Mizmowr 89: 35 - 37

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. We have a couple news items before we begin this evening.

0:12 Janet Yellen, Secretary of Treasury, admitted that the dollar's position as the international reserve currency is not only subsiding but that it will continue to degrade and that there will be severe negative consequences associated with it. She candidly said it's not easy for countries to get around the dollar, but they will all continue to diversify. The value of the dollar will decline, and there will be associated economic issues.

0:53 In 2022 the dollar lost eight percent of its holding worldwide as a reserve currency. You can't lose eight percent a year for very long before you're no longer the reserve currency. The purpose of BRIC is to get around it. When we put sanctions on Russia and all sorts of challenges against China, we pushed the world away from using the dollar as a reserve currency.

01:27 I will tell you that if a deal is done with Saudi Arabia, which is being done under the guise of normalizing relationships with Israel, Israel would be the ultimate fool to accept normalization with Saudi Arabia not because MBS has alternative motives as it relates to Israel, but because the United States is essentially being blackmailed by Saudi Arabia. Saudi Arabia now has a larger customer in China than the United States, it has access to weapons from both Russia, China and France, it is beginning to do business in currencies other than dollars, and is very likely to join BRIC.

02:26 When Biden began upsetting MBS because of his attitude, MBS basically said you can't push us around anymore; we are not your vassal, just go away, and that's when they normalized relationships with Iran through China.

02:48 Now MBS wants several things. He wants a NATO-type agreement with the United States where the United States will go to war on behalf of Saudi Arabia no matter who the aggressor is. This is the nation most responsible for 911. MBS has put America in a position where rather holding Saudi Arabia accountable for 911 he has the United States agreeing to defending Saudi Arabia using US Military forces if it is attacked.

03:34 While Saudi Arabia has access to nuclear bombs it doesn't have as much access as it would like to the enrichment of uranium to make as many bombs as it would like. They financed the Pakistani program and were given a nuclear arsenal as a quid pro quo, but they have the money for a much larger one. The best way to do that is refining uranium with nuclear reactors. So, as part of this deal they are requiring the United States to build nuclear reactors in Saudi Arabia. Saudi Arabia does not need nukes to boil water. All a nuclear reactor does is use the uranium enriched to a low degree to heat up and boil water. When you float on natural gas and oil you don't want to spend the kind of money to build a nuclear plant to boil water when you're burning up some of the gas just because the byproduct has no use to you. So, the only reason to have it is that other products in a nuclear plant can be further refined to make nuclear bombs. That's another negative issue.

5:08 Then Saudi Arabia wants another hundred-billion-dollars' worth of advanced US weapons. To give cover to being blackmailed it's being marketed as normalization with Israel. It's not really normalization with Israel. Israel is not a party to the discussions and has been told by the Biden Administration you will not criticize anything we're doing, you may not comment on it, we're not going to tell you any conditions of the agreement, so Israel isn't a party to it even though it's being positioned as the normalization with Israel. Unfortunately, the press is buying and eating this lie up.

05:57 To tell you that the terms of Saudi Arabia would be untenable for Israel, last week Saudi Arabia announced it was sending an ambassador to the Fakestinians and that they want to put the Fakestinian ambassador in a Jerusalem embassy, which they view as part of the Fakestinian territory. Israel cannot, not tomorrow, not any time in her future acquiesce to a two-state agreement. They tried that with the Oslo Accords, and it proved to be disastrous because the Muslims continued to hate and terrorize Jews. The idea was to give Palestinians total autonomy in areas carved out of Israel and could do everything except have a military. The Israeli military would have sanction over those areas. They called them "occupied" and yet every time Israel enters the area to quell an act of terrorism Israel goes in and comes out which means they are not “occupied.” Bush made them give up Gaza and look at what happened to Gaza. And you want Israel to give up even more land and the right to enter that area to rid it of terrorists? It’s the most insane idea in the world. If Israel does this, you can kiss it goodbye.

07:53 Israel is in a death spiral. The Haredim now have told Netanyahu to pull away from judicial reform. We don't care about judicial reform because it doesn't pertain to us, and we don't pay attention to any of the rulings of that secular court; we're insulated with our rulings. We only want a guarantee that Haredim will not be drafted into the IDF. The IDF makes Israel unique. This tiny country surrounded by a hundred-to-one Muslims that hate them can defend itself because everyone serves, including women. Yet the Haredim want the lone exception to be paid while studying in their yeshivas which all they're doing is getting religious indoctrination. Plus, they want the State to fund their schools that do not teach English, the Sciences, or math so that those who attend those schools only learn how to be controlled by the rabbis. They are not marketable. They can't work for a living and depend on the State. When the Haredim were supposedly negotiating for this most recent bill, they said to drop judicial reform and pass a bill that exempts the Haredim from IDF service. Then it said, why don't we, so we don't have a civil war and have the entire country come down on you and hate you, say that you can and would be drafted on non-IDF things beneficial to the country? Hence, it's two years of service even if it isn't in the military, and they said absolutely not. They said that unless you do this, we will leave the Coalition and bring the government down.

09:57 If I were Netanyahu, I would have said okay, go ahead. Right now, you have a prime minister that will listen to you and will tell you that what you're asking for is suicidal, and yet he will do the best he can to carve out monies and protections for you. But if you bring this government down, you will have a secular leftist government where you will have no say. First, they will eliminate all of the benefits you have elicited under me. So, if you think that playing blackmail with me and threatening me in this way will prevail, try it because I won't allow you to commit suicide through me. But Netanyahu didn't have the courage to do that. I don't know what happened. This man once had some cajónes but seems to have lost them. So, that's a very sad situation that's happening there.

11:08 KIRK: ___ is sitting on more oil than anyone in the world; that’s not debatable. You want to play money wars. What’s valuable? We have oil. Oil is what made them valuable in Saudi Arabia and the Middle East. Why don't we go and compete with them, get rid of this government and put one in that knows what oil's worth, and let them pump it and have a pipeline?

11:38 YADA: If you put the pipeline from Canada with all of their Shale oil and you drill in the Gulf of Mexico off the California coast and in the Gulf of Mexico, out the Eastern US and if you built pipelines across the US to transport gas, which America is exceedingly rich in gas and gas is very environmentally friendly, and if America rather than giving away nuclear reactors actually built them in the United States, we wouldn't be importing gas, and Saudi Arabia couldn't blackmail us. That's the bottom line. The Biden Administration has played this stupidly and has curtailed drilling and pipelines. So, we're now in a situation where, for example, we should have been drilling in Anwar. Fossil fuels are what we have for transportation and what we have to generate energy. There are ways to generate electricity via coal now with minimal environmental degradation. It's not just the Haredim in Israel that is committing suicide; so are we in America.

13:16 An amazing speech was given this week by someone I've always disliked. Michael Flynn, a right-wing Christian wacko, epitomizes everything I dislike about the US military. I think he was once a four-star general and was the National Security Advisor to Trump. He said in his speech, "You probably know of me; I was a very famous General. The Jews were responsible for their deaths at Auschwitz." When he visited Auschwitz, he was told there were very few guards relative to the number of Jewish prisoners, so just by sheer numbers, the Jews could have overwhelmed them. That is not true. The Germans had all the guns, and the camp was surrounded by barbed wire. The Jews were emaciated. Had they attempted a revolt, they may have been able to kill one or two Germans, but they would never have escaped Poland or occupied Europe. He continued talking about how bad the Jews were and how Jewish mothers couldn't wait to give their children to the Nazis to be packed into those trains like sardines to be carted away.

16:03 KIRK: How dumb are Americans!

16:09 YADA: He blames the Jews for being exterminated in World War II because there were thousands of them and not many guards and the Jews willingly gave the Nazis their children to be taken away on trains. This is the kind of person who was involved in the leadership of America. It boggles the mind how corrupt we can be.

16:52 The most significant corruption in human history is what Judaism, Islam, and Christianity have done relative to Dowd. Not one of the three religions even knows the man's name that is written in three Hebrew letters and reads the same left to right as it does right to left, Dalet, Wah, Dalet, דוד. Two doorways ד with the tent peg Y in the middle are additive, securing, enlarging the doorway. Dowd is the man who opened the Doorway to Life as the Passover Lamb. He is the man who provides the Doorway into the Covenant Family as well. In Christianity, there are no prophecies of any kind about "Jesus," there is no prophecy that says there'd be a coming Messiah, that mentions anyone named "Jesus," or even a Hebrew variation of "Jesus." So, to create the impression that God had predicted this caricature "Jesus" that the Christian faith perpetrated, they needed prophecies that he had to fulfill. Each of those prophecies spoke of even the most famous Dowd, Isaiah 9. Dowd's name is in the middle of it; it all speaks of Dowd. Isaiah 53 and 2 Samuel 7 speak of Dowd. Every Mizmowr written by Dowd speaks in the first person about the fulfillment of Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym. Of the many things made evident within the Towrah, Prophets, and Psalms, the single most proclaimed event throughout is Dowd's fulfillment of Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabuw'ah. Second is the announcement that Dowd is the Messiah, the Son of God, our Zarowa' | the Sacrificial Lamb, our Savior, and God's Firstborn. These prophetic statements have by far the most credibility and are the most well documented by the Towrah all the way through the Prophets.

20:04 Dowd's name is mentioned 1,150 times, give or take a half dozen, far more than Moseh's. Yahowah's name is mentioned far more than Dowd's. So, to rob this man of his accolades Son of God, Firstborn, Chosen One, Most Set Apart, Anointed Messiah, Shepherd, King, even King of Kings, 'Elyown | Almighty as in God Himself, Savior, Branch - all these titles and accolades were stolen from Dowd and given to "Jesus" to create credibility for "Jesus" when there is none. It's one of the most significant thefts in human history, and nothing makes God madder. God's very angry that His name was etched out of His testimony and that religions claim to serve Him when they lead people away from Him. He is exceedingly disappointed and frustrated by that. But nothing angers God more than denouncing what His Son has done.

21:48 Most notable, of course, is in Christianity. The Christians will have their man-god die on Pesach without having any correlation with Pesach at all. They'll not even mention what happened on the Shabat of Matzah because they have no clue what it represents. Then they'll have a physical bodily resurrection on Bikuwrym, having no concept of what Bikuwrym means or that his body was destroyed back there on Passover. If the Jews, seeing this mythology of Christianity beginning to take root, had pointed out the obvious, which was: to read the Towrah, Prophets, and Psalms, everything you're claiming of your guy is stated of Dowd | David, that he is the Messiah, the Son of God, the Passover Lamb, the Chosen One, that everything is said of Dowd and nothing of this "Jesus" fellow that you've imagined, that Dowd came on the exact day he said he would to fulfill Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabuw'ah, then there would be no Christianity. You've eliminated the religion that would do more to harm Jews through the Ages than any other.

23:22 And to make matters worse, not only didn't rabbis who emerged at the same time denounce the claims of Christianity by pointing out that all these things belong to Dowd, that Dowd was the Messiah, they imposed a false Messiah on the world two Yowbel later in the Yowbel year of 133 versus 33. That false Messiah was Bar Kokbha | Son of a Star, the symbol Israel prays under today. So, this is what has happened. It's between Dowd's people who he was making the sacrifice on behalf of; not only don't acknowledge nor do they have respect for what he did, they won't even convey his name correctly. There's no V in Hebrew; it's Dowd, not David. They allowed Christians to create a religion that would lead to the Holocaust by simply being ignorant, unable, and unwilling to acknowledge that everything they claimed of "Jesus" was actually true of Dowd. So, both religions created these myths on Replacement Theology, and both claim to have God's authorization when I can tell you God despises both with every fiber of His body, Spirit, and Nature. So, that's where we pick up the read.

25:16 For just as an overview, about seven or eight years ago, I recognized that everything that said about Dowd needed to be reapplied to him, that when we speak of the Messiah and the Son of God, that's Dowd | David because God said. So, I rewrote all of the 20-something books at that time to ensure that we had correctly presented Dowd as this single most important person in God's story; He is the embodiment of the Covenant, God's Firstborn Son, the returning King, he is coming back as the Messiah and King, and soon on Kipurym in year 6000 Yah which is at sunset 6:22 p.m., October 2nd, 2033. So, we rewrote all the books to make certain that we were stating that correctly.

26:37 But six months ago, after finishing all the book edits, newly designed social media and website, and book publications by our devoted team so that all the books are part of the Yada Yahowah Family, all looking the same, beautifully presented in their entirety at yadayah.com and available at Amazon, we built this entire presentation on behalf of God's Chosen People, the Yisra'elites | Jews | Yahuwdym,

I decided it was time, after having written the three-volume Babel series, I would return to Coming Home. I'd written two volumes and had made it through about the 23rd Mizmowr | Psalm.

28:02 So, I was translating Psalms 24 up through about 31. Amid that, I was dealing with stems and moods, something you will make part of your glossary, Kirk. One of the things I came across is how often in Dowd's Mizmowr, Dowd writes statements where the speaker is "you" and "you" happens to be Yahowah, and they are written in the imperative, which is a second-person expression of free will. So, he's projecting on Yahowah so that Yahowah is the subject, and it says "you." Then when written in the imperative would mean, "You want me to do this; it's your will that I do this. You have decided that it's appropriate that I do this."

29:11 Dowd wrote those statements also in the cohortative, and it's unusual to have two volitional moods on the same verb. The cohortative is a first-person expression of volition. So, if Dowd writes something in the first person, which he typically does, if he speaks of Yahowah in the second person as "You" (which he typically does), if he writes it in the imperative mood expressing Yahowah's will, decision, and choice and also in the cohortative which represents Dowd's will, choice, and decision, what he's chosen and wants to do when he speaks of providing salvation and of intervening on behalf of his people and saving them, each verb is written to express the will of the speaker Dowd and the will of Yahowah. So, it says that Yahowah and Dowd, Father and Son, were of like mind, that this is something they collectively decided to do together. It's what Dowd wanted, and Yahowah agreed to. Now we're talking about the fulfillment of Pesach, Matsah leading to Bikuwrym, and Shabuw'ah.

30:43 For those of you who don't know what happened, Dowd describes in the 22nd Mizmowr being flayed alive and then being nailed to an upright pole to be crucified by the Romans 600 to 700 years before Rome even existed and 800 years before the invention of Roman crucifixion. So, being the Passover Lamb is no stroll in the park. It's the most hellacious day any human has ever experienced. He also volunteered to fulfill Matsah, which was even worse because Dowd agreed to carry all our slime and guilt, everything every Covenant member has ever done, said, or thought that was wrong, and took it all with him into She'owl | Hell and deposited it there so it could never be seen again. And with all the evidence against us thrown into the black hole of Hell, we're exonerated; there's no evidence against us, we're not guilty. He agreed to endure Hell to save us from ourselves after fulfilling Pesach. All these Mizmowr said the same thing - this is what I want to do. They're written with God saying yep. That's the right decision; I agree with you. You're My Son, and those are the two most hellacious days anyone will ever endure. I agree with you that it's the right call and the right decision.

32:45 And you say, why? This is what we ran against six months ago. I had always suspected that Dowd fulfilled Pesach and Matsah, leading to Bikuwrym and Shabuw'ah because as the Firstborn Son of God, what do you think Bikuwrym means? It means "Firstborn children." He's the natural and the most obvious beneficiary of Shabuw'ah in terms of being enlightened, empowered, and enriched, so he's the only one that fits those two, and it was the most logical for the other two. But I couldn't get past the idea of why Yahowah would allow His Son to do that. And this now wasn't talking about Yahowah allowing it, it was Yahowah saying it's the right thing to do. I'm in total agreement with you. And why would Dowd volunteer? Yeah, he had some rough days when he didn't quite know how to deal with Sha'owl. He messed up several times with his children, particularly Absalom. He made some bad decisions when God gave him some choices. He really screwed up when he had his general killed so that he could make Bathsheba his wife. But 2 Samuel 7 says God gave him a respite from all this and Dowd was living the good life. So, why would he not only agree to this but be taken forward in time as the eyewitness to his own crucifixion? That's what the 22nd Mizmowr is. He's volunteering to do this, and yet he has been taken forward in time to witness himself being flayed alive and then tortured most extremely by the worst of humankind, the Romans. Then he is shown what will happen to him on Matsah in She'owl, and he not only says I going to do it, I want to do it. You read this and say how can that be?

35:21 Then six months ago I'm reading this, and I said I've got to deal with it now because Yahowah and Dowd, Father and Son, are of like mind. This is what they have decided they want. Why? The answer became obvious and the more that I've translated since that time I've seen the answer come up so many times.

35:51 I'm finishing my translation and rewrite of Mizmowr 88. Mizmowr 88 writes on the fulfillment of Matsah and the trip into Hell laden with our guilt. As you do this, Dowd answered in the introduction to the 88th Mizmowr. I don't know if you know that. I didn't know until I started this. I thought I would be finished with the eighth volume of Yada Yahowah in the rewrite a week ago, but I'm only halfway through because it's such a treasure. I had no idea that Dowd gave us the answer that I came up with some time ago. Dowd devotes the 88th Mizmowr to Korah. He was as bad as they ever got. Korah led a rebellion against Moseh and Yahowah, and Yahowah opened up the Earth to swallow him. It says He sent him and his 250 co-conspirators alive into She'owl. It talks about the people that set the example that caused Him to recognize that He had to do this because Moseh is flabbergasted that all of this is happening to him, and he's trying to deal with it. Korah's revolt is among a dozen that are just disgusting. One vociferously hinted at in the 88th Mizmowr is when the Hebrews went to Moseh and said we've been through this before. We told you we didn't want you to be our Savior, and we didn't want what you're offering, so we want to return to the land of milk and honey (Egypt) right now and be slaves again.

38:43 Dowd is the foremost expert on the Towrah. Since Moseh, no one knows the Towrah better than Dowd. Dowd wrote all about this throughout the 119th Mizmowr. There are eight verses for every letter in the Hebrew alphabet in alphabetical order on how to observe the Towrah. He knew, which is how he wrote the introduction to the Psalm, that Moseh was a man of exemplary character and did almost nothing wrong and almost everything right. Dowd was more of a lovable rogue, and yet the Yisra'elites with God's presence among them, feeding them, saving them, intervening for them, being there as a column of fire during the night and as a cloud pillar during the day, being in the Tabernacle with them all the time, yet they constantly revolted against Moseh. Dowd, with all his screw-ups, had to say, You want me to lead these people forever? Are you kidding me? Moseh couldn't do it for 40 years. I'm no Moseh. You were there the whole time. It's an entirely different scenario because they were slaves about to be wiped out and become extinct as a people. You removed them from the absolute worst possible circumstances and led them to freedom, and they couldn't even endure Moseh under those circumstances.

40:50 Then Dowd figured it out. He said, wait a minute. Pesach and Matsah lead to Bikuwrym, Shabuw'ah, Taruw'ah and Kipurym. You want me to return on Kipurym to be the King of Sukah. Ah ha! Why do we start with Kipurym when we should start with Pesach? Let me open the door. Let me unburden my people from everything they did to Moseh and what they've done to me. Let me take all that away. I will pay the price to be their Savior, and under that basis, a hundred percent of those who make it into forever and celebrate my return on Kipurym as I seek to lead them forever more through Sukah will respect me and what I have done. I will have earned their respect because none of them would be there if I hadn't done this. It's two really bad days, but it's for all time. It pulls the entire picture together. A Father and Son completing the most important acts in human history together – Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, Shabuw'ah, Taruw'ah, which is about announcing this regarding Dowd, Kipurym, the Day of Reconciliations where he anoints The Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant so that Yisra'el and Yahowah can reconcile their relationship and then camp out together through Sukah.

42:43 Once we recognize that not only is that the intent of both God and Dowd and that the motivation for both is repeated hundreds of times, that it is the single most explained series of events in the Towrah and Prophets beginning in the first Mizmowr, is evident in the second Mizmowr, particularly apparent in the 89th Mizmowr, is exceedingly clear throughout everything that Yasha'yah | Isaiah wrote, is the common denominator of everything in the Towrah and Prophets, there are so many hints in the Towrah specifically about what Dowd would do is why we're studying this.

43:52 Once we came to that realization, it meant that the 30 books on the bookshelf had to be rewritten because while I knew that Dowd was the Messiah and the Son of God, I had to eliminate this aberration that I had created called Yahowsha'. I named him after Yahowsha' ben Nun because it was the only name I could think of that would justify the creation of the Iesous | Iesoun | "Jesus" fellow and would bear the name that would describe the purpose which is Yahowah saves. Yahowah uses that name, but it's not in conjunction with fulfilling Pesach and Matsah.

44:55: I assumed it was Yahowah using His soul to fulfill these events. Yahowah could experience what it was like to fulfill Pesach, but having Rome beat up God is an awful thought, and how does Yahowah's soul go to a place of separation from Yahowah? How could Yahowah fulfill Firstborn Children when His soul certainly is not His Son? How does Yahowah fulfill Shabuw'ah; how do you enrich and empower God? It didn't make any sense. I was trying to figure it out and needed to go back and eliminate every reference to Yahowsha' and to this idea that it would have been Yahowah's Soul working as a probe to accomplish these things on our behalf. It might sound simple, but you find there's something suggestive of this on almost every page in the volumes that average 600 pages. So, we've been diligently doing this, and right now, we're in Volume 8 of Yada Yahowah after completing the first seven. We've finished all the volumes of An Introduction to God, Babel, and Coming Home.

46:45 DEE: I was thinking about what you had translated where Yahowah describes Dowd's soul being asleep, the only exception that we know of, and that He didn't want to prolong his life unnaturally to eat the bread of affliction until he could fulfill this role and I was thinking that it makes sense that you wouldn't want a soul to pass over into eternity and then bring it back to earth once they're immortal, to fulfill a role that a mortal should be fulfilling. It just made sense. I don't know if that's accurate or not. I was wondering your thoughts.

47:24 YADA: Maybe this might help. In 2 Samuel 7, one of the concluding statements is that when Yahowah said He's bringing Dowd back, He said He will reconstruct Dowd from a tiny portion of his physical existence, which would be Dowd's DNA. I've concluded that the body of Dowd that was crucified and fulfilled Passover was identical to the body of Dowd when he was 33 years old because that body is the one that would make Yahowah's Son feel the most comfortable; that was his body. He was offering that body as the Pesach 'Ayil. So, it was the flaming red hair and a very handsome human being. You get around the problem because the only place where it says that he wouldn't be appealing is in the preamble to Yasha'yah 53, which says there was nothing to admire based on his human characteristics. That's written about the person who figures out who the Zarowa' are. The lead into that is that is the voice calling out. That is the Bashar | witness; that's not Dowd. That's the fellow speaking to you. He's the one you wouldn't say is distinguished and somebody I will swoon around. The actual Dowd was that kind of guy, but this messenger | Herald is not. So, I think it was Dowd's DNA. I think that Dowd was unique also in this way. He had two clunkers as parents in both his first and second lives. Yishay was a real scalawag; we hear nothing positive of him. Neither of his mother's from previous lives is mentioned. I think it's written that way to tell us that God understands that human families are fractured, and that's why He's offering a Covenant family. So, Dowd's real Mother is the Set-Apart Spirit both times, and his real Father both times is Yahowah. So, he has the best Father and Mother in the universe even though he had real clunkers as birth parents.

50:52 So, I think that's part of all this. Dowd fulfilled Pesach and Matsah. He fulfilled Matsah by allowing his soul to be laden with our guilt and taking it into She'owl to deposit it there so that there is no evidence against us and therefore we appear perfect.

51:16 All right. With that let's resume where we left off on a summary of the 89th Mizmowr. I just want to read 33 through 35 and then share some thoughts with you about it. This is God speaking. His name is Yahowah. He says:

I will never betray who I am by communicating something which is misleading or untrue, nor will I ever contradict or undermine (wa lo' shaqar) My steadfast commitment to uphold the truth and remain accurate and reliable (ba 'emuwnah 'any). (89:33)

I will never dishonor or betray, nor will I create loopholes which alter (lo' chahal) Beryth 'Any | My Covenant Family (beryth 'any), nor will I ever alter, disguise, or change, rearrange, modify, or duplicate (wa lo' shanah) that which has gone forth from (mowtsa') My lips (saphah 'any). (89:34)

52:10 God is saying if I said it, I'm not going to contradict it which means that Replacement Theology is impossible. It means that there can be no Talmud, New Testament, or Quran. God's never going to betray who He is by saying something which contradicts or undermines something He has previously conveyed, and He is never going to dishonor His one and only Covenant. There is no new covenant; there's only one Covenant and that Covenant family is central to God's purpose and will.

'Echad | There is Only One ('echad) to whom I have affirmed the truth by having made a promise, thereby validating My commitment which will be affirmed seven times (shaba')

by Qodesh 'Any | My uniquely Set-Apart nature (ba qodesh 'any). If not to, through, and regarding ('im la) Dowd | the Beloved (Dowd), I am delusional and will be proven a liar (kazab). (Mizmowr 89:35)

53:29 I do not think that the Creator of Life, the Author of this universe that we live in is delusional. The spirit behind the Towrah and Prophets is not a liar. Everything that He has said has come true and therefore what He has said about Dowd is true. He is saying here that if you foist a Bar Kokhba or a or a "Jesus Christ" on the people, establish a religion based upon a false Messiah, and claim that I am the inspiration and the god of your religion you are calling Me a liar. I don't think God much likes being called a liar.

54:31 Mizmowr 89 is the line God drew in the sands of time and was presented in the year 3000 Yah, exactly 3,000 years ago, in 968 BCE. That means that Dowd wrote this Mizmowr 3,000 years after God expelled 'Adam and Chawah from the Garden of Great Joy and exactly 3,000 years before Yahowah and Dowd's return on Yowm Kipurym. The 89th Mizmor is the teeter-totter on the fulcrum upon which humanity pivots going up or down. Yahowah undeniably and unequivocally presented His most impassioned plea to His people at the center point in time. His focus was on His Family and His Foremost Son. This is the Cornerstone of the Beryth and of the Family Home known as the Temple, which everyone rejected that was laid upon Mowryah.

57:58 Over the past 22 years, as both you, Kirk, and Dee know, I have come upon probably two or three thousand unique insights, several hundred of them exceedingly profound, some having gone unheralded for 3,000 years, most for 2,500 years or more. During that time, I would say the most important discovery is the realization that Yahowah and Dowd, Father and Son, fulfilled the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey together, what that means to us, what they had to say about these things, and how Dowd, God's Firstborn, is the center of the Covenant. Once you come to realize this, it profoundly enhances your life and your understanding of Yahowah, your adoration for Yahowah, His love for His Son and His very nature that He would fulfill this means for us to reconcile our relationship with Him and be part of His family together with His Son. This is the Cornerstone of understanding and is the greatest discovery in human history. Amazingly though, while we are the first to share, explain and prove it in 3,000 years, it should have been obvious. It's hard to take credit for something this obvious. What in the world did people think? The 22nd Mizmowr clearly speaks of the crucifixion and the fulfillment of Passover. The 88th speaks to the fulfillment of Matsah leading to Bikuwrym. So does Isaiah 53. What were people thinking when they were reading these things when it's so blatantly obvious Dowd is the one doing this? How, why would we be the first in 3,000 years to discover something infinitely more valuable than the Ark of the Covenant? This is a more important find than the Dead Sea Scrolls. The Ark of the Covenant is an exceedingly important treasure, and it will be brought to light so that Dowd can anoint The Mercy Seat upon his return. I'm not suggesting in any way that it isn't an exceptional treasure. The Dead Sea Scrolls have led to so much of our understanding, but nothing is more valuable than recognizing this. It brings everything together, one cohesive picture that God has painted from beginning to end, with no loose ends, and yet it's obvious. So, why and how could his people miss this?

1:02:22 If you read the story about Qorach or the Waters of Marybah, you'll know the answer to that. It is the Cornerstone that everyone has rejected.

Had Yahuwdym | Jews listened, embraced, and accepted Yahowah's approach to Dowd and the Covenant, Yisra'el would have remained the brightest light in an enlightened world. The assaults of the Assyrians, Egyptians, Babylonians, Macedonians, and Romans would never have occurred. Dowd's return to fulfill the first four Mow'edym would have been celebrated with God's people flocking into the Covenant. Paul would have been immediately rebuked and discredited such that Christianity would never have existed. Akiba and his false Messiah would have gone unheralded, nipping the emergence of Judaism in the bud. There would have been no Diaspora and no oppression in Europe over the millennia. Without rabbis and their Talmud, Muhammad would not have had sufficient material to flush out his Quran, and Islam would have died in Petra. There would be no Dome of the Rock, Al-Aqsa Mosque, and Islamic terrorism. The Holocaust would never have occurred.

1:04:12 Of all the things to ignore, these declarations from Yahowah were the costliest and most debilitating for Jews. The relationship God intended was replaced by religion and humankind suffered, estranged from Yah as a consequence.

1:04:39 This is really in your face. God can't put something any more bluntly in our face than saying if you discount what I have said about Dowd being the Messiah, the Son of God, and your Savior by attributing to a false Messiah and Savior, you're calling Me a liar. This is the Creator of the Universe that is saying this and yet the most popular religion in the history of humanity and the religion that dominates His people did this very thing. How could we be so stupid?

1:05:47 My wife is creating beautiful animations that are directing and introducing people to Yahowah's name and to Him that are becoming quite popular in Yisra'el. We do our best to promote this program in Yisra'el because we do this for Yisra'el. The purpose of the 89th Mizmowr | Psalm is to prepare God's people for the return of your Messiah, the Son of God, and your King, Dowd. That is the entire purpose of Taruw'ah for which we were called. So, as I share these words, I'm critical, of course, of the rabbis for plundering this but how is it possible that God's people have missed this? You have the Tanakh. You can open it to the 22nd and 89th Mizmowr, you can read 2 Samuel 7. You can read Yasha'yah 9, 52 and 53. You can read Yasha'yah 11 and understand who it is that's talking to you and why. It's all there for you; it always has been there for you. Capitalize on it.

1:08:02 You're willing to call your country Israel based upon 'ysh sarah 'el but you won't call yourselves Yahuwdym | Yahowah's Beloved. You won't even mention Yahowah's name. That's what we're trying to solve and resolve because Yahowah and Dowd are returning on Yowm Kipurym in the year 6000 Yah, October 2nd just 10 years away, and to be among the celebrants on that day you will need to embrace Yahowah's name and accept what He and His Son have achieved. You'll need to understand that there are conditions for participation in the Covenant that are to your advantage and that there are benefits associated with that Covenant that were provided by Father and Son as they fulfilled the Miqra'ey.

1:09:18 Christians, believing that Sha'awl | Paul spoke the truth instead of the Father and Son, who are articulated in this story, have created the most common, and thus profane, religion in the history of mankind by transferring the promises made to Dowd and to Yisra'el, such that they were given to the mythological misnomer "Jesus Christ." Shame on them for believing and promoting such contradictions of Yahowah's testimony, for undermining the measure of God's mercy, and the reliability of His testimony!

1:10:05 There will be no accommodation for a Gospel of Grace, for Salvation by Faith, for a New Testament, for Jesus Christ being the Messiah, the Son of God, the King of Kings, or the Savior. There was no "Jesus Christ." To claim otherwise is to call God a liar. And as sad as that is it's even sadder that Jews allowed this religion to grow up in their midst and then torment them simply because they were unwilling to acknowledge the obvious. Let's stop playing that game.

1:10:59 While these words from our God serve as a deathblow to Christianity one thousand years before Paul thrust his demonic devotion upon an unsuspecting world, his New Testament was not the gravest crime. How did 150 generations of Jewish sages, scholars, and rabbis over the course of 3,000 years all manage to get this wrong? Why did they collectively and individually deprive Jews of knowing Yahowah through His Son, Dowd? Why did they prevent the salvation of several hundred million Jewish souls? Why isn't there a single credible Jewish sage, scholar, or rabbi on record affirming and promoting the impassioned message of Father and Son as articulated here in the 89th Mizmowr?

1:12:14 Everything, literally everything, including the survival of Yisra'el and humankind, the salvation of our souls, is predicated upon the words Yahowah spoke to us 3,000 years ago in the 89th Mizmowr / Psalm about His Son. And this bold declaration does not stand alone but is, instead, reinforced by the entirety of the Towrah and Prophets. It is the same wonderfully consistent and enormously loving message throughout. The 89th Mizmowr is just the grand crescendo of the chorus.

1:13:07 The reason this is so is because Father and Son fulfilled the Miqra'ey together. For those that would say oh come on. Jews don't even believe the Miqra'ey were fulfilled. They think that Passover is a seven-day event and that Matsah no longer exists, nor Bikuwrym. They've written the two single most important Miqra'ey where we are exonerated and perfected so that we can be adopted into God's family out of their religion and they are unwilling to acknowledge that Pesach, Matsah and Shabuw'ah were fulfilled in your 4000 Yah or that Dowd as the Son of God and the Messiah did these things, and in so doing have deprived every one of the opportunity that they provide. It is by Pesach that we live.

1:14:16 Pesach wasn't just the doorway to the Exodus. The Exodus didn't even begin until the following day. Pesach is the Doorway to Life and Dowd opened it for us. Matsah is that Threshold which perfects us because of Dowd taking all our guilt and depositing it into She'owl so that we could be perfected and adopted into Yahowah's family. These are the very conditions of the Covenant that Yahowah conveyed to 'Abraham. "Walk to me and become perfected." This is precisely what He talked about.

1:15:17 This is the Cornerstone of the Family Home. We find and embrace the Father through the Son. They are inseparable and they are becoming indistinguishable, which is what 'Elyown means. God would go on to call His Son, Dowd, 'Elyown  | Almighty God! 'El is God, own in Hebrew when presented as a suffix means "all things pertaining to" and the only thing between own and 'El is the hand of God (). Dowd is the hand of God and all things pertaining to God can be seen and experienced through Dowd. 'Elyown indeed!

1:16:14 There is one God with a single Towrah. He has one Covenant, albeit seven Miqra'ey to bring us Home. There is one Messiah, one Son of God, and a single Passover Lamb. He is our Savior. This shall never change or be altered in any way. Nothing Yahowah revealed has been annulled – especially His love for His Firstborn Son, Dowd.

“His offspring and that which he sows (zera'huw' – his descendants, his posterity, his family, and his seed, that which he propagates by having planted) will exist and endure (hayah – have been, are, and will be (qal imperfect)) forever (la 'owlam – eternally throughout all time).

1:16:47 Zera' is the verb that serves to define Zarowa', which is the single most important title afforded to the Messiah.

“His offspring and that which he sows (zera'huw' – his descendants, his posterity, his family, and his seed, that which he propagates by having planted) will exist and endure (hayah – have been, are, and will be (qal imperfect)) forever (la 'owlam – eternally throughout all time).

1:17:10 He opened the doorway to life which is why that is so.

And (wa) his place of honor, his dignity and authority, as well as his adornment (kise' huw' – his throne, seat of sovereign leadership, and power; from kise' – authority and power and kasah – to cover, clothe, and adorn) will be as (ka – will be comparable to) brilliant as the sun (ha shemesh – the sunlight) before Me (neged 'any – as My conspicuous counterpart in My presence, openly in proximity to Me). (Mizmowr 89:36)

Similar to (ka – in the manner of) the moon (yareach), he is established (kuwn – he is appointed and prepared, trusted and set in place (nifal imperfect third-person masculine singular)) forevermore ('owlam – eternally throughout time), while serving as an enduring and reliable, truthful and dependable (wa 'aman – being an easily verified, confident and trustworthy, loyal and nurturing (nifal participle)) witness ('ed – symbol and informative source of restoring testimony) in the universe (ba ha shachaq – in spacetime for laughter and play).

Pause now and contemplate what you have just read (selah).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to Sing / Psalm 89:37)

1:17:39 That's a that's a lot to process. When Dowd said I need to stop here and think about it, he's defined his single most important title. His most important title is not King, Messiah, Son of God, or Chosen One. Dowd's single most important title is defined by this verb zera'. It speaks of sowing seeds which take root and grow and are particularly productive. Those seeds that generate new life are describing eternal offspring being part of the Covenant. So, he has defined his single most important title, Zarowa'. Of course, Zarowa' was the one title that was used multiple times in the Preamble to this Mizmowr when Messiah was used once and Zarowa' four times.

“His offspring and that which he sows (zera' huw' – his descendants, his posterity, his family, and his seed, that which he propagates by having planted) will exist and endure (hayah – have been, are, and will be (qal imperfect)) forever (la 'owlam – eternally throughout all time).

1:19:12 He's talking about the Covenant family of God and that he has opened the door that makes it possible for us to live forever.

And (wa) his place of honor, his dignity and authority, as well as his adornment (kise' huw' – his throne, seat of sovereign leadership, and power; from kise' – authority and power and kasah – to cover, clothe, and adorn) will be as (ka – will be comparable to) brilliant as the sun (ha shemesh – the sunlight) before Me (neged

'any – as My conspicuous counterpart in My presence, openly in proximity to Me).

1:19:38 We talked about the eclipses in our last program and how in 33 CE there was a solar eclipse in year 4000 Yah on the first day of the year, the first day of /Abyb and that there was a lunar eclipse in the afternoon of April 3rd of 33 CE. There was a lunar eclipse on the day that Pesach was fulfilled. As we go forward in time to the fulfillment of Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, we find that in 2033, which is year 6000 Yah, on the first of Tishri, which is Taruw'ah, there will be a full solar eclipse and that on Sukah, which is the fulfillment of Yah's intent when He returns to camp out with His children there will be a full lunar eclipse. God specifically says that the light of the sun and of the moon will be dimmed at that time. The reason that we're going to see the solar and lunar eclipse coincide with these last three Mow'ed Miqra'ey is that Yahowah and Dowd will be our light; Dowd will be as brilliant as the sun. Even as the moon is mentioned here, the moon is the means for us to designate when these last three Mow'ed Miqra'ey will be fulfilled. The Son reflects His Father's light just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, so it's a beautiful testament to what God is establishing.

1:22:12 So, He's saying that His Son, Dowd, will be as brilliant as the sun and as enduring as the light of the moon, always reliable and dependable and as a result of him sowing these seeds we will live forever and that this result transpires within Shamaym, within the universe which beckons us. That's a lot to say about the man. Wouldn't you love to have those credentials?

1:24:00 Clearly the Son's dignity, his authority as well as the symbols of his majesty will be brilliant. He has to be adorned brilliantly because he is acting as the Chief Priest because he's going into the newly established (probably constructed out of light) home for the Covenant, and in the most set apart place the Ark of the Covenant will be again and it'll be Dowd's responsibility to do what Yahowah instructed, which is to anoint the Mercy Seat to enable the reconciliation of the remnant of Yisra'el who has gathered this day. It will be a grand celebration of the Towrah.

1:24:57 Can you imagine being there seeing the house of Yahowah re-established, seeing Dowd as brilliant as the sun anointing it, actually looking at the Ark of the Covenant with the Karuwbym on the opposite sides. It's a seat and you realize it's not only Dowd's seat of honor, it's ours as well, that's not just Yahowah's home but our home as well and that guy that's doing all of this stuff just happens to be our

King and our Shepherd; this is our home, this is our God and we're His kids! That's what we're being offered. It's the greatest site in the history of humanity.

1:26:12 Our greatest day was Dowd's worst. It was the fulfillment of Matsah. I think it might have been Yahowah's worst as well seeing His Son volunteer to carry our guilt into She'owl after having his body bludgeoned by the Romans. That had to be the very lowest point of Yahowah's existence, certainly of Dowd's, but it is the single most important day for us both Pesach and Matsah, particularly Matsah. That is the Day of Days for us. That's why God goes to the fullest extent as possible. Every accolade that He could throw on a day He throws on Matsah. It's the most set apart, the most essential, it is a Chag, a Shabbathown which means it's a celebration of all things associated with the Sabbath on top of all of it. It is the Day of Days. You celebrate it for seven days. You can't say enough about it, but it is not the Day of Days for Yahowah.

1:27:13 The Day of Days for Yahowah (and I think also Dowd) is Kipurym. This is the homecoming and family reunion. Everything that Father and Son have done, everything Moseh did, everything He did with 'Abraham and Ya'aqob, all of it is for Kipurym to be a success so that Sukah is enjoyed.

1:27:55 All the promises that God made to the Nakry, Choter, and Bashar to serve as the qowl | voice to call God's people home are all for that purpose so that it's a marvelous celebration of a family reunion on Kipurym and that Yisra'elites and Yahuwdym are looking up to Yahowah coming with the one that they have pierced and with tears of joy in their eyes seeing Father and Son return knowing that we will be an eternal family living forever together. This is the time to be alive. And that's just 10 years from this moment. Embrace it. This is the Day of Days for Yahowah when there's nothing on His calendar that appeals to Him more than this family reunion and at this point it is just all joy. It's why so many of the events of this day are delegated. Yahowah is going to spend every moment of this day relishing the hugs, smiles, handshakes, giggles and just genuine joy and happiness associated with every individual soul who is part of the Covenant family and is going to be there forever. It is the Day of Days and why we exist. We are the living embodiment of Taruw'ah to call God's people to Kipurym.

1:29:44 Dee, you wrote me a letter this week about the events of 2024 which is another of those years where there is a solar eclipse and a lunar eclipse on the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, and that's exceedingly rare. Now there are years where there are both solar and lunar eclipses. Lunar eclipses are much more common than solar eclipses.

1:30:16 Just on this idea of the sun and the moon and telling the story, the sun is 400 times larger than the moon, the number of a period of completion of a time of testing is if you wanted to use something as a sign is 40. The sun is exactly 400 times larger than the moon, and the sun is 400 times further away than the moon. The only reason the solar eclipses work is because while the sun is 400 times larger than the moon it is 400 times further away - 400 and 400. So, when God speaks of the sun and the moon, He's also conveying a message that is relevant in the relative sizes and distances of these things and that is what's causing the eclipse that draws our attention to these days in year 6000 Yah being the fulfillment of Yah's message.

1:31:36 But as you said, 2024 would give us a longer period of time to be away from God's people because you'd be talking about the only event that would happen would be called with the eclipses would be possibly the Taruw'ah Harvest which I'm hoping is much later in 2029 because it just gives us more time. I can tell you for certain we need more time. Yisra'el is doing what God predicted - it's disintegrating and life's going to be very difficult for Jews and it is during that difficult time that a number of Yisra'elites and Yahuwdym will come home and realize that their best hope. So, we are very encouraged by that path. The time of Ya'aqob's Troubles will cause Jews to reach out to Yahowah, they will find this message, and it will resonate with them. But between now and then this should be the talk of Yisra'el rather than the progressives arguing against judicial reform and Haredim arguing against this idea that they shouldn't be parasites; this really should be the talk of Yisra'el. And wouldn't you love it if you could have a genuine debate with anybody? This is what God Said. You want to argue with Him? You want to call God a liar?

1:33:37 So, this is our Taruw'ah, this is our message to God's people, and we want you to join us. We want you to have an appreciation of all that Father and Son are offering. Dowd is not only Yahowah's most enduring and reliable witness, he is the most readily verified source of restoring testimony. It's a role that he's carried out so well over the years and his testimony will endure forevermore. As we laugh and play through space and time our steps will be guided by Dowd's reflection of Yahowah's almighty light.

1:34:39 DEE: I think of Mizmowr 19:1, about the heavens quantifying the unit of measure. Yahowah's handiwork written by Dowd.

1:34:45 YADA: Yes, and guess who His most handiwork happens to be fulfilling the Mow'ed Miqra'ey with Dowd; even an insight in that declaration.

1:35:06 So, Christians, you can take your Madonna and Child, her baby "Jesus," your dead god on a stick, and your "Second Coming" and stick them where the sun don't shine, because they do not belong in Yah's world. And as for the Haredi in their horrifyingly morbid mourning clothes, they are perfectly suited to continue worshipping dead rabbis while giving lip service to the HaShem they do not know and the Towrah they have replaced, all while awaiting the arrival of their unknown Messiah.

1:35:44 As for the enlightened, the informed, rational, and reasonable, here is the second third of Dowd's Song. One day soon, I hope you will join me and the Covenant Family when singing this to our King...

"As such (wa), I will place (suwm) My hand (yad 'any) into (ba) the sea (ha yam) and My right side (yamyn 'any) adjacent to flowing waters (wa ba ha nahar). (Mizmowr 89:25 repositioned)

The Adversary ('oyeb) will not outwit or nullify him, never negating his value or annulling his purpose (showa'ba huw'). And (wa) the Son of Evil (ben 'awlah) will not deny him or denigrate him because he will have no answer for him (lo' 'anah huw'). (Mizmowr 89:22)

And so (wa), I will pulverize and crush, vanquish and incarcerate (kathath) his foes, especially those who seek to constrain and restrict him (tsary huw'). Then (wa) out of his presence (min paneh huw'), I will plague (nagaph) those who shun him by attempting to decrease his status (sane' huw'). (Mizmowr 89:23)

Therefore (wa), My steadfast commitment to the truth ('emuwnah 'any) and (wa) My unwavering love, determined devotion, and enduring favoritism, My ongoing affection and genuine favoritism (chesed 'any), are with him ('im huw').

In My name (wa ba shem 'any), his light will radiate and enlighten and his brilliant horn, symbolic of his status and strength, and of his role as the protective ram among the sheep during Pesach and Taruw'ah (qeren huw') will be lifted up, raised on high, and exalted (ruwm). (Mizmowr 89:24)

He, himself, will call out to Me and welcome Me, announcing (huw'qara' 'any), 'You are my Father ('ab 'any 'atah)!' (Mizmowr 89:26)

I ('any), also ('aph), will bestow him as a gift, appointing and making him (nathan huw') Bakowr 'Any | My Firstborn (bakowr 'any), as 'Elyown | Almighty 499God, the Highest and Uppermost ('elyown) in comparison to the kings and rulers (la melekym) of the Earth ('erets). (Mizmowr 89:27)

For all eternity (la 'owlam), I will keep watch over him, paying very close attention to him, focusing on him (shamar la huw'). My unwavering love, unrelenting devotion, enduring affection, and genuine favoritism (chesed 'any) in addition to My Family-Oriented Covenant (wa beryth 'any) are truthfully presented and reliably established, verifiable and enduring through him ('aman la huw'). (Mizmowr 89:28)

And I will establish (wa sym) his seed, that which he sows, especially his offspring (zera' huw'), as an eternal witness forever (la 'ed / 'ad). And (wa) his throne and dignity (kise' huw') will be equated to the days of heaven (ka yowm shamaym). (Mizmowr 89:29)

However, if ('im) his children (beny huw') continue to forsake, ignore, neglect, or reject ('azab) My Towrah | Teaching and Guidance (Towrah 'any) and (wa) they make a habit of failing to walk (wa lo' halak) according to My means to justly resolve disputes (ba mishpat 'any), (Mizmowr 89:30) if ('im) they perpetually view My clearly communicated prescriptions for living with contempt (chuqah 'any chahal) and, further (wa), if they consistently fail to observe the instructive terms of the relationship (mitswah 'any lo' shamar), (Mizmowr 89:31) then (wa) I will hold them accountable (paqad) with the full measure (ba shebet) of their religious rebellion and popular political revolt (pesha' hem).

The consequence of their deviation from the way and of their wrongdoing ('awon hem) will be a pestilence which causes widespread death (ba nega'). (Mizmowr 89:32)

Accordingly (wa), My unwavering love, enduring devotion, unmitigated favoritism, affection, and generosity (chesed 'any), I will never revoke, disassociate, or remove from him, nor withdraw from being with him (lo' parar min 'im huw').

I will never betray who I am by communicating something which is misleading or untrue, nor will I ever contradict or undermine (wa lo' shaqar) My steadfast commitment to uphold the truth and remain accurate and reliable (ba 'emuwnah 'any). (Mizmowr 89:33)

I will never dishonor or betray, nor will I create loopholes which alter (lo 'chahal) Beryth 'Any | My Covenant Family (beryth 'any), nor will I ever amend, disguise, or change, rearrange, modify, or duplicate (wa lo 'shannah) that which has gone forth from (mowtsa ') My lips (saphah 'any). (Mizmowr 89:34)

'Echad | There is Only One ('echad) to whom I have declared the truth by having made a promise, thereby validating My commitment which will be affirmed seven times (shaba ') by Qodesh 'Any | My uniquely Set-Apart nature (ba qodesh 'any).

If not to, through, and regarding ('im la) Dowd | the Beloved (Dowd), I am delusional and will be proven a liar (kazab). (Mizmowr 89:35)

His offspring and that which he sows (zera 'huw ') will exist and endure (hayah) forever (la 'owlam). And (wa) his place of honor, his dignity and authority, as well as his adornment (kise 'huw ') will be as (ka) brilliant as the sun (ha shemesh) before Me as My conspicuous counterpart (neged 'any). (Mizmowr 89:36)

Similar to (ka) the moon (yareach), he is established, appointed, set in place, and trusted (kuwn) forevermore throughout time ('owlam), while serving as an enduring and reliable, truthful and dependable (wa 'aman) witness and source of restoring testimony ('ed) in the universe of spacetime for laughter and play (ba ha shachaq).

Pause now and contemplate what you have read (selah). (Mizmowr 89:37)

1:42:32 It's so amazing that Yahowah, who proves that He is God through the prophecies in His Towrah and Prophets, who is the only credible Creator of the Universe, the very Author of Life, said this 3,000 years ago about one man, and yet His own people don't believe Him. What must we do, Yisra'el, to change that? Are you so stubborn that you'd prefer to join in the revolt like Korach? Are you going to be one of those that tells Moseh we didn't appreciate you when you tried to save us originally and we don't appreciate you now, go away? Are you going to rally around a star promoting a false Messiah like bar Kokhba? The father of your religion is responsible for the Diaspora and therefore all of the hell God's people endured in Europe is all because he lied. And you're going to trust him over the God who spoke these words about His Son? Are you going to believe Maimonides in saying that one of the pillars of Judaism is a Messiah that is returning, and you don't know his name when Yahowah said his name is Dowd? Who are you going to believe? Is there any reason to doubt the credibility of the 89th Mizmowr? So, when you take it face value it says that Dowd is the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is returning as if God, the Chosen One, the Zarowa', the Sacrificial Lamb. It's all there and there's no reason to discredit it. Why run from what it says?

1:45:39 KIRK: I think I've been doing this close to 16 years with you; it's dominated my life for 16 years. Everything is ___ to whatever I could do to participate in this. I'm not a big participator but whatever I can do that's what I'm going to do. This last 24 hours I've been reading this over and over and I have never had so much clarity and such a deep understanding of exactly what it is and how really pissed off God is. How dare they toss this out like it means nothing. Today has been probably the best day. I was sitting here during the whole show thinking I am so glad to live for the day. If I didn't even live another day, I am so glad. This has been the best show. What a day I've had. I was up at six o'clock this morning and I'm wired now.

1:46:38 YADA: As I was sharing what we had come to know, and it was a very long preamble that was extemporaneous this evening, I sensed from you both that it's like taking a bath in the light. It's like God is shining this loving, brilliant, warm and inviting light upon us and that we're standing in the midst of it looking up feeling warm, excited, blessed, enlightened, liberated, and empowered, and it's like everything that He's ever promised to us He has confirmed in these words because that is the one thing that (and I'm glad you mentioned this because for a concluding thought) it is breathtaking to recognize that Yahowah supported Dowd's decision to fulfill the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey beginning with Pesach and Matsah leading to Bikuwrym and Shabuw'ah. It is breathtaking to hear Yahowah, God, speak this lovingly and highly of a man, Dowd, and of all the things that He has committed to doing with him and through him and how He loves him. But that's not the most important part of this story.

1:48:33 The most important part of this story is that God says I've made lots of promises and I'm not going to renege on any of them. The single biggest commitment I have made is to My Covenant family and I'm not changing a thing regarding it. Did you know that everything that Yahowah did through Dowd is for us? So, the moral of the 89th Mizmowr isn't that Yahowah chose, and Dowd agreed to fulfill the Mow'ed Miqra'ey together and to embody what it means to be part of the Covenant family, the message of the 89th Mizmowr is that everything that Yahowah and Dowd achieved together was done for us, so Dowd's not going to be the only 'Elyown there. Dowd won't be the only one as brilliant as the sun. He won't be the only one who will proclaim "You are my Father." He isn't the only one who's going to hear God say you are my son or daughter. The power of that Psalm is that this is God's commitment on behalf of all of us who have chosen to be part of His Covenant.

1:50:13 God did not inspire this message regarding Dowd for Dowd. Dowd's first life was over four years before this was written as the Cornerstone as the Temple was being established. This was not spoken of on behalf of or for the benefit of Dowd; it was written for our benefit so that we would know how to capitalize, how to enjoy these same benefits, for us to recognize that all this was done for us.

1:50:56 Listen, Yisra'el. This is God's gift. He didn't just say He's My Son, He said I gave him to you, this is your gift.

1:51:19 The message I'd like to leave tonight with is that the 89th Mizmowr speaks exceedingly highly of Dowd and Dowd is overwhelming the most important person who has ever lived relative to us being part of God's family. But the reason he did what he did and said what he said, the reason this Mizmowr exists is so that we would choose to capitalize on what they have done. You see the pain of Pesach and Matsah wasn't the lashes of the Romans or the excruciating pain of crucifixion or the trip into Hell. It was his people denying that he had done this. There is a solution for that pain. Accept that he has done this, and the pain goes away. If you don't want your God and Messiah anguished, embrace what they are offering.

1:52:54 On that note I will tell you that God likes to credit those He works through no matter how good a job we do or not, He likes to credit, that's His style, and He likes rewarding those who have contributed. There are a lot in our Covenant family that are contributing to God's mission and to His people. There is no denying our Father wants to reward those things. We don't do it for reward but everyone's going to get a reward. It's just like the 89th Psalm - we all benefit in the same way. He wouldn't be a father if He did not want to reward His children. So, yes, life will be good, and life is good now, but it will be even better.

All right, good night to all. Happy Shabat. We'll celebrate the fact that the 89th Mizmowr wasn't written so much for Dowd but for us. Let's all capitalize on it.

Good night.
