

Shabat Towrah Study by Yada
Condemning Rebellion Against God's Mashyach
Year 5990 Yah 09 February 2024

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ( )? A___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three periods ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. I appreciate your understanding.

0:00 Good evening and welcome to Yada Yah Radio. Before we return to the Second and Third Mizmowrs of Dowd I want to address a couple news items.

0:19 The first is an interview of Vladimir Putin by Tucker Carlson, which I found interesting from the excerpts I read from probably ten different sources, that Putin correctly stated that the United States CIA and government deliberately led a coup in Ukraine to topple the popularly elected government so that they could set up the conditions for a proxy war in the Ukraine that the United States had been planning for ten years before that date.

1:08 This is not an opinion or hidden but is exceedingly obvious, well-known, and irrefutable. Putin stated it, and the progressives in the media, who I swear can't think, condemned Tucker for not challenging him upon telling the truth.

1:29 Then he spoke about that he would not have invaded the Ukraine had it not been for the belligerence of the United States including the Ukraine in NATO and then equipping the Ukraine with weapons poised against Russia. Irrefutable, absolute facts, nonetheless, Tucker was condemned by the progressive media for not challenging Putin on telling the truth.

2:00 I have gone from having a fair amount of respect for Putin for being one the few world politicians who will actually tell the truth, who can stand on his own two feet and put together a historical narrative, to the point where I now despise the man because of my bias for Yahowah and His people. Because the United States has sanctioned Russia and put Russia in a position where it had no choice but to expand its allegiance with Iran, which did all manner of bad things, including allowing Iran to finish its nuclear weapons program; because of that, Russia is now in a position where it has no choice but to offer rhetoric that is opposed to Israel and in favor of Muslims. By saying it, even though I understand the motivation for it, and I understand that the fault belongs to the United States, nonetheless, you can't say that kind of stuff about things that are coming out of Russia vis-à-vis the issues of October 7, 2023, and Israel's subsequent war against Islam without engendering Yahowah's, and therefore, my wrath. Even so, I thought it is extraordinary that the leftists in this country know nothing but ad hominem attacks. They are all for aggressively trying to establish the narrative when the opposing party is not progressive. Yet, they will let a progressive rattle on about a series of opinions without ever challenging them.

4:00 The second is that it didn't appear anywhere in the mainstream media. Yet, the president of the United States over the last few days demonstrated conclusively what we've known for the last three years: he has dementia. He got all excited about a release from an independent investigator (appointed by his Attorney General), who said he would not pursue Biden on criminal charges for possession of classified documents. It wasn't because he didn't break the law - he did. It wasn't because he didn't have the documents, because he did. He said, "I don't want to prosecute him because he is an old man with a failing memory, and if he is challenged in open court, particularly here in Washington, he will get a sympathetic jury. So, it's not the kind of case that can be pursued. To demonstrate why I concluded that he is an elderly man with a failing memory, when I questioned him about these events, he couldn't remember any of the circumstances about them. He couldn't even recall the circumstances of his son's death."

5:34 So, Biden called a press conference about this release with about a 20-minute lead time for the Washington Press Corps. The Press had read it, so they knew the reason Biden wouldn't be brought up on charges is because he's an elderly man with a failing memory. They were, obviously, there to ask him questions about it, and he became exceedingly defiant and made a fool of himself. In the end, when questioned about the Gaza War, He called al-Sisi, the president of Egypt, the president of Mexico, and he couldn't remember the name of Hamas. Just the preceding day, he said he had had meetings with two dead European presidents in the last few days.

6:58 The president of the United States has dementia, and it isn't something that came on suddenly. He had aneurysms that required surgery. He was told that he would likely not survive the surgery and that if he did survive, the best outcome was that he would lose cognitive function, which he did. It's obvious, and everyone knows. I've been talking about this for at least six years, and I thought it was just cruel that progressives would prop this man up as if he was qualified to be president of the United States. It's just reprehensible.

7:52 Also, in the news, Hamas has rejected the ceasefire. What they want is absurd; it's as if they live on a different planet. One of the problems is that they don't even know where Sinwar is, and the rest of the Hamas elite are not even talking to him anymore. Recently, Israel unearthed lavish, wide, beautifully tiled, giant tunnels that had cages for the Israeli hostages, so it's a special situation going on there.

8:48: The only sane voice right now in Israel is the man that I've been so opposed to for his religious government and bribing the Haredim, Netanyahu, the only person that's actually telling the United States no, we're not going to do that. We're not going to authorize as a result of terrorism a Fakestinian state. We will not capitulate, and no, we're not going to accept Hamas's terms of surrender. So, it's quite a pickle. You've got an egotistical and immoral man as head of your country with the only sane voice, and you can't trust him as far as you can throw him. I don't think the two most famous people under him, Gant and Gallant, have a collective IQ of 20; they are hopeless. I think Gant has some character; I just think he is ill-equipped to be in a high position of authority over a state where decisions are as critical as they are in Israel.

10:00 I had a tremendous surprise yesterday. I don't get many surprises these days because I'm enduring the most painful thing, I think a human being can, which is translating the Quran. I'm dealing with the Hadith, and I'm speaking of the most despicable being in the history of the universe, Allah, who is Satan, and Muhammad, who was the most pathetic human who ever lived. The Quran is the worst book ever written by any standard. There are few highlights when you spend 14 hours a day dealing with it, although I'm glad I have this opportunity. I think I'm the only person on the planet that's capable of doing what I'm doing.

11:02 The 800-page second rewrite of Volumes 1 and 2 of God Damn Religion, which are immensely more compelling than Version One, is now available at Amazon and yadayah.com. I am now 170 pages into God Damn Religion, Volume Three, "Terrorist," which will be about 750 pages or so upon completion.

11:49 I haven't been back to Prophet of Doom since I wrote it 22 years ago. But since October 7, 2023, I realized that the best hope for Israel, and the ultimate gift I could provide, was to update and rewrite Prophet of Doom based on what I know. I wrote a chapter called "The Pedophile Pirate" about Muhammad's perverted sexuality with children when he was in his late 60s screwing around with six-year-old girls. It's pathetic. Talk about being depressing; that's a pretty sad thing to write about. But at the end of that chapter in the old book, I was dealing with Muhammad's response when he was questioned because during the same time, the Hadith explains that he was diddling a six-year-old child. Muhammad inspired 12 terrorist raids of his former family and neighbors, the Quraysh, trying to steal money from a caravan because, well, no Muslim wanted to work, and the only economy they could master was thievery. He finally succeeded on the 12th raid, killing some Quraysh, robbing the Caravan, and taking captives. The first blood was Islam. So, I was talking about how Allah approved what Muhammad had done. Allah is a big fan of murder, kidnapping, and looting others. So, in writing about that, I was accustomed to having to debate Muslims back in the day. Since they couldn't defend Islam, they used argumentum destruction, which is to change the subject. So, if I was talking about how the Quran is a declaration of war on all humankind (which it is), they would say well, there are violent verses in the Bible. Of course, there is no term has anything to do with God that you could render "Bible." Bible is based on babel, which means "with the Lord," and the Lord is Satan. It is associated with Babel, which is the ultimate beast and the mother of harlots, Babylon.

15:01 Nonetheless, as I went through it, this was the only instruction that Yahowah had given to wipe the Canaanite people out of His home, and He explained the reason. It wasn't open-ended, but I said no; one passage is cited by those who want to claim that the Bible is a violent book, and it's a statement in Psalm 149. Twenty-two years ago, I had never even contemplated translating a passage out of Hebrew, much less looking at the Dead Sea Scrolls. So, all I did was present it from a standard English translation, and because I was a nincompoop, I drew all erroneous conclusions from it. I'm humbled that I made such a terrible mistake, and I'm humbled that God put up with me all these years, knowing that I had blundered so badly with the 149th Mizmowr | Psalm.

16:21 I'm in a different position now, so I'm looking at this, and I'm telling you it's a gift, and even though I'm horribly embarrassed by how poorly I handled it 22 years ago, I'm not the same guy, not even remotely, that wrote this 22 years ago. The difference in what I know and can do relative to Yahowah, the Towrah, Naby, wa Mizmowr is infinite compared to what it was then. So, I had a choice: I could either scratch the whole thing out or say let's tackle it. Let's see what it really does say, and I decided to translate it. It turns out the entire Psalm speaks to what we're doing today and not just in the sense of calling Yahuwdym home, of being Dowd's Herald, of being Yah's witness, of how Yowm Kipurym will play out because of what we're doing together, but almost the entire Psalm is Dowd mocking Islam. From the first word to the last it is Dowd showing that he in fact was the most brilliant man who ever lived. His sarcasm toward Islam is better than 'Elyah's sarcasm towards the prophets of Ba'al and Asherah. But unless you knew the Quran intimately, unless you knew Allah intimately and understood Dowd, you would never pick up on any of it.

18:10 I know for certain no one has noticed any of these things over the past 3,000 years. I'm the only person in a position to notice them because I've now translated most of the Quran, I'm an expert on who Allah really is (he is Satan), and I love serving as his Herald; I'm uniquely qualified to pick up on all of those clues and say this is what Dowd is mocking, which means it had to have been written 3,000 years ago knowing that God's going to inspire somebody that's going to do the work necessary to figure it out at the right time, doing the right thing for the right reason for God's people exposing and condemning Islam on behalf of God's people so that the Gathering for Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, October 2nd at sundown 2033, is a grand and rousing success. That's what the Psalm says. It will be. We will prevail.

19:30 But not only does it say that. In the end, after excoriating Islam in every which way that you could do with a sense of sarcasm, humor, and brilliance, it ends by saying two things: One is that because of what we have done it is God's decision that we be granted the opportunity and the responsibility to judge and condemn those who have abused Israel, to be Satan's, Muhammad's, and Paul's judge, not only to inflict the appropriate penalty not only sending (stream breaks) but inflicting the penalty that is appropriate before they go. What a God to say, "I want you to do something no one has ever survived before, and I'm going to have your back. I'll protect you. I want you to excoriate Islam. I want you to free My people from this scourge by exposing the truth about Islam so they know they're not fighting Hamas, Hezbollah, Iran, the Palestinian Authority, or the Fakestinians, but that they are at war with Islam, and I want you to explain how horrible Islam is and how Satan is the God of Islam. Then, because of the diligence you've applied to this, I will give you the opportunity here. You're the Moseh of Islam, if you will."

21:32 Moshe was brought back into Mitsraym because he's the one person who understood the government, the religion, and the economic caste system of Egypt. God knew he hated it and walked away from it, so he was the perfect person to go into Mitsraym with Yahowah to free His people from that which he had left and hated.

21:56 I hate Islam, Muhammad, and Allah more than any other person on the planet because I know them better than any other person on the planet. Therefore, I'm now the perfect person to expose, condemn and judge them. God has said, "That is now your responsibility; you wanted it, you got it, and you earned it.” Now, that's a really bad thing for Muhammad, his henchmen, and every jihadist who's ever yelled "Allahu Akbar" or sought to harm a Jew because I'm not going to be the least bit sympathetic. I'm going to begin by tormenting and punishing Allah and Muhammad and making them watch.

22:56 The next interesting thing about this is after all that, Dowd ends the Mizmowr by saying this particular individual who is with me now on the excoriating of Islam and who is partly responsible for this gathering on Yowm Kipurym, that is so successful and so appreciated by all the participants, that he's respected for having devoted himself by being enormously steadfast and zealous on behalf of the Children of Yisra'el, noting that the Children of Yisra'el are Yahowah's special, set-apart and unique people, His family. And may we all radiate Yahowah's light. What a treasure!

24:04 I was walking around today after having translated it, and as I searched the Dead Sea scrolls to make certain I had added what the Masoretic text had omitted, which was the end of the Psalm | Mizmowr, I'm just saying, "Yahowah, there are days where You provide marvelous treasures. It's a treasure for us."

24:37 Dee, before the program, you said that as you handle social media and talk to the Covenant families, a lot of people say, "God Damn Religion is not for us. We want to read the other books. We're not interested as much in God Damn Religion." I say that's wrong. Sorry, it's just wrong. Our interest is in Yisra'el. Our responsibility as family members is to protect our family, and the only way to protect Yisra'el is to expose and condemn Islam so that Jews understand the threat of Islam while at the same time explaining what Yahowah is offering in place of it: His Covenant, His Mow'ed Miqra'ey. That is our job. That is our family. You can't turn away from that.

25:46 DEE: It's also like what you were saying with the Mizmowr that you just translated in GDR3 is that Dowd talks about this. He knows the religion and we should be able to communicate with him about these interests that he has. It's important.

26:04 Understand that we are only ten years away from eternity with Yahowah. You can go into eternity with Yahowah saying, "I'm here; I'm delighted to be here," always wondering how much better eternity could have been if you had done more before you got here. You're here and it's a wonderful existence, but how many more Yahuwdym could have been here? How much more joyous could the experience be if you invested a little more during these last ten years? Dowd is recognizing that we are doing that now. If Dowd cared enough to expose and condemn Islam while speaking of the joyous return on Yowm Kipurym, shouldn't we? He's our King, our Shepherd. It's a good idea to be interested in what he's interested in.

27:09 The other thing I want to talk about is at the end of the 149th Mizmowr found in 11QPS; it's the great Psalm scroll. The sucker is 14 feet long; that's a big scroll. The only larger scroll is the great Isaiah scroll, but even with the great Isaiah scroll being longer, still imagine the great Psalm scroll 14 feet long, and it is one of 37 scrolls devoted to Dowd's Mizmowr found in the caves above Qumran. There are more Psalm scrolls than there are Towrah scrolls. It was the most revered collection far and away, but what happened in the transition from the end of the Essenes who copied them? What happened between the first and the second century so that the great Psalm scroll, for example, 20% of its context didn't even make the Masoretic text, was deliberately omitted from the Masoretic text. Nothing even resembles the variation between the Masoretic text and any other text compared to the great Psalm scroll; they aren't even close. So, what happened? Rabbis are what happened.

29:07 There were no rabbis at the time. They came to fruition in the late first and early second century and took over Judaism. And guess what? The rabbis don't like Dowd at all. If you say, "But their symbol is the Star of David." Bull! It's the star of bar Kokhba, their false Messiah. They just ascribe it to Dowd for their legitimacy, but the star belongs to their false Messiah, bar Kokhba. Bar Kokhba didn't have a star. Bar Kokhba means "son of a star." They hate Dowd; they've always hated him and have done everything they can to write him out of the text. They've done more harm to Dowd than the Christians have by robbing all of Dowd's attributes and accolades and giving them to their false god, baby god, dead god on a stick, Jesus.

30:06 But it's worse in Judaism. They defy the idea that God has a Son. And what does God say? "He's My Son. I am his Father. He is My Firstborn." They are looking for a messiah that they have no idea what his name is when we're told explicitly that the Messiah, Dowd, is returning. They never refer to Dowd as a Prophet; they never even consider that he fulfilled Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym, the three most important days in human history. Nothing any human being has ever done is as important to us as God's beloved Son, our Messiah, our Savior, fulfilling Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym, and they don't have a clue what he did, why he did it, how he did it, and yet they read Hebrew. I am a Gentile, obviously a dithering idiot 22 years ago because I didn't have a clue what the 149th Psalm said, and I figured it out. How come they can't? Because they don't want to because of their hatred. The only individual the rabbis hate more than Dowd is Yahowah.

31:54 So, as we proceed in Coming Home, if you are Yahuwdym | Beloved of Yah, if you are Yisra'el | an Individual who Wants to Engage and Endure with God, you need to disavow all association with the lying, conniving, deceitful rabbis as well as from your own politics; the government of Israel and listen to Yahowah. Embrace your Savior, your Messiah, the very Son of God, your Shepherd, the most important man who ever lived, Dowd. He's the only person of which it can be said. He's more important to our understanding of God and our relationship to God than even Moseh.

33:04 Moseh is extraordinary. There's no man that I have ever respected as much as I do Moseh. My three great loves in terms of God's people are Moseh, Dowd, and Yasha'yah. Everything about Moseh is endearing. He's a man of great fortitude and character; he's a brilliant orator, a wonderful writer, a great leader, steadfast, devoted, and yet as important as Moshe is in articulating the Towrah to us in Dabarym, writing Yahowah's presentation of His Towrah teaching in the first four books of His guidance, and of leading the children of Yisra'el away from religion and politics in Mitsraym to the Promised Land, Dowd is more important still because he fulfilled and enabled the Promise that Moseh spoke of.

34:24 So, as we progress, I just want everyone who wants to know Yahowah, everyone who would like to be part of the Covenant family, everyone who is interested in observing the Mow'ed Miqra'ey as they were intended, Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, Shabuw'ah, Taruw'ah, Kipurym, and Sukah to know just how important Dowd is to our lives, to our relationship with Yisra'el and to the people, family and nation of Yisra'el. He is the returning King.

35:02 We are going to begin our review of the second Chapter appropriately entitled, "Son of God," of Coming Home, Volume One. Now, the rabbis would say that God can't have a son because that would be "interspecies." They are not attuned to why God calls Israel "the Children of Yisra'el." Whose children are they if not His? They are not up to speed on the name of the third Miqra' because they only know one of the first three because they have eliminated Matsah. It's the missing ingredient as part of Pesach, and Pesach is now a seven-day celebration as opposed to Matsah being a seven-day celebration, which starts with Pesach and ends with Bikuwrym. And what does Bikuwrym mean? "First Born Children." So, God's in a different position. He says, "I created you. I conceived the Covenant, and I'm making the Miqra'ey available to you because I want to raise a family." The entire inheritance is because we become children of the Almighty and inherit what He has to offer.

36:40 Yahowah refers to Himself as a father because He's head of the family, which makes us His children, and as the firstborn of Yahowah's family, it wasn't 'Adam or 'Abraham; it was Dowd. God said so, and I think we can trust Him on that.

37:07 The Byline for the chapter is "This day I bring you forth as your Father."

37:13 We could, and almost did, make an entire meal out of what Yahowah inspired His Son to write in the opening refrain of his second Song, although I think we made even a bigger deal out of every word in the first Psalm, including the first word of the first Psalm. It's become obvious that God isn't a proponent of man's propositions, particularly religion and government.

37:42 With the exception of Dowd and his son, Solomon, and only in Yisra'el, no government has been authorized or established by God. And even then, Yahowah only acted after the Yisra'elites rejected His Shaphat | Judges, with Shamuw'el being the last of them. Having made the decision to follow in the ways of the Gentiles rather than being Towrah-observant, God figured that since they were insistent on a king, His preference for a shepherd might at least set a good example.

38:27 This, of course, means that Paul, the founder of Christianity and author of 14 letters, the man who inspired the Gospels and the Book of Acts, lied in his repulsive letter to the Romans and again in Hebrews, as did the Roman Catholic Church which grew out of his perverse doctrine. God is as opposed to government as He is to religion and as opposed to militaries as He is to conspiracy. He disdains these human contrivances because they are counterproductive and self-serving, having been created and perpetuated by the worst among us. It also means that the rabbis are wrong when they become political and accept bribes from the government to be part of a coalition, particularly as is the case with the parasitic Haredim in Israel.

39:38 Reprising Mizmowr 2:1 before we move on to the second refrain, Dowd wrote:

39:45 “For what reason (la mah – why, toward what end and for what purpose one should ask) do noisy and confused throngs of scheming and rebellious Gentiles gather together to conspire in open defiance (ragash gowym – do vociferous and disorderly crowds of restless religious, political, and militant ethnicities estranged from Yisra'el rise up vehemently to hastily agitate in fellowship with one another, with races attempting to be noticed and gain attention through their perceived and contrived plots, creating a disturbing commotion as part of an unrestrained cult of worshipers by hurriedly conceiving and promoting clandestine conspiracies)?

40:41 It's quite an opening statement, isn't it? And, of course, there was nothing that fit that definition in Dowd's day; he's writing as a prophet. There have been many who have fulfilled that: the Assyrians, Babylonians, Greeks, Romans, the Romans Catholics, most of Europe (led by the Nazis and fascists), the Communists certainly did, and now Muslims have, and progressives are next in line; a lot of people have fulfilled that prophecy.

41:25 The people of these nations who are transformed while massing under an antiquated and unifying religious, political, and conspiratorial leader (wa la'om – these groups who associate and gather together under an individual who changes them in some way as a result of primitive and arcane concepts) choose to plot and speak (hagah – are driven away by their choices and utterances, having wrongly decided after selectively searching, muttering their musings aloud along with their imagined grievances and personal beliefs, all formed after giving considerable attention to isolated information (boy, that's the nature of conspiracies and religion, isn't it?) to scheme to remove the people who are the focus of their complaint (qal imperfect jussive)) in vain, deluded in their fantasies (ryq – by promoting their unreal claims and worthless myths for absolutely no reason, revealing their unfulfilling and empty lives and dissatisfaction with their situation, these uninhibited scoundrels brandish idle plans, puffery and dreams, and attack to their disadvantage).” (Mizmowr 2:1)

42:29 My wife showed me something, that Dee probably sent, of a big idiot that we used to know who is the ultimate conspiratorialist that does the one thing that upsets Yahowah more than anything else. He combines my translation of Yahowah's testimony with his conspiracies. The top of his page was that the Maui fires were the result of the US unleashing a new modern energy weapon, and you say, "What causes people to be so delusional in their fantasies?" That fire had an immediate and provable cause. The utility company on Maui, in the Lahaina area, knew that their telephone poles had rotted out, could not stand high winds, that the lines themselves were not insulated, and if the poles fell, the uninsulated lines (if the power was not turned out) would spark fires, that it had been dry, that the likelihood of fires was exceedingly high particularly with the high winds of the passing hurricane. The passing hurricane caused the poles to fall, the lines remained uninsulated, the power company wasn't bright enough to turn off the power, and brush fires started everywhere. Because of the high winds, the community was overwhelmed. Because we don't have people smart enough to make good decisions, almost all First Responders responded inappropriately, making the situation worse. That's what happened. Nearly all bad things have very easy explanations, and the evidence is usually ubiquitous, which is here. That's the nature of conspiratorialists; they are utterly stupid, and that's why God wants no association with them.

44:55 DEE: People do need to hear it. I appreciate every time you discuss this because I always see people get up in arms and leave the Covenant. It's like, go because you can't approach Towrah and be reasonable.

45:08 If you think that chemtrails, 911, the nightclub massacre, or Shady Hook were secret plots by your government, then just go away. We are fine without you, and we are worse with you, so please go away. Don't parrot things with the Covenant. If you believe that stuff you are not smart enough to be part of the Covenant. Just go away. You can have your reptilian overlords, you can have your Protocols of the Elders of Zion, be whatever you want to be. If you keep it to yourself, God won't hate you; if you spread it, well then there's a consequence and a penalty. Make your choice in that regard but get away from us. I'm not going to try to convince you that you should change. No, I just want you to leave. Go away. You are not welcome here. Reforming you is not our goal. If you're exposed to the truth and you can still cling to lies like that you don't belong, you're counterproductive, go away. I'm not speaking for myself. This is God's position.

46:40 Dowd goes on to say:

“The rulers (melek – the governmental leaders) of the Earth ('erets – the material realm and land) solely on their own initiative, continually set themselves up (yatsab – prominently present themselves without justification or authorization, take a stand and defend themselves, serving only themselves, thereby committing themselves (hitpael imperfect – consistently on their own initiative, without any outside influence, authorization, justification, or authority)).

46:49 Those who govern (rozen – those in command claiming primacy of authority and an esteemed status) lay a foundation to conspire and rebel (yasad – have from the beginning schemed to rise up through their association, establishing a base (nifal perfect – those who govern will not only conspire at some point in time, they will suffer the effects of their rebellion))

46:55 That's what's happening in Israel and the United States positioning Israel. Israel, for the United States right now, is a sacrificial lamb. There's already been a sacrificial lamb. It's a really good thing. Dowd was the sacrificial lamb. He did it, and we're not going to make Israel the sacrificial lamb, and that's precisely what the Biden Administration is doing. This is the reality of the situation. Saudi Arabia has reneged on their acceptance of BRICS to play the United States for one last hurrah. Saudi Arabia has positioned the United States: You guarantee that you will sacrifice American lives and weapons to defend Saudi Arabia at all costs under any circumstances, and you sacrifice Israel imposing a Palestinian State based upon the 1967 borders, or we will join BRICS and start accepting other currencies other than the dollar and the American economy is toast. Rather than admit the United States is over a barrel, has been played for a fool, and has put itself in a horrible position, it would rather do business with the devil and sacrifice God's people, knowing full well that every attempt to reward the Fakestinians with legitimacy has turned into terror and death. There is a zero percent chance that anything will be different. This move is far more ignorant and immoral than Neville Chamberlain giving the high ground of Czechoslovakia to Adolf Hitler for peace in our time, and yet this is what nations do. This is why Yahowah devoted almost an entire chapter of Yasha'yah, the great Prophet, to denounce what the United States is doing. But this is how countries act; this is how people govern.

49:28 Those who govern (rozen – those in command claiming primacy of authority and an esteemed status) lay a foundation to conspire and rebel (yasad – have from the beginning schemed to rise up through their association, establishing a base (nifal perfect – those who govern will not only conspire at some point in time, they will suffer the effects of their rebellion)) all together (yachad – in a united fashion) against ('al – because of, in front of, and over and above) Yahowah (Yahowah – an accurate transliteration of the name of 'elowah – God guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence and our shalowm – reconciliation) and (wa) against ('al – because of, in front of, and over and above) His Mashyach | Anointed (mashyach huw' – One demonstrably set apart for His service using an application of olive oil as a symbol of His Set-Apart Spirit to demonstrate His authorization and authority).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to Sing / Psalm 2:2)

49:39 Look at that: every nation being called a Christian Nation has conspired against Yahowah's Mashyach because they will claim that the mythical misnomer, Jesus, is their Christ. That is conspiring against Yahowah's Mashyach because Yahowah's Mashyach is the author of the Psalm; he's Dowd. Jews do the same thing. Rabbinic Judaism came into being with Akiba foisting a false Messiah, bar Kokhba, on the people, and they still pine for a false Messiah. So, the government in the nation of Israel is caught up opposing Yahowah, Whose name they will not even mention, and they're against His Messiah as well. Then look at the two billion Mudslimes and their utter hatred of God's people and His Messiah and of their replacement with the most despicable human being who ever lived, Muhammad. And, of course, the messiahs of the progressives and liberals are people like Huxley, Lenin, Marx, philosophers, and other progressives. They all have their false messiah, and all wholly and completely disavow Yahowah and His Messiah. Of the 8 billion people in the world today, there aren't even 8,000, not even one in a million, who side with Yahowah and His Messiah over governments and religions: not even one in a million. That will change, but that's what it is right now.

51:50 There are those who claim that God has chosen the leaders of nations and that He is guiding them. They would all be wrong. They have always been wrong. And in this case, the hitpael mood serves as proof, revealing that they have acted on their own initiative.

52:12 While there is considerable justification to seeing conspirators in every religious and political scheme and seeing men manipulating the system for their own personal advantage, they have been so open about it and insistent upon it that the amalgamation of religion and politics is hardly a conspiracy anymore. Throughout the long march of civilization, there has been a solitary unifying theme: clerics and kings have supported each other's claim to Divine sanction.

52:57 They have typically been inseparable, with the emperor serving as head of the government and with the clerics crowning the king. In Imperial Rome, the Caesars were worshiped as gods, as was the case in Egypt with her pharaohs and Babylon with her kings. Beginning with Emperor Theodosius in 400 CE, at the point that Imperial Rome became indistinguishable from the Roman Catholic Church, each successive despot throughout Europe would claim that they had God's authorization to rule, and God was always opposed to them.

53:49 What's not surprising about this is that religious and political schemes have always been two sides of the same coin. They are human contrivances designed to achieve the same result: to concentrate authority, power, control, property, and wealth among the few. And they were all conceived to be compatible, to work in harmony with one another to create a system that would be difficult, if not impossible, for anyone to break free. Trapped within it, the masses are like cartoon characters in flatland, incapable of envisioning what lies beyond their imposed reality.

54:41 It is why Yahowah could not find a single individual through whom to convey His message for thousands of years. There was no one sufficiently capable and courageous, rational and literate, willing to break free of these integrated control mechanisms and risk everything to expose and condemn those who not only claimed to have God's authorization to govern every aspect of their lives, but who held all of the weapons and armies to wield them and controlled the police, judges, and prisons. In such a world, there were no Noachs, no 'Abrahams, no Ya'aqobs, no Mosehs, no Yahowsha's, no Shamuw'els, no Dowds, no Howshas, no Yasha'yahs, or Yirma'yahs. No one – not a single individual – was receptive to listening to Yahowah and going where His words led for 2,500 years – which would be in abject conflict with what everyone else believed.

56:17 That's why we're here. It wasn't that we competed against a world of candidates, or because of our superior intellect and being remarkably articulate and studious that we were afforded this job after competing with millions; there was no competition. There was no one else in line; there was no one else who even wanted the job. In fact, there was no one else that even knew the job was available; I'm not sure there was anyone that even knew who God is and what He said.

57:12 So perhaps now, from this perspective, we can better appreciate why Yahowah pleaded with His people not to follow in the ways of the Gentiles and their nations, to refrain from being political and religious. But it would not be easy. The web of lies is so intertwined, and we have all been influenced and indoctrinated, even manipulated like Lowt | Lot, so ensnared by these deceptive and deadly human contrivances that even when one among us would find reason to cut a spinneret, there would be hundreds more, all sticky and interwoven, all designed to immobilize prey that might otherwise walk away.

58:01 Keep in mind, these webs were spun to be unseen, its web of silky-smooth bonds ensnaring and entangling the unobservant victim. And yet, the tensile strength of these spider's webs, like those found in nature serving as a metaphor, would be greater than the same weight of steel and even more elastic.

58:36 Those who would struggle against them would wear themselves out, and they would become ever more ensnared in these convoluted traps. Those who witnessed others' rebellious fight for their freedom, pursuing a way out, only to die a public and excruciating death, would be dissuaded from doing likewise, deterred from rebelling and seeking to flee the control apparatus.

59:08 You know, throughout history they've been murdered and tortured. The Muslims tortured those who opposed Allah. They not only tortured them, but they also did victim shaming, and then they claimed that those that they had robbed, abused, raped, and mutilated Allah would burn them again forever in hell, not much different than the Roman Catholic church with all of its torture apparatus. They were just a little more sophisticated at pain, and, of course, how do you beat the Romans with crucifixion specifically designed to inflict the most pain possible? No nation was ever more humiliating than the Assyrians, more egotistical than the Babylonians, or more diabolical than the Europeans, particularly under the Nazis.

1:00:14 What's surprising here is that the religions which claim the Psalms are inspired by their god played such a damning role in all of this. All anyone had to do to expose their malfeasance would be to point out what Dowd wrote in the 2nd Mizmowr | Psalm. But it would never be that simple. Those who wrongly claim God's authority are never persuaded otherwise, even by God's words. And the masses confined and twisted up in their binding web of lies are seldom, if ever, receptive to a reality other than the one they have been conditioned to believe.

1:01:01 The webs of politics and religion, like those of social customs and conspiracies, are filled with holes. Each spindly thread is easily broken. But there are so many of them within these interwoven control contrivances because they have been designed to integrate almost every aspect of the human experience, that without an unbridled passion to be free, a fully functioning neshamah | conscience, and Divine direction, most people not only remain trapped, but they also don't even know that they are constrained.

1:00:14 What's surprising here is that the religions which claim the Psalms are inspired by their god played such a damning role in all of this. All anyone had to do to expose their malfeasance would be to point out what Dowd wrote in the 2nd

Mizmowr | Psalm. But it would never be that simple. Those who wrongly claim God's authority are never persuaded otherwise, even by God's own words. And the masses confined and twisted up in their binding web of lies are seldom if ever receptive to a reality other than the one they have been conditioned to believe.

1:01:01 The webs of politics and religion, like those of social customs and conspiracies, are filled with holes. Each spindly thread is easily broken. But there are so many of them within these interwoven control contrivances because they have been designed to integrate almost every aspect of the human experience, that without an unbridled passion to be free, a fully functioning neshamah | conscience, and Divine direction, most people not only remain trapped, but they also don't even know that they are constrained.

1:01:42 That was the end of the 149th Mizmowr when Yahowah is saying there's something unique about an individual devoted and steadfast, and it's true. It's been 22 years of six and seven days a week 10 to 14 hours a day. That's a lot of dedication consistently willing to go where the words lead no matter the risk. Now it's not a sacrifice; the rewards are tremendous and eternal, and the company is sublime. Nonetheless, there are few takers.

1:02:40 Those who break the bonds of religion are typically ensnared by a political scheme that is no better. Thinking that they are going from faith to reason, they simply find themselves trapped in a different web of lies.

1:02:57 It is the story of 'Abraham seeking Yahowah's help with his nephew, Lowt | the Entangled and Ensnared got right and wrong. It's about four individuals who, with the guidance of Yahowah's messengers, finally broke free of Sodom, representing modern Mow'ab, before it was destroyed, who would later reject the guidance offered to them by the messengers which would have taken them home. Mow'ab is all around us. We have become like Sodom. Even on a planet with eight billion souls, fewer than eight thousand will break free of this web prior to the fulfillment of Taruw'ah. Hopefully ten times more will participate in Yowm Kipurym.

1:03:59 It took the perfect storm for me to break out of the interwoven web of politics, religion, economics, societal customs, patriotism, conspiracy, and militarism, so I'm not immune to how difficult it is. I not only lost my business, a public company, due to the deceitful machinations of the most religious employees, I was publicly crucified in the media for crimes that I didn't commit that I wasn't even there to have any influence over, but it didn't matter. Perceptions were all that counted at that point. My faith was shattered. It wasn't just my faith in religion, capitalistic, economics, and journalistic institutions, patriotism and politics, everything was shattered. Everything that I had held to be important became worthless. Shortly thereafter I became disenfranchised from politics, patriotism, and the military, especially after getting to know George W. Bush personally and then witnessing the revolting carnage of 9/11. I saw the president act as he told me he would, counterproductively invading two uninvolved nations, fundamentally changing the world for the worse and bankrupting the country – all on a web of lies. Then adding to the perfect storm, I had to walk away from a psychotic father and an abusive wife, eroding the myths of family values. Free of every sticky and silky spinneret, I was finally like ‘Abram after he had walked out of Babylon.

1:06:26 Unlike ‘Abram, however, while there was a Towrah to read, it was so poorly translated that it wasn’t nearly enough to embrace the truth. Worse, it was hidden beneath a mountain of New Testament and Talmud deceptions. I was still living in the world Paul and Akiba had woven, not the one in which Dowd had so brilliantly expounded. But as I pursued the connections between 9/11 and Islam at Yahowah’s direction, I discovered an insight that profoundly changed my life. Pondering why Allah, who is Satan, would denounce Satan in his Quran, I came to understand what Yahowah had revealed about the Adversary and his connections with Babylon, with religion, politics, deceit and conspiracy in Yasha’yah 14. Satan despises his depiction as the Adversary because it precludes him from his prime objective, which is to be worshiped as the god of religion. The final bond that needed to break was Sha’uwl, another man who admitted to being demon-possessed.

1:08:02 Having witnessed the binding and entangling strands of religion and politics, of economics and militarism dissolve, and having come to understand the source and purpose of this matrix, I was free to do as Noach and ‘Abram, as Moseh and Dowd had done – which was to actually listen to what Yahowah had to say and then act upon His guidance. There was nothing standing in the way anymore.

1:08:36 Over the ensuing 22 years, we have come a long way by never venturing off course, and by always trusting Yahowah’s testimony. As a result, the path out of Mow’ab, out of ‘Edowm, and away from ‘Amown, this exodus from Mitsraym and Babel to the Promised Land has been more clearly marked and illuminated. The Nes | Banner that we are responsible for writing, that God Himself is lifting up is being comprised, and Yahowah is lifting it up to call His people home out of the three Babylons – Geographic Babylon, Political Babylon and Religious Babylon.

1:09:40 From the onset of Coming Home, I have presented the interactions between Yahowah and Dowd as Father and Son. This approach is particularly relevant now because, in addressing the response of political and religious leaders toward their relationship, Dowd spoke of it as being “over Yahowah and against His Mashyach.” This means that from their perspective, to rise up against one was an attack on the other. To claim supremacy over Yahowah, as the religious have done with HaShem, Jesus, and Allah, has engendered a hostile response from His Messiah. To denigrate the Son is to disparage His Father. You can't denigrate Dowd, the Son of God, the Messiah, and our Savior without antagonizing his Father, Who just happens to be God.

1:10:56 And yet, it is by robbing Dowd of everything mashyach huw' | His Messiah portends, both in Judaism and Christianity, even Islam, that the religious have schemed together through their "Scriptures" to lay the foundations they would use to defraud believers. In Judaism, ha mashyach is an unknown individual for whom they wait – not Dowd. By denying the fulfillments of Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabu'ah by Dowd in year 4000 Yah, and then by replacing Taruw'ah and inverting the purpose of Kipurym, rabbis have plundered Yahowah's Mashyach of the respect he has earned. And by doing that they have deprived the people of the benefits that he has provided.

1:11:47 Equally egregious, rather than admit that the founder of their religion was wrong, rabbis have doubled down on Akiba's dimwitted scheme of venerating the false Messiah, bar Kokhba | Son of a Star by ascribing that same star to David. In so doing, there are two prominent flags in Israel, one emblazoned with the "Star of David" and the other the "Chabad Moshiach" featuring a yellow field, red writing, and a blue crown. Both are wrong. I love Israel and it pains me every time I see an advocate for Israel wearing a six-pointed star.

1:12:24 As a result of Paul's machinations, Dowd was robbed of his ha Mashyach and Ben 'Elohyim titles to create an object of worship in the man-god Jesus Christ. His name and that of their religion is a direct attack upon Yahowah's Mashyach and Ben and, therefore Judaism is an assault against God, Himself.

1:13:11 As Dowd's inspired testimony has, and will continue to demonstrate, Father and Son, Yahowah wa Mashyach huw', work hand in hand, side by side, to achieve salvation and reconciliation through the Miqra'ey on behalf of the Beryth for Yisra'el. The simple truth is that the Beryth is God's Family and Dowd is His Firstborn. And for the rest of us, the singular means to approach our brother and Father is through the Invitations to be Called Out and Meet, the Miqra'ey – which Father and Son fulfilled together.

1:14:16 It isn't until we come to appreciate this relationship, why, when, and how it has led to this most favorable resolution of our guilt, that we truly know Yahowah and Dowd. And in this light, a nameless Mashyach, the perception of unfulfilled Mow'edym | Restoring Witnesses, the advocacy of Jesus Christ, a New Testament, a Talmud, or a false Mashyach and his star, is an affront to the Son and an attack on the Father, and thus debilitating.

1:15:01 One of the interesting things about being “mashyach – anointed” is that the recipient is “separated and set apart from all others” and, thus, cannot be seen as integrated into a popular religion or body politic. At the time this was written there was only one man who had been “mashyach – anointed” by Yahowah – the author of this Psalm, Dowd | David. If Dowd is speaking of Yahowah’s Mashyach, he is speaking of himself. To be mashyach in the most positive and authorized sense as Yahowah defined the concept, one has to be anointed in olive oil at Yahowah’s direction. Dowd was three times. He lived two lives which have already transpired. His third life is but a decade away.

1:16:16 While Dowd represents the truest sense of the word, as is the case with most Hebrew terms, mashyach isn’t necessarily an endorsement. Yahowah used it in conjunction with Cyrus, the Babylonian king, who lived and died as a pagan estranged from God. Although to be fair, Cyrus was very unique among civilized rulers. There may not have been anyone more fair, less vengeful, than Cyrus. He was a very effective tool for Yahowah to use on behalf of His people, but he was definitely not anointed, and he was not Yahowah’s Mashyach. He was simply an implement to be wielded to gain the attention of a wayward nation.

1:17:17 The good news here for Yisra’el is that God’s people are being led to see this as it once was and remains, as the choice between Yahowah and Dowd on one side and the Adversary and religion on the other. The Mashyach | Anointed they are being asked to accept is the Shepherd and the Lamb, as well as the King of the Millennial Kingdom. The beloved Son of Yah is Dowd. He is not unknown nor is he the Christian Messiah crafted in the image of Dionysus.

1:18:01 There is another problem, also of a religious nature, causing Yisra’el to reject Dowd. According to the acclaimed prophecy in the 9th chapter of Yasha’yah, the Son of God, His Mashyach, is a “gibowr – a mighty leader and gallant warrior” who has and who will once again, conquer Yisra’el’s gowym enemies, unify the kingdom, and bring peace to the Land. It was in the Yowbel year of 133 CE that Akiba transferred these attributes to his warlord, Simon bar Kokhba, fooling many in Israel to follow him to their doom at the hands of Rome. But what they have all missed is that Dowd was and will be that Mashyach | Anointed Messiah.

1:19:08 Far more egregious than this is the realization that the reason Akiba foisted this false Messiah on Jews was that he was seeking to justify Judaism’s failure to recognize that Dowd had come to fulfill Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabuw’ah in the Yowbel year of 4000 Yah as he himself had predicted. To pronounce that bar

Kokhba was ha Mashyach was to denounce what Dowd had done. It was the most egregious crime ever perpetrated against God's people, and it was committed by the founder of Judaism.

1:19:34 It's obvious that Dowd was going to do this. It took us so long to figure it out because the entire world has been led in the opposite direction. So many web strands have been woven between us and the truth over these past 3,000 years that you have to cut through and torch them to find it. You have to actually be in the position I found myself with all of it trashed to be open to the truth, and even then, even though it's undeniable, even though it's overt, we've been so conditioned to not seeing it that we're blind to it. But folks, there's a reason that the 22nd Mizmowr is the most graphic and visual in all of the Towrah, Prophets, and Psalms. There's a reason that it discusses a sacrifice through Roman crucifixion a thousand years in advance of it occurring and how this would be the fulfillment of Pesach and how his soul would then be laden with our guilt and carried into She'owl and deposited there so that he would see the light again as he's reunited with the Spirit and taken home by Yahowah on Bikuwrym.

1:21:20 And just in case you didn't understand that from the first-person account that Dowd wrote in his own hand in the 22nd Mizmowr, it's expounded upon in the 88th. And just in case you missed that, the most glorious lyrics ever written, Dowd's Song, the most profound piece of literature in the history of the world is the 89th Mizmowr | Psalm. It lays it all out that Dowd is the Son of God, that Dowd is the Messiah, that Dowd is the Zarowa' the Sacrificial Lamb, that Dowd is our Savior, that Dowd is returning as the King of Kings, that Dowd, when he comes back, will be as God as brilliant as the sun. It's all there.

1:22:19 And in case you missed that, the prophet's Prophet, Yasha'yah, specifically spoke not only about how important Dowd was to everything that matters with God's people in the soaring oratory of the ninth Chapter, this Son that is given to us, this child who was born that will be the Gabowr, Dowd, and only Dowd, there's only one name mentioned in all of that prophecy, Dowd. And If you didn't get it then, then one of the most majestic prophecies ever scribed is in Yasha'yah 53, which begins by saying, "Do you recognize that somebody has finally figured out who the Zarowa' are and how the Zarowa' apply to what I'm about to tell you, about how the Sacrificial Lamb accepted the burdens of his people and therefore fulfilled Pesach? Do you understand that when Yahowah was having this discussion with 'Abraham and Yitschaq on Mount Mowryah about providing the lamb and a father and son and a beloved Son, His only Beloved Son there enacting Pesach, that Yahowah said, "I'm going to take care of that," and He did by offering His Son? It's all there.

1:24:04 These Mizmowr are explicit in explaining that Dowd volunteered to do this, even explaining why he decided that it was appropriate for him to fulfill Pesach and Matsah, and why Yahowah approved what His Son had volunteered to do. And yet, the religious have done everything they can to deny it.

1:24:41 There was a first, a second, and there will be a Third Coming of Dowd, the Son of God and His Messiah. There's no one who can read the Prophets and not recognize that God said explicitly that He's bringing Dowd back. The prophecy that's been the most important to me comes from 2 Shamuw'el 7:11. It is explicit. Dowd is not only the Son of God, but that Yahowah is bringing him back to be King.

1:25:18 The first prophecy on Dowd may be the most magnificent prophecy ever written by Moseh. In the 18th chapter, he speaks of "one who be like him from among your people" and what explicitly he will achieve. There's only one person that this can be speaking of: Dowd. In human history, it only speaks of Dowd and builds from there. This tells us that Yahowah can and will bring the souls of those who have been part of His Covenant and are important to His plans back for the millennial Kingdom beginning on the 10th anniversary of what happened in Israel on October 7th, 2023. So, on October 7th, 2033, all of the Covenant members throughout history will be brought back with Dowd as our King. Since we all know that God is committed to doing that, what's the difference between bringing him back twice and three times? Why do you think he was anointed three times? So, Dowd is the one who returned to fulfill Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabuw'ah on behalf of his people in the year 4,000 Yah, 33 CE. He is the real person that the caricature of Jesus was modeled after.

1:27:21 In Judaism, Christianity, and Islam the religious have misconstrued Dowd's first life, and misappropriated the next two. And to do so, they must deny what Dowd wrote in all of the Mizmowr, but particularly the 22nd through the 31st, and then what was written in the 88th and 89th as well as everything Yasha 'yah | Isaiah and the other prophets had to say about him.

1:28:16 The truth is as obvious as words allow. It is the religious mindset that has precluded understanding. It's why I shared with you all that I had to lose to finally be free enough to see the truth. In reality, I lost nothing and gained everything. That same opportunity is available to you, to everyone.

1:28:47 The Towrah proclaims that the Shabat celebration of Sukah, following God's return, the ten-year anniversary of what happened tragically in Yisra'el on October 7, 2023.

1:29:01 I think it is the demarcation of the beginning of the Time of Ya'aqob's Troubles. Nothing will ever be the same. The Time of Ya'aqob's Troubles began on October 7, 2023, and will conclude exactly ten years to the day with the celebration of Sukah. God's going to return with Dowd on Kipurym, and there's a lot of business to take care of in those five days.

1:29:42 We are discovering that the world will be united against the man Yahowah chose to save and guide His people – the man who explained how to properly observe the Towrah in the 119th Mizmowr and then lived it. The man who wrote the Psalm that made it possible for me to bring these programs to you, for me to write God Damn Religion, for me to share the truth about the Towrah and Prophets and the 91st Mizmowr. More than any other, it is Dowd's name and words which are on the Nes | Sign and Banner which Yahowah is lifting up to call His people home.

1:30:35 Dowd knows that man seeks to control while God seeks to free humankind from religious and political control. He understands that we must be free of human dominion before we can participate in the Covenant. That's what happened with 'Abram and Moseh and is what must happen to all of us if we are to be part of God's family. So, at this time, Dowd, Yahowah's Mashyach, is asking his people to break our allegiance to all forms of governmental and religious control. The question is: Will you join us?

1:31:23 “Let us choose of our own volition to break and pull off (nathaq – to snap off and tear away, being set free and purged, separated from by bursting free of (piel imperfect cohortative)) their bonds which trap and ensnare ('eth mowsrah hem – that which binds and immobilizes, their spinnerets and tethers, their fetters, shackles, and chains, and thus religious and political restraints, man's yokes which control and tame) and (wa) desire to cast off and throw away (shalak – reject, cast away and fling (hifil cohortative imperfect)) from us (min 'anachnuw) their twisted and interwoven threads which bind and immobilize ('aboth hem – their fibrous ropes and cordage, their intertwined web of silky and sticky spinnerets which fasten and tie, that which they can twist and pervert to harness and control).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:3)

1:32:24 “Let us choose of our own volition to break and pull off (nathaq – to snap off and tear away, being set free and purged, separated from by bursting free of (piel imperfect cohortative)) their bonds which trap and ensnare ('eth mowsrah hem – that which binds and immobilizes, their spinnerets and tethers, their fetters, shackles, and chains, and thus religious and political restraints, man's yokes which control and tame) and (wa) desire to cast off and throw away (shalak – reject, cast away and fling (hifil cohortative imperfect)) from us (min 'anachnuw) their twisted and interwoven threads which bind and immobilize ('aboth hem – their fibrous ropes and cordage, their intertwined web of silky and sticky spinnerets which fasten and tie, that which they can twist and pervert to harness and control).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:3)

1:32:53 To my knowledge this has never occurred in all of human history. Dowd is speaking prophetically of our present day, hoping that Yisra'el will listen to him and remove the twisted, interwoven, and entangled threads which bind them to human institutions, and in this case particularly Israeli politics and Judaism. It is only once this is done that any of us, including Yisra'el, can return to Yahowah.

1:33:31 As an interesting insight, just as there are religious, political, and militaristic, economic, societal, and conspiratorial schemes, most spiders have six spinnerets which they can manipulate independently or in concert with one another. These spinnerets are not simple structures with a single orifice producing a single thread but, instead, highly complex structures of microscopic spigots capable of twisting together and combining these nearly invisible filaments. Without doing so, the independent silk threads would be weak and useless. In life, God has given us a metaphor through which to understand the interwoven web of human babel.

1:34:36 Everything God said, the deeper one digs, the more one explores, the more you learn, the more you come to understand. For example, spiders extrude silk from their spinnerets to do more than just build webs designed to ensnare other unsuspecting insects imprisoning those they trap, they construct silken galleries for their own protection using their spinnerets to distribute their sperm and then expand their brood. They even weave cocoons for their metamorphosis.

1:35:30 If you are reading this, and have not done so, if you are still political or religious, pull off everything that binds you to man's control mechanisms and throw it all away. From the proper perspective in the light, you can actually see these spinnerets, these sticky filaments that have precluded you from being free and knowing Yahowah. Now that you can see them, stay away from them, especially that which is “aboth” in Babylonian fashion. - “to bind and control.”

1:36:10 It is a simple truth, and yet one which is in conflict with everything we have been indoctrinated to believe. To be free we must be apolitical, neither voting nor submitting. To be saved and benefit from all we are learning, we must be anti-religious, neither believing nor participating. To be right with God, we must acknowledge what is wrong with man.

1:36:45 There is no path to the Covenant, no way into Heaven, no means to salvation that is accessible through any religious or political scheme. It isn't until we free ourselves from their bonds that we are free to know and approach Yahowah. He will not allow us to drag that muck into His home.

1:37:15 Were there any religions, politics, or conspiracies in Eden? No. There was a brief conspiracy when a Karuwb that we now know as Hylel ben Shachar, Satan, climbed down off that wall proud and full of himself, clever in his scheme, misappropriated and misconstrued Yahowah's testimony, and Chawah ate it all up. Wanting to be just like God, Chawah also misconstrued Yahowah's testimony. Fortunately for us, God demeaned that Karuwb, who was really clever back in the day. He made an enticing proposal by changing so little in God's word to make it sound plausible. But he negated the instruction and look at the consequences and how humankind was degraded and separated from God. When Yahowah said, "You know, there's going to be a consequence for that, and the consequence is I'm turning you into a damn snake. Grovel in the dirt," he lost all his power. Yes, he's got a toxic bite; he can paralyze with his venom, but you know that snake is otherwise impotent. He's no longer clever. I will tell you that the Satan of the Quran is a dumb piece of crap. He has a wee little reptile brain. The Quran is pathetic. A three-year-old with a bad attitude could do better. So, Satan has lost his Mojo.

1:39:17 When Satan inspired Paul, he worked with an entirely different caliber of individual. Paul was a conniving rabbi, so his ploy in the Christian New Testament is infinitely more credible than Allah's "Kill for me so that I can torture them forever in Hell." So, Satan's got no game. Now, 1,400 years ago with Islam, this reptile was ultimately sunbaked in the desert, and he's got no game; all he's got is stupid now. Sometimes you say, "Okay. So, you're taking on the Devil. Isn't that kind of a risky thing, one man against Satan?" No. He's an idiot with no power of any kind. It's child's play. But keep in mind, folks, that until you separate from things that Satan has inspired man to conceive (religions that promote him as God and politics that inspire men to control others and to preclude them from knowing the truth), then you're not in a position to avail yourself of what 'Abram experienced on the way out of Babylon which is Yahowah inviting him into the Covenant, or what Moseh experienced when at the base of Mount Choreb tending sheep because he had left all of the politics, religion and caste system of Mitsraym behind. So, we must be in that position.

1:41:31 Recognizing that those Yahowah is laughing at are those who have conspired to oppose Him and ensnare His people, we read...

1:41:36 “He who inhabits, establishing His dwelling place (yashab – He who sits and restores, lives and renews) in the heavens (ba ha shamaym – in the spiritual realm) holds them in contempt and will pulverize them (sachaq—mocks and scoffs at them, lacking any concern over rubbing His enemies away because He disrespects and disdains them, seeing them as a source of derision over whom He scoffs (qal imperfect)). (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:3) And He's going to pulverize them.

1:41:50 Yahowah (Yahowah – the proper pronunciation of the name of 'elowah – God as directed in His towrah – teaching regarding His hayah existence and our shalown – restoration) ridicules their foreign behavior and mocks their unfamiliar language (la'ag la hem – scoffs and disparages their unintelligible stammering and holds them in derision (qal imperfect)).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:4)

1:42:05 For the most part the last 2,500 years God's not paid much attention to what's happened on Earth. There was no one to talk to, no one to communicate through, no one to accomplish anything with. He was here to do everything He could to support Dowd, but that was God the Father and Son working together without anybody else even aware of what they were doing. But that's changing. He's paying attention now because there's only a decade left. He has promised to reconcile His relationship with His people on Yowm Kipurym, and He will do so. That means He has to re-engage to protect Israel from total destruction over these next ten years, and when they're over, He will hold all of those who come against His people in total contempt and they will cease to exist. And for those who take exception to me calling Allah a piece of shit, that he's got a wee little brain of a reptile, that the Quran is the worst book ever written, understand it is Yah's preference to ridicule such things and if you don't like it, you won't much like spending time with Him. That is His style, and I happen to like it, not everybody is going to.

1:43:36 Some people are going to be sensitive and say, "You know you shouldn't mock people that way." Well, I'm not trying to win friends and influence people. All I want to do is present the truth and I want it available to Yisra'el so that those who really want to know God who are willing to walk away from religion and politics to be part of His family have access to the truth so that they can capitalize upon it and be part of that wonderful Family reunion ten years from now.

1:44:04 DEE: Quite frankly, if you don't want to mock people who commit heinous crimes like rape and pedophilia, don't come around me. I don't want to talk to you.

1:44:15 YADA: Muhammad was a rapist, a pedophile, a mass murderer, a terrorist, a thief, a liar, and people are still raping, plundering, mutilating, and terrorizing Jews and others because of what this piece of crap had to say and what he did, and if you think that it's polite to respect such a man than I am telling you that you have no compassion or morality. Those who are moral and compassionate stand up against and oppose that which inspires terrorism, rape, pedophilia, incest, mutilation, and murder, and that is certainly God's position.

1:45:12 The subject matter doesn't need to be conveyed. Still, I hold a considerable animosity towards a particular individual that has done horrible things to people that I care about. The retort is always, "Why don't you be the bigger man and forgive and forget?" Why would I do that? I'm not going to forgive heinous behavior. I'm not going to forget what happened. If anything, I want to expose it, condemn it, remain judgmental, and opposed to it and to warn everybody else that will listen about it. You don't want to forgive a rapist. What a stupid thing to do.

1:46:06 I hear people messed up in religion saying, "I know they murdered my son, but I have forgiven them. Why? Are you insane? Are you immoral? If you do these kinds of things, I want to hold you accountable. I want you exposed; I want you condemned. I guess that's one of the reasons I got the job. I'm very judgmental. Wrong is wrong.

1:46:40 You have to understand what kind of things have to be opposed. I don't care what you do to harm yourself. Somebody who wants to harm themselves by misusing drugs doesn't care, and I certainly am not going to spend any time dealing with them. If they want to waste their lives, that's up to them. The kinds of things that matter are the abuses of God's people and the corruption of His message. Those things matter and you must be opposed to them.

1:47:33 Rape and pedophilia are acts against the innocent and defenseless. While an individual act is so common today that it's tough to thwart an individual attack amongst the millions of people who abuse others in this way, if there is a political doctrine, a cultural teaching, a social edict, or, worst of all, a religion that encourages, justifies, and condones such behavior, as is the case of Islam, then the only moral choice is to be steadfast, devout, and unequivocally bold against it. So, that's where we stand.

Well, thank you for listening. Thank you, Kirk and Dee. We will return to this spot next week. Thank you, Dee, for posting last week's recording. For those who didn't listen, it was a program devoted to awakening Israel to the threat that is against them and calling Israel home because the only salvation for God's people is Yahowah and returning to Him.

May Yah bless you all. We look forward to being with you at this same time next week. Good night and Shabat Shalom.
