "pro-Palestinian activist," not knowing there is no such thing as a Palestinian. He's not an activist; he's a terrorist. He went looking to beat up Jews at a New York City rally. He had been previously arrested and convicted for beating up Jews and had conspired to bring weapons and Molotov cocktails to kill Jews this time. He is on record writing, "F all Jews" and if you wear a mask, they can't tell who you are; no face, no case" is what Masood wrote, "Violence only violence in Palestine," which doesn't exist, "They wish they could smack Jews and not get tortured. We can, though." And yet he is free.

The two boys I mentioned that had been killed were six-year-old Yaakov Yisrael Paley and his eight-year-old brother, Asher Menahem Paley. It's worth looking up their picture to see what indiscriminate Islamic terrorism does. Those two young boys were murdered at point-blank range by a Mudslime in East Jerusalem's Ramot neighborhood simply because they were Jewish. The town is north of Ramallah in central Israel and north of Jerusalem. It became a hotbed of terror, and Muslims in these areas have cleared the lives of 16 innocent Jews since the beginning of the year. In this case, hundreds of Jewish, they call them extremists, and I would say their behavior was extreme, they went on a rampage, that's also a fair term, in Hawara, and they chanted "Revenge" as they burned places down. As someone looking at this who cares deeply about Israel, I will tell you that when you do that sort of thing, you will turn the world against you. You already have enough enemies; you do not need more.

Finance Minister Smotrich tweeted on Twitter that he liked the idea of erasing the village of Hawara (that was before the rampage), and he called for the State of Israel to wipe it out. These are not responsible things. Someone like this does not belong in government. It's going to cause Israel to be so isolated that this two-state Final Solution will be forced on them. Abbas, whom they like to call President, was never elected even in one vote. He didn't receive the majority of the votes, and since then, he's never held another election because he knows he would not receive enough votes even to counterfeit a win. Abbas has now called on the Fakestinian Defense Forces, who are clothed in American garments, given American weapons, trained in America, and given American bullets, that they should now resist all entry into Fakestina by the IDF. The IDF has been going into Fakestina to root out groups like Lions' Den and other Fakestinian groups like Islamic Jihad to put them in jail or kill them before they kill Jews. It's because Abbas has no credibility or control over those areas. They have completely moved out because they're too influenced by Hamas and as a result Israel has to go in with these preemptive strikes and to also find the terrorists who are murdering their people. But now the Palestinian Authority is saying, "If they enter our lands," they don't have any lands, "don't hesitate to confront them." That would be an armed insurrection against Israel. We are that close to war.

One of the most disgusting human beings on the planet, Secretary of State Anthony Blinken, decided to do something that America has only done once before, to vote against Israel and a UN resolution. They didn't abstain, and they didn't block it. They voted against Israel. It was one of those things where even Netanyahu said, "What in the hell is wrong with the United States? There was no mention in this resolution of pay for slay, of the PA indoctrinating their kids to kill Jews, of the innocent Jews that had been murdered this year, of the fact that we have a history in this land, and they have none, and no mention of the fact that the IDF does a better job of minimizing civilian casualties than any other military in the world." But this idiot voted against Israel; America, you can be assured there will be a consequence for that. He was sitting next to his Russian counterpart, Lavrov. Lavrov said, "We knew that the United States took part in blowing up the German Russian Pipeline. We told the world they needed to do an independent investigation two months prior to the invasion of the Ukraine; we knew it had happened. It was an act of war so let's not play around with this pretense that the Russians started this war; it was started by the United States." Anthony Blinken just sat there with his finger up his nose; he had nothing to say.

DEE: And the fact that he is Jewish.

YADA: Yes. Jews in America are some of the most anti-Semitic people in the world. So, the United States voted against Israel in a condemnation against Israel. Netanyahu said the statement never should have been made and in the United States never should have joined with it. It's not often you'll find an Israeli politician willing to be that blunt against the United States, but he said, in a one-sided statement, "The Security Council ignored Palestinian terrorism, the incitement and financing of the terrorists and their families by the Palestinian Authority, and Europe and the United States' contributions to pay for slay for pay which the UN continues to be biased and one-sided and indirectly gives a green light to Palestinian terrorist organizations.”

There are a lot of stupid people in Israel; the religious are the dumbest. Rabbi Amar said this week he is the head Chief Rabbi. Israel must have 5,000 Chief Rabbis, he's the Sephardic Chief Rabbi of Jerusalem. So, Shlomo Amar, who is wearing his very fancy religious outfit and his white beard said that the earthquakes in Israel, which have been minor, are to be blamed on the LGBTQ+ community. "It's not me interpreting, it's the language of the Gemara" he said. By the way it's not the language of the Towrah. "It's the language of the Gemara," he said quoting from Talmudic passages, "God said you were shocking your people for something that is not yours." That's how he interpreted that. "But I'm not interpreting it. God said." Now he's quoting from the Talmud, and he says, "God said" which means that the rabbi who wrote it was God. And by the way, as he's saying this the entire Square beneath him is filled with moronic Orthodox Jews.

Judaism isn't the only corrupt religion in the world. Catholic clergy in Portugal have sexually abused 5,000 children since 1950. If they had abused five kids, it is a tragedy, 50 is an unforgivable act. Five hundred in Portugal alone and they would say, "Burn the house down." Five thousand. Country after country it's the same story about the most disgusting organization on the planet.

There's an article written by Miriam Fam who probably has an IQ of three. She wrote about how horrible it is that females are suffering genital mutilation. They always like to tell a little story to catch your eyes about an 11-year-old girl with her legs spread exposing her genitals, how fear stiffened her body and then there was the pain. Was there such an individual? Who knows. It's just the way they have been taught to write their stories.

Let me tell you what's important. There are living today 200 million little girls and women who have had their genitals mutilated by Muslim parents and this writer said, "It is the enriched social norm deeply rooted in cultural beliefs and sometimes in religious beliefs. It is prevalent in parts of Africa, the Middle East and Asia and has been performed in communities of different cultures and faiths." Ninety-nine percent of it is in one religion – Islam, and the one percent that isn't Islam is a form of Christianity that is so immersed in Islam they wouldn't know up from down. In Egypt it is something in the range of 90% of women are sexually mutilated. It's a growing problem in France because of the increasing Muslim population. It's disgusting that mothers participate in mutilating their daughters, but it is what they do.

There were discussions over the last week that China is going to supply weapons to Russia and the United States says, "If you do bad for you. It's going to start a new Cold War. How could you be so inhuman?" as we send hundreds of billions of dollars of weapons to the Ukraine. But if somebody were to side with Russia in the defense of Russia in this argument, they're bad and the United States is good. We are such total and complete hypocrites.

Speaking of being hypocrites two brothers from Pakistan were released this week from Guantanamo. They were held there in prison for 20 years without a single charge being brought against them. One of these men has a 20-year-old son he has never seen. That is reprehensible; there's no excuse for it. We only have Guantanamo and other CIA-run and military-run prisons because we can't torture and abuse people in the United States under the US Constitution. It's sickening what we have done.

Speaking of sickening a Muslim woman invited her family to her wedding in Mexico. Her Muslim family kidnapped her and sold her for $500,000 to a Muslim in Yemen where she's now in a prison in the Middle East. Her father said, "You are no longer in the West. You are in the Islamic Middle East; women like you are killed." The only regret the father has is that he didn't kill her before selling her.

The UN is also a fine organization. Experts appointed by the World Health Organization have finally begun investigating allegations that its staffers sexually abused thousands of women during the Ebola outbreak in Congo. It's wonderful to bring in the United Nations to see them do that sort of thing.

The head of NATO announced this week that the Ukraine will join NATO which means there can never be an end to this war. What an unbelievably stupid thing to say. Vladimir Putin in a speech this week told the truth, which the U.S media can't handle. He said that the war in the Ukraine is being prolonged, and the death toll is being increased because Western Nations and particularly the United States are offering weapons to the West to kill Russians. Germany is the only country where reality is beginning to sink in, and they are beginning in significant numbers to protest the war. Whether or not they will overturn their country's support of it I do not know but I do know that when Biden went to Kiev this week and recommitted that America will continue to supply weapons to the Ukraine for however long it takes, he might as well have said and I'm here to start World War III.

I read an interesting article this week by Seymour Hersh that sent shivers up my spine. Seymour Hersh wrote the investigative journalistic piece on Biden planning to blow up the Russian German gas pipeline to make certain that there would be a war. He was making a point saying, "This is true of Biden just as it was true of JFK."

I know it to be true of George W. Bush because he told me personally, even before he was elected, that all presidents crave to be remembered among the great presidents once they enter the White House. Abraham Lincoln was considered a great because of the Civil War, FDR is regarded as a great president because of World War II. JFK talked with Seymour Hersh and said, "I want to be a great president. I've studied the history of great presidents, who were all wartime presidents. Do you think a president needs to be involved in a war to be great?" And with the next breath, he began talking about wanting to start this war with Vietnam and how he began bombing North Vietnam and sending Americans into North Vietnam to start that war long before it was announced, long before LBJ fabricated and knowingly lied to the American people about the Gulf of Tonkin incident causing the death of 58,000 Americans and a million Vietnamese. JFK deliberately started the war because he wanted to be a great president. His ego got the best of him.

Part of that article brings us back to the Ukraine because during one of his talks with Seymour Hersh he said, "I get a pass on the Cuban Missile Crisis, but Khrushchev stumped me. His knowledge, rhetoric, presence, and understanding of the issues were so far beyond mine that I could not measure up to him." It was an admission that one of the more intelligent people to be in the White House, with Biden being among the dumbest, was overwhelmed by his Russian counterpart, who was a professional versus a man that was good at wooing people with his style. We are in this Ukrainian war because this time when we played the Cuban Missile Crisis, we were dumber than dumb, and rather than capitulate and realize that world war and nuclear war are in no one's interest, we fan the flames of nuclear war.

Let's return now to Howsha' 5 where Yahowah says,

“But I am like a moth, perceived as something wasteful and fabricated (wa ‘any ka ha ‘ash – so I am thought to be a sick creature, a rotten discharge of a nocturnal insect) to ‘Ephraym (la ‘Ephraym – to those amounting to traces of ash; representing the ten tribes of the Northern Kingdom) and (wa) much like (ka – similar to) a fungal parasite or a septic infection (ha raqab – a degenerative disease or dry rot) to the Household of Yahuwdah (la Beyth Yahuwdah – to the Family of Yah's Beloved).” (Howsha' / He Liberates / Hosea 5:12)

It's true. You don't ever hear Yahowah's name. Of all these right-wing religious wackos in Israel, Yahowah's name is never mentioned. They have turned the rabbis into gods, they said, "and God said," reading from the Talmud. God didn't say anything like that, and had nothing to do with the Talmud. The god of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam are all fabricated, much like fungal parasites. If you have ever looked at a house with dry rot, you can't fix it. When looking at homes when I wanted to be near my granddaughter in Cincinnati, Ohio, I found that almost no one took care of their homes. They didn't know how to do preventative maintenance and painting. You could push your finger through the wood on any of the doors or window frames because instead of replacing the dry rotted doors, windows, and trim, they puttied it in and painted over the wood rot. Do you know how much damage the water incursion has done to the house's framing? The whole place is going to fall. Who are you kidding? The neighbors thought I was crazy.

The speaker here is God, so His assessments are valid, and His testimony is accurate; it makes this a bombshell. Yahowah's dismal evaluations of religiosity, Yisra'el and Yahuwah were comparative endorsements when contrasted against the people's perception of their God. His view of them is that your religion has made you worthless; their view of Him is You are a parasite. Is there any reason that God had a 2,500-year timeout from His people? Is there any wonder why God had to turn to a Gowym?

We found out today that our beloved Jackie, the publisher and chief editor of the Yada Yahowah series (and the glue that keeps the family together humming) is Jewish. Dee, you are also Jewish and Kirk, your wife is Jewish, and I believe her sons are 50-60% Jewish. We are very much isolated Gowym.

For those Jews who are listening saying, "I'm not going to take any advice from a Gowy." Well virtually everybody that's part of Yada Yahowah happens to be Jewish and God chose a Gowym whether you like it or not to convey this message to you because there was none among His community that were willing to do it.

DEE: Yahowah didn't call you the lone Gowy for nothing.

YADA: No, I am the lone Gowy. For those who have been listening, I am now in Ezekiel 44 and nearly done with the Babel series, which consists of Daniel and Ezekiel, and I am 1,700 pages into this analysis. If we hadn't done this together for the past 22 years and had yet to learn as much as we have learned and become as confident as we are, there is no way I could have done this. Ezekiel is bleak, dark, twisted, and black. The writing is so dismal, the quality of the communication is so incomprehensible, made-up words, countless remarks without any verbs, missing pronouns, wrong words in the wrong context; it's contradictory, dark, twisted, ugly, demonic, and it is the most anti-Semitic tome I've ever read. ... of the Quran. I've written probably the best-read book today on the Quran in Prophet of Doom. I'm an expert and Paul's letters, having written four volumes to expose and condemn him. I studied a lot of Judaism as we were writing the Yada Yah series. Writing Prophet of Doom, I had to read and study Mein Kampf to make comparisons between Mein Kampf and the Quran, which are numerous.

I've never read anything that demonizes and dehumanizes Jews to the extent that Ezekiel does. To think that Jews are responsible for considering it among the prophets is a self-inflicting horror. The Jews that endorsed this and placed it among the Prophets so that it would be regarded as scripture by the Christians and Muslims who speak a lot of the Gog and Magog War, which is fanciful, and used the Gog and Magog War and used the Lord of Babel's depiction of Jews, the rape of Jews. There are 25 different ways to exterminate Jews in this book, and the new Temple is modeled after Auschwitz, the death camp. And to think that religious Jews put this piece of trash in the middle of Prophets to cause Jews to be demonized and to be dehumanized is appalling beyond words. So, if you think I disrespect rabbis, understand where it comes from. I understand what they have done to destroy the lives of Jews; they are the single biggest threat to God's people. Jews have no greater enemy than Judaism. It's not my opinion; it is God's constant and irrefutable conclusion. This happens to be one of those many statements.

Yisra'el had come to believe that the stories of Yahowah rescuing them were just stories. The only real God was a waste of time and energy that could be spent around fake ones and they become great at inventing gods modeled after their rabbis. From 'Ephraym's perspective, they were a brilliant flame and Yahowah was but a moth bedazzled by the brilliance of their Sages.

As I'm reading and translating Ezekiel 44 it's interesting that the God makes His third or fourth grand appearance. He keeps on repeating His grand appearances as if He's going to get one of them right and He immediately transitions into an ordinary man. So, we have God-man the basis of Christianity and you just wonder how in the world do people make this transition, how do they go from witnessing the brilliance of Yahowah to calling men who contradict and upstage Him brilliant?

By comparison Yahowah's great love, Yahuwah, saw God as a fungus and parasite. Yahowah was a disease to be avoided; don't think it isn't true. You can read the Gemara, the Talmud, you can listen to rabbinic sermons, and you will never hear Yahowah. He's a disease to be avoided.

It is little wonder that the relationship called for a divorce. Had they been mine, I do not think I would have dignified them with this letter, but Yahowah felt it was appropriate, so Howsha' is the divorce decree. The Towrah says that if you want a divorce, you write a letter explaining the reasons, and that is sufficient. It would have been goodbye and good riddance Howsha' is that letter. Yahowah says, "I am divorcing you."

Nonetheless, He is God and that comes with several burdens. That's a job I wouldn't want. I'm stunned that men play God. One of the burdens is that He must always honor His promises, no matter how undeserving the beneficiary. He has promised to reconcile His relationship with those who view Him unkindly, and that includes Yisra'el, so let's at least hope that there will be a representative number willing to recant their prior positions.

In the introduction to the most recent chapter for this book on Ezekiel I stated for the second time that Satan is winning the popularity contest he is holding with Jews, and that he is winning overwhelmingly. The number of people that will choose to believe that Satan is God versus those that I can convince that he is not, even citing the words of Yahowah and with Dowd's testimony indicting such a notion, I'm going to lose by more than a thousand to one. Fortunately, God's not running a popularity contest. Satan and God are not playing the same game; Satan's going to win the most souls, but Yahowah's not interested in the most, just the best. So, all we have to do to prevail is have a handful of Yisra'elites and Yahuwdym accept Yahowah and be there for His return for Him shouting out His name welcoming Him back. That's all we need. Satan's goal is to have a clean sweep. If there are no Jews on Yowm Kipurym in the year 6000 Yah, which is just ten years from now, the rabbinic calendar is full of crap; Maimonides was an absolute idiot when he put it together. It is very easy to establish a calendar and verify it. Jackie and Dee have done a yeoman's job on this. My fact checker, Mike, has also done a thorough job. It's very easy to determine what year it is, and we are just now ten years away from the year 6000 Yah. When Yahowah returns, Satan knows the date; he's read the Towrah and Prophets. He can figure it out, and I figured it out. He's smarter than I am. He knows when Yahowah is going to return, so his game is if he can convince every Jew that he's God and that Yahowah is not, there'll be no one there for Yowm Kipurym and there'd be no reason for Yahowah to return if there isn't a single Jew willing to accept Him. You can't have a Day of Reconciliations when there's no one to reconcile; he needs a clean sweep.

All we need is a handful. And while I think there will be thousands between Jews and Gowym that will be there welcoming Yahowah upon His return on October 2, 2033, at 6:22 pm, sunset, in Jerusalem, I think there'll be 7,000 there, but all we need is seven. And I tell you, we already have way more than that that is part of Yahowah's family. Yahowah has already won. He isn't going to give up on humanity and say there are not enough Jews and that He will stay in heaven and let Satan have the Earth. That is Satan's only play; he's got to keep Yahowah from returning because when Yahowah returns, he gets locked up forever. This idea in Revelation that he will get released in a thousand years is poppycock. He gets locked up forever when Yahowah and Dowd return ten years from now, on October 2, 2033. His entire game is to convince every Jew to ignore Yahowah, to stay religious, stay political, and be unwilling to accept Him. He's going to lose that battle, but he's going to win the popularity contest by at least a thousand to one among Jews and by a million to one among the Gentiles

“Had ‘Ephraym perceived (wa ra’ah ‘Ephraym – had the Northern Kingdom viewed and witnessed) that which was associated with his malady and sickness (‘ets choly huw’ – his related illness and disease, his injuries and afflictions, his infirmities and the cause of his suffering),

Interestingly, the word that the religious use to speak of their god and their god’s houses, scripture, ministers and their god’s book, the Bible, which is based upon Babel by the way, the same root which means “things to confuse by intermixing.” the word is holy which in Hebrew means “malady, sickness, illness, disease, injurious affliction, infirmity, a cause of suffering and death.” So, the next time you use “It’s the High Holy Days” realize that they were talking about something that is diseased and sick.

Yahowah uses the term qodesh / Set Apart. Qodesh is the opposite of holy. They would say the “Holy Bible, God’s Holy Church” and things like that are popular. Yahowah is very unpopular. Qodesh means “to be set apart, to be uncommon, to be separated from the norm, to be distinct from those things which are popular. There’s nothing more popular in human culture than religion and politics. So, to be qodesh, which we must be if we’re going to have a relationship with Yahowah, we have to be unpopular; we have to be set apart, separate and distinct from those things. Well, ‘Ephraym instead, he was holy.

and Yahuwdah, his oozing and pustulant wound (wa Yahuwdah ‘eth mazowr huw’), then (wa) ‘Ephraym (‘Ephraym) would have gone (halak) to ‘Ashuwr (‘el ‘Ashuwr – Assyria; from ‘ashar – the way to receive blessings and benefits, the basis of ‘Asherah, the mythical Queen of Heaven and Mother of God), reaching out to (shalach ‘el) the king of contentiousness and the Adversary (melek yareb – the physically aggressive and vehemently quarrelsome lord of religion and politics).

‘Ashuwr is an interesting word because it is based upon a very important Hebrew word, ‘Asher; one of the Twelve Tribes bears that name. It is a wonderful term in Hebrew. It means “to be associated with, to walk along the narrow and restrictive path to get the most joy out of life, the way to receive the benefits of the relationship.” ‘Asher is a verb, a preposition, and a noun; it’s a powerful word, and what is meaningful to Yahowah the religious ___ with, Satan in particular, and ‘asher is a counterfeit of that. It’s based on the concept that is used with Mary in the Catholic Church. Mary in Hebrew means “contentious and rebellious.” a nice term for ... Catholicism. ‘Asher is “the blessed, the ones who receive the benefits, the fortunate and fortuitous,” and yet Yahowah would view them as contentious and adversarial.

But this would have been incapable of healing you (wa huw' lo' yakal la rapha' la 'atem – it cannot restore your health, and it will not prevail or succeed in repairing you). This cannot cure you (wa lo' gahah – but there will be no recuperation or restoration with this) from the infectious disease which ensnares you (min 'atem mazowr – of your ulcerous lesions and from your pustulant wounds).” (Howsha' / He Delivers / Hosea 5:13)

This is entirely metaphorical. The Northern Kingdom was never circumspect. They reveled in their religious beliefs and celebrated their false gods. It began before the break between the Northern and Southern Kingdoms. Solomon had a penchant for marrying religious foreigners and to keep them happy he sold himself out and became religious. That's why you read books like Song of Solomon and Ecclesiastes, “Vanity of vanities, it's all vanity.” He lost it; he had everything, and he threw it all away and it was within a matter of years after his death that the Northern Kingdom split off from the Southern Kingdom, and it was but a few years after that the Assyrians gobbled up the Northern Kingdom such as they were lost to history. The reason is that they were diseased; they did this to themselves by reveling in their religious beliefs, they celebrated their false gods. There was no King Jareb, and the Yisra'elites did not venture on their own accord to Assyria seeking a cure for what ailed them. Rather, ‘Ashuwr is being used symbolically to convey the alternative covenant – the religious path to anticipated benefits and blessings. And therein, melek yareb becomes the Lord of Contentiousness, a.k.a., the Adversary, who is ever ready to beguile and then disappoint.

The symbolic language continues...

As a result (ky), I will be akin to ('anoky ka) a roaring lion (ha shachal) to 'Ephraym (la 'Ephraym) and like (wa ka) a conciliatory lion (ha kaphyr) approaching the Family of Yahuwdah (la beyth Yahuwdah – the Home of Yah's Beloved).

I, Myself ('any 'any), will tear up or tear apart (taraph – I will rip up or tear away, providing what is required), then I will either walk away or lift up (wa halak nasa' – I will go away or I will carry away (qal imperfect)), such that nothing will rescue or snatch away (wa 'ayn natsal – so that no one will deliver or take away).” (Howsha' / He Liberates / Hosea 5:14)

It's a sad situation. God was saying there's nothing more I can do for you. I've roared, screamed, scratched, I've done everything, I just can't fix it anymore. I'm going to continue being consolatory with Yahuwdah because there's still work to do. This is still 750 BCE; the Northern Kingdom would be gone in 30 years, but the Southern Kingdom would live on and there was work to do. There would still be prophets for the next 200 years in the Southern Kingdom, in Yahuwdah, and of course it was through Yahuwdah that Yahowah placed His soul into a descendant of Yahuwdah to fulfill Pesach. So, God said, “I must walk away; there’s nothing I can do to snatch you away from this, so essentially it’s over.”

This is a wonderful play on words, an example where similar things convey vastly different outcomes. Looking first at ‘Ephraym, the shachal | lion is roaring. With it, God is shown poised to tear up Yisra’el, taraph | ripping the nation to shreds, then halak | walking away, because the purpose will have been to destroy. There’s nothing worth saving. And for Yisra’el, there will be ‘ayn natsal | no rescue or redemption, not for 2,780 years.

Now with Yahuwdah, the kaphyr | lion is conciliatory, ready to make amends. We know this because kaphyr is from kaphar | to reconcile – serving as the basis for Yowm Kipurym | the Day of Reconciliations. Then as we approach the same verbal chain, we discover that Yahowah will ‘any | personally taraph | tear His Beloved away from ‘Ephraym, separating them from harm’s way, while taraph | providing whatever they require. So now, rather than halak | walk away, God will be nasa’ | lifting them up and carrying Yahuwdah home. As a result, ‘ayn natsal | no one will ever be able to take them away again.

Continuing to address Yahuwdym...

“I will go away and return (halak shuwb – I will travel about and come back) to My place (‘el maqowm ‘any – to My home) until they closely examine and carefully consider the way to receive the benefits of the relationship through the restoring witness of the eternal testimony (‘ad ‘asher shamar) and (wa) they seek My presence, responsibly investigating and learning about My appearance (wa baqash paneh ‘any – the desire encountering Me face to face).

It is during the time of trouble (ba ha tsarar – in a period of great distress, of being besieged and restricted, enclosed and confined (qal perfect)) that they will approach by earnestly seeking Me, longing to learn about the relationship (la hem shachar ‘any – they will want to be with Me, enquiring about Me while genuinely striving to know Me (piel imperfect paragogic nun energicus – of His choosing, Yahowah is engaged by the search and will provide continuous learning at this monumental future event)).” (Howsha’ / He Saves / Hosea 5:15)

There's hope. God said He was going to go away, but He was going to return. He was going away to His place and would return to His place because He has more than one place. The universe is His place. He left Yahuwdah to return to shamaym, and from shamaym He will return to His place and Yahuwdah. And His return to that place, to His home on Mount Mowryah, will be when they come to closely examine and carefully consider the way to receive the benefits of the relationship through the restoring witness of the eternal testimony. 'Ad, which means "witness, testimony, and eternal," 'ashar, which means "to receive the benefits of a relationship," and Shamar, which is to "observe, closely examine and carefully consider," are three wonderful words together.

and (wa) they seek My presence, responsibly investigating and learning about My appearance (wa baqash paneh 'any – the desire encountering Me face to face).

Which is going to occur in ten years. Wa baqash paneh 'any – they will have a desire to meet with Me, encounter Me face to face. It's going to be during a time of tsarar | a period of great distress, of being besieged and restricted, enclosed and confined, of being narrowed as a country through the final solution, the two-state solution that they want to impose on Israel narrowing the country to about 10 miles wide at its waist where 70% of them will reside. It will be a time of terrible trouble as antisemitism is on the rise. As Islamic hatred of Jews is supported by the progressives the world will turn against them. Europe has already turned against them; America will sell them out in a heartbeat. The reason that America voted against Israel was simple. We're so invested in our war against Russia in the Ukraine we couldn't have anyone in the Middle East undermine what America is seeking to do so we'll sell even our friends out to support a war.

So, it's during a time of trouble when things get so bad that Israelites / Yahuwdym finally recognize that they do not have anyone within their religious and political communities they can trust; not the liberals, not the right wingers not the reformed Jews, not the Haredim. The world is collapsing around them; they're hated more than any other people. It is this time of tsarar. Yahowah uses it to say this is a time of Ya'aqob's Tsarar / Trouble.

that they will approach by earnestly seeking Me, longing to learn about the relationship

That's about as hopeful as anything you can read.

KIRK: This just screams out every time I read it, and you reading it now, shamar towrah. I don't understand what everybody's waiting on. He said, "I'm going to give you a written record, I'm going to preserve it." I analyzed all the words about the record and the witness, and this is all about the Towrah, even the Dead Sea Scrolls, if you like. There's a protected document that shows up in '48 and nobody knew what to do with it till you came along. We've translated it and everybody can check anything themselves. There's not a document in the world that can teach you to understand what the Towrah says that's better than this. You don't need anything better than what is right here. What's your delay? You have a prophecy right here in the middle of it that could not possibly have been known 2,500 years ago unless Yah's Spirit was telling you what to say. Everything is in this little section. For goodness' sake, do it now.

YADA: Yahowah is saying, "Right now Yisra'el, the Northern Kingdom, the ten tribes are a lost cause. I can't ... but there is hope with Yahuwdah. There will come a time of troubles of Israel being narrowed, distressed, besieged, restricted and confined. There will be a time like that, which is quickly approaching, when they will approach and seek Me longing to learn about this relationship with Me and that's going to occur for one reason. They will closely examine and carefully consider the ways to receive the benefits of the relationship through the restoring and eternal testimony and they're going to seek My presence as a result." It's not difficult. Yahowah provided proof that He is God in the Towrah. His creation account, the account of the flood, the story of the exodus from Egypt, His relationship with 'Abraham, this legacy document that we have of all those conversations and events, all of which can be proven scientifically and historically, the greatest book ever written contains stunning and overwhelming proof that Yahowah is God and that you can trust what He's offering.

On top of that, He told us how we could determine whether someone else was speaking for Him. If you want to know if Yirma'yah, Howsha', Yasha'yah, or Zakaryah were inspired by Yahowah, the Creator God of the Universe, He gives you a standard to apply. Everything that is said must be consistent with what He said. Everything that was said has to be historically and prophetically accurate. There can be no contradictions, no mistakes, and no errors in fact historically or prophetically. No prophecy; it's not from Him. Inaccuracy is not from Him. So, you can go through the books, read Job, and say, "No prophecy." The whole tone of the book is inconsistent with Yahowah. Throw it out. You can read Enoch and say, "Oh my God, this is so diverse from what Yahowah said; this is laughable." Throw it out. Ezekiel is absolute trash. The test was to make one mistake about either history or prophecy; then, you must throw it out. He didn't get anything right; everything he said was wrong. God made it clear how you can determine what He said. So, which books to read is easy; you've got a brain, and you've got time.

I will tell you there is one challenge of the whole thing, which is that both Hebrew and English translations, and it's funny to say a Hebrew translation, but the language that Yahowah ... these instructions to us and modern Hebrew are very different. They pretend as if the 22 letters in Paleo Hebrew were without vowels, and you need the Masorettes to do it. Then they created it for the modern Hebrew language without the vowel points and said, "We're going to ignore that." No. There are five vowels and seventeen consonants in 22 letters, and the words are very easily defined by the pictographic nature of the letters and in context. It's not difficult, but it takes time. If you're not willing to invest that time or at least take the time to read the 30 books that are available for you free at yadayah.com, and read them there, if you don't take the time to read them and at least make an effort to translate Yahowah's words accurately to convey the message truthfully and completely and then help people understand it by making the necessary connections to go from knowledge to understanding, you need to do those things. That's why He said in the previous statement, "Closely examine and carefully consider."

We've done that for you. You can capitalize on it; you can verify what we have shared because we provide the basis of every translated word. Read it, learn it. It's handed to you. We've been working on this now for 22 years on behalf of the Jews and Gowym that are interested in knowing the truth about God and are interested in getting to know Him personally. God said it's going to take a time of horrible troubles, and it is happening. We are now just seven years away from the worst of that. The last three years are going to be hell on Earth and it's likely that there will be maybe three to four years preceding, starting in 2026, that are going to be exceedingly difficult.

I'm equivocating here some because when you read the text that we know is valid prophetically it speaks of this time of trouble and it's very easy to date year 6000 Yah. We know that the next Miqra'ey that Yahowah will fulfill in dramatic fashion, because He is fulfilling Taruw'ah in your listening, is Kipurym, the Day of Reconciliations which will occur in year 6000 Yah. So, we can backtrack from that and say we know there's a period of Ya'aqob's Trouble and it appears to be a little over three years long when it is the most intense, and it will begin to become particularly bad three or four years prior to that. Really, the issue is when exactly these dates transpire up to this point because there is no question what's going to happen at 6:22 PM, October 2nd, at sundown in Jerusalem in 2033. It's how far do we dial back from there that the worst of these troubles begin.

I'm here to tell you that you if you're listening to this and you haven't made your decision on behalf of Yahowah, then you really shouldn't care. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain. Knowing Yah is uplifting, freeing, enlightening, empowering, enriching, it's every positive thing. God asks very little of us and the things that He does ask of us are all beneficial to us; walk away from religion and politics, walk to Him along the path He has provided so that He can perfect us which means attend the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, Shabuw'ah, Taruw'ah, Kipurym, Sukah, every one of them is a Festival Feast and a celebration of our life with Yahowah, a wonderful party, no sacrifice there. Trust and rely on Yahowah, He's trustworthy – man, religion and politics are not. He is and all you have to do there is gain. Closely examine and carefully consider His conditions of the Covenant which are presented in the Towrah. There's nothing but benefits to that and the time you've spent doing that will be returned a billion-fold. As parents were asked to circumcise our sons on the eighth day so that we remember, and they remember to prioritize Yahowah in their lives. And as men we must be circumcised to attend Pesach which is the first step to the doorway to life through which we enter Yahowah's family. That's all God asks of us. He doesn't ask for money or prayers; He doesn't ask for us to worship Him. In fact, He has no interest in us worshipping or praying to Him, He has no interest in our money and He has no rules or laws. He does have prescriptions for living, He offers guidance, teaching and instructions, all of which we benefit from.

Why wait? What happens if you pass away before you have the opportunity to make the right call? Your soul is squandered. What happens if you make the decision too late to educate yourself to the point that you can share the truth with a loved one and have them join you through eternity but because you waited you weren't prepared? You squandered their soul. Why wait, what do you have to lose. He's God after all. He has our best interest in mind; He wants to embrace us. He's a father not a lord. Fathers lift up, protect, nourish, teach and guide their children. That's what our Father wants to do for all His children.

In this statement Yahowah is affirming that He is going to back away and allow Yisra'el to do as they have chosen – which is to fend for themselves. Having come to their rescue, having devoted Himself to guiding, teaching, and protecting them, God has better things to do with His time than allowing them to abuse Him. This long intermission would last almost 2,800 years with Yisra'el and within several centuries of that time with Yahuwdah – from whom the last of the prophets would come.

Then at long last, Yahuwdym will emerge from their nightmarish past, open their eyes, and become observant. And what before their wandering eyes will appear, but 'ad 'asher shamar | the opportunity to closely examine and carefully consider the way to receive the benefits of the relationship through the restoring witness of the eternal testimony.

Those of us who are already in the Beryth, who attend Yahowah's Miqra'ey, and who are guided by His Towrah | teaching and guidance, will have a ringside seat for the Great Awakening. It will occur during the Time of Ya'aqob's Troubles – the last 3 to 3½ years prior to Yahowah's return when the world comes crashing down upon Jews.

We have calculated that it is likely that the last two witnesses, the most famous being 'Elyah | Yahowah is God, pronounced Elijah, is going to be here for Passover in 2030. I wouldn't wait that long if I were you because two out of three Jews are going to die and they're going to do better than the world as a whole. We're headed to nuclear annihilation. It's not God who's going to be wiping people out, we're going to do it to ourselves.

The 'Eth (time) Tsarah (troubles) la (of) Ya'aqob (the father of Yisra'el and became the name of Yisra'el, so it is "the time of Yisra'el's troubles) is subsequently explained in the 30th chapter of Yirma'yah | Jeremiah – which we will consider soon. Should you wish to mark your calendars, and share Pesach with 'Elyah, it will commence at sundown, Tuesday, April 16th, 2030 ('Abyb 14, year 5997 Yah) during the first day of Chag Matsah.

That's a surprise to religious Jews because they think that Matsah is the missing ingredient or that the leaven that would go into bread (Matsah represents unyeasted bread) that Matsah is incorporated into Pesach when it's the other way around. Pesach without Matsah is counterproductive.

Then 3½ hellish years thereafter – addressing the times, times, times, and half a time reference at the conclusion of Dany'el, which I think is being presented in 'Elyah's voice – Yahowah will return to reconcile His relationship with Yisra'el and Yahuwdah. That story is told in the 31st chapter of Yirma'yah in one of the most profoundly important prophetic revelations ever given by God.

Yahowah's people will baqash paneh 'any | responsibly, eagerly seek Yahowah's presence, diligently desiring His appearance, ba ha tsarar | during this time of trouble. It is then that Yisra'el and Yahuwdah will shachar | earnestly seek their God, longing to rekindle their relationship with Yahowah.

Yahowah is directing our attention to what He would subsequently reveal through one of the greatest Naby', Yirma'yah. This message is recorded in the 30th and 31st chapters. We'll begin this and finish it next week.

“The Word (ha dabar – the message communicated) which, to reveal the way to enjoy the benefits of the relationship ('asher – that lead to the path to walk to get the most out of life), came to exist (hayah) with ('el) Yirmayahuw (Yirmayahuw – Yahowah Raises and Lifts Up, Yahowah Teaches and Guides to Respect and Revere Yah, commonly transliterated Jeremiah)

Yirma'yah is an interesting name it was written here as Yirmayahuw. Yirma means “to raise, to lift up, to teach, to guide, to respect and revere.” It is mis transliterated to Jeremiah but it's Yirmayahuw.

from (min 'eth) Yahowah (Yahowah – the Almighty’s proper designation pronounced as instructed by His towrah | guidance on His hayah | existence and His role in our shalowm | reconciliation as our 'elowah | God) to announce (la 'amar), (Yirma'yah 30:1) ‘This is what (koh) Yahowah (Yahowah), the God of Yisra'el ('elohym Yisra'el – the Almighty of those who engage and endure with God), proclaims ('amar), so as to declare ('amar), “Of your own volition, write (kathab la 'atah – choose to literally inscribe, jotting down using this alphabet (qal imperative)) all of these words ('eth kol ha dabarym – every one of the statements), which lead to the proper path to get the most out of life, that ('asher) I have and will be speaking to you about (dabar 'el 'atah), doing so in a written document so that there is a permanent record ('el sepher). (Yirma'yah 30:2)

We're doing this program orally to encourage you to read what Yahowah has had His prophets write. God's overwhelming preference is for the written word; it should also be yours. I hope this program causes those who listen to read. We all read and study Yahowah's Towrah and Prophets in the Covenant family. It is what we must do to come to know God. There are no shortcuts. The spoken word only has a couple of advantages. It's easier and more popular today for people to listen, so we're doing this program for two reasons. For those who have not read An Introduction to God, Yada Yahowah, Coming Home, Observations, Questioning Paul, and the Babel series or all the series under the Yada Yahowah umbrella, we invite you to do so; Yahowah is inviting you to do so. This is how to reach out and catch people's ears to the point that Yahowah can focus their eyes.

The written word matters because prophecy is only affirmed through the written word. God could have told Yirma'yah or Howsha' anything, but if it wasn't written down there would be no way to validate it. What good is a prophecy if there's an oral report? It's worthless. That was the value of the Dead Sea Scrolls. They take copies of Yahowah's testimony back 2,000 to 2,300 years ago, so we know what God said before many of the promises He made actually transpired. So, the written word enables us to do that. By having Moseh write the Towrah, we can look through the creation account and validate that the Earth and the universe were indeed made in six 24-hour days, which happens to be 14 billion years looking back using Earth time because of the relative difference in the flow of time at the event of the Big Bang as a witness to the Big Bang. If you divide 14 billion years by the stretching of time, which we now know at the time of the Big Bang was 10 to the 12th slower, and you divide 14 billion years by 10 to the 12th, you end up with six 24-hour days. That's the exact same amount of time relative to the viewer.

You must ___ these things if you're going to know Yahowah. If you read the flood account in Hebrew it said it was begun by a deep upwelling of seawater. We found the Burckle impact crater, what it did, and the fact that it welled up a 500-foot wall of seawater that roared up through Mesopotamia into the Black Sea and out into the Mediterranean. We know when it occurred because the Black Sea went from fresh water to salt water at that moment, and the waters rose 500 feet from the sediment all the way to it. We know these things and can verify them because the words were written down and maintained for us so we can see what it says. Yahowah wants to communicate in writing to us because that's how prophecy works, and that's how He proves that He is God. Prophecy is not just a prediction of future events; it explains past events, including creation, the flood, the life of Israel, and the exodus from Mitsraym |Egypt. These things are verifiable because of the written record.

The other advantage is that with a written document, while you can read it seven times faster than you can listen to us speak, your retention goes way up. But beyond that, you can read a document at your pace. I'm sending Kirk and Dee these chapters that I'm writing of Ezekiel even as they are edited so that they can keep up with what we're learning because it's pretty likely I'm going to interject something I've learned into this program, and they can go back and read it at whatever pace is comfortable and convenient for them. Because of the written word, you can copy and paste any Hebrew word into a search engine, which will provide definitions of that word so you can validate it. If I claim that this is historically or prophetically what Yahowah was speaking of, you can verify it. Because we knew what Yahowah had said is going to happen, we could do things that no one else could do.

For example, I predicted more than ten years in advance exactly what would happen with our invasion of Afghanistan and Iraq. Eight years ago, in 2014, I began describing what would happen in the Ukraine and where it would lead. I'm not wrong. When I've said these things in the past, it's been a million to one against me, and the million have been wrong. And I've been right. Why? Because God explained to us what will happen, and if you put the pieces together, understanding is relatively easy and straightforward, exactly as God has said. One of the advantages of writing these things down is that when they occur, you have a written record that you said it before it happened. You can validate, study, reread, and connect it to other things God said; it is vastly superior. God said, "I want you to write every word down." These words will reveal the way to enjoy the relationship with Yahowah. If you do not see Yahowah's name throughout a document, it isn't from Him. If you see His name but it isn't consistent it isn't from Him.

Because, indeed (ky), behold (hineh), a time is coming (yowmym bow' – days are approaching),” prophetically reveals (na'um) Yahowah (Yahowah), “when I will return to restore (wa shuwb) the property and possessions taken during the captivity (shabuwth) of My people ('am 'any), Yisra'el | Individuals who Engage and Endure with God (Yisra'el) and (wa) Yahuwdah | the Beloved of Yah (Yahuwdah),” declares ('amar) Yahowah (Yahowah).

"The time is coming when I'm going to return." Never is there a discussion of Yahowah's return in Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Mormonism, or Scientology; the progressives don't speak of it, nor do the theologians. But here is God saying, "I am going to return to restore Yisra'el because Yisra'el represents My people. I'm going to restore Yahuwdah," which means I'm going to bring them together and reconcile My relationship with them so that we are family and what I gave to them I am going to return which would mean all of Yisra'el. There will be no West Bank, Gaza or Ramallah; it will be all Israel. There will be enough Yisra'elites and Yahuwdym to repopulate the land during this wonderful time where Israel and the Earth are restored to the conditions found in Eden as we celebrate a thousand years of Sukah, of camping out with God on Earth.

“And then (wa) I will return them, bringing them back (shuwb hem – I will transform them and restore them), to ('el) the Land ('erets) that, for the benefit of the relationship ('asher), I gave (nathan) to their fathers (la 'ab hem). They will receive it as their inheritance (wa yarash hy).” (Yirma'yah 30:3)

And these are the words (wa 'el leh ha dabarym) which, to reveal the way ('asher), Yahowah (Yahowah) spoke (dabar) concerning ('el) Yisra'el (Yisra'el) and (wa) to Yahuwdah ('el Yahuwdah). (Yirma'yah 30:4)

Not to a Christian Church, an Islamic Mosque, a Jewish Synagogue, but to Yisra'el and Yahuwdah.

This is what (koh time) Yahowah (Yahowah) conveyed ('amar) as we heard (shama') the sounds (qowl) of concern over the terrorists and terrorism (charadah pachad) when there were no prospects of reconciliation or peace (wa 'ayn shalwm).” (Yirma'yah 30:5)

That is where we're heading. Look what happened just this past week in Israel. A Fakestinian murdered two young boys. Jews panicked and screamed, "We will have our revenge." Bloodletting led to more bloodletting, destruction to more destruction, and hate to hate more. It's not that hate is bad; it just must be properly placed. If you're going to hate, do it like Yahowah does - with your words. Learn what to hate, how to hate, why to hate, and express it in reasoned and thoughtful terms, explaining why a religion like Islam that inspires 95% of the world's terrorist acts is counterproductive. Explain why Christianity has led people away from Yahowah by creating a fake man-god doing everything they can to distance Yahowah and Yahowsha' from one another and from Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, from the Towrah and how Judaism is the single greatest threat to God's people. They won't even mention Yahowah's name. They've turned their rabbis into gods.

Tell the truth. Explain that the people occupying Israel are Fakestinians, that there is no such thing as Palestine, there are no people known as Palestinians. The last of them were eradicated first by the Assyrians and then by the Greeks such that there are none left and haven't been any for 2,500 years. The name wouldn't even be known if it wasn't for the fact that Hadrian, one of the great scumbags of all time in torturing Jews, found out who the great enemy of the Jews was. One Rabbi yelled out, "The Philistines," so he renamed Judea Philistina just to piss off Jews as he proclaimed that he was God and built a temple for himself on the Temple Mount.

There's no basis for it, but Rome influenced Europe. So, the Europeans came up with this stupid notion that there was a place called Palestine. They wrote in their documents that the British had the Palestine mandate. The so-called intellectuals, theologians, and scholars playing God continued to parrot the tragic lie by Rome, which was easily disproven, yet they repeated the lie as if it was the truth. Now you have an enraged group of Muslims pretending that Palestine exists, that it's their land, and that, as Palestinians, it is their rightful place so that they are justified in hating, killing, and annihilating Jews, all based upon a lie that is so easily disproven.

We should hate such things for the damage they do. We should hate Islam for having mutilated the genitals of 200 million women. If you can't stand up against it for that reason, what's wrong with you? How do you claim to be a progressive and not hate Islam for what it does to women depriving them of rights, even sexual pleasure? What's wrong with you? Why weren't Jews able to confront Paul and say that there is no Jesus as the Messiah, that it's Dowd who's the Messiah? Jesus isn't the son of God; it's Dowd who is the son of God. Jesus isn't coming back; it's Dowd who's coming back. It's Yahowah who fulfilled Pesach through Yahowsha' which means "Yahowah Saves." He fulfilled Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym. He didn't come here to start a religion; He came here to fulfill the Towrah's promises. All they had to say is that, and they wouldn't have deprived their people of eternal life, they wouldn't have created the cradle to which is stunningly antisemitic religion would rise to torment Jews.

You need to know what to hate and how to hate to protect the innocent; they didn't do that. And then they created Judaism to counter the rise of this religion and to keep Jews distinct but in a vacuum of knowledge.

So, this is where we are and clearly Yirma'yah, Yahowah, Howsha', and Yasha'Yah know it and we know it. You should know it too. God is very frank with His people.

He said, "Because you have been religious, political, and reliant on yourself and demeaning and discounting of me, I have rejected and walked away from you. But I will return to you. A time is coming when it's going to get so bad; a time is coming when it's going to get so good in terms of the truth being made available to you. Listen; bad in the term that the world's going to hate you except this tiny group that is communicating My message to you. Listen, and those who do I will return to and embrace, and we will live together as a family forever." That's God's offer to you.

Kirk, you and I have our adoption papers. Dee, Jackie, my wife Leah they are ... naturally born into the Covenant both by choice and by DNA, and we are the ones that have our adoption. It all ends up beautifully for all of us as well as for all of you who are listening, who are willing to respond and to act upon this. God is calling you home. Accept His offer, He is God after all.

Dee, thank you for the wonderful upgrades that's been done to the social media outreach; it's become a very elegant presentation of what we're communicating and doing together in the outreach to God's family. We appreciate all the work that everyone is doing in this regard. Congratulations to Miss Jackie for recognizing that she's a member of the tribe. Very soon, Kirk, we'll be working for Jackie and Dee, so let's be nice. Between now and then let's do our job so that we have as many bosses as possible so we can ... in ten years and thrilled to be able to do it.

Have a wonderful Shabbat. We look forward to being with you this time next week.

Good night.
