

Shabat Study by Yada, November 17, 2023

God Damn Religion Chapter 5,

Would You Believe? Part 2, Page 187 - 202

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. I appreciate your understanding.
MK

0:00 Good evening and Happy Shabat to one and all. For my Jewish friends out there, who detest the fact that I would actually celebrate the Shabat by speaking about Yahowah and doing His work, I'm sorry for you, but you've probably already clicked off since you don't think it's appropriate to listen on the Shabat – that would be going way too far.

0:27 We will continue today with our ongoing series on Islam. We are doing this series because Yahowah asked me to do it. When I first met Yahowah on Taruw'ah in 2001, a week after 911, I didn't even know His name, and He asked me to expose and condemn Islam, which is a mission that very few people survive. So, it wasn't exactly like the world's greatest honor when God reached down to a totally unqualified guy and said I want you to do this for Me, and I jumped up and down and said hooray, hooray, lucky me. I was about as excited as I'm sure Moseh was when Yahowah asked him to return to Egypt where he was wanted for murder and would have been killed had Yahowah not have had his back. So, there are times when you just say okay You are God and who am I to turn You down? But are You sure You really want to do this?

1:53 I wrote Prophet of Doom, which became the best book worldwide on Islam. A couple weeks ago I shared a moment of pride, really, in that the number one country per capita of readership of Prophet of Doom over the years has been in Iran. Over this period Iran has gone from 99% of Iranians living in Iran identifying themselves as Muslims down to 40% now, 37% if you discount mystical Sufi Islam which is kind of like Scientology. Thirty-three percent is the right number that identifies as Sufi Muslims which is what the Ayatollahs are, and about five percent or so are Sunni Muslims. Fifty percent of Iranians now are identified as Secular as Humanists, Agnostics, Atheists, or No-Thank-You-I-Don't-Care-for-Religion. It's remarkable that that country has changed so. I can't tell you the percentage of those who made their decision based upon Prophet of Doom even though it was the top country in terms of readership per capita and how many made that decision because of the vileness of Ayatollahs; it was probably a combination of both. I investigated and put those findings in Volume One of God Damn Religion which is the rewrite of Prophet of Doom. Our most devoted editor took on the role of fact checker and said Wikipedia reports that 99% identify as Muslims, but the media is very influenced by Islam. You can look up almost anything related to Islam and Wikipedia is almost like a paid client. Leah found an extraordinary survey and the whole procedure of printing an article, 40,000 people and how they reach them, how they handled the demographics, what their questions were, what the outcome was and was able to show that truth matters and words can change people's lives. So, I was very pleased to find that.

5:02 I wrote Prophet of Doom a little over 20 years ago. I told you I was asked to do so by Yahowah. He happens to be the God of Abraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqob. He is the God of Yisra'el. He happens to be the only actual God. His name is pronounced YaHoWaH. It's exceedingly easy to figure out how to pronounce it. In fact, if you can say Towrah you can say YaHoWaH. It's comprised of four vowels. It's never been difficult to pronounce. Those who say that it should not be pronounced are religious buffoons that don't want people to know it and they don't want anyone to have a personal relationship with Yahowah. Yahowah's position on this is quite different. He is insistent that we know it, that we use it. If you do not know it, if you do not use it then He does not know you and you have a 0% chance of being part of His Covenant or spending eternity in His company.

6:01 So, when Yahowah asked me to do this I was very much wet behind the ears. I had just begun my relationship with Him. I had not yet begun to translate the Towrah, Prophets and Psalms, and now there are 30 odd books on the shelf since that time. When you write 30 books on what Yahowah had to say, I guarantee that you learn something along the way. And so now as I go back and consider what I wrote some 20 years ago, in some ways I'm impressed in the sense that I think Prophet of Doom, even in its original form, is the most effective, most comprehensive, most irrefutable text that's ever been written against the Islamic religion. It uses the Islamic Hadith, which is called Sunnah, to rearrange the Quran chronologically to set it into the context of Muhammad's life and to expose Muhammad and Allah for who they really are. I don't think there's ever been a text, in fact I would stand by that there has never been anything on parallel with it because it does not use the worst behavior of Muslims to condemn Muslims, it does not cite a series of scholars to condemn Islam, it condemns Islam using Muhammad's words and his pet rock, Allah's, words. And they are despicable. Muhammad is quite frankly the most reprehensible man who ever lived. Yes, there have been lots of rapists and he was a serial rapist. Yes, there have been lots of pedophiles and he had a serious problem with pedophilia. Yes, there have been lots of terrorists and Muhammad was a consummate terrorist. There have been many mass murderers and yes Muhammad was a mass murderer. There have been many psychopathic sadists in the world who took great pleasure in the torture of others - he certainly did. But he was hardly alone in that regard. The thing that made Muhammad the worst man who ever lived is he was all those things while convincing people that he spoke for God. That makes him the most reprehensible person who ever lived.

8:30 At first glance you would assume that Allah and Muhammad are one and the same. They have exactly the same psychotic demeanor, they're both equally sadistic, they're both exceedingly thin skinned, they're both nincompoops and they are absolutely stupid. They're both dependent on plagiarizing others. The Quran without plagiarism becomes like three pages. There's really nothing left of it. They twist that which they have plagiarized in ways that would only fool a fool. You have to be a complete and utter idiot to be a Muslim. I'm sorry, but that's the truth. So, the first impression would be these two are inseparable. But on further thought there are statements that are made in the Quran that an idiot terrorist in Arabia would never have made on his own reconnaissance. So, when you when you look at the insistence that Allah is not only God but that he alone is God, that he works with no one, he has no friends, no associates or partners, which of course, is hypocritical for Allah to say since he claims that Abraham, Moseh, Isa (the Christian Jesus), Adam, Noach, and on down the line were all his good buddies and prophets and all worked for him, even Alexander the Great worked for Allah, it's then kind of hard for him to claim that he had no associates, no partners and no friends. Nonetheless hypocrisy does not matter in Islam. Facts don't matter when it comes to faith either. When you contemplate the realization of Allah's insistence that he alone is God with all evidence to the contrary and while everything you read is a twisted deceit and you consider it from the perspective provided by my good friend, the man that I can't wait to spend a good part of Eternity with, Yasha'yah / Isaiah, in the 14th chapter he tells you all about this individual and how he will intermix truth and lies to confound and confuse / babel and that he will arise as a lord seeking to be worshiped as God; his name is Halal ben Shachar. Satan's actual name is Halal ben Shachar. So, the Allah of the Quran isn't just Muhammad's alter ego, although their personality, character, and intelligence level is indistinguishable, the fact of the matter is Allah is Satan, and it is obvious.

11:40 I'm not the first to come to that conclusion. About a hundred years ago, Sir Mills came to that conclusion and wrote a book on Muhammad, although from a different perspective. He was trying to advance Christianity; I am not, which is one of the things that makes this rewrite of now God Damn Religion so interesting. I do not do what everyone else has done as they've tried to expose Islam. They have either tried to compare it to Christianity or Judaism and have taken the position of someone who either is religious or someone who is an atheist to expose and condemn the religion. I am not an atheist, and I am certainly not a Christian or a practitioner of Judaism. So, it is an equal opportunity attack on religion, with Islam in this particular book being foremost. That is what we're up against.

12:55 I would not have returned to this book unless two things had occurred. I was translating a prophecy about God's rebuke of Gaza in Zephaniah before the sun rose on the Shabat of October 7th. My wife walked into my room in tears and said, "You're not going to believe what's happening. Gazans are flooding into Israel, and there's an announcement that there may be as many as 20 Israelis dead." Well, as we know, that number increased to what will probably be 1,500, maybe 1,600, before it is all done. It wasn't just the murders. It was gang rapes, sadistic mutilations of individuals, burning people alive, kidnappings, and all manner of heinous behavior. I would view it as the single worst display of human behavior in the last 1,000 years; it is the day that the world forever changed, and it will never go back because it wasn't just about the many Jews that were mutilated and sadistically ravaged by Muslims, it's about the millions of Muslims who have rioted and protested around the world advocating on behalf of Islam and terrorism.

14:40 In a recent poll published today of the Fakestinians, the people who masquerade as Palestinians, of them 83% think that what the Gazans did was appropriate, that it's okay to rape Jews, to kill little Jewish babies, to kidnap them, to torture them, to mutilate them, to commit acts of mass murder - 83%. That's why I say there is no such thing as an innocent civilian Gazan; they're all complicit. And the problem isn't Hamas, Hezbollah; the problem wasn't ISIS or Al-Qaeda. I've been saying this now for 22 years. The problem is Islam, and the biggest issue in the West is twofold. One is that Progressives have such an influence today in the media,

Academia, and our society politically. They have sided with, they are aiding and benefiting, coddling, and promoting Islam, the most hellacious, depressing, repressive, anti-feminine, anti-enlightenment dogma ever conceived by humankind. So, with the world having erupted against Israel and when you watch these moronic Muslims threatening people on America's college campuses and the United States capital, in public streets and squares kicking and harassing Jews, screaming literally out of their minds unreachable, salvageable savages you realize that the world is never going to be what it was. They have been unleashed, and the monster is out.

17:08 Today I was editing Volume Two of God Damn Religion, which will be four volumes when it's done, (probably be upwards of 2,000-plus pages). As I was writing it, I had to take a pause and say do you understand that based upon the world's reaction to what occurred in Israel on October 7th of this year, that Muhammad is in your streets, that he's outside your door? That he's a rapist, a pedophile, he's involved in human trafficking, the slave trade, a sadistic terrorist, a mass murderer, and he is outside your door. What are you going to do about it?

18:06 You know, once upon a time, when I first tackled Islam right after 911 in 2001, I told Americans there are three things you can do to thwart the advance of Islamic terrorism, and if you don't, it will ultimately destroy you. But that was a long way off, and America did every possible thing it could do wrong and made the situation vastly worse than it previously was. It lashed at the symptoms and manufactured more Islamic terrorists than it killed and took the innocent lives of millions of people in the process. It's a horrible response, and I begged America not to do it. We made bad situations worse in Afghanistan and Iraq. I'm not a Monday morning quarterback; I predicted this instantly right after 911. I was able to speak this way forthrightly, not only in my books but on the radio.

19:13 It's a very different situation now here, six weeks after the 10.7.23 invasion of Israel. First, the Muslims were at an entirely different level of sadism. Their desire to rape, mutilate, burn alive, and kidnap Jews was much more personal than flying planes into buildings on 911. On 911, while Muslims celebrated worldwide, there wasn't the frenzy to scream, "Death to Jews. From the river to the sea, Palestine will be free!" which means the State of Israel they want to remove from the face of the Earth, and they want to eradicate every Jew. This ___ being ___ across the world. That did not happen. You did not see Muslims in America or Europe on college campuses and then in the capitals marching by the tens and sometimes hundreds of thousands finding Jews and kicking them to death. It's open season now for Jews.

This is a profound change, and that monster is not going back into the box. I said immediately after this happened that Israel is in a series of no-win scenarios.

21:09 I understand Israel's desire to root out Hamas from Gaza, but it can't be done. Yes, I know they've had success, and they probably killed a few thousand Hamas militants. They've blown up lots of tunnels, and they have confiscated enormous amounts of weapons, but they can no more eliminate Hamas than the Man in the Moon. Even if you were to kill every Islamic Hamas militant, which isn't possible, the disease would just metastasize into a different cult. Al-Qaeda was killed, and Isis was born. You kill Hamas, and it'll be Islamic Jihad. It's just another name for the same manifestation. The problem is Islam, so you can't eradicate it. I understand that Israel wants to occupy Gaza. From a military point of view, they can't trust anybody, not the Egyptians, the United Nations, the Europeans, and certainly not the Americans because the shipments into Gaza of food, fuel, and all sorts of ___ filled with automatic weapons, anti-tank weapons, and explosives - filled with it. Israel can't allow that to happen again. But even in the West Bank, they just recently found the largest stash of weapons anywhere in Jenin, which means you can't put the PA in charge of Gaza. You'll have exactly what they're experiencing now on the West Bank, Judea, and Samaria. Israel can't stay. Israel can't leave. The longer Israel continues to fight this enemy that mutilated its people, the more the world hates them. But they can't stop; it has to be done, but they are galvanizing the world against them. Never has a country ever gone to the extent they have to try to protect civilians, even when those civilians aren't innocent and when 83% of them would prefer them dead. Yet when Hamas wouldn't allow the refugees to leave Northern Gaza and were shooting their own people, Israel was the one that opened up a corridor. Do you think anyone in the world thanked them? No. When the hospital ran out of fuel, it was Israel that provided fuel; when they needed hospitals in southern Gaza, Israel built them. Did anyone thank them? No. When food and supplies were allowed into Gaza for the very people who perpetrated this hellacious attack on Israel, and Israel said somebody needed to supervise this, the United Nations said no. Do you know why they said no? Because they didn't want to be seen supporting something Israel wanted, even when it meant that Israel was saving and protecting lives. That's how disgusting the United Nations has become. This is how far the world has fallen. All the while, in the United States, the Secretary of State and National Security Adviser have a fit over what Israel is doing. Oh, you can't create a fight in a hospital. There are innocent people there expecting doctors to care for them. You can't do that. What did Israel do? They went in and supported the doctors; they volunteered to transport anyone out of those hospitals in ambulances to take them into their own hospital. They even said we'll take the children in incubators, we'll provide you with incubators, and if you prefer, we'll take them into our own hospitals and care for them, and Israel takes the risk of being shot by the militants when they're trying to protect lives.

25:46 Now, I'm going to tell you that by the time they're done, Gaza will be nothing but a heap of ruins. Why? Because every part of it, kindergartens, hospitals, schools, United Nations facilities, every aspect of it was infested, and if Israel has the choice between blowing it up or risking the lives of its soldiers by subjecting them to booby traps, then for damn sure they're going to blow it up. You look at some of these explosions that are taking place now. The secondary and tertiary explosions are extraordinary, which means when they're blowing up the building, it's filled with weapons, explosives, and ammunition everywhere, under the bunks of children sitting there in grade school classes, everywhere. There's never been a people more prone to establishing a terrorist military and militant presence under the skirts of their women and next to their youngest children as these people. Yet, the world is rallying to their side and against Israel.

27:19 Israel's in a no-win position; there's nothing that Israel can do to prevail, especially in Judea and Samaria, because at this point, what you experienced on 10.7 of this year, something that I predicted on this radio program and in my books a year before it occurred, right to the smallest detail as to how it would happen, I'm also here to tell you that what you experienced, as brutal and as savage as it was, on October 7th of this year it is 1% of what's going to happen sometime over the next few years. The next attack will be 100 times fiercer, with 100 times more missiles, rockets, and drones. There will be 100 times the number of jihadis that will infiltrate Israel's cities before the IDF has time to respond (not that that's a hard thing to do, as we learned). Because of the number of rockets, they will grossly outpace the ability of the Iron Dome, and Israel's major cities will be in ruins. At the same time, the smaller towns are surrounded by Muslims who will be in a position to put Israel in a place where she can only surrender and sue for peace, and the imposition will be the Two-State Solution, which is the Final Solution for Israel. There's no overcoming that. When that's done, it's over. Israel will be way too vulnerable even if she survives long enough to endure the imposition of the Two-State Solution. That's what's going to happen. It is inevitable. The IDF cannot stop it. Your politicians cannot stop it. All the while, Israel is a nation divided, unable to establish a constitution with an equal number of Progressives that are entirely lost, thoughtless, completely misled, shrill but without substance on one side and Ultra-Orthodox Haredim on the other side, equally lost, equally useless. Two groups of what are essentially parasites tearing Israel apart, and the core in between is not very strong because it is way too religious and crazy. That doesn't mean there aren't some wonderful people in Israel; there are. My favorite people in the world are Israelis, but man, there's 20 to 25% on the extremes: Secular, progressive, and ultra-Orthodox religious. They're parasites; they're counter-perceptive. It leaves maybe 50% of Israel that is salvageable, and of those, there are so many that are lost. So, it's a difficult agenda.

31:20 I said there were two reasons that we'd returned to what was Prophet of Doom and is now God Damn Religion. One was what happened on 10.7 in Israel. Someone needed to explain that the root cause of the problem is Islam, not Hamas, not Iran, or Hezbollah; it's Islam, not a radical version of Islam - just Islam full stop. That's why I'm rewriting Prophet of Doom. The other reason is that I was reluctant to do it because I hadn't returned to that book in over 20 years. The enjoyable thing to me is to translate Yahowah's Prophets out of the oldest manuscripts and then share the insights that I have derived from them, and that's what I intended to do. So, I asked Yahowah for a reprieve and said that's the last thing I want to do. Let's add Yada Yahowah; let's not go back there. He had none of it and said, "I've taken care of you; now you take care of My People. This needs to be done." Now, I'm delighted that that was His approach. I was wrong. He was right. That's not surprising.

32:56 The reason I'm so delighted is that I made a lot of mistakes in Prophet of Doom. There were not mistakes regarding Islam although there were lots of omissions regarding Islam, there's so much more to say that I just didn't say. I made many mistakes because at that time I was unaware that the Christian New Testament was a complete fraud. I was unaware that Yahowah would never use term "Bible," which is based upon babel, with Ba'al / the Lord as part of that confounding confusion. So, it was essential to remove that junk to recommend the book so that Yisra'el might understand what was happening to them, who they were fighting and how they could best defend themselves. So, I'm delighted from that point of view that I've had this opportunity to clean that up and get it right.

34:04 So, with that said, we're going back to where we were this time last week. I think I had just shared from Volume One, page 188 of Tabari. Tabari is one of four Hadith collections that comprise God Damn Religion. They are Ishaq's Surah, which was the first book written about Muhammad and his foundation of Islam, the only one written within 200 years of Muhammad's life. Ishaq called it the biography of Muhammad by Hadith collections compiled by Ishaq. Tabari wrote a history called the (Tarikh)? He came about 150 years later and used a lot of Ishaq's Hadith collections in a chronological process to be able to present Islam from its creation accounts all the way through its conquests. I include all the way through Muhammad's death in my review of the Quran and in things that I quote from Tabari. There're also the two Hadith collections that are arranged by content, if you will, and that is by Bukhari and Muslim and to that, of course, I cite probably 80% of the Quran in God Damn Religion, far more of it now than I did previously. So, this was from Tabari Volume 1:188. It reads:

35:46 Tabari I:188 “He said, ‘Allah created the Earth on Sunday and Monday. He created the mountains and the uses they possess on Tuesday.

36:00 Here, of course, he forgot to create the stars, the rest of the universe, light, or anything of that nature. I don't know what he's talking about in terms of “Sunday and Monday.” There were no days of the week during the creative process.

36:17 On Wednesday, He created trees, that's very nice of him to do so, but trees were not the first form of life. Then, rather than making water available so that life could emerge from it, water follows trees. And the next thing on the list is before creating man he created cities. We are not dealing with a very smart prophet or god. Then he cultivated and barren land recognizing that there was no one to cultivate it at this point on Wednesday.

36:52 On Thursday, He created heaven. Not that he came from the heavens or that they existed first, no, indeed, he created the Earth, trees, water, cities, then cultivated and barren land before he created the heavens. I think part of that is because Allah has been excluded from Heaven and doesn't think much of it because Allah is Satan, and he has been cast down to Earth.

37:19 On Friday, of course, that's the big day in the Islamic world, He created stars, not recognizing that the Earth is created out of the explosive residue of first-generation stars. He created the sun, not recognizing, of course, that the sun is a star. He created the moon, not recognizing that the Earth and the moon were essentially created simultaneously. And then he created angels, so he was working without a spiritual past up to that point and they used the term “angels” from the Greek angélous, until three hours remained.

38:04 The last three hours were very busy. In the first of these three hours, He created the terms, who would live and who would die before he created the people who would be subjected to his fatalistic terms. In the second hour of the three final hours of Friday, He cast harm upon everything that is useful for mankind. No problem. Let's just go ahead and stack the deck to make certain everything is miserable. But, of course, that is what Satan needs. Satan needs to stack the deck against humankind so that there is no one awaiting Dowd's and Yahowah's return on Yowm Kipurym at 6:22 p.m. at sunset on October 2nd in year 6000 Yah, year 2033 in Jerusalem. If there are no Jews waiting for Yahowah and Dowd to return, then Yahowah will have had a false promise and His entire purpose in creating the universe will have been nullified, and under that basis Satan will figure he wins and will get to stay on the Earth because there's no reason for God to return.

39:16 I write these books and we do this show to assure that there will be a goodly number of right-minded, open-minded, receptive Yahuwdym and Yisra'elites there on October 2nd of 2033 ready to greet Yahowah and His beloved Son, their Messiah, Dowd. It is Dowd whose voice we herald on behalf of Yahowah.

39:52 In the second, He cast harm upon everything that is useful for mankind. And in the third, Adam, and had him dwell in Paradise.” Now, he's gone to all this trouble to create the Earth and the mountains and all that they possess and then they cultivated baren lands and the cities, trees, water, the sun, moon, the angels, even the heavens, and he puts Adam in Paradise which he had yet to create.

40:22 It was interesting, of course how, readily Muhammad was willing to speak for Allah. It's as if speaking for his un-god was a regular part of his routine, almost as if he knew everything Allah knew. Yet, judging by his answer, Muhammad may have done better if he had solicited advice.

40:42 In Muhammad's version of his creation account, the Earth existed long before the stars, sun, or moon – which is impossible. Creating mountains and their uses somehow took precedence over plant life, although it mattered more than animals since they were not even listed. Cities, of course, were conceived by the Islamic god, and land was cultivated, but not by humans. God in Islam is a micromanager and is responsible for everything. So, who was occupying those cities and benefiting from them? The answer is, of course, no one because Allah wants you to know that every generation and city before, he took a personal glee in destroying. It's one of the most common themes in the Quran. How many generations before have we destroyed? We cooked them while they were sleeping. How many cities have we destroyed?

The answer, of course, is none. Allah is not capable of doing anything; he is completely impotent. Allah's only success is in beguiling his slaves, Muslims, (who he calls slaves) into killing for him.

41:58 Then, while not having created animal life, Allah became preoccupied determining who would live and die. Death becomes him.

42:05 Then, unmasking his true identity, the Snake cast harm on everything beneficial to man, even before having created him. It's called "rigging the game."

42:16 Adam, a name pilfered from Yahowah, has no connection with any of these things – not the mountains, trees, or cities because he is placed in Paradise (which had not yet been created by the way). And when Paradise was finally created by Allah, it was a brothel filled with virginal boys and virginal girls (little children) who were passed around for the entertainment of jihadists.

42:47 Transitioning from non-prophet to un-God, Allah's testimony regarding creation, and even re-creation, is considerably more indicting. This assessment begins by recognizing that the signs of the Zodiac are a product of Babylonian Astrology, the very thing that Yahowah is insistent that His People disown and walk away from before they can engage in a relationship with Him. They represent a dozen pagan gods and goddesses, which is a little tough for the Quran to explain since Allah claims to work alone. So, the now un-monotheistic Allah of Islam emblazons an enormous Transitioning blunder in his Quran in a surah inappropriately entitled: Signs of the Zodiac – The Mansions of the Constellations. It begins...

44:00 Quran 085.001 "I swear by the mansions of the stars and the Zodiacal Signs. Yes, indeed. Zodiac 100% Babylonian astrology. It is pure paganism. It is as wrong as it would be possible for someone pretending to be a monotheistic God could possibly say. Now as for Mansions of the stars, who are we to quibble. I have never been to a star to see whether or not they have a mansion. Just because the Hubble Space Telescope has never taken a picture of the mansions doesn't mean that they might not exist. Who knows? Maybe they're made of asbestos and they're really giant. It could be clear asbestos so you could still see the stars through them.

45:45 Quran 085.002 And the Promised Day (of Judgment, Resurrection, and Doom). Is what he wants to talk about from the zodiacal signs and the Mansions of the Stars. "The Promised Day which is the Day (of Judgment, Resurrection, and Doom)" is something that Allah cares deeply about because his day of Judgment, Resurrection and Doom is the aforementioned October 2nd, 6:22 p.m. in Jerusalem Yowm Kipurym, the Day of Reconciliations, 2033. It's his last day. If he prevails, if we fail, then there are no Yahuwdym awaiting Yahowah's return. And if there are, and there will be, then it is Satan's Day of Doom.

45:45 It is the day that he also calls the "Day of Resurrection" as if Resurrection were a possibility. Resurrection is from Pagan religions. Pagan gods were killed every year always around the time of the Winter Solstice during the shortest days of the year when trees lost their leaves and things looked really barren. That's when the pagan gods like Dionysus, Bacchus, Tamuz and Cyrus all died and were always resurrected in the vernal equinox when the days become longer, when the flowers and the blossoms on the trees began to arise. It was a way for the pagans to explain why the land blossomed again was because their God was reborn. He was resurrected.

46:49 Resurrection is why the Egyptians took so much time to build those gigantic pyramids and then mummified the Pharaohs and then surrounded them with enormous wealth and all the equipment including even ships that they would need in the afterlife because they would be bodily resurrected. Pure paganism. Of course, it's impossible.

47:15 Once you die and you are buried your body is worm rot and is a feast for all manner of insects, worms, beetles and the like that will devour it, and what they devour is then devoured by other forms of life like birds and other small mammals. Then they are devoured and so goes the cycle. There is nothing to resurrect; it would be counterproductive. The universe is useless if you have a physical body - useless, of course, unless there's a brothel in Heaven and you get to expose yourself to the perpetual passing around of virginal boys and virginal girls. But since that's not going to happen, I can tell you that a body limits everything.

48:06 With a physical body you can't even get from one planet to another much less across a solar system, across a Galaxy, or around the universe; it's all for naught. With a physical body you cannot be eternal. You need to be transformed into a spiritual being and from three dimensions to seven if you're going to enjoy this universe the way it was intended. Resurrection is the dumbest idea ever conceived. Back in the time of pagans they figured if you're going to have a Heaven and a Hell the only way to do it is to have a physical body and to torment that body or to apply all manner of decadence. So, that's the best that Allah could come up with and therefore it's the Day of Resurrection, the Day of Doom, and when he speaks of that Day of Doom it is his desire to torture and torment the vast majority of people.

49:12 Quran 085.003 And by the witnessing day (i.e., Friday), and by the witnessed day bearing witness (i.e., the Hajj and 9th of Dhul-Hijjah). While the translators said i.e., Friday and i.e., the Hajj, the fact of the matter is the Quran is filled with these things where you're just looking and say that doesn't make any sense. Gerard R. Puin, one of the greatest scholars addressing ancient text like this says it's one out of five statements in the Quran that makes sense in no language. “And by the witnessing day and the witness day bearing witness” is a senseless statement.

50:06 Quran 085.004 Cursed are the men of the trench, ditch, and pit. You don't really know if he's talking about the trench, the ditch or the pit - they're very different in Islam as we shall see in a moment. You have no idea which one of those he's talking about, why men are cursed, and why they in are the trench, the ditch or the pit.

50:26 Quran 085.005 Full of fire fed by faggots [sic]. Yes, I read that correctly. On his great celebration of the Day of Doom is not the reconciliation of God with His people; no, it's a fire fed by faggots. Now, for those of you who said you can't say faggot on the air, the original meaning of faggot is that it is a stick that has been whittled down to the size, or is already the size, where it will catch fire quickly. It's used to kindle a fire; small sticks that are used to kindle a fire are called faggots. So, people are now faggots feeding this fire because it's the people, the men, who are the faggots; it's not a sexual comment. I think those who have listened to this program know that I've got no issue whatsoever with homosexuality. You can be homosexual all day long. Some of my best friends are homosexual. I do not care. I wish you all the best.

51:51 Quran 085.006 When they sat by it. So now you have the people on the Day of Doom, who are faggots, sitting by the fire.

52:04 Quran 085.007 And they witnessed what they were doing to the believers (i.e., burning them). You've got the men who are faggots sitting by the fire watching what they had previously done to believers, i.e., Muslims.

52:24 Quran 085.008 They had nothing against them, except that they believed in Allah, the All-Mighty, Owner of all Praise! Those who allegedly are going to be the faggots of the fire because they decided to attack Muslims for no reason other than they thought that Allah was the deserver of all praise. Not because they burned little children alive, not because they kidnapped Jews, not because they are the primary purveyors of the slave trade worldwide and have been for 1400 years, they are the reason that Africans were transported to the new world. It wasn't the English or the Dutch; it was Muslims who rounded them up, who enslaved those people and who sold them as slaves. It's something that Blacks, as they riot on behalf of Hamas and the Fakestinians, ought to know. It has nothing to do with the first hundred years of Islam of them wiping out a third of the world's population, robbing and raping their way from India to Morocco, nothing to do with the fact that Muslims have been terrorists raping their wives and daughters, enslaving their children, murdering the men. Nope. It's just because they believe in Allah, "the Owner of all Praise." Have you ever read any place in the Towrah where Yahowah says I am the owner of all praise? No! Real Gods don't have to say stuff like that.

54:25 And by the way, God would never say it not only because He knows who He is and He's not insecure, but because it's His job as a father to praise those who have come to know Him and have elected to work with Him. Yahowah praises, for example, Noach. He said, "Noach listened to Me, he did as I asked, this is a good man." Yahowah praised Moseh and said, "He's the greatest of all prophets. Look at what he did. This guy's extraordinary." Yahowah praised Dowd. When Shamuw'el was all bent out of shape that the people chose to reject him and to have a government like the Gentiles God said, "You're doing a great job. It's not your fault; it's Mine. They're not rejecting you; they're rejecting Me. Feel good about it." He did the same thing for Yasha'yah. When Yasha'yah went to Heaven God threw open the door and there was no one there and Yasha'yah said, "I'm a total failure. I'm going to get fired. Woe is me." Yahowah said, "No. You misread this whole thing. I'm going to take care of you. The words that you're revealing now are going to resonate with My people, just not now. Here. Let Me show you what's going to happen." That's how Yasha'yah and I became such great buds. Yahowah praises people. He says many wonderful things about what we're doing together because He chooses to work with people, and like a father, He is really proud when His kids do good. It's just the opposite of Allah who is interested in slaves.

56:26 Quran 085.009 Who, to Whom, belongs sovereignty of the heavens and the earth. Allah is Witness of all things. Again, this is Satan trying to assert the notion that he's not the Adversary but that he's God and the heavens and Earth belong to him. No, they don't. This is what Yahowah says about sovereignty: I'm giving it to Dowd; he's My Son. That's exactly right! And Yahowah is absolutely not the witness of all things, just sometimes. The moment God would be a witness to all things, the whole purpose of our existence goes away. It is essential that He does not know all the junk in our lives. He's blinded to it because of what He and Dowd facilitated on the Miqra' of Matsah where all our guilt was taken from us and dropped off in She'owl by Dowd's soul. He doesn't see any of that and chooses not to witness what 99.999% of people do, which is just a waste of their lives. He's not going to be irritated by that. He chooses not to know, He could if He wanted to, what we're going to do tomorrow unless what we do tomorrow is so important that He needs to tell His people in the past of what we're going to do tomorrow so that they're ready for it and receptive to it, otherwise, He wants to enjoy the moment. It's like if the entire script of the rest of your kid's life was given to you to play in a movie, what's the point?

58:39 Allah is constantly bragging that he's the end all and be all and the more he says the more obvious it becomes I don't know what the hell he's talking about.

59:02 Quran 085.010 Lo! Verily. Lo! Verily is Allah's favorite. They who try the believers, men and women, and repent not, theirs verily will be the doom of Hell, and their the doom of burning in the Fire! Now I don't know if there is there or there is their. I think it's supposed to be there as in the place is the Doom of burning in the Fire.

59:32 And by the way the translations that I'm reading here are combined. I have found that the five most popular translations differ so radically because the Quran communicates so deficiently. So, they're constantly scrambling to say well who's talking to whom about what, when, why, where? And words are just left out that are needed to make sense of this, and so depending on which one you're reading, they've got words included that the others don't have and none of it reads sensibly. I'm not sure Allah was any more literate than Muhammad.

1:00:23 So, Quran 085.010 Lo! Verily. They who try the believers, (I don't know what they're trying. I don't know what the believers are trying, these men are trying. Nonetheless) They who try the believers, men and women, and repent not, theirs verily will be the doom of Hell, and their the doom of burning in the Fire! So, if you challenge a Muslim, according to the god of Islam, you're going to burn in the fire.

1:00:49 According to Yahowah, you've got do a lot to enter Hell, and there are no fires in Hell. Hell is a place of separation away from God's light. It is darkness. It is a place where time exists eternally and all other dimensions are constrained to the point that light itself can't escape. It is a place only for souls and for Spirits. There are no physical bodies. There can be no fires, no bodies to torture, no burning, none of that's going to happen - it's just eternal separation from God. And if you choose to reject and ignore Yahowah, be mistaken about Yahowah, be religious, or whatever you choose to do, you don't go to hell; your soul just ceases to exist upon the end of your life. The vast majority of souls will simply dissipate into nothing. There's no reward, there's no punishment. Those who accept the terms and conditions of the Covenant spend eternity in Shamaym. Those who deliberately either misled God's people or they tormented God's people, well there's a special prize for you. You get to spend eternity in She'owl. But I can assure you that Yahowah is not there, and you will not be tortured. You will just be separated from Him, unable to escape for all eternity. That will be anguishing, but the real anguishing will be knowing what you gave up and there's nothing you can do about it now.

1:02:38 Quran 085.011 Lo!, Verily, those who believe and do good deeds, (good deeds would be fighting in Allah's cause furthermore accepting the fact that Allah alone is god and that he has no partners, no friends or associates) for them shall be Gardens beneath which rivers flow, that is the greatest success. Why the rivers flow beneath the gardens rather than through the gardens I don't know. Where these gardens are I do not know. The god of Islam does not say. Why he wouldn't take those that he prefers to Heaven we do not know. They go either to gardens or into Paradise as physical bodies.

1:03:22 Quran 085.012 Lo! The punishing grip of your Lord is severe. Not the hand reached out to lift people up. Nope. It's the punishing grip, and not of God here, but the Lord. The Lord is Satan. The idea of owning, possessing, controlling is why Yahowah refers to Satan as Ba'al / the Lord.

1:03:55 Quran 085.013 Lo! It is He who initiates then repeats, creates and then reproduces." So, Allah is a revisionist God. He must revise. It's kind of like refried beans; they can't ever get them right the first time. My guess is Allah has never been compared to refried beans before, but such is my prerogative. If you don't have any idea here, you can get the feeling that I have no respect for Allah. I recognize who Allah is - he's Satan. I realize he has absolutely no influence on anybody at any time for any reason, that he can possess somebody that doesn't know Yahowah that is receptive to it, and he can inspire them to say stupid stuff, like Muhammad and Paul, but that he himself has no ability to do anything. And I have no question, issue or concern whatsoever mocking him. He needs to be mocked.

1:05:14 I feel like I need to apologize since Allah's claim to creation and to re-creation didn't appear until the 13th verse and this was a passage we addressed because we are in the Creation Chapter of God Damn Religion, so the re-creation verse didn't appear until the 13th. Nonetheless, I walked you through everything prior to it. The reason I did that is that it is this process of how you get from one place to another and this repetitive rant about I hate everybody so I'm going to burn their britches that dominates the Quran, and the more we hear it the more we recognize who Allah really is. So, I walked you through this topsy-turvy recess of Allah's tormented mind to take you there. So let me explain the process.

1:06:15 We can embarrass and mock Allah and Muhammad by quoting them on most any subject. And while doing so has merit and is entertaining, it is only by presenting their madness in their own words, as a stream of consciousness, that their demented and demonic nature is fully manifest. Therefore, I'd like the opportunity to unveil this narrative statement by statement.

1:06:50 Quran 085.001 "I swear by the mansions of the stars and the Zodiacal Signs was the first verse, as you recall.

1:06:56 Again, a real God does make promises to people and then He honors them. That's the process that Yahowah takes. I make the promise; I honor what I say. He does not swear by inanimate objects. And there is no point in taking an oath when it is not explained – which is not only the case here but throughout the Quran.

1:07:26 Stars (just in case you didn't know; I want to make this really simple for folks) are not alive, and they do not have palaces. Therefore, Allah's opening statement begins errantly, which is unbecoming for a god. To err is human but not so much for God. But then, the bottom falls out of Allah's credibility wagon with the reference to the Signs of the Zodiac. In a thinking realm apart from religion, this would have been a fatal blow – annihilating Allah.

1:07:55 The Signs of the Zodiac were essential to the Babylonian religion of Astrology, and today they even believe it. The movement of these Constellations were said to control and predict human events. They were comprised of twelve gods and goddesses – an incongruent concept for a religion that claims that there is only one of them. In the order of their position on the pagan calendar, they are: Aquarius, Pisces, Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, and Capricorn.

1:08:51 Therefore, in a single statement there are six catastrophic mistakes in the allegedly perfect Quran. God's ought not swear. Their promises should be to people, or at least to the object of the revelation. The oath must be shared to be of any merit. Stars do not have mansions. Inanimate objects cannot be witnesses. And by calling the Zodiac signs, Allah becomes one of many pagan deities.

1:09:28 Quran 085.002 And the Promised Day (of Judgment, Resurrection, and Doom).

1:09:36 Allah didn't say which day, he just said the "Promised Day." That was filled in by the translators because they didn't know Allah. Allah has a terrible habit of not explaining himself. For example, the "Promised Day" was not identified, which is why the translators added in the parenthetical, the three options I gave you (of Judgment, Resurrection, and Doom) which are used intermittently throughout the Quran. As is the case here, random thoughts are haphazardly juxtaposed, and often without identifying the subject or object of the conversation – or should I say, accusation. What is the transition between the stars having mansions and being part of the Zodiac and the Promised Day? None.

1:10:16 When we speak, we have to use transitions. My wife will get excited about something and start talking about it and I will say, "What are you talking about? What's the context here? Give me a clue as to where we are in this conversation." Of course, in her mind she's already well into it and I should be able to just pick up where she was. This is what Allah does all the time. There's never an intelligent transition for anything. It's like just throw up words into the sky and they become a word salad all tumbled together filled with toxic thoughts.

1:11:08 In this case, there is no correlation between the oddities in the first statement and the second, nor third, nor fourth. What is the Promised Day? When is it, what is it called, why does it exist, and what is supposed to happen on it – none of which are addressed here. I know what it is. That's because I know Satan and I know Satan because I know Yahowah. There is no explanation as to how or why it is related to Allah, in this case swearing by the stars having mansions, or of the Zodiac serving as Signs – other than, it is a sign of an irrational and disordered mind.

1:11:47 Quran 085.003 And by the witnessing day (i.e., Friday), and by the witnessed day bearing witness (i.e., the Hajj and 9th of Dhul-Hijjah).

1:12:03 What is it witnessing? What day are we talking about and what does it have to do with any of this? Why is another inanimate object providing a witness for a supposed god? Which day is speaking to us? Did the day see or hear something and now wants to talk about? Is Allah that out of touch with reality or is he simply so desperate for validation that he has to rely on inanimate objects?

1:12:46 Clearly, the Islamic scholars are aware of this problem, because otherwise, why would they feel the compunction to add their words to a supposedly perfect book comprised billions of years ago by the Pen of their god?

1:12:58 For those who don't know, according to Allah, before the universe was created, before the Earth was created, before there was any matter, there was the Pen. While there wasn't a book, the Pen nonetheless was told to write. The Pen didn't know what to write even though we have a total fatalistic situation here where the Pen should have known everything since there's total fatalism and since the Pen was told to write everything that would ever happen, however, did not know what to write. Anyway, the Pen writes and it creates this book that doesn't exist and then that book is handed down to Muhammad who was illiterate. During Muhammad's life there was never a book and yet Allah is constantly saying my book is perfect and yet he never produced a book. In fact, there wouldn't be a book for 100 years after Muhammad's death. Nonetheless this book was allegedly written before the universe was created and it is rife with mistakes.

1:14:10 I'm doing my best to measure up to 'Elyah. He is my hero when it comes to this sort of thing. If you're bothered at all by my sarcastic tone, tough. It's what God prefers. I work for Him; He's happy with this approach. He's bringing 'Elyah back who was such a minor prophet he doesn't even have a book named after him because he didn't write anything down. He's bringing 'Elyah back because 'Elyah was the greatest orator in the history of orators, from God's perspective, because he was exceedingly anti-religious, anti-political and unbelievably sarcastic; the man had game. He could talk the talk and walk the walk. This is 'Elyah's approach. If you don't like it take it up with God. Good luck with that.

1:15:08 Quran 085.004 Cursed are the men of the trench, ditch, and pit.

1:15:15 Moving from the celestial castles to Zodiacal Signs, from Promised Day to days serving as witnesses, Allah dives right into cursing humankind. But what is the connection? Why go there – and where is there by the way? Within the Quran and Hadith, there are multiple references to trenches, ditches, and pits – and they are all incriminating. There was the ditch associated with Muhammad's decision to rob the caravan of his own people at Badr. Muhammad entered it to gloat over the first people that Muslims had killed, civilians they murdered for no other reason than Muhammad thought it would be fun. Then there was the trench that the Muhammad's terrorists dug to keep his kin from seeking revenge after all the times the non-prophet had plundered his own people. There was also the ditch dug in Yathrib where Muhammad buried the many hundreds of Jewish men and boys that the first Muslims had decapitated in the sport of killing. And, of course, there is the pit of hell where Islamic fires rage and the men who disbelieved are serving as faggots.

1:16:46 The clues which follow are not particularly helpful, which is why only one of the five publishing companies filled with Islamic scholars augmenting Allah's dark diatribe even offered a guess – and in his version the guess was the Pit is underscored by “(the story of the Boy and the King).” Sure enough.

1:17:08 Quran 085.005 Full of fire fed by faggots [sic].

1:17:16 Quran 085.006 When they sat by it.

1:17:16 Quran 085.007 And they witnessed what they were doing to the believers (i.e., burning them).

1:17:27 Why are we are told that these men became the faggots to feed to the fire, which by the way is rude? That's not nice, and yet, they sat by it, which is an odd response for someone who is ablaze. Nonetheless, this produced the fifth set of witnesses after the stars, Zodiacal Signs, Promised Day, and daily witnesses witnessing. But, even then, what did they see, hear, and then testify about? The Quranic answer appears incredulous, suggesting that the flaming faggots who were sitting around were witnessing who witnessed what they were doing to the believers. But how is this possible in that they were the ones being roasted? How can they be doing the burning if they were the ones being burned? Since it was not self-immolation, it was being done to them, not by them. So, are we to believe that Allah is telling Muslims that unbelievers are going to do to them what they have done to others? If so, wouldn't that be divine justice?

1:18:45 While it is hard to explain, since Allah insists that this was being done to the "believers," we are out of options when trying to explain why, even by whom, where, or when this occurred should it be more than a figment of Muhammad's sadistic imagination.

1:19:03 Quran 085.008 They had nothing against them, except that they believed in Allah, the All-Mighty, Owner of all Praise!

1:19:17 Should this be an undisclosed tale of unbelievers roasting Muslims, then, having read the entire story, I can assure you that they had cause. Muhammad and the first Muslims conducted 75 terrorist raids. They made their living through mass murder and plunder. They were professional rapists. These things tend to annoy folks. You want to see the response to the rape of little children? Look at the pictures coming out of Gaza.

1:19:58 Quran 085.009 Who, to Whom, belongs sovereignty of the heavens and the earth. Allah is Witness of all things.

1:20:04 In a rational world, Allah inherits nothing but shame. His Quranic rantings unleashed a horrible plague on humankind. But beyond this, why should Allah be praised since he was unable or unwilling to keep his believers from becoming charcoal briquets? How can Allah have sovereignty over the Earth if he cannot protect a handful of people in a ditch?

1:20:39 Quran 085.010 Lo! Verily, they who try the believers, men and women, and repent not, theirs verily will be the doom of Hell, and theirs is the doom of burning in the Fire!

1:20:52 Rather than offer a helping hand, all Allah can muster is to threaten burning the arsonists. Attaboy Allah, you tell ‘em whose boss of the sandbox. Fire for fire. But not now, since you are impotent, maybe later, much later when no one’s looking.

1:21:23 This then brings us to the supposed re-creation account. The Garden wasn’t for Adam, but instead for believers doing good deeds – none of which have been explained. And in AllahWorld, the rivers do not flow out of the Garden, but, instead, beneath it. And that is a sign of great success.

1:21:45 Allah’s creative endeavors were then interrupted to frighten his slaves:

1:21:52n Quran 085.010 “Lo! The punishing grip of your Lord is severe.” What this has to do with the Garden floating above the rivers is anyone’s guess.

1:22:04 Alas, this journey though the demented realm of the Devil’s brain produced a nugget worth savoring...

1:22:10 Quran 085.013 Lo! It is He who initiates then repeats, creates and then reproduces.” To which Allah’s little helpers at the Noble Quran added: “who initiates and repeats (punishment) and then reproduces (punishment in the hereafter) or reproduces (the original creation of everything only to repeat it on the Day of Resurrection).” I think Allah’s little helpers added twice as many words as Allah actually dictated.

1:22:44 Therefore, we are left with three options: 1) Allah loves punishment so much that he’s never done; there is always the occasion for more. Or 2) Allah cannot get anything right the first time, so it’s back to the drawing board, refried beans and all. And 3) Allah is the god of revisionism and replacement, taking what Yahowah and His coworkers have done and then recasting it to suit his agenda.

1:23:21 Since the rest of the surah is slightly less lame, but is nonetheless worth ridiculing, let’s continue. The first of the rest reveals that the un-god who begins (punishment) and repeats (punishment in the Hereafter) is schizophrenic...

1:23:43 Quran 085.014 “And He is the Forgiving, the Loving, - I’ve always wanted to know a loving punisher, haven’t you? Who could think of somebody more forgiving than one who is roasting people over a fire?

1:24:10 Quran 085.015 Owner and Lord of the Throne of Glory,

1:24:10 Quran 085.016 Who does as He pleases.

1:24:18 Quran 085.017 Has the story of the hordes reached you,

1:24:18 Quran 085.018 Of Fir’aun and Thamud?

1:24:27 Quran 085.019 Nay, the infidels in denying.

1:24:27 Quran 085.020 And Allah encompasses them from behind!

1:24:27 Quran 085.021 Nay, This is indeed a glorious Quran.

1:24:37 Quran 085.022 (Preserved or Incribed) on a guarded tablet.”

1:24:37. Let's see if we have this right. The god who never misses an opportunity to torture those who do not believe him and capitulate to him, and the sadistic spirit who repetitively burns people alive, is “forgiving and loving.” As proof, he owns his own throne, and he wants you to know that it is glorious even if he is pathetic.

1:25:11 It is for Muslims to know that he can be as capricious as he'd like. He can do whatever he wants because he is not bound by his word. His promises are a waste of the Pen's ink because he does what he pleases. And that means torture pleases him.

1:25:42 Said un-god has not yet mastered the art of transition, and while his grasp is severe, it isn't on reality. There were no Fir'auns nor Thamuds. And what do said imaginary hordes have to do with Allah's chair in the clouds?

1:26:10 Sneaky gods are no better than inarticulate ones, so I suggest disposing of this one. And once again, what is the connection between Allah being on the denying infidels like fleas on a camel and this collection of incongruous stories being glorious? Finally, how can the Tablet, which was previously a Book, be guarded and disclosed at the same time and yet not actually exist?

1:26:50 While that's the end of the surah, it leaves us wondering why Allah would bother with creation and re-creation if it was all to be so painful. The answer seems to be that the un-god is insecure and lonely.

1:27:07 Quran 051:056 “I have created jinn [demons] and men only to worship Me. I do not want anything from them.”

1:27:20 Imagine creating the universe for no reason whatsoever other than you find torture pleasing. “I have created jinn [demons] and men only to worship Me. I do not want anything from them.”

1:27:32 Let's be perfectly clear since the religious are confused. The idea of a superior being creating inferior ones to worship him is asinine, rendering the being insecure, narcissistic, and pathetic. And while that may be an adept portrayal of Allah, worship is well below God's dignity. God does not want to be worshiped. He never asks man to worship Him, but Allah does.

1:28:54 I think we should linger here a moment longer to discover that the Inarticulate and Irresistible proclaimed...

1:29:07 Quran 051:001 “By that scatter dust or broadcast,
1:29:12 Quran 051:002 And that bear the load,
1:29:12 Quran 051:003 And that glide with ease,
1:29:19 Quran 051:004 And those who distribute by command,
1:29:19 Quran 051:005 Lo! Wherewith you are threatened is true.
1:29:27 Quran 051:006 And lo, the judgment will take place.
1:29:32 Quran 051:007 The heaves webbed with tracks is witness.
1:29:32 Quran 051:008 Lo! You have different ideas and are surely caught in contradictions.
1:29:42 Quran 051:009 From which only he turns who is turned away.
1:29:47 Quran 051:010 Cursed will be those who speculate as conjecturers,
1:29:54 Quran 051:011 Who are under a cover of heedlessness, flooded by confusion in a neglectful abyss.
1:30:01 Quran 051:012 They ask, ‘When is the Day of Judgment?’
1:30:08 Quran 051:013 (It is) a Day when they will be tried over and burnt in Fire.
1:30:15 Quran 051:014 ‘Taste you your trial (burning)! This is what you asked would be hastened.’”

1:30:20: I dare say of what I just read to you probably one-third contained complete sentences with a subject, object and verb that didn't make sense, but they were sentences. For example, “And lo, the judgment will take place” is completely out of context with the rest of it, and the five verses that came before it are completely nonsensical: “By that scatter dust or broadcast, And that bear the load, And that glide with ease, And those who distribute by command, Lo! Wherewith you are threatened is true.” No. It's only the sixth that's actually a statement: “And lo, the judgment will take place.” It doesn't relate to anything that came before it, but at least it's a sentence.

1:31:22 “The heaves webbed with tracks is witness” is senseless. “Lo, you have different ideas and are surely caught in contradictions.” It is a sentence. “Lo.” Good for you. What are those different ideas? What are the contradictions? Who's talking to whom? Why? Where? When? “From which only he turns who is turned away” is not sensible. “Cursed will be those who speculate as conjectures.” Yes. For what reason? Not so much for “Who are under a cover of heedlessness, flooded by confusion in a neglectful abyss.” It's not sensible. They ask, ‘When is the Day of Judgment?’ Oh, that's a question stated as a real sentence. They forgot the subject and verb, (It is) is not actually part of the text, “a Day when they will be tried over and burnt in Fire.” — They added “burning” and an exclamation point. “This is what you asked would be hastened.” Do you think there’s anybody out there that says please I'm just really looking forward to you burning me. Can you please bring on the burning? I can't handle the wait any longer. I want to be burned and I want to be burned now. Good grief!

1:32:59 It surely seems to be self-explanatory to me. Allah is the Snake who slithered out of the Garden with ease into the agitated minds of Arabs. And the wicked web he has woven is his witness. But if you have different ideas, like preferring the real God to this toxic serpent, then surely you are caught up in making too big a deal of Allah’s contradictions. And as a cursed speculator, you are flooded with confusion about the realization that the oft forgiving and loving Allah intends to roast you alive over a pit of fire. After all, you asked for it.

1:33:41 As strange as all that seems, why did the non-prophet contradict himself and his un-god in the next passage?

1:33:53 Tabari I:189 “The Messenger took me by the hand (he’s so loving and kind) and said, ‘Allah created soil on Saturday. Upon it, He created the mountains on Sunday. He created the trees on Wednesday (forgetting all about Monday and Tuesday), scattered animals on Thursday, and made Adam as the last of His creatures after the afternoon prayer on Friday.’”

1:33:58 Allah begins on Saturday rather than Sunday and Monday. After taking a much-needed rest on Tuesday, he forgot the cities, water, and cultivation and dispenses with the creation of the sun, moon, and stars, as well as paradise. Then Allah creates man after the afternoon prayer. So, who was praying and to whom?

1:34:54 Tabari I:189 “The Jews asked the Prophet, ‘What about Sunday?’ The Messenger answered, ‘On it, Allah created the earth and spread it out.’ They asked about Monday, and he replied: ‘On it He created Adam.’” So much for the afternoon prayer or on the last hour of Friday.

1:35:11 “Then they asked about Saturday and mentioned God’s resting on it. Then the Prophet got very angry so Allah then revealed to him: ‘We have created the heavens and the earth and what is between them in six days and fatigue did not touch Us.’”

1:35:38 This is so pathetic and so obviously Satan. I just don’t know how so many people have missed it.

1:35:45 This became Quran 50:38. It’s interesting that Allah was of no help in providing Muhammad with a rational explanation of creation or even help in keeping his stories straight, but when it came time to embarrass the God of the Jews, he jumped in with a handy Quranic revelation.

1:36:05 It says, in essence, “My god is better than your god because my god didn’t need to rest.” But that’s a problem. The “Gods” are supposed to be the same. Even worse for Islam, according to the Prophet Yasha’yah | Isaiah, the Babylonian Lord who thought he was better than Yahowah was ha Satan | the Adversary.

1:36:32 As is our custom, let’s not let one verse of the Quran stand alone. After all, we wouldn’t want to be accused of cherry picking turds out of a cesspool of excrement, would we? I’ll tell you what, I’m just stirring up, I’m sure, Muslims worldwide; they’re just blowing fuses here. But if they’d actually listen to how stupid the Quran is and how utterly moronic Muhammad is maybe they would cool down long enough to not want to go off and kill everybody on behalf of these nincompoops.

1:37:19 Anyway, come to find out one of the many creation claims in the Quran was strewn among some real gems.

1:37:26 Quran 050.001 “Qaf. (These letters [there was only one of them] are one of the miracles of the Quran and none but Allah knows their meanings) By the Glorious Qur’an.”

1:37:45 The letter in Hebrew is Qoph ~~Ⓚ~~. Drawn to present the sun on the horizon, it represents a new day or of light giving way to darkness. By saying there’s a letter here and that it’s a miracle that only Allah knows its meaning means we’re not dealing with very smart people.

1:38:22 Quran 050.002 “Nay, they marvel and wonder that a warner has come to them of themselves. So the unbelievers say, ‘This is a wonderful and strange thing.’

1:38:23 Now I will guarantee you there is no unbeliever that ever said this is a wonderful thing speaking about Muhammad and the Quran, but nonetheless we’ll listen to their fantasy.

1:38:55 Quran 050.003 When we are dead and have become dust, that would be a far return.

1:39:09 Quran 050.004 We know what the earth consumes of them, for We have the recording Book.

1:39:15 Quran 050.005 Nay, but they deny the truth when it came to them, so they are in a confused state – not the ungod or non-prophet. Of course not.

1:39:29 Quran 050.006 Have they not looked at the sky above them, how we have fashioned and adorned it, constructing and making it, without rifts, gaps, or flaws.

1:39:49 Quran 050.007 We stretched and spread out the earth and placed upon it firm stabilizers. Lucky for us, I guess. And we have made every kind of lovely growth.

1:40:04 Quran 050.008 A vision and reminder for every penitent slave.”

1:40:12 Allah finally got something right – we do marvel and wonder why anyone believes this strange assortment of bogus braggadocio. Charles Manson wrote more cogent prose on the walls of his victim’s homes (and he was a murderous and sadistic psychopath). “So the unbelievers say, ‘This is a wonderful and strange thing.’ When we are dead and have become dust, that would be a far return. We know what the earth consumes of them, for We have the recording Book.’ Nay, but they deny the truth when it came to them, so they are in a confused state.”

1:40:54 But never you mind because the proof is found in the gapless sky without rifts and the earth’s stabilizers. It’s a vision for every penitent slave.

1:41:07 By the way, when Yahowah talks about creating the universe He says that the universe is spread out and that it is expanding, and it is spread out. In fact, the universe is not spherical, but flat. It is not only spread out it is expanding exactly the way He says. But Allah has it reversed. In Allah’s case, it is the Earth that is spread out kind of like a pancake, but not the universe.

1:41:42 It should now be obvious, at least now before we have entered the terrorist surahs, there are only three salient themes in this portion of the Quran. 1) Despite all evidence to the contrary, Allah is the one and only god. 2) If you don’t believe him or his non-prophet, he will threaten to torture you as he has falsely bragged of terrorizing others. 3) The worst book ever written is the best because Allah says so.

1:42:16 Advancing his reputation as the most idiotic and impotent wannabe creator ever, Allah continues to brag about his prior exploits as the destroyer...

1:42:27 Quran 050.012 “Denied before them the people of Nuh, (Noah) the dwellers of Rass, and the Thamud.

1:42:41 Quran 050.013 And Ad and Fir’aun, and the brethren of Lout,

1:42:47 Quran 050.014 And the dwellers of the Wood, and the people of Tub’a, everyone of them denied messengers, so My threat became a reality.

1:42:59 Quran 050.015 Were We exhausted by the first creation? Nay, they are in confused doubt about a new creation.”

1:43:08 Dealing with Allah’s little problem of impotency first, assuming that this is an issue with snakes, I don’t know if impotency is. Maybe I’m pushing this too far.

Nonetheless, Noah did not have people. In fact, it was his avoidance of people that made him acceptable to God. Moreover, Yahowah gets credit for that one, not the Revisionist Replacement with his new creation account.

1:43:43 Rass, Thamud, and Ad are mythical foes because Allah is incapable of dealing with so much as a single intelligent individual. If not for convincing jihadists to murder for him, Allah would be a fangless snake.

1:44:04 If we were to assume that Muhammad couldn't say Pharaoh, and butchered the potentate's title with Fir'aun, then Allah is again treading again on Yahowah's story regarding (H)his showdown with the Egyptian potentate. Moreover, on that feat, Yahowah had a partner, as was the case with the Ark, disqualifying Allah who brags about working alone. And as for Lowt, he was part of Yahowah's accounting too. Moreover, Abraham was his brethren, not the Sodomites. His people were not the Sodomites; his people were Abraham and Sarah.

1:44:48 I'll throw the un-god a bone and spot him the wood dwellers. Since Allah loved to play with fire, and forested areas are few and far between in the Arabia Desert, he may have torched them for all we know.

1:45:00 As for the people of Tubba. This is an amazing story and one of the most exciting finds so far, I absolutely love this story because in trying to come up with this idea that you'd better be afraid of Allah because while he can't do anything today, he has the promise of threats tomorrow, the Day of Doom, or of threats to mythical people in the past. That's the only way that Allah can show that he has any ability to do anything. So, he mentions the people of Tubba. The first time I went through this I just wrote it off with okay there's no people of Tubba, but there are, and Allah incinerated his own credibility by bringing them into this conversation.

1:46:05 Let me explain. Tub'a | Tubba was an honorific title used by the Himyarites (Mamlakat Himyar in Hebrew) who inhabited the southwestern tip of the Arabian Peninsula / Yemen today. It means "one who follows the sun like a shadow." These kings were descendants of a South Arabian patriarch, Qahtan, dating as far back as 1000 BCE, making them contemporaries of King David | Dowd.

1:46:53 Ruling over Saba (Sheba according to Dowd | David) and Himyar in what has become Yemen, the elite referred to themselves as Mukarib | Near to God. Then a particularly adventurous descendant in the late 7th century BCE, Karib'il (from Qara' 'el | "Called by God" in Hebrew), rose to become their most influential ruler, establishing the Sabaean Kingdom. He is said to have embraced Jewish customs, changing his title to melek – Hebrew for "king." It is interesting to note that these people, also known as Sabaean, had a written language, Sabaic, which dates to the 8th century BCE. It was scribed similarly to Hebrew with a shared alphabet of , consonants, and vowels. When they are set side by side and you see Arabic on the same column, guess where Arabic came from.

1:48:12 The story of the Himyarites (the people of Tubba), who were previously known as Sabaeans, is even more devastating to the Quran's credibility. Turns out, the opposite of what Allah claims is true. Rather than the un-god destroying the people of Tubba, the people of Tubba destroyed him. They are the ones who gave rise to Islam. The original Quranic god and surahs both came not from Allah, but from the Himyarites.

1:48:54 The people of Tubba abandoned Arabian polytheism and converted to Judaism in 380 CE – several decades after their kin in Ethiopia converted to Christianity. As a result, the “people of Tubba” in today's Yemen, shuttered their pagan temples and eliminated references to their pagan deities – creating the model Muhammad would follow.

1:49:28 And since rabbinic Judaism, which was in full flower at the time, outlawed Yahowah's name, the Himyarites / Sabaeans called the God of Abraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqob, the God of Moseh and Dowd, drumroll please...Rahman! It is a corruption of the Hebrew word racham | merciful. The first god of the Quran is not Allah. He is Rahman! The first surahs of the Quran chronologically are all from Yemen. And the first god that even has a surah devoted to him is the god of the Yemenites, Rahman. Yes, it was the people of Tubba who provided the Quran's first surahs and even the Quran's first god. They are the role for Arab monotheism, and they were converts to Judaism. The story gets better or worse, depending upon your perspective.

1:50:51 Central to this story is Tub'a 'Ab Kariba As'ad, who lived from 370 to 433 CE, led the conversion from Arab paganism to Judaism following a military expedition into northern Arabia. He was the real Muhammad. At the time, he was trying to stem the influence of the Byzantines. They wanted to control the spice trade from India that passed along the coast of his Himyarite Kingdom. This is also devastating to Islam because it means that trade already moved at that time by sea on ships through the Arabian Gulf circa 380 CE and thereafter, and not by camels inland through Mecca.

1:51:51 Returning to the story of the people of Tubba, we discover that the Byzantines, while successful with the Himyarite kin in the Kingdom of Aksum in today's Ethiopia, were unable to subdue the Himyarites, or convert the population to Christianity. And this is where the plot thickens. In his quest to forestall the influence of the Byzantines in Arabia, Tub'a Kariba pursued them as far north as, drumroll again please...Yathrib!

1:52:36 There, Tub'a met so little resistance from the Jewish date farmers, that he left his son behind, imposing him over the Jews as a governor – obviously expecting tribute. Displeased with the imposition, the residents of Yathrib killed him. So, Tub'a Kariba returned to avenge his son's death, wreaking vengeance on Yathrib. For those who do not know, Islam was born in Yathrib, today's Medina.

1:53:10 After cutting down the date palms from which the Jews derived their living, the people of Tubba laid siege to Yathrib. And in their defense Jews fought alongside their pagan Arab neighbors. However, during the attack, Tub'a Kariba became severely ill. Hearing of this, two rabbis, Ka'ab and Asad, were allowed out of Yathrib to attend to the ailing king. Using their medical knowledge, they quickly restored Tub'a's health.

1:53:51 In the king's good graces, they pleaded with Tu'ba to lift the siege. He not only complied, but he was also so impressed with the rabbis that he accepted Judaism and converted his entire army. He then arranged for the two rabbis, Ka'ab and Asad, to accompany him back to the Himyarite capital – not far from today's Sana'a, where they were welcomed with open arms because, from the 5th century BCE there had always been a substantial Jewish presence in Sana'a. This grew considerably more voluminous after the Diaspora in 133 CE.

1:54:36 And as an interesting aside, the descendants of these ethnic Jews were moved into ghettos upon the imposition of Islam in the mid-7th century. And then, of course, when the State of Israel was formed in 1948, they were exiled, with the remaining 51,000 Jews, robbed of their homes and possessions, then sent out of Yemen to Israel – where they were immediately attacked by Muslims.

1:55:06 Back home with Tu'ba Kariba, the king immediately forced his entire kingdom to convert to Judaism, which was generally well accepted. But shortly thereafter, Tubba was killed in a military coup d'état. He was succeeded by a pagan named Dhu-Shanatir, once again blending pagan myths with the accounts of the Towrah – exactly as we witnessed in Islam.

1:55:42 All the while, the “people of Tubba” lived out their lives in peace, without any calamity befalling them. This is in absolute contradiction of Allah's terrorist braggadocio in the Quran. And make no mistake, Allah inseminated himself with his own venom and struck a fatal blow to Muhammad and Islam by claiming that he destroyed the “people of Tubba,” when the truth is just the opposite. The people of Tubba created Islam, its first god, its first surahs and, indeed, its very heart and soul.

1:56:22 Since this is so lethal to Islam, robbing Muhammad of his one claim to fame – bringing monotheism to Arabs, introducing them to their god, and revealing the Quran –

1:56:41 I'd like to share the rest of the story, but we'll have to wait until next week to do that because we're going to be cut off in less than thirty seconds.

So, thank you very much for listening. I hope you've enjoyed it and that I have brought some humor to what is a very dark story. I care deeply about Israel and the defense of Israel against Islam and the best weapon I know against this deadly religion is to expose, condemn and ridicule it so that even Muslims will look at their god and prophet and recognize they have played for fools.

May Yahowah bless Yisra'el, Yahuwdym and the Covenant Family. I look forward to being with you at this time next week.

Good night.