

Shabat Study by Yada, January 26, 2024

Coming Home Volume 1 Qowl

Desire the Towrah

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ()? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. I appreciate your understanding.
Mary Kris

0:00 I was listening to Andy sing that song wishing every Jew would sing those words. "This is my Land. God gave this Land to me." I was also thinking now that it is 2024, in just six years I'm going to meet 'Elyah in Yaruwshalaim for Passover to engage in a religion and politics condemning mode. It will be marvelous to experience his company; he's an entertaining and brilliant orator. Then I think we will be doing that for three years, and that seems like a long time, but we have a lot to accomplish. A friend asked today how many will be there when Yahowah and Dowd return, and I said, "I'm hoping there will be 7,000 for the Taruw'ah Harvest and 70,000, mostly a remnant of Yisra'el, for Dowd's, as the Messiah, and Yahowah's return on Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, 2033, on October 2. Seven thousand and seventy thousand sound like good numbers, but if it were to happen today it would be less than one thousand. So, we have a lot of work to do. You would think that with all the things going wrong for Israel that there would be a more receptive audience among Israelis.

2:10 Today we heard the verdict in first phase of the world against Israel trial at the International Court of Injustice. I had said at the time that if I had been given authorization to speak for Israel that I would have taken a very different approach than what Israel took. I would have begun by stating that we have no business being here and you most certainly have no business judging us. In fact, you are incapable of judging us. Proof of that is that we are here and Hamas, Hezbollah, Iran, the European nations that funded them, nor is the United States that also aided and equipped these terrorists to rape, mutilate, murder, and kidnap our sons and daughters are not here. So, you have shown just by the fact that we are here and that you summoned us here for this reason that you are incapable of exercising good judgment, that you cannot be moral, and that you are not rational. Therefore, there is no reason for this tribunal to go forward.

3:34 I was disgusted, as is every rational person in the world, when the pompous progressive who spoke for the Tribunal spent the first thirty minutes bashing Israel and then ended by saying there was no further action. OMG! Why would you bash Israel under these circumstances? Your grandmothers, your sons and daughters, as Yisra'elites, were mutilated, tortured, raped, kidnapped, burned alive, murdered, and terrorized, and you're going to hold the perpetrators accountable, something that every moral and just individual, institution, or country in the world would do, and it's okay for everyone except you. It's okay to torture and kill Jews, I guess, but it's not okay for Jews to defend themselves. We have no idea what the carnage is in Gaza because the reports are coming from an organization that would lie even if the truth sounded better. My guess is rather than 25,000 civilian deaths it's been 10,000 – 15,000 militants that have been killed and maybe a quarter of that in terms of those killed that were hiding, supporting, aiding and abetting them. As for innocents – not one.

5:28 I want to return to three of the things that I advised and encouraged Israel to do in my open letter and in the radio broadcast on the evening of October 7, 2023. I said that if you are going to survive this there are three things you must do. First: Make it illegal in Israel to use the term “Palestinian.” By continuing to speak of Palestinians as if they actually existed is so detrimental to Israel because it gives the world this mythos that they have the right to attack Israel for occupying their land, and for the European Union to say Israel has no veto, no voice in whether or not the Palestinians get a state, and to have the United States, the entire Muslim world, and all the progressive West insisting, declaring openly that the solution to this is to give the terrorists their own state, as in the two-state solution, is so ludicrous that it is largely Israel's fault for not exposing and damning the notion of a “Palestinian.” And yet, Gallant, Gant, Netanyahu all speak of them as does every media outlet in Israel. There is no such thing.

7:33 The last of the Philistines were annihilated by Alexander. Prior to that they had been decimated by the Babylonians, and the Assyrians. The Egyptians beat the living tar out of them as well, and Dowd bludgeoned them into submission as well. There was nothing left of them. They had no legacy; they didn't belong there anyway. They were from Crete; Yahowah said it and their DNA proves it. They were crude, ruthless invaders. They didn't have their own language and spoke a variation both of Phoenician and Hebrew. The only people that could write wrote in Hebrew. They had no coinage, no real government, no buildings or architecture of any renown, they made no contributions to the world, they were just savages. The only reason that Hadrian renamed the Province of Yahuwdah after the Philistines is because some Rabbi told him that they had been the enemy of the Jews. But they were extinct. Then the British, arrogant assholes as they are, and their Occidental College, fell in love with the term. It made them feel superior with their antisemitic nature, so they published every article in Academia and spoke of Palestine as opposed to Israel, all playing off the lie of Hadrian. It's disgusting. The term wasn't revisited in the sense of a "Palestinian" until Yaser Arafat, the Egyptians, the Muslim Brotherhood, even the Soviets at the time got together and formed the PLO with the distinct purpose of undermining Israel as what was perceived to be a US ally. The purpose was for Muslims to claim it but the Muslims who lived in the West Bank under the domination of Jordan and the Muslims who lived in Gaza under the domination of Egypt, both of which the world considered to be outdoor prisons long before Israel was even created, never spoke of these people being Palestinians. When DNA is taken of them, they come from all over the Muslim world. They are not a unified people group. The myth has been told so many times that the world believes there's a people called "Palestinian", and a place called "Palestine." The lie has been told so many times that it's largely believed and therefore the majority of Americans, Europeans, most all Muslims (except the fundamentalist Muslims) think that two states will be a solution. Of course, the really good Muslims don't want a two-state solution. "From the River to the Sea Palestine will be free." Jews, they'll be annihilated. That's been the modus operandi of Islam since it first began. So, if Israel doesn't wake up and start referring to them as Muslims, not as Hamas, not as Hezbollah, not as the PLO, not as FATA, and for God's sake not as "Palestinians" but as Muslims then they have literally no hope for success, none. You have a 0% possibility of saving Israel so long as you continue to refer to the terrorists as either Palestinians, Hamas, Hezbollah, Islamic Jihad, the PLO, FATA, or the Iranian Regime. They're just Muslims being Muslims. Shed your ignorance.

12:23 Speaking of shedding your ignorance, I decided to rewrite Volume One of God Damn Religion. It is now 800 pages long and will be republished after the edit process. It was strong, but now it is lethal to Islam. If somebody just reads Volume One, it's all over. It is a thousand deaths to Satan, to the religion of Islam, and to Muhammad. It gives them no wiggle room whatsoever and is absolutely devastating. So, that will soon be completed.

13:05 The second thing that Israel must recognize is that the problem is Islam. It's not radical Islam, it's not extremist Islam, it's not an Islamic club like Hamas or al-Qaida or Isis. It's just Islam. Read the Quran. It's the most anti-Semitic book ever written, far worse than Mein Kampf. It's the most vicious, demented, deadly, demonic diatribe ever committed to paper and if you don't understand that then either shut your mouth or shed your ignorance. So, that's the second point, Israel. Come to understand your enemy and why they have tried to wipe you out and annihilate you under their god's orders for 1,400 years. They will not change, and it's either you or them. Know your enemy.

14:19 The next thing is that I told Israel that morning to do something that I knew that Israel wouldn't do and it's a shame because it has cost Israel dearly. It can still be done to some extent, but they've certainly lost the upper hand in the war of words. But Israel needed to spend, even if it was a billion shekels, to hire the world's best graphic designers, programmers and web designers to show the life story of every person who was harmed by the invasion of October 7th to show who they were, what they had done, what kind of a future they had, the people who love them, essays about them, and then show every disgusting detail, every autopsy picture, every burnt corpse, every mutilated body as to what happened to them.

15:29 There was an Israeli soldier who was in one of the guard posts. He was sodomized, of course, by the Muslims because they're indiscriminate in their raping of women and men. They sodomized him when he was dead which is one of their practices, they are really into necrophilia. At the end of all this, they cut off his head because they were told they would receive a $10,000 bonus if they brought an Israeli head back to Gaza. After the head had been stored in an ice cream freezer, they put it up for sale online. The father saw it and the IDF managed to find it and bring it back to him. When the stories are written about it, the father will talk about how much he loved his son, that's an important thing to do, but he won't show the pictures. You have to show the pictures. He might say I don't want to suffer anymore; I don't want my son disgraced; may the memory be a blessing. I'm here to tell you if you want their lives to matter, to have counted for something, this must be done. All those girls who were raped and mutilated, the children who were so tormented, if you want their lives to matter, if you want those lives (some 2,000 of them) to protect the lives of 15 million Jews, let them speak let to the horror of what happened to them. I will guarantee you that Yahowah is going to revisit it. If you're squeamish over these kind of things I will tell you for certain that Yahowah will revisit it and He will hold those who perpetrated such things accountable so that what they receive is worse than what they gave. So, stop being squeamish, stop being stupid. Make the sacrifice of those individuals meaningful.

17:54 The next thing I shared is that the two scars on top of Mount Mowryah on the Temple Mount, the Dome of the Hoofie Print, called the Dome of the Rock and Al-Aqsa Mosque, are both trophies to lunacy. They exist because Muhammad was engaged in what I call the never-ending argument, a war of words, which he lost badly. Those who knew Muhammad best, the Quraysh tribe in Petra, called Muhammad a lunatic, a madman, said he was demon-possessed, and that his Quran was nothing but a forgery. All of that was true. Those who knew Muhammad best spoke honestly about what he was and what the Quran was. So, Muhammad got thin skinned and tired of it and said he was going to slaughter his people. That was his retort to their verbal joshing. As a recourse to that, the Quraysh played Neville Chamberlain. They said we'll give you the prettiest women in town (sexual perversion), bundles of unearned money (we'll bribe you), and the power you seek. We'll make you king for a day (I think it was actually for a year). All you have to do is include our gods, al-Lat, Manat, al-Uzza and Allah along with your god who at the time was Rabbi Rahman. Muhammad accepted the deal; that's why the names of those goddesses, including Ar-Rahman, dominate the early suras of the Quran.

19:41 So, when the few members of the Muslim cult said these are way too many gods for a monotheistic religion, what in the hell are you doing, plus you didn't cut us in on the deal, Muhammad recanted and said that Satan inspired those words and that Allah collaborated that and said that all of Allah's messengers speak on behalf of Satan. It's called The Satanic Verses. So, it's the pagan indulgence followed by The Satanic Verses. Muhammad, who was already mocked to the point that he had threatened to slaughter his people, then needed an escape. It was way too difficult for him to endure the hell that he had brought upon himself, so he imagined the Night Journey where a donk mule with wings (not your normal donkey or mule) came into Petra and with Allah's help (Gabriel of, course, was there as well) they boarded the donk mule and flew it into an unnamed city, which everyone assumes was Jerusalem, where Muhammad allegedly met within the temple which, of course didn't exist at the time, with all the Jewish bigwigs of the past, led them as an Imam in prostration prayer and then immediately jumped back on the donk mule and headed to Allah in heaven. To get there you must go through the Islamic hell which is where Allah spends all of his time. He has an entire episode that takes place in Islamic Hell. Finally, he gets to Allah, and after some of the most insane narratives ever recited, all Allah wants is 50 prostrations a day. You will humiliate yourself and put your nose in the dirt 50 times a day, that's all I have to say, get out of here. That's the Night Journey, and for that the Muslims built this trophy on the Temple Mount saying Muhammad was here. We own you now.

22:09 The reason I bring this up is that I would make that story part of the national discourse in Israel. My guess is there's not one Jew among a thousand that knows it. I would make it required reading. In fact, I would make God Damn Religion required reading.

22:29 Then I would have told the Muslims you have 24 hours, all 230 of our hostages are returned and I want 230 heads whether they're on the bodies or detached from the bodies, I really don't care. I want the 230 most highly ranked Muslims who perpetrated, equipped, led, and inspired the atrocities of October 7th. Two hundred and thirty of our hostages and 230 of the operatives within 24 hours or we will destroy Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock. Don't toy with me, don't play with me, don't mess with me. I don't give a crap what the rest of the world says. I have no interest in sending our troops into Gaza and having more of them killed while you hide under the dresses of your women and the world comes down on us. Those two buildings will be destroyed. I don't give a crap if you've got a thousand Muslims in them or 100,000, they will be destroyed in 24 hours if you don't give us our hostages back and an equal number of heads who perpetrated this crime. That's fair. I'm not negotiating with you, don't need __ to tell us what we can and can't have, not asking the Egyptians. don't even give a hoot about what the United States thinks. Those are our terms. You've marred our city with these two buildings, you've threatened us over them, they're a total disgrace to you, and now you've come in and raped and mutilated our bodies. We're going to mutilate your buildings and you've got 24 hours. If they did not listen and if those buildings were razed my next move would be really simple. You're not civilized, you're not human; you're not going to live in Israel. I'm going to get the biggest damn bulldozers and whatever we need to push all the Gazans into the Sinai. I don't give a crap what Egypt thinks or says about it, they're going into the go the Sinai. You can have them. You want them, you got them. And the West, those living in Judea and Samaria, they go into Jordan and Saudi Arabia. You got plenty of land and money. Hey even the ones in Egypt, the United States, and Europe, you'll fund, no problem. Give them whatever home you want to give them. Or, if you, Europe, want to give the Fakestinians a state, put one in Spain, maybe Italy; try one in Germany, I really don't care. Build them one wherever you want, it's just not going to be here. That would have been my approach. And let me tell you something. It's God's approach as well.

25:55 I don't stand alone. I stand shoulder to shoulder with the God of 'Abraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqob, Yahowah, and don't think for a moment that isn't true because I can assure you in less than 10 years from now, He will eliminate all Muslims, He will eradicate all Islamic shrines. There will be lots of religious and Progressive Jews and Gentiles that will breathe their last at the same time. Yahowah is intolerant of all this nonsense.

26:36 That's what's going to happen. Why not actually do what your God would do now? You didn't need to sacrifice more lives; you didn't need to go through all this rigmarole. That was always the answer.

26:59 I have one last thought on this before we move on. The world now mocks Neville Chamberlain because he claimed peace in our time when he gave the high ground of Czechoslovakia, which wasn't his to give, to Adolf Hitler before Adolf Hitler really had submitted his grip on power, during a time when Adolf Hitler could have easily been deposed in a military coup because the military didn't buy into what he was wanting to do either, and yet Neville Chamberlain gave the high ground of Czechoslovakia to the Nazis. It led directly to World War II. Hitler solidified his power based upon the concession and the war followed.

27:58 The reason I bring that up is because at the time Hitler was a menace. He had written Mein Kampf which is almost as bad as the Quran. He had begun remilitarizing Germany, said a lot of nasty stuff but hadn't invaded anybody. Now roll that forward to today. The Muslims attacked and tried to destroy Israel in 1948, 1967, 1973, ____, and October 7, 2023, trying to destroy them, and they are planning a hundredfold of October 7th right now to destroy them. So now you would reward the terrorists by giving them a state knowing what they have already done. It's far worse than what Neville Chamberlain did to bring the world into World War II with Adolf Hitler, far worse. And yet, the world's lining up to be the next Neville Chamberland. There are so many candidates I couldn't list them all in the time remaining in this program.

29:31 The reason that Gaza exploded into Israel is because the United States forced Israel out of Gaza. It wasn't occupying Gaza; there were no Jews in Gaza. And because the people who were in Gaza that were supposed to be doing that job, the United Nations, the Europeans, the Americans, the Chinese, and the Russians, were all aiding and abetting the Muslims, helping them arm themselves and build those tunnels, and as a result, it became a grotesque militarized zone where everything from schools, to hospitals, to mosques, including children's bedrooms were militarized. So, if Israel pulls out, does what the world wants and gives that as a state to the Fakestinians, then they will be right back where they were. I want to tell you that the West Bank is no better. They're armed to the teeth marching in protest flying various Jihadi Flags; it's no better.

30:56 So, this is the plight of Israel and that's one of the reasons I'm just so surprised that these 30 books we have on the shelf at yadayah.com that speak from Yahowah and His Messiah, Dowd, the Savior of Yisra'el, the Son of God, that these 30 books have not yet resonated with a significant cross-section of Jews. Shame on you! What's it going to take before you finally say the IDF, your Judiciary, your political leaders, the progressives, and it's for goddam certain, that Judaism have failed you? When are you going to turn to the original Charter of the Jewish people of Yisra'el, the Towrah, and not the piece of crap the Babylonian Talmud, but the Towrah? When are you going to turn to it and listen to God for a change? His name is Yahowah; I highly recommend Him. I've written 30 books to you about Him all of which are free. Go to the shelf at yadayah.com and read them. They are all entirely free, and even if you were to buy them from Amazon, they're royalty free. They are there for you. I don't know what more we can say, but we'll continue to say it.

33:06 Can you imagine how different the world would be if Israel had said these things? I read in the news that the former head of the Mossad had condemned Netanyahu for besmirching the Qatar government, which is the primary sponsor of Hamas, so the former head of Mossad condemned Netanyahu. When you spend 15 hours a day translating the Quran your mind is in the gutter so I'm going to be thinking one thing and saying another: it's an occupational hazard. I don't think anybody else could have written what I have written in God Damn Religion so I have to do it. But to put your mind in the gutter that long every day you're going to have slips of the tongue.

34:08 But the former head of the Mossad condemned Netanyahu for criticizing Qatar. How could you be more inappropriate in what you have to say? This was a guy that was being groomed by Likud to be the successor to Netanyahu and I guess maybe he's got his panties in a bunch. Israel, you really are a house divided. You need to realize that the Mossad let you down. How many people other than the one guy has the Mossad fingered to kill of those responsible for 10.7? The real heads of Hamas are in Qatar. How come you can't kill them? What happened to you? What happened to the Mossad? Did it lose its teeth and morals? Did it lose its way? What happened to the Shin Bet, to the IDF intelligence? What happened to IDF that couldn't respond for 8 – 12 hours and then took a month to decide what they're going to do in Gaza and still can't figure it out? They had 21 Jewish boys die in the collapse of a building because they were carrying goddamn mines in there to bring it down as opposed to standing away and having an aircraft shoot a missile into it. What in the hell are you thinking? What's wrong with your leadership? You're the brightest people in the world and you're acting like dunderheads. You're fighting an enemy with an average IQ of 60-something and they're winning, certainly in the court of public opinion. So, somewhere along the way, Israel, you need to start listening to Yahowah and stop listening to your political, cultural, religious, military and intelligence leaders because they have all failed you which is what needs to happen for Israel to return to Yahowah. And you don't have much time.

36:46 All right. We're going to pick up the last statement in the first Mizmowr and then we'll have a quick review of it. Mizmowr | Psalm 1:6 is spoken by Dowd to Dowd | David to his father, Yahowah, our God. He wrote:

37:03 “Indeed because (ky) Yahowah (Yahowah – the proper pronunciation of the name of ‘elowah – God as directed in His towrah – teaching regarding His hayah existence and our shalowm – restoration)

37:22 I mention all those names, ‘Elowah, Towrah, Hayah and Shalowm because collectively those are words that every Jew knows. You've all heard ‘elowah. You know it means God. You know that the “o and ah” sound in ‘elowah are from the Wah and the Hey. You all know there's a Towrah, but did you know that the “o” sound in Towrah is from the Wah and the “ah” sound is from the Hey? You are familiar with the verb hayah. It's one of the most common verbs in Hebrew – “to be, to exist, is, was, will be,” and is written hayah (Hey 𐤇 Yowd 𐤌 Hey 𐤇). Yah is as plain as day in the middle of the word. Shalowm is another word that is spoken even more frequently in the Towrah, and the “o” sound comes from the Wah. Even in Yisra'el, that's the sound of the Yowd. So, Yowd Hey Wah Hey 𐤌𐤏𐤌𐤏 is Yahowah. It's not difficult or impossible to know how to pronounce it. God's very clear that those who demean His name by hiding it, by demoting it, by denying it are unforgivable.

39:03 “Indeed because (ky) Yahowah” No one knew Him better than Dowd and he wrote and said His name. These are lyrics to songs. He sang His name.

39:09 “Indeed because (ky) Yahowah (Yahowah – the proper pronunciation of the name of ‘elowah – God as directed in His towrah – teaching regarding His hayah existence and our shalowm – restoration) knows [It's one of the most important verbs in Hebrew] (yada' – recognizes and acknowledges, is aware of and respects, is familiar with and is concerned about, understands and is very friendly with (qal participle)) the way (derek – the manner and journey) of those who are upright, correct, and vindicated (tsadyq – righteous, just, right, in accord with the standard, acquitted, and innocent), 39:33 What a wonderful combination of words. Ky – indeed, because, surely, for the reason Yahowah (God's one and only name) yada' (the ultimate verb). That's the way we all come Yah. It's through knowing, understanding, recognizing, acknowledging derek (the way) tsadyq (to be upright, correct and vindicated). Ky Yahowah yada' derek tsadyq.

40:24 That's the whole story. That's the concluding line of Dowd's Mizmowr. So, it's Yahowah knows, He recognizes, He's concerned about the way of those who are upright, correct and vindicated | tsadyq. If you want God to care about you which, is probably a pretty good idea, understand you need to be tsadyq | right about Him and that begins with knowing and using His name. And then the corollary:

41:03 but (wa) those whose path is incorrect (derek rasha' – those whose way is invalid and opposed to the standard, whose journey leads others astray) will perish ('abad – will be blotted out and destroyed, exterminated and annihilated, vanishing and ceasing to exist, squandered and expelled from the relationship).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 1:6)

41:33 God doesn't know everybody; it wouldn't be appropriate for Him to know everybody. It would be too grieving too grievous for Him.

41:39 Rasa' is one of the “ra” words of which there are many. Ra' is “an outspoken, belligerent countryman.” It means “someone who is evil, someone who is wrong someone, who is misleading.” It is an “evil shepherd.” And here he is saying for those who are on ra', the religious path in rebellion against Yahowah, they will perish.

42:11 Having spent so much translating the Quran, Allah's deal is like three times per surah. So, it's probably 300, 400 iterations of this are that disbelievers get a painful punishment. Now a god who said disbelieve me, reject me, and I will punish you isn't worth knowing. That god would be a psychopath and sadistic. That's Allah. Yahowah doesn't say that. He just says that if you're going to be belligerent, misleading and incorrect you're just going to perish. I know the ones who are right about me, who care about Me. I care about them, but the ones who don't and have chosen to be incorrect are going to perish. I gave you life, you squandered it and at the end of it there is nothing. Your soul dissipates into nothingness. That's God's story. No punishment for them, just nothing. And that will be for the overwhelming preponderance of Yisra'elites and even a higher percentage of gowym.

43:29 Mizmowr | Psalm 1: 6 "So if you want to be yada' (known) by Yahowah (God) be tsadyq (right). God didn't say I know the good. He didn't say I know the ones who pray a lot. He didn't say I know the ones that bow down to Me, I know the ones that worship Me, or I know the ones who are religious towards Me. He didn't say that. He said just the opposite. He said, "I know those who are right about Me."

43:57 The only way you can be right about God is to read the Towrah and Prophets where God introduces Himself, explains what He is offering and what He expects in return. And, of course, the most overriding theme throughout the Prophets is God's disgust towards religion starting with Judaism. So, if you want to be known by God, if you want God to be familiar with you, be right about Him. And if you want to be disassociated from God, be wrong about Him.

44:42 Some time ago in Israel there was an article that was published in a Haredi newspaper. The religious were told that if they attended a rally in support of judicial reform that they would be excluded from the house of God. It wasn't because the rabbis opposed judicial reform because they were in favor of it. Instead, it was because only rabbis are authorized to engage in politics because of their "superior learning." They are saying that there will be no expressions of free will tolerated in Judaism because ultra-Orthodox Jews, that is their position, are too stupid to think for themselves. That's probably true. The depravity of religious control boggles the mind in Judaism. Rabbis will be fortunate if their souls are allowed to perish, and if so authorized, I will send them to She'owl.

46:01 Speaking of 'abad | perishing, there is a little known and profoundly important aspect of divine judgment that few appreciate. Most souls 'abad | cease to exist upon the end of a person's mortality. There is no reward or punishment. The nepesh | soul simply fades away into oblivion. It is only by deliberately misleading others regarding Yahowah or abusing His children that a soul earns a one-way ticket to She'owl | Hell from which there is no return. Keep in mind that in She'owl there are no fires or torture chambers; Yahowah is not there. It's a place of eternal separation for souls. It is eternal darkness.

46:44 So, here now is a summation of Mizmowr 1:

46:51 “Joyful with me and blessed by me, fortunate in the relationship and stepping along the straightforward path which I have provided to give meaning to life (‘ashery) is the individual (ha ‘yish) who, as a result of the relationship (‘asher), does not walk (lo’ halak) in the counsel of those who are religious and incorrect (ba ‘etsah rasha’), does not stand (lo ‘amad) in the way (wa ba derek) of those who are misleading with their errant platitudes (chata’), neither sits nor dwells (lo’ yashab) in the company (ba mowshab) of those who babble, confounding by scoffing and ridiculing (lets). (Mizmowr 1:1)

47:33 I’ve shared this before, but I don’t think there’s anything more important to repeat. Dowd is the only person in all of human history that can say, “Joyful with me and blessed by me, fortunate in the relationship and stepping along the straightforward path which I have provided to give meaning to life...” Those are big words. Those are the words only a savior can speak. Those words mean that Dowd personally served as the Pesach ‘Ayil and he fulfilled Matsah leading to Bikuwrym | Firstborn Children and Shabuw’ah | the Promise of Seven. We should all have seen it the moment we read ‘ashery. It is ‘asher personalized by the first-person pronoun, ‘any. ‘Asher means “to bless; to walk along the straight and narrow path that gives meaning and purpose to life.” ‘Ashery means “Joyful and blessed by me, fortunate in the relationship by stepping along the straightforward path with me because I have provided meaning to life.” How come we couldn’t all figure this out? Why did it take gowy now 3,000 years after these words were written to tell you that Dowd | David is your Savior, and that he told you so? He volunteered to do this for you.

49:24 It also bears repeating that Dowd’s list of things that follow are all negative because that’s the order of things. You can be blessed by Dowd as a result of what he did working with Yahowah so long as you are not religious, political, conspiratorial, or patriotic. You must walk away from these things as ‘Abraham did before he was invited to be part of God’s Covenant family and Dowd is reemphasizing that. It’s the first condition of the Covenant: Walk away from religion, government, country, politics, conspiracies and controversies, and cultures of humankind, and boy they’re more prevalent in the Jewish culture and community than any place else. Walk away from all that stuff. Disassociate from it and from the rabbis, from the culture of the place. This is the ultimate statement of the most articulate and brilliant man who ever lived. It’s his opening statement to you.

50:57 Instead and by contrast (ky 'im) within the Towrah | Teaching and Guidance (ba Towrah) of Yahowah (Yahowah) is what is valuable and matters to him (chephets huw').

51:03 And in His Towrah | Directions and Instructions (wa ba Towrah huw'), he meditates, giving serious thought and consideration to the information so as to speak decisively (hagah) day and night (yowm wa laylah). (Mizmowr 1:2)

51:24 Instead of being religious, political, and/or conspiratorial, if you want to benefit from what Dowd has done for you by fulfilling Pesach and Matsah enabling Bikuwrym and Shabuw'ah, then rather than being religious and political, “Instead and by contrast” value Yahowah's Towrah, not the rabbinical Talmud but instead Yahowah's Towrah. And if you don't know that it's Yahowah's name and Yahowah's Towrah and that Towrah means “teaching and guidance,” then you don't read your JPS. Again, go to yadayah.com and start with An Introduction to God. There are 30 books on the shelf. Start with the first one on the left and read them one after another and you will see Yahowah's name where it belongs. You will see Towrah defined correctly as “guidance and teaching, directions and instructions.” You will see these words proclaimed on your behalf.

52:42 And then not only does the person who is joyful with Dowd, blessed by Dowd fortunately in the relationship by stepping along the straightforward path that Dowd has provided, all of which is explained in the Towrah because Moseh explained how the Miqra'ey (plural of Miqra'), Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym and Shabuw'ah would be fulfilled, would be celebrated, what they would mean, and that Dowd fulfilled them. One explained what they were, the other did what they said. It's Moseh and Dowd, the two great Zarowa'.

53:30 And what happens if you do what is said here? You then become a spokesperson for the message of Yahowah, of Dowd, of Moseh, and of the Towrah. “And in His Towrah | Directions and Instructions (wa ba Towrah huw'), you meditate, you give serious thought and consideration, and as a result speak decisively (hagah) day and night.”

54:03 By the way, it just didn't limit it to you can speak about the Towrah for six days, but you better shut up on the most important day. The last time I checked, in year 4000 Yah when Dowd fulfilled Pesach and Matsah doing the ultimate work on behalf of his people, he fulfilled Pesach and Matsah on a Shabat. So, it can't be wrong to do these things in conjunction with the Towrah at any time.

54:45 DEE: It's a huge hangup for Israel for some reason.

54:52 YADA: Who knows why. But I guess we do know why because they've been indoctrinated by the religious who have transformed the Shabat into the most torturous day of the week. It's the day that there's so many rules that it's the hardest day of the week. The most work is on the Shabat because of the all the goddamn rules that have been established. Not one of those rules is enjoy your relationship with Yahowah, celebrate your relationship with Yahowah on this day. In the first statement that Yahowah etched in stone He explains that He's the great Liberator and yet religion is the great enslaver. This is why they're at odds with each other.

55:45 Then (wa) he is like (hayah ka) a tree ('ets) planted (shathal) near ('al) an idyllic stream of flowing water (peleg maym) such that as a result of this beneficial relationship ('asher) he produces and bestows (nathan) his fruit (pery huw') in his appointed time (ba 'eth huw').

55:58 His uplifting branch (wa 'aleh huw') will never wither and he will never lack understanding (lo' nabel). In everything that he engages in (wa kol 'asah) to show the way to the benefits of the relationship ('asher) he will succeed and prosper (tsalach). (Mizmowr 1:3)

56:11 The third line that Dowd wrote is a metaphor | a word picture of a tree rooted where it ought to be next to an idyllic stream such that the result of absorbing the sunlight, of being where one needs to be, of being properly cared for with water, (which represents the ultimate solvent for cleansing and the source of life) that you become productive. If you're where you should be and are capitalizing on the light and the soil and the water that God has provided, then you'll produce good fruit. His uplifting branch (wa 'aleh huw') will never wither and he will never lack understanding (lo' nabel). In everything that you engage in (wa kol 'asah) to show the way to the benefits of the relationship ('asher) will be successful and help others. This is what we strive to do. It's why we do this program. It's why there's 30 books on the shelf. It's why yadayah.com exists.

57:37 This is not true, nor even remotely similar (lo' ken), with those who are incorrect, with those who will be condemned for leading others astray and for misrepresenting God's character (ha rasha') who, rather instead, will be like (ky 'im ka) the chaff which is driven away and refuted ('asher nadaph huw') by the spirit (ruwach). (Mizmowr 1:4)

58:05 The Towrah is where we come to know Yahowah, where we benefit from what Moseh has said and Dowd has done. But we're up against the more shrill and popular voices of the religious who lead people astray and misrepresent God's character, His name, His purpose, what He's offering, what He's expecting in return. Those who do these things will be driven away as useless as the chaff refuted by the Spirit.

58:40 Therefore, based upon this reasoning ('al ken), those who are incorrect, misled, and misleading (ha rasha') will not stand upright (lo' quwm) during the judgment (ba ha mishpat) nor (wa) those who are wrong (chata') in the enduring community of witnesses (ba 'edah) of those who are upright, correct, and vindicated (tsadyq). (Mizmowr 1:5)

59:00 We spoke about this I think a program ago which is that while Yahowah never asks anyone to bow down in His presence, when the religious and political are judged and condemned, they will be bowing down. They will not be allowed to stand in the presence of God's Covenant family. My supposition is that it is members of the Covenant family that will be holding these tribunals, but it will not be like a normal trial. I don't think there will be any defense allowed or mounted by those whose lives are being reviewed for determination as to whether their soul simply ceases to exist or they are sent to She'owl, or if they are actually tormented for what they have done as recompense to those they tormented. So, it will be mal'ak bringing the evidence against them and then members of Yahowah's Covenant family who are assigned to make that determination. But you can rest assured they will not be standing during those proceedings.

1:00.21 Indeed because (ky) Yahowah (Yahowah) knows (yada') the way (derek) of those who are upright, correct, and vindicated (tsadyq), but (wa) those whose path is incorrect (derek rasha') will perish ('abad).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to Sing / Psalm 1:6)

1:00:28 It is the contrast and why I began this program talking about what Israel needs to do. There is the choice: You can be with God and be right about Him or you can be with the religious and political and be wrong about Him. But don't pretend that you know God, don't pray to God, don't expect God to do anything for you until you listen to Him, not through the Babylonian Talmud, not via the Christian New Testament, and certainly not through the Quran. Listen to Him through the Towrah and Prophets. If you're in doubt in terms of what was actually written, turn to Yada Yah where you'll not only find a translation of the words that God spoke from the oldest sources available, but also an explanation as to what each word means and how it was used at the time it was spoken.

1:01:30 So, those who observe and accept Yahowah's Towrah Teaching and Guidance are right, blessed with knowledge, understanding, joyful and productive, validated and vindicated, always correct on the issues that matter, most especially those regarding life and death. Those who believe man's mantras, however, whether they be political, religious, conspiratorial, or militaristic will remain confounded and confused. They will be judged and found to be wrong, exterminated and expelled.

1:02:12 Yisra'el, there is every reason to conclude that you're smart. With .2% of the world's population earning 30% of the Nobel prizes in the Sciences, how is it that you have collectively been on the wrong side of this simple equation for the past 3,000 years? Why is it that when Yahowah wanted someone to take His testimony seriously and to share it accurately and insightfully with you He couldn't find a single Yahuwd willing to step up and instead had to work with a gow? Now I think Yahowah likes it that way because He's so annoyed with His people being so belligerent towards Him that He wants it to be embarrassing for them.

1:03:11 It's a consequence.

1:03:17 It is a consequence, and as such, look at the wonderful opportunity that we were given to do this with our Father.

1:03:22 Sometimes, I am guided to things that, while always available and true, are perfect at the moment. The first word in the first Psalm was a noteworthy example. But so is this next sentence, the first of the second Mizmowr.

1:03:42 Inexplicitly, and frustratingly, there is a greater propensity for people to believe in conspiracies today than there is to be overtly religious or political. The numbers are staggering, with the majority of people worldwide snookered by one hoax or another. For most, the lure of conspiracy is simple: people are looking for someone to blame for their unfulfilling lives.

1:04:23 The conspiratorial menace has grown so large and vocal that numerous scientific studies have been conducted to determine what prompts so many people to believe in and promote absurdly ridiculous notions. And what they have found is that there is but a single, common denominator among conspiratorialists. It isn't age, politics, ethnicity, nationality, or religion, but instead, they are all losers. Unwilling to accept responsibility for their unsatisfactory and empty existence, they fault those deemed successful for controlling and inhibiting them.

1:05:22 The most enduring and popular conspiracies, indeed the most deadly and delusional, purport that Jews control the world to the detriment of everyone else.

1:05:34 May I share now how the most recent and popular conspiracy has risen in this regard? Consider progressives and their cancel culture. Their concept is that it is Caucasian men who have so controlled the world that all others have been deprived of rights. They have gone so far as to make one ethnicity in particular culpable for all that they don't have that they deem they should have, the Jews. They actually condemn the country that is the freest in the history of humankind that has greater paths to upward mobility than mankind has ever experienced.

1:06:39 If you look at the history of humankind it's about civilizations imposing the caste system; they all had it. It doesn't matter if you're dealing with the Roman Catholic church and Lords and serfs, or you go back beyond that to Imperial Rome which had a more rigid caste system than any other country in history. In Greece, where the people were thought to be somehow enlightened, 95% of the inhabitants of Athens were slaves. It's also true of Sparta, the Carthaginians, Trojans, Assyrians, Babylonians, the Hittites, the Egyptians, no matter where you look, even in the New World the Mayans, the Incas, the Aztecs all had caste systems with no upward mobility of any kind. And here the greatest experiment in upward mobility in world history is in America and they want to condemn it. It's truly astonishing and it's become a religious order where anyone who disagrees with them is condemned, but never on evidence and reason. Just like the religious, evidence and reason is immaterial to these religious stalwarts of liberal philosophy.

1:08:05 Of course, the ultimate expression is communism and every experiment in communism has led to horrible results stymied of progression, of economies, and of freedoms. But that's who they are. So, it is one of the more virulent conspiracies now and one that has taken out its aim targeting Jews and one that is very difficult to deal with because it is so integral in Academia, politics and the media that its voice is prevalent, shrewd and shrill and we are to a point now where it's had such an effect on America's youth. For example, 85 to 90% of European youth are now hopelessly incapable of using evidence and reason to come to a moral conclusion and are full of themselves thinking that they're somehow superior. It's just one example of many.

1:09:26 While writing the initial draft of this chapter, the opening chapter of Coming Home, Volume I, a nineteen-year-old white supremacist and Christian, John Earnest, a member of the Escondido Presbyterian Church outside San Diego, murdered an unarmed elderly Jewish woman. He attempted to kill her rabbi and then annihilate his entire congregation at the Chabad synagogue in Poway, California, at the conclusion of Passover. While this worthless individual is just one among billions of anti-Semites, since his “Open Letter” comprises so many of the lies that have been used to falsely slander Jews, it may be helpful to present aspects of his parting manifesto, so that we are cognizant of the sickness pervading our world. We will do so after the conclusion of the Mizmowr and in a subsequent chapter.

1:10:37 While most conspiracy theorists are sufficiently anti-Semitic to endorse even the most obvious hoaxes, such as Protocols of the Elders of Zion, they now use social media to promote an ever growing and ever more ridiculous array of control fantasies. These include the absurd and discredited notion that the government wanted a justification to expand the military-industrial complex, so the elite perpetrated 9/11 and blamed Muslims. The conspiratorialist would have us believe that the government wants to control the population, so the cabal had their evil scientists engineer GMO foods, vaccines, fluoridated water, and chemtrails to poison everyone, including themselves, I suppose.

1:11:39 They allege that the empowered, in their zeal to confiscate guns from the citizenry, deployed political actors to stage all of the mass shootings and bombings at schools, nightclubs, marathon races, and concerts. Then they say, because the empowered are different from the rest of us, elitists like Hillary Clinton turned the basement of a Washington area pizzeria into a child slavery and sex ring.

1:12:14 There are even hundreds of millions who believe that the world’s leading politicians are actually alien reptilian overlords. Well, at least I figured out the origin of that. Allah is the Snake that slithered out of the Garden, and he insists that he is the overlord of all his Muslim slaves, so that would be a “reptilian overlord” for two billion people. So, on that, we’ve got to tip our hat to Allah and say, okay. You got us on that one. There really is a reptilian overlord.

1:12:52 There is a surprising number who are convinced the Earth is flat. Now again, we tip our hat to Allah; he claims that he flattened the Earth and that we should recognize that he is God because he made the Earth flat. Once again, there is justification for that one too. He also claimed that the Earth is just 6,000 years old.

1:13:18 Many believe that the moon landings were faked. All the work to create the Saturn 5 rocket, to train those astronauts, and then to admit that the Soviets had beaten us to the first astronaut and the first satellite. But we came up with this plan. It was a Hollywood production even though there is a Cape Canaveral and those rockets. And the science that makes it happen really does work. And oh, by the way, the pictures they took shows the Earth from the perspective of the Moon back at a time when graphic arts would never have had the ability to do what the ___ had done. Nonetheless, they're insistent upon it.

1:14:18 Many believe that there are UFOs not understanding the physics of matter where energy as matter itself cannot be accelerated anywhere near the speed of light. It's just a physical impossibility and therefore the distances between stars with potentially habitable planets is just too great; it's not possible. Until we are transformed from matter to energy the universe is way beyond our grasp.

1:14:49 Others believe that there is a mirror Earth, or Planet X, on the other side of the sun. Again, this is an Islamic thing because when Muhammad was challenged by the Quraysh who said you're just not impressing us with any of this verbal diarrhea, so we went to the rabbis in Yathrib since they seem to understand who is and isn't a prophet and they came up with these three questions for you. One of them is who was the great traveler? So, Muhammed has like a week of radio silence from his ungod and then he finally says I know the answer. Gabriel gave the answer, and his answer is now confirmed in explicit detail in the Quran that the great traveler was Alexander the Great and he was not traveling by the way from Macedonia to Persia into Egypt along the way. Nope. He traveled in a spacecraft to where the sun goes nighty-night. I don't know if you knew the sun did that. It's not that the Earth rotates on its axis and the sun continues to shine and it just shines on one side of the earth versus the other as the planet rotates. No. According to Allah the sun goes to bed each night in a muddy spring and that muddy spring in which the sun goes to bed has extraterrestrials that live around it and the great traveler, Alexander the Great, not only visited them but preached Islam to them. It wasn't done yet. He went to where the sun awakens each morning and there were aliens living around them too and those aliens had a serious problem. The Gog and Magog were threatening them, so they begged Alexander to come up with a plug to plug the whole in the mountain where the Goggians were coming in to attack them, and he did. So, there really is a Planet X according to Islam.

1:17:27 There are those who deny the very existence of Yisra'elites, suggesting that the race is long extinct, these same individuals then weave a web of lies to infer that they are the new Israel in a contemporary reenactment of the conspiracy of Replacement Theology. There is even a Hebrew Roots Movement and Black Hebrew Israelites where those of sub-Saharan African descent claim to be Yahuw'dym. To hell with Yahowah's testimony and DNA; they prefer to be beguiled and anti-Semitic.

1:18:09 Yahowah wouldn't waste a moment on these wasted lives if it were not for three issues, all of which involve His people. First, the most prevalent and destructive conspiracy has been and remains "Blame the Jews." Paul originated and popularized it, and this was the first religious rendition of this game. He blamed the Jews for killing his god, never mind that Rome actually crucified the Messiah, Dowd. Nonetheless, it's a good story if you hate Jews or are a self-loathing Jew, to blame the Jews for killing your god. The Roman Catholic Church has perpetrated the longest-running, most pervasive, and pathetic version of this conspiracy going back now almost 2,000 years.

1:19:01 Of course, Islamic Jihadists have committed the deadliest and most insane interpretation of "Blame the Jews." The Third Reich even managed to accuse Jews of the deplorable conditions imposed upon their nation after losing the First World War. They promoted the most sadistic application of this twisted scenario all the way to the Final Solution.

1:19:29 "Blame the Jews" has been played out in Russia, Ukraine, Poland, and Greece with their pogroms. Christianity fostered the menace in Europe, England and the Americas, and Islam carried the torch throughout Asia, Africa, and the Middle East. It is promoted in academia today in lockstep with the myth of a "Fakestinian People," in a place called "Fakestan." And now it is rampant on the internet, flourishing worldwide in the artificial realm of social media.

1:20:03 Based upon all we have learned, based upon the harm it has caused, based upon the nature of the perpetrators, there is nothing on the planet God despises more than anti-Semitic conspiracies. They lie in the crosshairs of Yahowah's most basic warning: "I will discredit those who harass you."

1:20:30 Second, conspiracies comprise the worst form of babel. Their proponents not only ignore obvious and provable explanations, rejecting that which is valid and verifiable, they commingle all manner of deceptions, suggesting that the truth is found in a concoction of lies. They slander everyone who proves that they are ridiculous while reinforcing their mythology by snickering among themselves. They are universally less receptive to evidence and reason than the most religious or political devotees.

1:21:16 By clinging to such ridiculous babel, the conspiratorialists are prohibited from participating in the Covenant. And by misleading hundreds, thousands, millions, and billions, they set themselves up to be judged and condemned, sentenced to She'owl. Anything capable of debilitating billions of souls, squandering their opportunity to understand, is worthy of God's righteous indignation. And they have earned it.

1:21:45 We had a real battle early on with a very significant number of those who gave lip service to the Covenant promoting conspiracies, and I'm sorry but you can't have it both ways. If you're going to be conspiratorial God has nothing to do with you, you are not Covenant. He's been very clear about this and in fact my favorite prophet, Yasha'yah, made this undeniable.

1:22:13 Third, promoting inane interpretations of readily explainable events under the title "Truthers" has a tendency to repel thoughtful individuals while ensnaring fellow morons. And that's our issue. There were so many conspiratorialists that clung to what we were saying that it discredited God's message, so I made it very clear. If you want to be conspiratorial that's up to you. I don't give a hoot. Be as stupid as you want to be, but don't take anything that Yahowah has said, anything that we have learned, written or shared and combine it with your malarkey. And while idiots are easy to manipulate, the narcissists who stir the conspiracy pot, deliberately seek the kind of validation that constituents filled with numbskulls can provide. So, to give them the credibility they need they must attract and hold ever more devotees, they need to mix their lies with enough truth to make the self-proclaimed saviors appear believable. That's why they turned to Yada Yahowah, and we had to shoo them away.

1:23:49 And since nothing has ever been as credible as Yahowah's words, they are used as a veneer to glue the chaff of conspiracy together such that it will fool enough fools for the foolish to have a following. This is the secret to the success of Christianity, Judaism, Islam (one of the worst of all conspiracies), Mormonism, Scientology, the mythos of Western Democracies, and certainly now of progressives, even communism – they are all ridiculous conspiracies. Just because they are enormously popular doesn't change the fact that they still are conspiratorial. It is also found interwoven amongst all of the conspiracies promoted today.

1:24:47 This isn't a remote or isolated problem. Conspiracy sites have latched on to my translations and transliterations. In fact, Black Israelites use Yahowah's name that I introduced to the world. They claim to be Covenant as if they wrote these various things.

1:25:13 Then, after using them to draw in those actually searching for the meaning of life, they take the unsuspecting into its darkest and most twisted hole. Hundreds, if not thousands, of people have been led to question these translations of Yahowah's words, even reject them, not on their merits but, instead, based upon their incorporation into social media sites promoting the most absurd conspiracies. Worse, the gaggle of goons on these sites call themselves “Covenant,” they use Yahowah’s name, and weave insights that are known only through these books, through their texts and threads. And they are rude, abusive, arrogant, delusional, and obnoxious – always picking fights. God says do not mix conspiracies with His Testimony.

1:26:13 If there were hundreds of sites and audio programs devoted to accurately translating Yahowah’s words and freely sharing the insights derived from them, this problem would be less catastrophic, but because they are few, and most are errantly related to these translations, the conspiratorialists have enraged the One calling His people home. He is so angry. He even predicted their contrarian influence by derogatorily referring to them.

1:26:53 Dowd begins with: “wa luwz derek huw’ bazah huw’ – and so, the devious nut who misleads and perverts in his despicable manner and ways disrespects and belittles Him, plundering the people by showing contempt while despising Him.” (Mashal / Word Pictures / Proverb 14:2) This is followed by: “ba peh ‘ewyl choter ga’awah – in the mouth of the foolish simpletons devoid of understanding, the quarrelsome, stubborn, stupid, and shameless there is a haughty and glorified insignificant twig, a sucker, which will arise.” (Mashal / Word Pictures / Proverb 14:3)

1:27:45 These trolls permeate social media and the internet, infecting tens of millions with their videos, tweets, texts, and posts. So, this Choter is going to do everything he can to shut them up.

These things known; this is Dowd’s warning...

1:28:06 “For what reason (la mah – why, toward what end and for what purpose one should ask) do noisy and confused throngs of scheming and rebellious Gentiles gather together to conspire in open defiance (ragash gowym – do vociferous and disorderly crowds of restless religious, political, and militant ethnicities and countries estranged from Yisra’el rise up vehemently to hastily agitate in fellowship with one another, with races attempting to be noticed and gain attention through their perceived and contrived plots, erupting like an open wound, swirling around and churning things up for the moment, creating a disturbing tumultuous commotion as part of an unrestrained cult of worshipers for a time by hurriedly conceiving and promoting clandestine conspiracies)?

1:29:24 Dowd’s got a way with words; it pretty well sums it all up. He says,

1:29:30 The people of these nations who are transformed while amassing under an antiquated and unifying religious, political, and conspiratorial leader (wala'om – these groups who associate and gather together under an individual who changes them in some way as a result of primitive and arcane concepts) choose to plot and speak (hagah – are driven away by their choices and utterances, having wrongly decided after selectively searching, muttering their musings aloud along with their imagined grievances and intra-personal beliefs, all formed after giving considerable attention to selective information to scheme to remove the people who are the focus of their complaint (qal imperfect jussive – continually and literally doing so on their own initiative)) in vain, deluded in their fantasies (ryq – by promoting their unreal claims and worthless myths for absolutely no reason, having drawn their weapons as paid warriors without benefit, without an actual reason or cause while revealing their unfulfilling and empty lives and dissatisfaction with their situation, these uninhibited scoundrels brandish idle plans, puffery and dreams, and attack to their disadvantage).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to Sing / Psalm 2:1)

1:30:55 Who needs the college research papers to assess the common denominator of the conspirators when Dowd gave it to us? Even the guy that headed the cult that was the most vociferous conspiratorial, I understand he is still using my translations and claiming them as his own to draw people into his cult. You wonder how could one be so shortsighted to do such a thing? I mean here you have the very words of God revealed more clearly than ever before with an opportunity to be part of God's family and rather than capitalizing on that you choose instead to mislead and take advantage of people, and you don't do it on your own initiative but instead you usurp the words of God to give your cult and your conspiracy a veneer of authenticity. What do you think the consequence of that is? Instead of living in the Covenant family with Yahowah, you're condemned to She'owl. If you just came up with your own stupid idea and you played the false flag game or you played the chemtrail game, you did that sort of thing and you did it on your own, then the worst thing that's going to happen to you is that your soul simply dissipates. You haven't taken anyone away from God because the people who believe you were too stupid to find Him in the first place. But if you take the words of Yahowah and His name and you use them to draw people into your cult and you discredit God and what we are doing here at Yada Yahowah to mislead people, then you're not getting that option of having your soul dissipate; you're going to Hell, and you did it to yourself and to others, and you did it deliberately. What the hell is wrong with you? It's a pandemic. Anyway, it's brilliant what Dowd had to say here.

1:33:13 “For what reason (la mah – why, toward what end and for what purpose one should ask) do noisy and confused throngs of scheming and rebellious Gentiles gather together to conspire in open defiance (ragash gowym – do vociferous and disorderly crowds of restless religious, political, and militant ethnicities estranged from Yisra’el rise up vehemently to hastily agitate in fellowship with one another, with races attempting to be noticed and gain attention through their perceived and contrived plots, creating a disturbing commotion as part of an unrestrained cult of worshipers by hurriedly conceiving and promoting clandestine conspiracies)?

1:33:24 The people of these nations who are transformed while massing under an antiquated and unifying religious, political, and conspiratorial leader (wa la’om – these groups who associate and gather together under an individual who changes them in some way as a result of primitive and arcane concepts) choose to plot and speak (hagah – are driven away by their choices and utterances, having wrongly decided after selectively searching, muttering their musings aloud along with their imagined grievances and personal beliefs, all formed after giving considerable attention to isolated information to scheme to remove the people who are the focus of their complaint (qal imperfect jussive)) in vain, deluded in their fantasies (ryq – by promoting their unreal claims and worthless myths for absolutely no reason, revealing their unfulfilling and empty lives and dissatisfaction with their situation, these uninhibited scoundrels brandish idle plans, puffery and dreams, and attack to their disadvantage).” (Mizmowr 2:1)

1:33:37 It has become so horrendous recently with the rise of progressives and them siding with Islam against Jews. I am anti-political, so while I will admit that I agree with Yahowah that less government interference is better than more government interference, I can't align myself with any political party or any political leader I and condemn them all. But I can tell you that the worst of the political voices today are the progressives because they're so vocal against God's people, so vocal against Israel, so supportive of Israel's principal enemy, Muslims, and they are so effective at dumbing down generations of young people through Academia and the media so that they have caused not only themselves but billions of people around the world to forgo their neshamah | conscience so that evidence and reason no longer matter. The only way that anyone can come to know God is through evidence and reason, through His testimony, and thinking about it is negated because they can't process this information. So, it is their voice that is actually giving credence, and a sense of victimization, to the perpetrators of October 7th. The coverage of them in the media

now is such that the Muslim rioters around the world are seen as activists and as victims as opposed to victimizers and perpetrators.

1:35:33 Angela Merkel, a progressive, invited them into Europe, one of the greatest mistakes in the history of humankind. They brought the disease right into European homes and now there's no way to remove it. This is the world we find ourselves in, and the most lethal contributor to it today are progressives. The religious are bad; I'm not going to make any excuse for Christians, Muslims, or for the Haredim | Orthodox Jews. It's a complete waste of a human soul and mind and there will be none in Yahowah's family, none in Heaven, none that survive this life. Many of them, for leading people astray, for being abusive to God's people, are going to find themselves with an eternity in She'owl.

1:36:34 But the voice that is so difficult today is when the International Court of Justice did their 30-minute diatribe against Israel today by a progressive woman. It's a terrible disease and the ultimate, most popular and fastest growing conspiracy today because they have such influence in the media and in Academia.

1:37:14 But Dowd did a very nice job in this Mizmowr of rooting them out in his opening line. So, this is prophetic of our day. Conspiracies, especially those which inappropriately impugn Jews are so prolific they're woven into the fabric of the human psyche. When the opposite of what is true becomes widely accepted like the existence of Palestinians and a two-state solution for Palestinians, when that gets woven into the Lexicon and people begin to think it's true, and it's nothing but a complete and utter lie and most people can't even figure it out, don't even care, and can't process the information, are incapable of being rational, then what's the end game? Where does stupid lead? What's the purpose? What is to be gained? Nothing but noisy and confused throngs of unrestrained scheming and rebellious people open defiance. It's a cult wholly unreceptive to the truth. They have become akin to zombies like mindless walking dead. At least they are not the Muslim kind of zombies which are mindless murderers, but they give a license for those zombies to kill.

1:39:03 Late in Volume Two of Observations we searched out and found the meaning of la'owm which was deployed perfectly in this context here to depict the lives of the conspiratorialists who have been transformed by an antiquated political, religious, and racist propaganda of the conspiratorial leader. There is always a leader of these cults. It reflects their inclination to group together to reinforce the primitive myths that they are perpetrating. God himself refers to conspiracy as rebellion. He acknowledges that conspiracy is comprised of delusional fantasies and worthless vanity and yet this counterproductive enterprise will become so popular it will affect most the Gentiles in their nation.

1:40:01 I would say today that while almost all Muslims are victims of two conspiracies: one is the general “Blame the Jews” conspiracy and the other is Islam is the ultimate conspiracy (that Satan is God), Christianity is also a conspiracy. It's the idea of everything that was given to Dowd | David is taken from him and given to the mythical misnomer Jesus and the result was that everything that was promised to Yisra'el and Yahuwdym was transferred to a gowym church. It's a horrible conspiracy. Communism is a conspiracy. This promise of power to the people and people will own and control the means of production when the people become nothing but slaves. All of them are serfs with no rights, no opportunity to own anything, and yet ownership is supposed to be by the people when they own nothing. It's a conspiracy and it fails. Then, of course, all the normal nutcase conspiracies of chemtrails, flat Earths, false flags, and all of the likes of it, Blame the Jews, and then today the conspiracy of the progressives.

1:41:37 God is sick of it and if you want to be conspiratorial that is your choice, but you're not going to benefit from anything God has to offer. Conspiracy is just another religion, another poisonous political perspective. There is no reason whatsoever to believe any of them or to overwhelmingly give up the benefit of your neshamah. Why forego reason to promote them?

1:42:19 It is interesting to note that, while hagah is often used to refer to “the conspiratorial plots originating in the hearts and minds of wicked men, those who then give expression to their deceitful conspiracies by lying about them,” the word is used in both Yasha'yah / Isaiah 16:7 and Yirma'yah / Jeremiah 48:31 to express the imagined grievances and beliefs associated with the modern manifestation of Mow'ab, resulting in the decision to drive them out of the Land before exterminating them. Earlier in Yasha'yah 8:19, hagah is associated with the conspiratorial musings of those in concert with the Adversary. But it also has a positive side, with Yahowah using it to encourage His people to ponder the proper response so as to communicate intelligently.

1:43:26 Here hagah is used to say that the proponents of conspiracies are “wrong.” God is revealing that the conspiratorialists are “driven away as a result of their imagined grievances and intra-personal beliefs.” He even affirms that anyone seeking to debunk these myths quickly discovers that those “prone to believe” conspiracies are victims of “selective information,” meaning that they only consider sources, no matter how dubious, that reinforce their faith. That’s why they watch all these videos and direct people to them saying, “Have you seen this video?” Of course, they are using Photoshop and all manner of graphic tricks to deliberately create the myth to support their agenda. Also telling, hagah suggests that the actual purpose of their conspiracies is “to remove and expel the people who are the focus of their complaint.” God is thereby impugning the purpose of the mother of all conspiracies, The Protocols of the Elders of Zion.

1:44:38 Raq, the final word in this prophetic announcement, is used in two Mashal | Proverbs (12:11 and 28:19) to say, “He who tills his land shall be satisfied with bread, but he who follows the vain is void of understanding and will never be satisfied.” Raq is from ruwq, which speaks of “being emptied out and unfulfilled, never satisfied, malnourished and impoverished. This is the root cause of conspiracy. People with unfulfilling lives, who are dissatisfied with their lives, or looking for an excuse, someone to blame for their miserable situation.

1:45:24 Raq is also found in Yasha’yah 29:8 to convey, “It shall come to be as when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats, but when awakened his soul is empty and unsatisfied...so shall the multitude of all of the Gentiles and their nations be when they fight against Mount Tsyown and the Signs Posted Along the Way.”

1:45:54 Modern research into the growth of conspiracies has found this very thing, calling a lack of personal satisfaction with one’s life and a sense of living an empty and unfulfilling, even impoverished existence, the lone common denominator among those who believe and advocate conspiracies. The moment someone comes to me with a conspiracy, the first thing I conclude is that there is something desperately wrong with their life. They are searching for someone to blame for the condition they find themselves in as opposed to being responsible for doing something worthwhile.

1:46:36 As I said last week, we had a lovely young man who is challenged with Asperger's Syndrome who is trying so hard to overcome some of the challenges that have come his way, and as we were working with him we said, “The first step in this path for you is a victory every day regarding personal responsibility: taking care of yourself, doing your own shower, having good bathroom routines, doing your homework, being able to dress yourself, being responsible for the time that you get up and are ready to go. That’s personal responsibility. But that's not the great success. The great success is when you are personally responsible and then help somebody else. Make a contribution, offer something of value to someone, do something nice for someone. That's the ultimate in giving a person a sense of satisfaction and well-being. You don't need a conspiracy because your life is fulfilling if you're making a contribution to others. This is what we were communicating the young man, and a lot of it started to resonate.

1:48:16 Well, we've reached the end of our program for this evening. I hope that some of what we said to Israel about the plight that they're in and what the option is for them, which is the return to Yahowah, will resonate. I hope that someone in Israel gets a sense of purpose and begins to articulate why the term "Palestinian" ought not ever be used unless it is to denounce the fact that there is such a people in a place, that the one thing that serves as a scar in Jerusalem and needs to be destroyed to keep Muslims from fighting over its liberation, the Dome of the Rock and Al-Aqsa Mosque need to be razed, and the way to do it at this point is to (trade)? them.

1:49:18 And, of course, Israel needs to recognize that the problem is Islam, it's not Hamas, and that if their goal is to eradicate Hamas it cannot be done, and it would make no difference. If their goal is to understand, denounce, and challenge Islam, which seeks to eradicate them, then they have hope. And, of course, the single most important thing that Yahuwdaym and Yisra'elites can do is to discard the Talmud and societal traditions and come to know Yahowah through His Towrah, understand what He is asking and offering in return, embrace Yahowah, the God of 'Abraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqob, of Dowd and Yasha'yah and Yirma'yah, the God of the beryth | Covenant Family, the God who inspired all the books on the shelf at yadayah.com.

Thank you for listening. Thank you, Kirk and Dee, for insisting we cover conspiracy because of the aggravation of the conspiratorialists and the harm that they're doing to the Covenant family, to Yahowah's Testimony, and to His people. It is a pleasure we were able to do so.

I look forward to being with you all one way or the other next week. May Yah bless.