An update on Islam and Comprehensive Overview of Yahowah's Timeline.

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ( )? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MK

Good evening and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. It's my pleasure to be with you. We're here with Kirk and Dee this evening. Happy Shabat to one and all.

Looking at the state of the moon as it will set next Friday, which is when religious Jews will begin to celebrate their High Holy days with the Babylonian New Year Rosh Hashanah, I think that they're clearly wrong. There's only a fraction of one percent of renewable light on the moon's surface that will be visible at moonset, and that is not sufficient. I very seldom will choose a day based upon anything less than one percent of renewable light on the moon surface, so I think that Saturday will be Taruw'ah.

1:03 When it comes to dates, I don't think God's all that particular. I think He is very specific about what is important to Him but whether or not we celebrate Taruw'ah beginning on a Friday evening or a Saturday evening, so long as we understand what it represents, that we are the Herald for Dowd our Messiah, the Son of God, our Savior, the Zarowa'| Passover Lamb, the most important person who ever lived, and a very prolific prophet. On Taruw'ah we serve as his Herald, and we call his people home and to him. That is the purpose of this day. So long as we celebrate that, we know that and we're engaged in doing that, whether we celebrate Taruw'ah beginning on a Friday evening, or a Saturday evening is fairly immaterial.

1:58 It will be exactly 22 years on this coming Saturday that I have felt like I have been living Groundhog Day in the sense of Taruw'ah. Every day is Taruw'ah. From the time I wake up until I go to sleep it's Taruw'ah. It's a wonderful place to be and is the best job in the world.

2:28 A couple of programs ago we talked about the great revival taking place in Israel; great by Yahowah standards. Yahowah went from shortly after Dowd and through a very small number of prophets to the point that after Mal'aky (about 450-ish BCE) there was literally no one that He could talk to, not a single soul that He could communicate through, not a single Jew that was willing to listen to Him or speak for Him. So, God's gone through a very long time out where He has not spoken to His people and has really paid very little attention to them. Not that He's found a substitute people, the Gentiles are as bad, if not worse, than the Jews. God's had no one that He could relate to, communicate through, enjoy their company, or work through for now the better part of 2,400 years. So, we are in a position where when we say that there are now 1,400 Israelis that are actively pursuing the message in Yada Yahowah about Yahowah, coming to know Yahowah and know the role Dowd, His Son, played in our redemption is extraordinary. For Yahowah, to go from none to perhaps as many as 1,400 is something to celebrate.

4:17 In our little chat before the show this evening Dee said that most people doing what I do, which is to spend every day translating Yahowah's testimony, contemplating it and sharing the conclusions and insights that I'm able to draw from it, would be aghast at what I'm about to tell you. But as I told Dee, this is very good news, and she also takes it as very good news.

4:46 For the last few months we have been getting a considerable number of religious Jews coming to the site or through social media to condemn me. This is very good news because if we were resonating with the religious such that they were saying we were doing a great job and that they were right here with us, I'd be running for cover because obviously our message would not be consistent with Yahowah's message and God would be very disappointed in what we're doing.

5:24 God spends more time condemning the religion of Jews in Judaism than any other topic beginning with Moseh and running all the way through Mal'aky. So, for religious Jews to now find us and complain about me is very good news. The three arguments against me, none of which are logical, which is again what you would expect, are ad hominem arguments.

6:01 Their first argument is how dare you work on the Shabat; therefore, we're not going to listen to you. Shabat is a verb, so it's an actionable concept, and it was created for us to enjoy our relationship with Yahowah. I don't know a better way to enjoy our relationship with Yahowah than to share His testimony, insights we can draw from His testimony, celebrate His relationship with His people, talk about what He intends and how it's going to unfold. So, if we're going to be condemned, I would love to be condemned for talking about Yahowah and His testimony to His people on the Shabat.

6:49 The second thing is precisely as Yahowah wanted it to be: We won't listen to you because you are a Gowy. That is true. There are hundreds of prophecies about the fact that there were no Jews for Yahowah to speak through, so He turned to a Gowy, and the truth is, this is the best you're going to get. That's really embarrassing, but it's true. So, if you don't like how I'm sharing insights from Yahowah and His Son, Dowd, from His testimony, it's too bad for you because this is how God intended for His people to be awakened in the last days.

7:42 The third is, how dare you contradict the message of our rabbis and sages. If you want to extrapolate that, it would be the same as how dare Yahowah condemn the message of the rabbis and sages, His single most prolific topic throughout the Towrah and prophets. So, the good news is we have irritated the religious community and Yisra'el.

8:14 Of course, the reason this has happened is twofold. A lot of people get credit. The website that David has put together for us, the way it looks, its features, and the way it builds off the wonderful job that my dear friend, Joe | Yowel, has done for us over these years is a tremendous presentation of God's testimony. There are now on that site 30 books that I have written that do a marvelous job of something no one has ever done before. While others have not as comprehensively and effectively exposed and condemned Islam, I would dare say Prophet of Doom is the most effective condemnation of Islam ever written. Others have gone after Paul, but they have yet to do even one-hundredth of the job accomplished in the four volumes of Questioning Paul. I'm the first person to expose and condemn Paul, the author and inspiration of almost all the Christian New Testament and the founder of the Christian religion, by comparing Paul's words to Yahowah's words, which is the only effective way to do him in. Then, because of the Babel Series, I've also exposed and condemned Rabbinic Judaism. So, I don't think there's anyone in the history of humanity that has done that to those three religions as effectively while at the same time exposing the five conditions and five benefits of the Covenant, what each of the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey represents and how they enable the benefits of the Covenant and bring us home to Yahowah, the timeline that we're going to talk about at the end of the program this evening and what that represents, how to properly pronounce Yahowah's name, why it is important, and now the role of Dowd, the returning King of Yisra'el, the man that was anointed three times that has three lives among us. He was not only the Son of God but also the Messiah.

10:50 But the thing that perhaps everyone has missed heretofore is that he is also the Zarowa', which is the Sacrificial lamb of God. He is the Passover Lamb and even more important than the fulfilling Passover he fulfilled Matsah by taking the guilt of his people into She'owl and depositing it there so that we appear perfect before our Father. There is no one else who has done these things. He is the most important man in the world, he is the Savior of God's people. So, there is a broad swath of information here and thousands of insights that haven't been considered or discussed, written about or explained in thousands of years. It's a very difficult website for anyone to miss. If you're missing this now there's something wrong with you.

11:51 Of course, another advantage is that our sophisticated and elegant social media outreach is becoming more and more effective. We have a very dedicated editing and publishing team that makes all these books available through Amazon at a modest price as well as freely and beautifully presented on our website along with many exceedingly helpful resources. So, we've done a lot in the place that matters the most particularly over these new next ten years. So, that's an update of where we are.

12:32 We're not going to do the news tonight because I have a news item to share with you, and then we're going to talk time. A couple day ago I wrote the following and I want to present it to you because I think it is exceedingly timely as it relates to the nation we care most about which is Israel. It begins:

13:01 I would like to provide an update on Islam – which may sound like an oxymoron for a religion stuck in the 7th century. When Yahowah asked me to expose and condemn the religion on Taruw'ah, 7 days after the Islamic suicide bombings of 9.11.2001, a Tuesday, September 18th, now twenty-two years ago this week, the first thing I did was buy and read various translations of the Quran. My initial reaction was that it was an incomprehensible and disordered mess, devoid of any organizational structure or context. It was hopelessly contradictory, incongruent historically, inaccurate scientifically, poorly plagiarized, logically irrational, and grossly immoral. It was the product of an illiterate psychopath bent on torturing and killing all who would not capitulate to his drivel. It was as if authored by the darkest of demons and as if Muhammad and Allah were one. Completely devoid of prophecy and useful insights, I saw the Quran as the worst book ever written.

14:24 Therefore, the mystery which needs to be resolved is why would anyone believe it or terrorize others on behalf of something so obviously false? Why was Muhammad called a prophet when there were no prophecies? Why was the book so anti-Semitic? How did something this worthless emerge from an intellectual vacuum in the wilderness to become the world's fastest growing and deadliest religion? Why did Muslims murder everyone critical of them?

14:57 To my mind, there were two ways to answer these questions, one easy, the other hard, one fast, the other laborious, one popular, and the other uncommon. I could do as every member of the media was doing and interview Muslims and let them present their interpretation of the religion. If I did so, however, I'd be no closer to the truth because religious clerics seldom if ever address the issues I have just raised – particularly in Islam. Or I could pursue the other option, which would deliver an honest and irrefutable result for those willing to read. I could study the origins of Islam and find a way to reorder the Quran and set it into the context of Muhammad's life so that it could be understood.

15:54 The path to creating a correct, comprehensive, chronological, and contextual presentation of the Quran required access to the four earliest Hadith compositions – which are oral reports of Muhammad's words and deeds passed on by his companions through a chain of reporters, mouth to ear prior to the existence of an Arabic alphabet, and thus for some ten to fifteen decades. For those who are rational and reading this, it means that there is no distinction between the origin and transmission of the Hadith and Quran during this period. There was no alphabet, so it had to be passed on mouth to ear for 150 years. If the Hadith was false, so was the Quran. They came from the same sources. They were retained the same way. It also means that since Muhammad's words and deeds as they are reported through the Hadith comprise Islam and its Sunnah, it would not matter that the Hadith was any less accurate or rational than the text of the Quran because Muhammad and the religion based upon him ceases to exist, and cannot be practiced, without both the Quran and Hadith.

17:36 Without the Hadith, the Quran is as I have stated – an incomprehensible and disordered mess, devoid of any organizational structure or context, hopelessly contradictory, incongruent historically, inaccurate scientifically, poorly plagiarized, logically irrational, and grossly immoral, the product of an illiterate psychopath bent on torturing and killing all who would not capitulate. And with the Hadith, Muhammad is not only indistinguishable from his god, he was a pedophile and rapist, a mass murdering terrorist, a thief and liar. Moreover, the resulting religion cannot emerge from his repulsive shadow.

18:33 This brings us to my update. This week the crown prince of Saudi Arabia, known as MBS, an exceptionally shrewd and manipulative psychopath, took the biggest risk of his young life. He openly challenged the veracity of the Hadith because he wants to delegitimize 90% of them. And the reasons are as fascinating as the man at the helm of the richest and most powerful Islamic nation.

19:12 Two-thirds of Saudi Arabia's 32 million citizens are under the age of 30. As a result of the black ooze upon which the nation floats, they have been given access to the inventions of the west, including computers and televisions, smart phones and social media, automobiles and airplanes, as well as a large cache of the deadliest weapons the west has developed. MBS is shrewd, but not stupid. He must bring Saudi Arabia into the modern world before his subjects take the initiative and revolt. As a narcissist, however, it must be done on his terms. And the one thing holding him and them back is the Islam of the Hadith – Muhammad's words and deeds.

20:12 His answer is to remove the Hadith. What's left is so incomprehensible that he can manipulate and misappropriate it to his liking, just as Muhammad did when plagiarizing the Talmud to comprise the Quran in the first place. Without Sunnah, he can write his own script. And should the Wahhab imams complain, they will be executed. Jamal Khashoggi was killed outside of Saudi Arabia for a reason.

20:51 The test case for this approach occurred recently. The women who took the initiative to circumvent the Saudi / Islamic edicts not to leave the house without being escorted by a male guardian, a father, brother, or husband, and then drive a car, were jailed, brutally tortured, and repetitively raped by MBS's chief of staff. And yet, at the same time, MBS liberalized the draconian laws and allowed women this right. It had to be done, but it had to be him doing it.

21:40 This insight into the mindset of MBS and the dilemma he is facing between modernizing and Islam is now centerstage. MBS is manipulating the world on his terms and has America, China, Europe, and Russia eating out of his hand because his other hand is on their throats. Like every despot before him, he wants more weapons – something America, Britain, France, Spain, Germany, China, and Russia are eager to supply. He wants a large stockpile of enriched uranium, which the US and China are offering. He wants to be free of the dollar which BRICS will enable. And he also wants control over the Temple Mount, which Israel will likely provide for MBS acknowledging their right to exist.

22:42 Marketed as the definitive normalization treaty between Arabs and Jews, this is the Biden administration's Hail Mary – the only way to get a man suffering from dementia alongside a childish vice president reelected. And yet, this deal with the devil, if accepted, will usher in the Time of Israel's Troubles.

23:13 The evening after I provided this update, written in the first volume of Observations, and sent it out to my editors and publicist for inclusion into this volume of Observations, and posting it on social media, the Jerusalem Post published a piece of propaganda on Muhammad ben Salman written by Salem Al Ketbi, a United Arab Emirates political insider entitled: UAE Political Analyst – How to Achieve Saudi-Israel Peace. While his assessment of the murderous and raping psychopath was more favorable than my own, since his message appears autobiographical, I thought I'd share it with you because it is how the Devil will approach Israel seven years from now...

24:16 Dateline: September 5, 2023, 6:32 PM – “Peace between Saudi Arabia and Israel hinges upon intricate strategic calculations by Saudi authorities. It has nothing to do with the Jews, the Arabian people, or with America. It hinges on intricate strategic calculations by, he says authorities, but he means (autorité)?

24:52 The ongoing efforts by the US to establish normalized relations between Saudi Arabia and Israel have taken center stage in recent months across Middle Eastern media. Developments about this originate from both American and Israeli perspectives, while Saudi comments remain scarce. This aligns with Saudi diplomacy's overarching approach – one of preserving secrecy and discretion until official document arrangements are finalized, akin to their handling of the Riyadh-Tehran rapprochement.

25:38 Saudi diplomacy stands out for its composed and sagacious demeanor, earning it profound respect and recognition on both regional and international platforms. Let me tell you what MBS does. He plays blackmail almost as well as anybody on Earth. He will tell Biden, “You do that, and I will stop trading oil in dollars. Your country will crash. Now, would you please go away? You will send me those weapons, or I will get them from the Chinese, or I will buy them from the Russians.” No. It's all him blackmailing the countries whose throats his hand is wrapped around. And This approach also affords substantial leeway and time to meticulously pursue well-defined objectives, far from the clamor of the media, which frequently turns into a pressure instrument on the fringes of any political undertaking. When you live in a dictatorship you don't need media approval.

26:59 President Joe Biden's administration views the successful advancement of its initiative to normalize relations between Saudi Arabia and Israel as a notable accomplishment ahead of the 2024 presidential election campaign. He got that part right except everyone knows that this has nothing to do with Saudi Arabia and Israel having normalized relations.

27:31 It is only the sign being put on it to justify what he is now being blackmailed into providing. "You give us nukes. You come to defend Saudi Arabia with your soldiers and weapons as if we were an ___ state in the United States. You agree to sell us hundreds of billions of dollars of whatever weapons we choose," and on and on and on it goes. This has nothing to do with Israel except for the fact that when it's couched under that sign then there appears to be justification for Israel giving up its soul and for the United States selling Saudi Arabia the weapons this despot needs to continue his draconian approach to the world.

28:40 On the other side, Israel regards Riyadh's involvement in the peace process as a profound transformation in the Middle East's geopolitical landscape – a characterization that holds true. In other words, Muhammad's way, MBS's way or no way at all.

29:07 Nevertheless, indications suggest that the kingdom aims for a comprehensive reassessment of its strategic partnership with the US. Yes. "You will give us everything we want because we are now in the driver's seat. You are the puppet, not us." This perspective is attributed to the shrewd leadership of Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, who is orchestrating his nation's international role with acumen, resulting in a series of accomplishments. In just a few years, he has adeptly repositioned Saudi Arabia on the map of global relations.

29:53 I said he was shrewd. He is. He has done exactly that. He has taken a country that doesn't make anything; the workforce is all imported laborers because his people don't work. It's a nation whose religious and political guidelines are stuck in the 7th century and has positioned them because of the value of the black ooze such that the world is circumambulating MBS. It's absolutely true. I began to speak of this about five years ago when it became obvious that he was playing the world for this result.

30:46 Saudi Arabia has emerged as a captivating focal point, attracting worldwide attention across economic, commercial, sporting, cultural, and investment domains. This transformation heralds favorable shifts in the longstanding perceptions of the country.

31:15 Well, all he's doing is buying things. He bought the PGA Tour and Newcastle United Premier League soccer team. You aren't creating something if you're buying something somebody else created. There are trillions of dollars that he gets for nothing, and this is what they're doing, but they're doing it very cleverly. There's no question about that. This accomplishment elicits admiration and acclaim from global hubs of decision-making compelling a universal recognition of the enterprising developmental endeavor spearheaded by the young Crown Prince.

32:04 By the way, he's Crown Prince because he threatened to kill his brother and his father.

32:10 His composed and assured leadership approach astonishes all those who observe and follow Saudi affairs.

32:26 There's more to it because this is precisely how Satan incarnates. When he comes into Yaruwshalaim two weeks before the last two Witnesses on promises of peace, he will have a propagandist who will write exactly the same thing about him and then will do the opposite of what is said about him. If you want to know what the Towrahless One will be like when he comes into Yisra'el on the first of 'Abyb in 2030, year 5997 Yah, this is it.

33:17 Regarding peace between Saudi Arabia and Israel, it becomes evident that this subject is closely intertwined with the new Saudi perspective. However, it hinges upon intricate strategic calculations by Saudi authorities. Saudi Arabia occupies a distinctive stance on both spiritual and strategic levels.

33:48 Saudi Arabia is undergoing a foundational transformation. Yet, this transformation is not centered solely on normalizing relations with Israel (that is irrelevant), fostering improving ties with neighboring Iran, (that was just a ruse) or pursuing any similar endeavors.

33:53 Instead, this transformation is fundamentally directed toward shaping a future for the kingdom's upcoming generations so long as it's MBS's way. Its objective is to forge a Saudi Arabia that resonates with the aspirations of its youth and general population, positioning it in a manner that befits a regional powerhouse, encompassing the entirety of both robust and subtle influence.

34:54 This strategic endeavor guarantees that Saudi Arabia possesses the capacity to exert its impact on the global stage, in a way that advances its interests and safeguards it against becoming ensnared in conflicts or crises that might obstruct its resolutely ambitious developmental path.

35:20 Therefore, the normalization with Israel and the pursuit of reconciliation with Iran is aimed at fortifying security, peace, and harmonious coexistence in a region that has long grappled with instability. This role falls squarely within the purview of Saudi Arabia, a vanguard of the Islamic world.

35:52 This man has already written the speech for the Towrahless One, for Satan incarnate, as he enters Jerusalem.

35:59 It upholds moral obligations and spiritual connections with nearly two billion Muslims. In this sense, it assumes the role of a peacemaker and a conduit for bridging divides between civilizations and cultures.

36:19 Hence, the eventual establishment of peaceful relations between Israel and Saudi Arabia (so long as Israel capitulates) seems deeply intrinsic. Such a development stands apart from notions of “American pressure” that Riyadh has demonstrated it no longer adheres to when such pressures run counter to its interests.

36:50 You know, Israel has almost always gotten itself into a bad situation when it chose to trust the words of its enemies as opposed to the words of its God’s.

37:10 The potential alignment between Israel and the kingdom (under the kingdom, of course) as previously articulated by the Saudi crown prince, does not come as a surprise. He has also affirmed that his country does not perceive Israel as an adversary. No. They wanted it to be a client. It is important to recall that Riyadh put forth an ambitious peace proposal back in 2002. No, that was written by Mr. Friedman of the New York Times underscoring that Saudi Arabia harbors no inherent reservation or animosity towards Israel (so long as they capitulate the country to Muslims). Instead, it operates guided by its central role within both the Arab and Islamic spheres.

38:13 It seeks to devise a viable framework that caters to the collective interests and guarantees real stability. “Trust me,” says the mass-murdering rapist. Furthermore, Riyadh perceives the current juncture in history as an opportune moment to recalibrate, redefine, and fortify its alliance with Washington, getting Washington to be its puppet aligning it with the prevailing strategic landscape.

38:46 Saudi Arabia is operating within an ambitious and promising strategic vision for the year 2030. This vision hinges on a stable and propitious regional climate, essential for fostering investment and advancement. It has emerged as a pivotal driving force in Saudi foreign policy.

39:16 And by the way, one Benjamin Netanyahu is licking this Kool-Aid right out of MBS's paw.

39:31 It is universally recognized (this is the concluding paragraph and tells all) that Israel's participation in the recent sequence of regional reconciliations holds the potential to unveil an alternative geopolitical map, contrasting the landscape of prior regional conflicts. In other words, this stuff was done but it wasn't our guy doing it. Nevertheless, a candid perspective mandates acknowledging that Israel must cultivate a suitable strategic environment that incentivizes the kingdom and other stakeholders to engage in the peace process. But the promise for peace and Israel must capitulate.

40:49 May I remind readers of the Treaty of Hudaibiyyah and the subsequent attack once the Muslims were better equipped and their brethren's defenses were down. MBS isn't eliminating every Hadith – just the 95% which do not serve his interests.

41:17 Over the course of the past two decades, I have made hundreds of public prognostications regarding world events on many other radio programs and in writing. My assessments, analysis, and specific predictions have always gone against the majority, often to the extent of being a single voice against the world. And yet, I have never been wrong, including my contrarian evaluations of the American response to 9.11.2001, of the consequence of the invasions of Afghanistan, Iraq, and Syria, the attack on Libya, the proxy war in Ukraine against Russia, the response to Covid, the cause and response to climate change, the overreaction to the January 6th trespass, the fate of the dollar and US economy, and the future of Israel. In each of these debates between just one and everyone else, everyone else continues to flounder. Such is the consequence of neither knowing nor accepting the truth.

42:49 So, rather than reading the news I thought I'd make a little news sharing that update on Islam.

43:05 Now I'm going to share something that is a collaborative effort. Dee and Jacki have worked hard creating The Towrah Timeline which is available as the first item under the Resources tab on the yadaya.com site. It's a wonderful calculation using the genealogies found in the Towrah to effectively validate what I have been writing about for the past 22 years; however, that was not its intent. The intent was to present things that Yahowah has talked about from beginning to end, but that is the reality when you look at it. We're going to share some of those insights along the way.

43:58 Dowd reigned over all who Engaged and Endured with God | Yisra'el for 40 years. Forty is the duration of a time of testing. Those aboard the arc endured 40 days and nights during the deluge, Yisra'el was enslaved in Egypt for twice 40 decades. The walk away from human religious and political oppression to freedom and blessings in the promised land transpired over 40 years, the Towrah was revealed over the course of 40 days during which many Yisra'el elites returned to idol worship.

44:40 It is important because 40 Yowbel have transpired between the expulsion of Adam and Chawah from the Garden of 'Eden to the time and means to return and it was established with 'Abraham through the Covenant and 40 Yowbel separate the time when 'Abraham affirmed his willingness to act upon Yahowah's instructions regarding the Beryth on Mount Mowryah to the time God's Son enabled the Covenant's benefits on the same mountain. Further, 40 Yowbel from the Messiah's fulfillment of the first four Miqra'ey will transpire before he returns to reconcile Yisra'el.

45:24 While 40 is the universal multiple of time with God the Yowbel are special in their own right. Every seven times seven years plus one all debts are forgiven, all slaves are freed, and the land is liberated of all encumbrances. The Yowbel is a semi-centennial observation of the annual celebration of Shabuw'ah, the Promise of Seven | Shabat whereby Yahowah's children are emancipated, enlightened, empowered, and enriched. OMG! It sounds like Yahowah is working on Shabuw'ah | the Promise of the Shabat!

46:18 These dates correlate it to the Roman Catholic calendar in use today or as follows in Yowbel Years:

46:24 Year 0 Yah, 3968 BCE: 'Adam and Chawah were expelled from the Garden.

46:30 Year 1000 Yah, 2968 BCE: Noach was born. He and his family would be saved from the flood by acting upon Yahowah's instructions.

46:43 Year 2000 Yah, 1968 BCE: "Abraham and his son, Yitschaq, affirmed the Covenant with Yahowah on Mount Mowryah.

46:56 Year 3000 Yah, 968 BCE: Dowd became the Cornerstone of Yahowah's home when it was built on the threshing floor of Mowryah which he had acquired.

47:08 Year 4000 Yah, 33 CE: Dowd returned to enable the benefits of the Covenant by fulfilling the first four Miqra'ey on Mowryah.

47:19 Year 6000 Yah, 2033: Yahowah will return with His Son to this place transforming the Earth back into the conditions experienced in ‘Eden so that He can camp out with His Children until the Yowbel Year of 7000 Yah at which time there will be no Roman Catholic Pagan calendar remaining to correlate beyond the reference to 40.

47:42 Dowd reigned in Chebrown | To Form an Association for seven years, and it is over 7,000 years that Yahowah will consummate His relationship with humankind. As we affirmed previously, Dowd’s second life on Earth lasted as long as he lived in Jerusalem, 33 years.

48:17 Widening our perspective to the entirety of Yahowah’s relationship with humankind, this is what we witness. And this is really what I wanted to share with you.

48:29 Year 0 Yah: ‘Adam, who was created in God’s image with a nepesh and neshamah, disregarded Yahowah’s instructions and was expelled from the Garden along with Chawah. They had lived in perfect harmony for 50 to 70 years before Satan descended from the wall and into the Garden to mislead Chawah by corrupting God’s testimony.

Exiled from ‘Eden, ‘Adam and Chawah were exposed to hostile influences outside of the Garden. Mankind’s authoritarian and violent tendencies became much more severe with the added capability the neshamah provided.

49:24 Year 1000 Yah: Yahowah introduces us to Noach who was born in 2968 BCE. The flood, triggered by an asteroid impact, commenced when Noach was 600 in year 1600 Yah – 2370 BCE. From this perspective, Yah’s relationship with Noach and their collaboration on the Ark takes precedence over the deluge itself.

49:59 Year 2000 Yah: Precisely 40 Yowbel from ‘Adam’s and Chawah’s removal from the Gan ‘Eden, and 400 years after the Flood, the means to return to fellowship through the Covenant was confirmed by ‘Abraham and Yitschaq. Four days before Pesach in 1968 BCE, they began their journey to Mount Mowryah where Yahowah provided the lamb. Yitschaq was 10 and ‘Abraham was 110 years of age at the time. Together with Yahowah, they celebrated the path to everlasting life by acting upon the five conditions of the Covenant.

Thereafter, during the 41st Yowbel, Ya’aqob was born. The following Yowbel, his 12 sons, comprising Yisra’el, were conceived. Then Yowseph was sold into Egyptian captivity and became Pharaoh’s lead advisor.

By the 43rd Yowbel, Ya'aqob, his sons and their families, entered Egypt to survive a prolonged drought. Centuries later, in the 48th Yowbel, the Yisra'elites, having become prosperous, were enslaved. Moseh, who would liberate and enlighten them, was born in 1527 BCE. He would flee Egypt at 40 years of age after defending a Yisra'elite. After which time, Thutmose III became co-regent with his stepmother, Hatshepsut, and then Pharaoh of the Exodus.

51:55 In the 50th Yowbel, Moseh, now 80, returned to Mitsraym to liberate the Children of Yisra'el, doing so on Passover, 'Abyb 14, 1447 BCE. Pharaoh Thutmose's son, Amenhemhat died this night during the final plague. The Exodus began on Matsah when the Children of Yisra'el left the Crucibles of Religious and Political Oppression. After symbolically experiencing Bikuwrym when emerging from the sea, they would receive the Towrah on Shabuw'ah.

52:35 Approximately 400 years after the Exodus, Dowd, the Chosen One, was born during the 58th Yowbel in 1042 BCE. As the 8th son of Yshay, he was anointed Messiah at 8 years of age. Over his 70-year initial life, he would write over 100 Mizmowr and Mashal, unite and defend Yisra'el, acquire their capital of Yaruwshalaim and the Temple Mount, be anointed three times, and set an example we should follow.

53:15 Year 3000 Yah: On the 60th Yowbel, Yahowah's beloved Son, Dowd, is announced as the exemplar of the Covenant, its Savior, and as the Cornerstone through the 89th Mizmowr. In that year, 968 BCE, Dowd's son, Solomon, began construction of the Temple on Mount Mowryah. The House of Yahowah was completed 7 years later, such that in 960 BCE, Shalomoh announced the future arrival of the Nakry | Observant Foreigner during his dedication speech.

53:54 It would be all downhill from there because Yisra'elites and their kings emulated the ways of the gowym and chose religious rites and political intrigue over the relationship Yahowah intended. God's people splintered into two kingdoms, with tremendous infighting between Yisra'el and Yahuwdah. The message of the prophets Howsha' and Yasha'yah were ignored, such that during the 64th Yowbel, Yisra'el fell to Assyria in 722 BCE. Then during the 65th Yowbel, in year 3252 Yah, Chiziqyah | Hezekiah rediscovered the Towrah and saved Yahuwdah from the same fate.

54:46 Quickly reverting to their religious ways, even failing to listen to Yirma'yah who wrote during the 66th Yowbel, the leadership of Yahuwdah made a series of miscalculations just as they are about to do with MBS. Especially disastrous, God's people would ignore the warning He sent to them though Chabaquwq | Habakkuk in 615 BCE, 666 years in advance of Sha'owl conceiving Christianity, the greatest menace to God's people. As a result, during the 67th Yowbel year, beginning in 608 BCE, the 70-year Babylonian exile began. And after a prolonged siege, Jerusalem fell, and the Temple was destroyed in 586 BCE.

55:40 The Greeks under Alexander would enter Jerusalem in 322 BCE. Antiochus IV Epiphanes, (kind of like the forefather of MBS) imposed the worship of Greek gods and goddesses in Yahuwdah during the 75th Yowbel, beginning in 170 BCE. The Maccabean revolt began in 167 BCE and the Hasmonean Dynasty was imposed by 141 BCE.

56:16 Infighting between Hasmonean heirs, two very misguided brothers, provoked the Roman siege of Jerusalem under Pompey at the onset of the 78th Yowbel in 68 BCE. This marked the first of three Roman invasions. Then in 37 BCE, Rome appointed Herod as King of Judea, ending the Hasmonean Dynasty and Yisra'elite independence for the next 2,000 years.

57:00 Year 4000 Yah: Right on schedule, on the 10th of 'Abyb in the 80th Yowbel year, King Dowd, the Messiah and Son of God, entered Jerusalem from his hometown of Bethlehem to fulfill Passover – just as he had foretold. There were celestial fireworks of course, with a solar eclipse occurring on the first day of the 80th Yowbel, March 19th, 33 CE announcing what was to come. Then as Dowd surrendered his Basar | corporeal body, Basar | heralding the good news in the waning hours of Pesach, there was a lunar eclipse – 16:48 local time in Yaruwshalaim, April 3, 33 CE.

57:52 In the transition between Pesach and Matsah, Dowd's nepesh | incorporeal soul was laden with the infectious yeast of his people's religious and political rebellion. He would take their guilt – past and future – with him into She'owl, where it would be deposited – never to be seen again, thereby perfecting the Children of the Covenant. It was the 15th of 'Abyb, year 4000 Yah / April 4, 33 CE when the Son of God and our Messiah became our Savior.

58:33 The next morning, now Bikuwrym | Firstborn Children, the 16th of the first month of the first year of the 80th Yowbel, the soul of the Bakowr | Firstborn of Yahowah was released from She'owl | Hell and returned to his Father in Shamaym | Heaven. The third of five benefits of the Beryth | Covenant was now manifest, with Dowd adding adoption to eternal life and perfection. He revealed the way we should follow.

59:06 Seven sevens thereafter, on Shabuw'ah | the Promise of the Shabat, Dowd became the first to be a fully emancipated and enlightened, enriched and empowered Child of God and thus the Exemplar of the Covenant. Because of what he has done, these same benefits are assured on behalf of every Child of the Covenant.

59:34 Before I go on, Matsah in the 80th Yowbel, year 4000 Yah, April 4, 33 CE, is when the Messiah and Son of God carried the guilt of every Covenant member with him into She'owl and deposited it there. What day of the week was that? It was a Shabat. So, God's very Son was enabled by Yahowah Himself to save Yisra'el from itself on what day? On the Shabat! And you as a religious Jew want to criticize us for speaking about Yahowah's means to save you on this day? Are you out of your ever-loving mind?

1:00:46 It all transpired as foretold in the Towrah, the Mizmowr, and Naby', in the right place, on the corresponding day, in the correct year, but no one yada' | realized any of this, much less byn | made the connections to understand. And as a direct result of not listening to Yahowah and being unobservant, rather than embrace the relationship made possible by these events, the religions most hostile to the wellbeing of God's people emerged – Christianity and Judaism – both by foisting false messiahs on the unaware.

1:01:34 The four most important days in human history were all foretold in exacting detail and, yet, when they were fulfilled, the resulting gifts of eternal life, perfection of our souls, adoption into God's Family, and infinite emancipation and enlightenment, enrichment and empowerment, were squandered. What had been plainly spoken and painfully endured would remain unknown until the Mizmowr and Naby' were given a Qowl | Voice, Dowd was afforded his Basar | Herald, a little z commenced sowing seeds for the mighty Zarowa' | Sacrificial Lamb, when Yasha'yah's Choter | Secondary Branch began to reveal new life as Yahuwdym witnessed the promised Nakry, all so that you might know what your people have hidden for the past 1,990 years.

1:02:46 Having abandoned Father and Son and having rejected the gifts Yahowah and Dowd had provided, replacing the Towrah with their Talmud, now estranged and alone to endure their insufferable religion, Yahuwdym | Jews would be subjugated and enslaved, becoming exiles and scapegoats, dehumanized and demonized. The first self-proclaimed rabbi, Sha'owl | Paul would promulgate Christianity by robbing Yahowah and Dowd to create the myth of 'Jesus Christ.' Then rabbi Akiba, somehow assuming that two wrongs would make a right, responded in kind with his false Messiah, Bar Kokhba | Son of a Star.

1:03:2 Then Rome, led by Vespasian and Titus, the Beast's version of Father and Son, set siege to Jerusalem in 70 CE and destroyed the Temple, killing 600,000 Jews in the process. With the wealth and slaves they commandeered they would build the Roman Colosseum to showcase the empire's bestiality.

1:04:07 Then, just two Yowbel after Dowd's denied and forgotten sacrifice, Emperor Hadrian, responding in part to rabbi Akiba's provocation with his false messiah, destroyed Jerusalem. It was the 82nd Yowbel year / 133 CE. The Land of Yahuwdah | Judah was renamed "Syria Palaestina" as a snub to Jews because the Philistines had been their foes. The Diaspora followed. Jews would endure the most degrading and enduring period of abject humiliation ever experienced by any nation or race.

1:05:00 The 100th Yowbel was marked by nothing because there was no one listening to Yahowah. Yahuwdym had completely separated themselves from God, and worse, they were annoying Him with their devotion to Judaism. And it is a wonder, with all the torment they endured, that someone along the way didn't have a Hezekiah moment and notice that they were antagonizing the source of their redemption and reconciliation.

1:05:33 Using the name the Beast of Rome that they had conjured to harass God's people, the League of Nations conceived Mandatory Palestine in 1920 after the 1st World War. But Jewish migration was stymied, setting up the Holocaust. And then out of the ashes of genocide, the newly formed United Nations established the Nation of Israel on May 14, 1948. The War of Independence followed by the Six Day War in 1967 and Yom Kippur War in 1973 saw Jews reclaim much of their homeland now just 60 years prior to Yahowah's return with Dowd.

1:06:29 It was during the 119th Yowbel, on Taruw'ah in 2001, 2,961 years after the Nakry | Observant Foreigner was announced by Solomon, a Voice was found to call God's people home. Over the next 32 years, he would expose and condemn the religions most responsible for the subjugation of Yahuwdym – Islam in Prophet of Doom, Christianity in Questioning Paul, and Judaism in Babel. He would compose An Introduction to God, Yada Yahowah, Observations, and Coming Home to awaken Yisra'elites for one last opportunity for Kipurym | Reconciliations.

1:07:20 Five years ago, in 2018, the Nakry revealed that Dowd was the Messiah and Son of God, and that it was Dowd who was returning with Yahowah to fulfill Yowm

Kipurym. Three years ago, in 2020, the Choter completed a comprehensive edit and rebranding of the Yada Yahowah Series and the yadayah.com site to make his findings available worldwide. A year ago, in 2022, the Basar | Herald unsealed the message Gabry'el | God's Most Capable and Courageous Man revealed through Dany'el. And then earlier this year, 'Abyb 10, year 5990 Yah, the 'Edah | Witness announced that Dowd is our Savior, the Zarowa', who fulfilled the first four Miqra'ey in year 4000 Yah. This led to yet another comprehensive edit of the 30 volumes comprising Yada Yahowah. And during this time, the Yada Yah Social Medial campaign began to reach Yahuwdym and gained traction in reuniting God with His Family.

1:08:50 Yahowah's final Zarowa' will return on Passover, April 16th, 2030, with 'Elyah to serve as a Witness in Yaruwshalaim. It will be during the worst of the Time of Ya'aqob's Troubles.

1:09:06 Year 6000 Yah: Yahowah will return with Dowd to fulfill the final two Miqra'ey, Kipurym and Sukah, during the 120th Yowbel year, which will conclude the 6th Millennia of Man and usher in the 7th Millennia of God. Mark your calendars if you plan to attend Yisra'el's homecoming and the family reunion. This will occur at sunset, 6:22 PM in Jerusalem, October 2nd, 2033.

1:09:43 Marking the special occasion, there will be a total solar eclipse on March 30, 2033 – the day of the new moon marking 'Abyb 1, denoting the beginning of year 6000 Yah. Fourteen days later, on the 14th and 15th of April 2033, during Chag Matsah, there will be a full lunar eclipse, commencing in Jerusalem and spreading to Babylon during Matsah – certifying the darkest of nights. And if that were not enough to garner your undivided attention, there will be a second solar eclipse in year 6000 Yah / 2033 CE on Friday, September 23rd, which is when the final Taruw'ah will be celebrated – thereby, signifying the end of our journey as witnesses. Then adding to the celestial acclaim, there will be a second total lunar eclipse on the evening of the 7th and 8th of October 2033, coinciding with Sukah in year 6000 Yah as the Covenant Family returns to 'Eden.

1:11:00 Against the magnificent depiction of Yahowah's intervention on behalf of His people, there is a contrast we must face before we move on.

1:11:13 Yahowah created 'Adam in his image, placed him in a perfect environment, celebrated life with him, and gave him the ideal companion. And yet, this man threw it all away and back in God's face, doing so upon the advice of a false prophet and adversarial influence whom he believed instead of trusting Yah.

1:11:41 Years later, civilized man became so egregious, religious, and vicious, Yahowah intervened again a second time to give humans with a neshamah | conscience a second chance at life. He found, instructed, and protected Noah and his family aboard the Ark, only to have human malfeasance reemerge, red in tooth, word, and claw almost immediately thereafter.

1:21:21 With our second opportunity squandered, Yahowah found “Abraham and Sarah walking away from Babylon. He offered them the chance of a lifetime. They were introduced to the Beryth | Covenant with its five conditions and five benefits. While not the best or smartest of men, “Abraham stumbled his way into Yahowah’s outstretched arms, confirming the Covenant and receiving its benefits. But within two generations it was all but relinquished and within three there was virtually nothing left.

1:12:59 Nonetheless, after being rebuffed on three occasions, Yahowah would come to rescue His people a fourth time, liberating them from slavery in Mitsraym. But within the very first week, they became antagonistic malcontents and begged to go back to servitude. He offered them His Towrah | Guidance, but it made no difference.

1:13:31 Even though they did everything possible to annoy and aggravate the Almighty, God endured their temper tantrums long enough to lead them into the Promised Land. Once there, they became religious and went their own way, essentially telling Yahowah that they would rather fend for themselves than be around Him.

1:13:58 He would come to their rescue yet again, this time after Yisra’el rejected Him a fifth time. They chose to be like the Gentiles by appointing Sha’uwl to rule over them. It led to the precipice of their annihilation at the hands of a foe so insignificant, they have left no remembrance in history. The solution Yahowah offered on this, the fifth occasion of His people’s salvation, was to anoint and empower His Beloved Son, Dowd, to lead and protect them in the ways of a shepherd over his flock. However, they turned on Dowd, leading an insurrection against their Messiah and King.

1:14:43 Should we count these acts of rebellion as one, then in the sixth episode of outright rejection, Yisra’el brought Ba’al and Asherah into the land and worshiped them. Because of their predilection for false gods and pagan religions, they were victimized by those they sought to emulate. The Assyrians, Egyptians, Babylonians, Greeks, and Romans would invade and pummel them.

1:15:15 Having been rejected and burnt by His people six times, Yahowah was in no hurry this time to redeem them. However, He did give them hope, inspiring Dowd and other prophets to explain what He and His Son would do to save them from themselves – fulfilling the first four Mow'edym in year 4000 Yah.

1:15:40 When Father and Son did what they had promised, delivering eternal life, removing guilt, adopting, empowering, and enriching the Children of the Covenant through Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabuw'ah in 33 CE, the seventh and most egregious rejection occurred. Jews either ignored what Dowd had done or they robbed him and themselves of his sacrifice, foisting two false messiahs on themselves and the gentiles. It was the biggest F You in the history of humanity – and it was directed at Yahowah by Yahuwdym.

1:16:28 Now even more hesitant to help His irascible nation of misfits, nearly 2,000 years would pass before He would even talk to them again – and even then, it would be indirectly through the Nakry | Observant Foreigner. He would serve as Dowd's Herald, as a final Witness, to tell Yahuwdym that there would only be one last opportunity for reconciliation – Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah.

1:17:01 While Yisra'el will be afforded an 8th opportunity to spit in God's face, that will be the last. That will be the end of time for all but the remnant of Yisra'el who listens to Yahowah and returns Home before it is too late.

1:17:27 Rejecting God eight times is eight too many. Saving them seven times is only appropriate because there were no better options.

1:17:41 That is tough. So, those are my thoughts on time as explained in the Towrah and Prophets.

1:17:53 When ___ to that it's pretty darn hard to be passive isn't it?

1:18:00 KIRK: I want to make a comment, if I may. The first part when you were talking about certain people attacking us, attacking you in particular ...

1:18:19 YADA: I'm in good company, they've attacked Yahowah for the past 4,000 years so if they weren't attacking me then I would obviously be doing a poor job.

1:18:26 KIRK: But some of this is so ridiculous because they won't read the Towrah. They like Moseh, apparently, but they don't read what he says, and Moseh wrote in Shemowth there was and always will be one Towrah for the native-born individuals.

1:18:54 YADA: What they have done is carry the one that Moseh scribed and spoke, dressed it up like a little whore and parade it around. Maimonides called his Mishnah the Towrah, so now when Jews speak of observing the Towrah and Towrah study they're talking about the Mishnah Torah that the Rambam wrote and the Babylonian Talmud / Torah that rabbis wrote in Babylon.

1:19:28 KIRK: But once again, there's only one Towrah that Yahowah quoted to Moseh.

1:19:33 YADA: If you read the history of the relationship between Yisra'el and Yahowah, Yisra'el and Moseh and Moseh and the Towrah, it's obvious that Yahowah was communicating through Moseh revealing His Towrah through him and that the children of Yisra'el didn't give a crap. They not only were ...a separate Towrah, but they were also making fools of themselves the entire time; it is the most miserable story of a people ever told. For any Jew to think that that story is something that you should be proud of you just haven't read it. You kicked your Savior out of your country. The man who risked it all to protect you from the Egyptian Taskmaster you abused. That's why you stayed there another 40 years. God knew, and so did Moseh, what you were all about. Then when God went back and saved His people from this genocide that was killing every newly born male child, working the people to death, they didn't last a week before they were rebelling and saying we don't want to do this anymore. You just brought us out here to die; we want to go back and be slaves. The Towrah is finally being revealed to give them guidance so that they can live forever as God's children and inherit the universe and they're down there making a damn Egyptian idol.

1:21:39 Read the story of the waters of Marybah; it's the worst thing I've ever heard in my life. Read the story about the alleged spies as a member from each tribe went into the Promised Land only to return saying we're not going there. You brought us here to die. And it didn't get any better. You got to the Promised Land, and it was the same old garbage. There are two tiny moments of the best of Dowd and the best of Hezekiah. Then there's nothing else but an irascible, hard-headed, dim-witted, self-aggrandizing people that rather than accept God's blessings chose to throw it all in His face.

1:22:51 KIRK: The other part of my comment was going to be about the Towrah. Where else can you find the Mitswah? There are five terms and conditions. There is no right way to Reconciliations without recognizing those things; it's all in the Towrah. So, stop attacking and either read the thing or walk away from us. It's that simple. And for God's sake, don't start trusting Americans. When you read stuff about what America is doing, and how we're under their thumb, we've got more oil than Saudi Arabia's got; we don't need anything. They have been feeding the last couple of weeks about American manufacturing. They can now make everything cheaper with a few AIs and a couple of people. The story of Black and Decker moving back to South Carolina blew me away. They can manufacture cheaper. We don't need China for anything, we don't need ...

1:23:53 YADA: I want to stop you there. One of the things that I never do on this program, Kirk, one of the things I just never do, and I haven't done it now in over 20 years, I don't explain what America could do or should do or what someone in the world could do or should do to right the sinking ship. It ain't gonna be righted. So, the fact that we have ceded our prosperity to our enemy is something that we will announce and discuss because it is relevant to our demise and our demise is relevant because it was foretold. But there is no energy wasted here on patriotism and make America great again; It never was and never will be. Our energy is explaining to you that times are bad, they're getting much worse, they're horrible because of human ignorance about Yahowah, particularly among His people, and among the religious. And because of that, this is where we're headed and it's all going to come to a head within 10 years and you don't have the 10 years to figure out whose side you want to be on because most everyone alive today will be dead by the time we reach that point. So, if you want to be part of God's Family, if you want to be a part of that Remnant that is going to be at the homecoming then you darn well better decide in a hurry because you're not going to get an eighth opportunity. Oh, you'll get the eighth opportunity to reject God, there just won't be an eighth opportunity for salvation on the Last Day at 6:22 p.m., sunset in Jerusalem October 2nd, 2033, year 6000 Yah.

1:26:13 DEE: You know our dear friend Kelly shared with me Yasha'yah 62:8 yesterday and that verse, Yisra'el, you should listen to. This man talking right now, it says, has made this new wine and has labored to produce it for you and you're going to reject it. But if you will consider it, drink it, and engage it Yahowah will protect you from your enemies. And this is happening right now. Yisra'el is the only country I'm interested in in helping figure out a sinking ship situation. That is a very good point.

1:26:57 YADA: Let's put this in perspective. I am no Moseh. Moseh is perhaps the greatest man who ever lived, but the Jews turned even on him. Dowd is the most brilliant, courageous, compassionate man in the world, the Savior of the world. I am no Dowd. Yisra'el turned on him, led an insurrection against him and then denied him all his sacrifice.

1:27:33 You could be listening to this and say he's not the most articulate guy in the world. There are people who convey messages in a more inspiring way. You may not like me, but the fact is I'm the best you're going to get and that is because of you. You have ignored God now for the better part of 3,000 years and so He finally said I'm going to speak through this guy. You have a chance to drink that new wine, to listen to that voice, to benefit from Dowd's Herald before it is too late. You may not like the individual; you may want to attack him with ad hominem arguments. It's not going to work out any better for you than attacking Moseh or attacking Dowd. This is what God chose. I didn't choose this; God chose it. You may not like His choice. It's God's choice. He has always chosen to work through someone. Except for Moseh they're always flawed, they're usually rascals, they're very passionate and always outspoken. But it's what He chose to do. He chose to do it that way because you gave him no other choice, Israel. When He spoke directly to you, you said, "We don't want to ever hear your voice again or see your brilliance again, it scares us." It scared you because those demons running around in your head preferred religion to a relationship, false gods to Yahowah, and you were embarrassed by them. So, God continues to expose them, and we continue to expose them.

1:29:42 But here we are now 22 years into what will be 32 years of exposing and condemning religion and politics and exposing, triumphing, speaking, acclaiming the great message of Yahowah, His marvelous name, the great sacrifice of His Son, the value of His Towrah guidance, and the insights that can be drawn from His prophets. We're here to tell you that the greatest gift ever given was offered by no one less than the King of Yisra'el, the Son of God, the Messiah Dowd. He is your Savior. He gave you eternal life. He took everything you have ever done in rebellion against God away and deposited it in She'owl never to be seen again. It gave you the opportunity to be adopted into the Covenant family to be enriched and to be empowered by God. It's so beautifully delineated in the text of the Towrah and Prophets. Accept it. Yahowah's name is so clearly expressed in the Towrah, and the Prophets. Proclaim it. God's disgust for religion, and for Judaism most of all, is so overwhelming. Reject it. Stop listening to the rabbis and start listening to Yahowah.

1:31:51 I would say to all who are listening if you don't like the way I articulate the word of God, if you don't like my translations and insights I'm providing, if you don't like this effort of helping you understand who Yahowah is, what He's offering, what He expects in return, and what His Son has provided, then study it for yourself. You don't have 22 years invested in this; you have ten years left - you had better hurry. If you're up for it read it. I'm going to tell you if you want to read it but you're religious, you'll waste your time and will never understand it. If you're overtly political or conspiratorial, you're wasting your time; just go away. The only way to approach God is with an open mind and after having rejected religion, politics, patriotism, and conspiracy, the first condition of the Covenant. That's why 'Abraham was chosen. I said that he wasn't the brightest or the best of men and he stumbled into God's arms. The reason that "Abraham stumbled into God's arms and was the man with whom the Covenant was founded is likely somewhat like how I stumbled into this position. There were no choices. He wasn't the best of men, nor the brightest. He was the only man.

1:33:47 So, there we have it. That is the story that I wanted to tell you this evening. Next week we'll be talking even more about Taruw'ah but suffice it to say that the entire experience of Yada Yahowah, every word of every book, every radio program, every Towrah study, every insight and conclusion that we have provided is a celebration of Taruw'ah.

1:34:19 Keep in mind that even though Yahowah has designated this role, this Voice, this Witness, this Herald, this Secondary Branch, this Observant Foreigner, He's not calling you to himself. He's not asking anything of you, and he won't take your money. There's no secret clubhouse or handshakes, no inside mantra, no confession of faith, no allegiance. You aren't following me anywhere. I don't even care if you "believe" me. This is all about making you aware of what Yahowah is offering and what He expects in return, of what his Son has done by fulfilling the Mow'ed Miqra'ey and what it means to you if you accept it. He spoke a lot about us, so we could speak a lot about Him.

1:35:45 We will continue to do what Dowd, the Son did on Shabat. There was never any work as comprehensive as what Dowd accomplished with his nepesh on a Shabat in the Yowbel year of 4000 Yah, the 80th Yowbel, when he took the entire burden of the guilt of his people and carried it into She'owl so that it would never be seen again, and it is by following his example that we bring you this program this evening.

1:36:34 We will return to the 89th Mizmowr and hopefully conclude it next week, a wonderful way to celebrate Taruw'ah.

1:36:46 Thank you for putting up with me as I shared these two insights that were delivered this week. They certainly resonated with me, and I know they did with you, Dee and Kirk, and with my wife, Leah.

1:37:10 Words somehow sometimes just fit together in the right way where the connections are undeniable, interesting, and relevant and I think that's what happened in this case.

Thank you one all. We look forward to being with you next week as we approach Taruw'ah this next coming Shabat. May we continue to irritate the religious Jews as well as those not throughout Yisra'el. We are not precluding Gowym. If you are a Gentile, as Kirk and I are, and you wish to be part of the Covenant family it is the same Covenant, the same Towrah, the same God, Yahowah. We have the same Savior in Dowd, and we are welcomed to be part of God's Family, so we welcome you as well.

1:38:19 But while that is true, the single most important day on God's calendar has been and continues to be Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, the 120th Yowbel, when He will return with His Son to restore the Earth to the conditions found in 'Eden and wipe out and eliminate all hostile influences so that we can live together forevermore as His children. That's what we are all about. Join us.

Good night one and all. Happy Shabat.
