

Shabat Towrah Study Yow'el Yahowah is God Year 5991 Yah 19 July 2024

Please Note: The transcript is now in verbatim format to accommodate those involved in making the "Talkies." Thank you for your understanding. Mary Kris

0:00 Welcome to Yada Yah Radio. I'm your host Craig Winn, known affectionately as Yada, particularly by Yahowah, our God. We're going to pick up this evening where we left off last week. It's a frightening prophecy, a prophet that very few people talk about and yet one who had a lot to say about the events that are unfolding today. His name is Yow'el. It is corrupted into "Joel." Yow'el is from Yahowah and 'El and means "Yahowah is God." He's very much like the prophet that is quite well known who didn't actually write anything for us to read, 'Elyah, known as "Elisha" even though his name 'Elyah means "Yahowah is God." Yow'el and 'Elyah, same name yet in a different order. It's like the successor to Moseh was Yahowsha' and the great Prophet is Yasha'yah. It's the same name, just with Yahowah and Salvation. In this case Yahowah and 'El, God in different order. That's important to know because God has but one name. It's interesting when His name is presented in someone else's name, for example, like the current prime minister of Israel today. What is his name? Netanyahu. What does nathan mean in Hebrew? "To give." And yahuw is the same as Yow'el here as the first two syllables of Yahowah's name. YaHoWah. So, when it's part of another name, no one seems to have a problem pronouncing it. But when it's just Yahowah's name, "Oh Boy! You can't pronounce that! No! there's four consonants and no one knows how to pronounce it. We've got too much respect for him to say His name!" What a bunch of malarky.

2:30 The fact of the matter is Yowd Hey Wah Hey the Yowd is pronounced, the Y is pronounced just as it is in English. It's a vowel-consonant in English; it's a vowel-consonant in Hebrew although it is more correctly considered one of the five vowels in Hebrew (there are 17 consonants and 5 vowels). The Yowd is pronounced as you would "yes" Yasha'yah. No one really has any question about it. It is the first letter of Yisra'el.

3:10 The Hey is exceedingly easy to pronounce. It's the "ah" sound. It comes from the verb "hayah." Yahowah told us His name, what it meant, and the verb it was based on when He introduced Himself to Moseh when He said, "I Am Who I Am" – __ hayah 'asher __ hayah. Hayah has two heys in it and it's the two "ah" sounds in Yahowah's name. And it, of course, also has a Yowd, so it tells you how to pronounce the "Yah" at the beginning of His name.

3:45 The W, which is a Wah in Hebrew, The W, which is the Wah in Hebrew, is pronounced very similar to the way it is pronounced in English. As a matter of fact, in the English language there are probably 500 words that have an O preceding a W. Owl is one of many examples. Owe, hundreds and hundreds of words that have an "ow" sound to them and that is the exact same sound in Yahowah's name. The most obvious place is that religious Jews falsely claim that they are "Torah observant," and they dress the Towrah up like it is a whore. They really mean that they prefer the rabbinical argument than their Talmud. But when they say "Torah" they are pronouncing the Wah sound because Towrah has a Wah in it and it creates the “o” sound. The most common word spoken amongst Jews for the past 2,000 years is shalom. The “o” sound in shalom is from the Hebrew Wah. There is no question that it creates the “o” sound and its legacy is just like legacy in the English language.

5:15 In English, the Y is a vowel - consonant making the same sounds as it does in Hebrew, and the W is exactly the same, making the “o” sound just as it does in English.

5:36 And then Yahowah’s name concludes with the “ah” sound. It’s interesting too that a Hebrew word that ends in the Hey, the “ah” sound, is almost always feminine. And so Yahowah's name actually has a feminine aspect to it, and God's very comfortable with that because He has both a paternal and a maternal aspect to His nature. The Set-Apart-Spirit, the Ruwach Qodesh, is the feminine manifestation of Yahowah’s nature. Ruwach is a feminine noun and the paternal nature of Yahowah is conveyed by His presence and His identity as He explains that He is our God and our Father. So, these are not difficult concepts. It's remedial, actually and it's surprising for the past 2,500 I don't think there has been anyone prior to this series of books, the Yada Yahowah series, that has actually pronounced Yahowah's name correctly, or that has conveyed the reasons behind the pronunciation as we have done for the past 20 years. So, it's one of the most profound prophecies about the job that we are performing on behalf of Yahuwdaym calling Yahuwdaym home at this time is that we are the first to recognize the proper pronunciation and the importance of Yahowah’s name in some 2,500 years since Mal’aky was the last of the prophets.

7:30 We're going to return to this passage in Yow’el. It is 1:7 where we left off. It is particularly pertinent this evening because today, as expected, the Nazi Court declared that Jews are building homes in lands that they don’t own, even though they bought it, even though God gave it to them, even though it has been part of their nation for years, even though the people that are squatting there don't belong, and it’s obvious they don't belong, and even though building houses is about the most positive thing that you can do as a nation or culture and the people that are trying to grab the land are best known as terrorists. But nonetheless the Nazis at the World Court, part of the United Nazi Organization of anti-Semites, voted, not surprisingly, to declare that all Jewish developments in homes in what they call the West Bank and Palestinian territory are illegal, not smart enough to know that there is no such thing as a Palestinian, as Palestine, a Palestinian territory, that it is an outright lie, and it's a shame that Jews perpetuate this lie that they will actually give voice to this myth of Palestine and Palestinian, and it gives credence to the great lie called the Final Solution, excuse me, Two State Solution. That’s how the Nazis and antisemites and world leadership would refer to it that the Palestinians deserve a state. No, they don't. They're Muslims. They are invaders, and they’re ruthless terrorists. They deserve nothing. They ought to have been booted out of Yisra’el a long time ago, and I can promise you that when Dowd returns with Yahowah in short order, it's less than 10 years from now, October 2nd, 6:22 PM in 2033, it’s Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah. If you'd like to mark your calendars, I would strongly encourage you to be there on that date.

9:56 First order of business will be to rid the world of Muslims, Christians and Haredim. If, you're Progressives you will all have the same fate, so don't gloat if you're wearing a rainbow flag or black morning suit. The same is going to happen to you, even if your wife doesn't wear a burka, or you have four of them. This passage says:

10:34 My vines (gephen 'any)

Vine is from gephen. Vine is a very important term with Yahowah. He uses many horticultural references because they resonate with people throughout time. Even illiterate people, even people four, five or 6,000 years ago, understand horticultural references and the vine is something that is known for producing grapes that then produce wine and wine in the ancient world was really necessary for life. If you try to live together as a community and the water near a bunch of people, it would kill you. And so, prior to learning how to treat water or boil water the natural fermentation with grapes producing wine was a way to have a beverage that could be consumed without deadly consequences. The other reason, by the way, that the vine along with grain and with olives are the three references that Yahowah uses routinely to describe things that He treasures is that all of them are products that are harvested.

12:10 And so, He has a harvest of grain, for example, and He has a harvest of olives. But for those three things to be useful, they have to be crushed. And that's so true of human character, even of nations. Until we are tested, until we are hard pressed, we don't develop character, we don't develop resolve, we can't show that we are dependable and trustworthy and able to stand up against the crowd.

12:39 So, vines produce wine, which is then crushed, and our vines produce grapes, which then when crushed in vats, produce wine. So, it is one of the horticultural references that is very important to Yahowah. Even when we talk about the others, and I think this is important because they all are word pictures and God likes to speak through word pictures. If you look at grain, it is so indicative of saved souls because the vast majority of the plants, 99% of the plant dries up and is blown away by the wind. It's useless. It's chaff. And it's only that tiny little kernel that matters.

13:34 The next harvest is Shabuw'ah; it's a wheat harvest. You look at wheat, it's got two rows of kernels. One of them is Gowym, the other is Yahuwdym, and they are side by side just like the two loaves of bread that are raised up on this day.

13:54 If you look at olives, which would be significant of the next harvest, which is Taruw'ah, the Shabuw'ah Harvest will occur seven years before Yahowah returns. The Shabuw'ah that is 7 years before His return is on May 22nd, 2026, which is when I think the two-state final solution will be imposed on Israel with the war that is going to be so devastating that Yow'el has been speaking of breaking out about a year thereafter. In fact, I think the math is 13 months thereafter.

14:40 So, you look at olives when they are crushed, they produce not only an exceedingly flavorful and nutritious food, olive oil is enormously healthy. It's one of the great accoutrements to almost any food. My personal favorite is to put olive oil with a variety of herbs and dip flat bread in it. It's my favorite appetizer before a meal, or even as an adjunct to a meal.

15:13 But with olives you not only get a healthy and flavorful nourishing food, but it produced the purest light in the ancient world. Olive oil in the olive oil lanterns extended the time that you could be together as a family and read and function in your home. And so, it produced light and Yahowah equates Himself to light and is very eager to enlighten His children and encourages us to read and recite His words. So that's the second aspect of olive oil.

15:54 The third is actually a very healthy cure, a medicinal treatment. You put olive oil on a wound, and that wound will heal more quickly. And then there's also the fact that the olive tree is one of the most securely rooted and long-lived trees in Yisra'el. So, it speaks of all of those things.

16:18 So those are the three metaphors that Yahowah uses to speak to the salvation of His people, of gowym, of Jews, and of even the celebrating of wine with the Mow'ed Miqra'ey as a means to celebrate this great harvest that Yahuwah is conducting. So, this reads:

16:54 My vines (gephen 'any) will be set up (sym) for appalling desolation (la shamah).

17:00 That's why I mentioned the United Nazis in the World Antisemite Court that made the determination, and this is one of many and they will continue to come, debasing and the delegitimizing Israel such that they can impose a terrorist state for Muslims, which will make Israel so vulnerable there will be no way to defend the nation and within a year of that time it will be overrun by between 100 times and 1000 times more Islamic terrorists than devastated Israel and Jews on October 7th of 2023. So, He says:

17:41 My vines and in this particular case, the vines that He cares the most about are the ones that He co-planted with His son, Dowd on the ridgeline, which would be Tsyown of Mount Mowryah. That is the garden that they grew between their two homes, Dowd's home lower on the ridgeline, Yahowah's Covenant family home on the summit. And there was a vineyard that God speaks of between the two. He says:

18:09 My vines (gephen 'any) will be set up (sym) for appalling desolation (la shamah). And My fig tree (wa ta'edah 'any)

18:17 The fig tree is symbolic of the health of Israel. So, when the fig is in leaf and fruitful, then the nation is healthy. Now that doesn't happen very often with Israel, and when it's denuded of leaves, then we know that it is a time of trouble. And so, Yahowah says:

18:45 And My fig tree (wa ta'edah 'any) – the nation of Israel - will become a splintered stump, snapped off and cut down (qatsapah), stripped bare, exposed and condemned (chasaph chasaph hy'), rejected and hurled away (wa shalak), its branches (saryg hy') bleached and whitewashed (laban).” (Yow'el 1:7)

19:07 There would be no reason for anyone outside of the Covenant family who has grown and matured by going on this adventure through words with me as we have translated the Towrah and Prophets and the Psalms and writings in an amplified fashion and then sought to make the proper connection to increase our understanding. And by so doing, we have found and shared well over 1,000 profound insights that no one had ever spoken of in all of human history, and that had been presented for us to find between 2,500 and 3,500 years ago. So, this is a rare treasure that you'll find woven all the way through Yada Yahowah with thousands of these unique insights.

20:21 About 7 or maybe 8 years ago I was trying to do something that was just germane to the standard operating procedure that I have taken throughout my translations of the oldest extent witnesses to the Dead Sea Scrolls. A Masoretic text of the Dead Sea Scrolls is not extant on a on a passage. And that is that I want to be consistent with word definitions and that I want to also encourage us to provide a full definition of each word and as much of that definition of a word that applies within the particular context, and that's how I came up with this idea of an amplified translation. And the term has been used before, but no one's actually done it before. If you read what's called an "amplified Bible" it isn't even 5% beyond what is currently in others. So, there really is no amplified version of Yahowah's testimony apart from what I began to do 20 years ago.

21:44 In our format, what we did is we took the essence of what God said and we put it in bold. Then we put the Hebrew word that was the basis of that translation, like gephen 'any | my vine, "will be set up" was from sym. We put that in a parenthetical within italics so that for those that were reading online, and for all of you listening, if you go to yada, yada' means "to know" Yahowah or yah.com, so yadayada.com yadayahowah.com, either one will work, you'll go and you'll see the site that presents all of these books, all there free.

22:32 By the way, we do have an announcement. We did receive another form letter from Amazon today. Earlier this week, they had sent me a form letter after they had removed all of our content for bogus reasons with a computer-generated aggravation assault really of form letters. I decided that I would yank their chain. I wrote them. I shared with Dee, and I think with you, Kirk. I wrote them back in an exceedingly sarcastic tone as writing pretend people whose names had been generated at random by rather than an artificial intelligence it was artificial unintelligence and I just mocked them. I figured at this point, why not? And so, we got a form letter today that says, "We appreciate your last response. And as a result of your last response, we're reinstating your account." And so I went back to the site, and every one of our books is back up. Now, since the thing that caused the irritation in the first place was e-books with Amazon, the first thing Jacki did was remove all the e-books and we're in the process, by the way, of all the images for the books, we're either going to supply our own artwork, our own photographs, or we're choosing artwork and photographs where there is such a clear chain of title where there is a copyright holder, the copyright holder is known, they have a very public way of showing that you paid for the rights to use them. So, we are doing that. So, we'll have different images on our books. But anyway, the Amazon site's back up, which means you can buy hardbacks and paperbacks there.

24:33 That does not mean that we're going to rest comfortably and say, "Boy, I'm sure they'll never send us another one of those series of form letters." So, what we are doing is for those who have been with us for a long time, they know Yow'el, my good friend Joe from many, many years back. He is now creating for us our own Yada Yahowah bookstore where we'll have a full range of Yada Yahowah books. We'll probably also have other printed goods that help promote Yahowah's name. And in that store, we can do whatever we want and no one's going to bother us and we're going to then link to a print on demand company. And there are two of them that will serve this purpose quite well. We'll probably for all of the paperbacks and maybe for hardbacks too, but in our own store. We'll continue, for as long as they will play nice, with Amazon on hardbacks and paperbacks, but as I said, we've just discontinued all of our e-books with Amazon. We really don't need an e-book because of the fact that there's that e-pub option and a PDF option and a download option and a read online and it's formatted properly for any device option, all of which exists currently on the Yada Yahowah site that David has built for us, and it is magnificent the way that it functions.

26:15 We are in the process of figuring out how, with minimal personal involvement, we can have e-books available through Apple since many people are goo goo over Apple. I am not an Apple guy. As I say, I'm bananas when it comes to Apple. I have an Apple device, but I don't think I have used it in three years. It's something though that I know people are crazy about their iPhones and their iPads and this sort of thing. So, we will have e-books that are easy for Apple users, and then we're going to Barnes and Noble to do our hardbacks and sell them in their store, which would increase our outreach as well. So, we are going to broaden our methods by which books get into peoples' hands, because I think it's very important. That's something that Jackie, who is our publicist and exceedingly devoted family member, and her team are all working on at this point to expand.

27:30 Also, while we're talking about these things, there is now a series of YouTube channels. We've had one that's Yada Yah for quite some time that does a very, very nice audio presentation of these programs and has for many years. Steve is the person that puts that up for us, and they're beautifully organized and searchable at YouTube. At YouTube search Yada Yah and it'll take you right to them.

28:05 In the last couple of weeks, we have also created Yada Yah Radio and Yada Yahowah on YouTube and we will develop probably another four or five or six YouTube channels. So, we're a little more diversified because they have these artificial unintelligence bots that that go in and take things off. I laugh because one of the great examples was, I happen to be pro vaccine. I think vaccines are exceedingly beneficial for society. And so, I did a show speaking of the great benefits to society of vaccines over the many years, and because the had Progressives didn't want anyone saying anything bad about vaccines during the COVID outbreak, and they wanted everyone to take them, it turned out the vaccine for COVID didn't have much effect. It didn't cause much damage but didn't have much benefit either. It had a working period of weeks or months, and you could be triple vaccinated as I was, and I still got COVID three times. My wife got it four times.

I know Jackie's family has just come down with COVID again. Dee, you've had it recently. Kirk, you've had it quite recently. The vaccine made really no difference, and you didn't even get gain immunity from the disease itself.

29:48 So, when I did this show talking about the benefit of vaccines, because of the nature of these unintelligent bots, we were suspended from YouTube for violating their policy on vaccines with the scientific approach to the history of vaccines. So, we're going to have a number of sites because they're unreasonable. And most of these companies, now like Amazon, you can't talk to anybody. It's all you fill in a form and it has you get a computer-generated form letter response. Anyway, I would strongly encourage you to go to Yada Yah Radio now and view what we call these "Talkies," which are excerpts of these programs with the words playing behind them in a graphic format, and they are compelling. They're powerful. They're gut wrenching. They drive right to the heart of the purpose of our calling. So, it's a huge step in what we are doing as a Covenant Family.

30:58 All right, so I'm making a big deal about something. Obviously, I'm driving to a point and my point is when we read:

31:13 And My fig tree (wa ta'edah 'any) will become a splintered stump, snapped off and cut down (qatsapah), stripped bare, exposed and condemned (chasaph chasaph hy'), rejected and hurled away (wa shalak), its branches (saryg hy') bleached and whitewashed (laban)." (Yow'el 1:7)

31:34 Now why would I make a big deal of that? What am I seeing there besides just another horticultural reference that speaks of what's going to happen? It's going to be devastating within the three years of this time in Israel. Those who have been part of this Covenant Family over the years know, and that is while Yahowah introduced this role in the first chapter of the first book in the Towrah, the most detailed presentation of the job that I've been assigned to do, which is to call Yahowah's people home prior to His return, to increase the harvest, in fact increase it where there would be none and now there will be thousands. It's presented in the 11th chapter of Yahsha'yah, my favorite Prophet known as Isaiah. And he presents a Choter. And that Choter is a secondary branch. And that choter has root stock that is growing out of the stump that brought us Dowd, the Messiah, the son of God our Savior. And so all of that is conveyed in this the great olive tree and fig tree that has been at times Yisra'el, has been and will be again cut off. A Choter is also a sucker. It grows up from that fallen stump, giving that tree life causing it to bear fruit again. And as a Choter I am a secondary branch.

33:27 As a matter of fact, it's something that I think, Dee, you have pointed out and I think it is likely true. That Dowd clearly represents the Tree of Lives in the Garden. But the role that we have been asked to play, to awaken, to enlighten, to teach Yisrael so that they are prepared to meet Yahowah upon His return is a Tree of Knowledge refuting that which is wrong and extolling that which is right. So God places within His references, particularly when He's dealing with important dates, and this is an important date. This the last battle fought in Israel, and it begins in June of 2027, thirteen months after the peace treaty is affirmed, with many that imposes a Muslim terrorist state upon Israel at the time of the Shabuw'ah Harvest, and that would mean it's two years away from the gleaning that will take place, well, I guess, excuse me, 2027 and six years away from the gleaning that will take place on Taruw'ah in 2033. So, all of that is being conveyed there.

35:09 So, the vine's going to be that Yahowah has set up, those that He has set up with Dowd, those vines are symbolic of Tsyown which actually means "Signs Posted Along the Way" are being set up by World leaders and by religious zealots for appalling desolation, and God is telling us and His people the truth. He's warning them that the fig tree will become a splintered stump snapped off and cut down. Fortunately, there will be a sucker, a Choter that will grow from that fallen stump, and the limbs that are stripped bare and rejected, there is a Choter, a secondary branch that will resolve that which has been bleached and whitewashed by religion. This statement in Yow'el 1:7, or that's 1:7. 1:13 then reads:

36:11 Even the sacrificial offerings which bestow a share (ky minchah) and the drink offerings which anoint (nesek) will be withheld (mana') from the Family of your God (min beyth 'elohym 'atem). (Yow'el 1:13)

36:22 We've been able to put these pieces together because one of the unique things about this study, and we've been doing it now for 23 years, is we always go to where the words lead. I may have lots of rough edges, but there's an attribute that I possess that God likes to use and it is one that I am now just beginning to fully appreciate how good Dowd, God's First-born Son and Messiah, His Chosen One, was at this particular skill, which is making connections between things. If you ever were a child and did dot-to-dot puzzles, and I maybe I'm dating myself and they may no longer be vogue, but a dot-to-dot puzzle you would start with the first number one and you would draw a line to the two, the three, the four, and at what was just a maze of dots then becomes a picture. The same is true with Yahowah's Testimony. You can look at a sea of words, but if you make the right connections between things, that sea of words forms a picture or a portrait of something that is very important for us to know and for us to share. And so, as we read through the various Prophets, and we put the pieces together, we're able to form a timeline to tell you what's going to happen and when it's going to happen. We already shared some dates with you.

38:02 In this particular case, we have figured out both through things that Yahowah inspired and that which Satan inspired. The book of Ezekiel, for example, was inspired by Satan. It fails every aspect of Yahowah's test in Dabarym 18. But that book explains, Satan is very clear about what he seeks to achieve. So, it actually is helpful to understand. That's why I have two volumes that are devoted to it in the Babel series that you'll find on the bookshelf at Yada Yahowah.

38:32 And in this particular case between that and what we read, Dowd, who is Gabry'el, I don't know how people came up with the notion, (Christians started it I think) that Gabry'el/Gabriel was an angel. He's not. The word means "man." It means "confident, capable, courageous man." It's from gabowr ultimately, and gabowr means "man." Even in Daniel who was not a prophet, but he was literate so he could write down what the Prophet Dowd, as Gabry'el said, even he said he was a man. So, this really isn't all that difficult. But Gabry'el, who is Dowd, happens to be the Messiah and he was talking about what he himself was going to including Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym in year 4000 Yah which occurred in 33 CE and then he goes forward talks about his return and all of the bad stuff that's going to happen immediately preceding his return. And then he provides actual numbers and dates regarding these things that enable us to fine tune God's timeline so we know exactly what's going to happen, when, where, why, and how it will all occur. Dowd was the principal author of this. We have the Timeline at the yadayada.com site. You go to resources, it's the first thing in the upper left-hand corner. When you go to Resources, it takes you all the way back to Creation and then to the Garden and all the way to the end of time as we know it.

40:25 So, as we're putting all of these pieces together, we're able to determine what's going to happen and when and one of the things we learned is that the corporeal manifestation of Satan is going to return on the 1st of 'Abyb in year 2030. And that is just prior to the time that after the Shabuw'ah Harvest, I'm going to return and there's going to be Witnesses. I think 'Elyah will be joining me. There are others that I think will be acting under the authority of Dowd and I don't know what role Dowd will play in this.

41:09 The reason that I'm a bit hesitant is that the way that Yahowah has explained all of this is that Dowd, His Son, is going to be a chip off the old block. He is going to lead as Yahowah does, he's going to communicate as Yahowah does. He's going to act as Yahowah does, and if you look at Yahowah, He always works through people. He delegates, and it's not just because He likes to delegate, He likes to achieve things together. Dowd is going to do exactly the same thing. So, I'm more comfortable seeing Dowd instructing both 'Elyah and myself as we provide a final witness preparing Yisrael for the upcoming Taruw'ah Harvest, which will take place 10 days before Dowd's and Yahowah's return. So, that's my thoughts on the process.

42:09 But what we know is that 2 weeks, 14 days to be exact, before we arrive on Passover in 2030, 3 1/2 years before Dowd and Yahowah return in the Fall of 2033, which is year 6000 Yah, that the corporeal manifestation of the Adversary will appear. The Adversary is a very real individual. He was first introduced in the Garden, his method of operation is to misappropriate, misconstrue Yahowah's Testimony and twist it to serve his purposes. He played the role of the serpent in the Garden. He is the voice of the Book of Ezekiel. Everything in Ezekiel explains who he is and what he is trying to achieve. And he is the one who inspired Paul to write most of the Christian New Testament. And he is clearly manifest through Mohammed. In fact, both Mohammed and Paul admitted that they were demon possessed by Satan. So, there have been corporeal manifestations of Satan in the past. While he did not say so, you one would think that Adolf Hitler may well have had a little satanic influence. Hadrian is another person that I would not be surprised when you look at the carnage and their hatred of the Jewish people, but clearly the two that I know the best that I have written nine books about through Twistianity and through God Damn Religion are Paul and Mohammad. They both created religions that are exceedingly anti-Semitic and hostile to Jews, and both of them admitted in their own scriptures that they were demon possessed. So, this corporeal manifestation of Satan will be very much like Mohammed and very much like Paul. If you read what the Quran and Hadith have to say which you can do by going to God Damn Religion on the bookshelf of yadayah.com, there's five volumes that present everything that can be known about Mohammed and I think it is, in fact, overwhelmingly the most comprehensive analysis of the five oldest books that exist in Islam and explains exactly why Muslims did what they did to Jews on October 7th and what they will do will be a hundredfold to a thousandfold worse in the coming three years. Read it and you will understand your enemy and why this enemy hates you so.

45:15 So, this is going to be the best way for Jews to recognize what the towrahless one is going to be like. There's that Left Behind series by LaHaye has him being quite devilish and the Antichrist. And the fact is that Christ is a complete myth. He most certainly will not be an Antichrist. He'd be all for Christ as a matter of fact, because Christ is a replacement of Dowd, a counterfeit for Dowd. So, he'll be anti-Towrah as was Paul. He'll be anti-Jew as both were Paul and Mohammed and exceedingly egotistical as well, making all manner of promises that he can't keep, and his god will be Satan just as was the case with both Paul in the Christian New Testament and with the Mohammed in the Quran. So, this individual who is going to eliminate the feasts that is being spoken of here is the corporeal manifestation of haSatan the enemy. You can read specifically about what he's going to do in the book of Ezekiel.

46:32 He ultimately has All Stupid Day which is just perfect for him. Now these are my summations of what they represent, but if you look at the terms that are used in Ezekiel by Satan to explain what he's going to do, it's the two most important replacement feasts are All Stupid Day and the Feast of the Beast. The Feast of the Beast is his favorite. It's not my favorite personally, because both Dowd and I are on the menu. It's cannibalistic and they return in gabowr, and their flesh is to be consumed and their blood is to be consumed as well. So, it's a little creepy and I'm on the menu. But I guess if you're gonna aggravate somebody to that point that they'd want to serve your blood and your flesh Satan's the person I would like to aggravate to that point. I appreciate the honorable mention, not the last. These are the things that will be imposed. Things like I say, the Feast of the Beast and All Stupid Day. There is only two or three of Yahowah's 7 Mow'ed Miqra'ey that are continued but they are completely inverted so that the opposite of what God says is their purpose is stated throughout Ezekiel.

48:12 So, that's what he's talking about here is that the Feasts will be made illegal. Now the fact of the matter is, there's not a lot of difference between that and what we experience today. For example, in Israel they will celebrate the holiday of Passover. Passover is not a holiday and it's only one day, not seven days. And It's Matsah that is 7 days and Passover just happens to be the first day of Matsah. And if you don't celebrate Matsah, which rabbinic Jews do not do, Matsah is just an ingredient, unyeasted bread to be served at Passover, which the only reference to the lamb is a zarowa' which a bone that is thrown on the plate so they don't know that the Zarowa' is the title that Yahowah affords 3 individuals: Moseh, the Great Zarowa' is Dowd, and myself is one who sows their seeds so that they can ripen and mature for the Harvest.

49:25 So, we're going through a period where there isn't much difference in that the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey are so corrupted in Rabbinic Judaism, there is no celebration of Matsah, there's no celebration of Bikuwrym. They don't know that Passover opens the door to life, that Matsah is designed to protect us, that Bikuwrym means "First Born Children," we're adopted into Yahowah's home and family enriched and empowered. They have no clue whatsoever that Dowd fulfilled these first three Mow'ed Miqra'ey in year 4000. Yah, which would be 33 CE, becoming the Passover Lamb, opening the door to both his Father's home and to eternal life, but perfecting us in the process by having his soul carry our guilt into She'owl and depositing it there. He was released into his Father's care on Bikuwrym becoming the First Born of the First-Born Children. And because of what he did and the recognition and acceptance of what he did, we can sow the seeds that will grow into a wonderful harvest of Yisrael and Yahuwrym and Gowym on Shabuw'ah, which is coming up in two years.

50:51 Well, these are going to be illegal, but you know, again try to celebrate Sukah or Kipurym or even Taruw'ah correctly in Israel today. The rabbis would have a conniption fit. They don't even mention Taruw'ah and Taruw'ah is the Harvest of Jews, and particularly what Yasha'yah speaks of when he speaks of the uppermost branches and then the branches that have been cut off and gives the numbers that will come from each of those where the uppermost branch is Yahuwrym / Jews and the branches that were cut off the lost tribes of Yisra'el. And yet they will completely ignore that, and they celebrate on that day Rosh Hashanah, which is the head of the year. It's a Babylonian holiday. It goes nicely with their Babylonian Talmud, I suspect. And then when Dowd and Yahowah come back to reconcile the relationship with Yisrael and the relationship has been as fractured with the Messiah Dowd, our Savior, as it has been with Yahuwah, whose name isn't even mentioned by Jews, what Jews have done on this day, that means to reconcile, to purge of problems of guilt is they call it "A Day of Affliction." So, their idea is that the day that Yahowah is coming back to celebrate a family reunion is a day of affliction for them. And it probably will be because the world will be rid of them once and for all. And as I've always said, at least they're dressed for their own funeral in the case of rabbis.

52:48 So, this is what's going to happen and there is absolutely no understanding of any of these dates, nor any proper celebration of them amongst Jews apart from the Covenant family who have come to this knowledge by reading the translations of Yahowah's testimony found throughout Yada Yahowah.

53:00 So, it will be, however, illegal. And one of the things that is interesting is that the celebration of the Shabat will be illegal as well. But right now it's punitive. So, maybe making it illegal is a step in the right direction because Rabbinic Jews have found a thousand ways to make it the most difficult and laborious day of the week where they have thousands of rules as to what you can't do when the Shabat was really a very simple concept. It's based on the verb shabat and it's a day that Yahowah happens to be the most active, when He does His best work, when He is in the business of reconciling the relationship with His people. So, it's a day to celebrate their relationship. Those things will be made illegal during 2030, on our calendar based upon ancient Rome. This would be three years prior to year 6000 Yah. And if you're a Jew listening to saying, "No, it's not. You know, we're not six years (well, now it would be nine years) away from your 6000 Yah, 240-some-odd years away. Maimonides gave us that calendar". Yeah, he was an idiot, an absolute, total and complete dunderhead and all you have to do is to read his analysis. He was outthought by Dee. She separated the information that Yahowah provided in the Towrah with the genealogies and was able to determine what happened and each year. Now she got a little bit of a head start in that I told you I was good with the dot to dots and jigsaw puzzles, and I know how things fit together. I was able to discern some 20 years ago that in year zero is when 'Adam and Chawah were booted out of the Garden, and that year 2000 Yah is when 'Abraham and Yitschaq underwent the dress rehearsal for Pesach on Mount Mowryah. That was 20 Yowbel. Yowbel times are years where slaves are freed, so there's liberation. Think of another yatsa' / exodus where all debts are forgiven, sins no longer matter. Your guilt has been taken away and you return to the Land which is to live in God's presence. That's the theme of the Yowbel years. They occur every  $7 \times 7 + 1$  year. They are on the model of Bikuwrym and on Shabuw'ah would be the model that they follow. So, 40 Yowbel from year Obel from year zero is year 2000 Yah. That would be 1968 BCE, and on 1968 BCE, on Passover, after a three day walk, 'Abraham and his beloved son Yitschaq went to Mount Mowryah where God said, "Do not take the life of your son. I will provide the Lamb," and He did with His beloved Son Dowd.

56:48 I told you that I have grown in my appreciation of Dowd. Dowd figured out that everything had been set up for him to play the role of the Passover Lamb. And at the time Dowd figured this out, he only had two things: He had the Towrah which he was able to deduce his role as the Son in the 4th day of Creation knew that he, as the Son was going to do something as the greater luminary, the greater light, that he was going to do something extraordinary in year 4000 Yah, which will be the next mark on our journey here. He also recognized that when 'Abraham and Yitschaq, presented as a first-born son, because of the son that Abraham loved, went to Mount Mowryah and Yahowah says, "Don't take the life of the son you love. I'm going to provide the Lamb," Dowd saw himself in that role.

58:05 And then as he was reading the Towrah and that magnificent speech that Moshe makes about, it's in Dabarym 18, the 18th chapter of Deuteronomy, and he's talking about the role that the Lowy are intended to play to keep Yisra'el informed about the Towrah. And then speaks of this great travesty of the Jewish people's propensity to be religious, particularly following in the ways of the gowym integrating religion and politics and talking about the consequence of that. And then the cure for that is this person who's going to come that is going to be like Moseh, in other words a prophet and a liberator, a savior, if you will, of his people, but it will be "from you out of you" and he goes on to describe this person's attributes and he's speaking of Dowd and Dowd would have recognized himself in that speech. And then when Dowd was lamenting towards the end of his life about the fact that he had this beautiful house and that Yahowah was in the Tent of the Witness behind curtains Dowd says, "I'm really uncomfortable. I've got this beautiful house of cedar and Yahowah's out there in a tent." So, God had one of the greatest speeches of all time talking about, "Excuse me. Did I ever once tell the Children of Yisra'el that I saved from Mitsraym that I wanted them to build Me a house out of Cedar? At any time did I tell them that? What part of this don't you get? I am the Father. You are the children. It's My responsibility to build you houses not you to build me houses." A concept religious never got with all their "houses of God" but nonetheless it's one of the great speeches of all time. But in that speech Yahowah goes on to explain exactly who Dowd is, "You are My Son. I am your Father and I'm returning you to be the King of Yisra'el and the universe." So, he would have had that information as well and from all those things he deduced that it was appropriate for him to do this, to offer us the greatest gift in the history of humankind to serve as the Passover Lamb opening the doorway to life in God's home and then doing that with his corporeal body, his basar, and then with his soul, his nephesh carrying our guilt with him into She'owl depositing it there and never to be seen again making us perfect such that he would be reunited with his Father on Bikuwrym so that the first born would fulfill Firstborn Children.

1:01:08 The realization that he not only did this but that provided us with an eyewitness account of it within his Mizmowr, particularly within Mizmowr 22 and 88 and described throughout his first 30 Mizmowr exactly why he was going to do this and that it was his decision, something that Yahowah approved, figuring that out that Dowd is not only the Messiah and Son of God and returning Savior but that he is the Passover Lamb was the greatest discovery of the past 3,000 years. And while we take a sense of comfort in knowing that we were able to deduce that, the first people to deduce it in 3,000 years, Dowd beat us to it. The difference is that he had 1% as much to work with as we did. That is the essence of this family of God, and how we go about participating in it is that we have to understand what Dowd is offering and that it is Dowd who was anointed to fulfill these things and that the purpose of Satan as it's declared here in Yow'el 1:13 is to deprive God's people of these things and it is my job in working with 'Elyah in the end, working with the Covenant family today, to make Yisra'el aware of these things so that they are not deprived of them.

1:02:46 The most recent Islamic assault on God's people ravaged Southern Israel. Hezbollah which means "Allah's party," it's a name that is actually written in the Quran on two occasions, is trying to burn down and devastate Northern Israel, but for the most part it's been brush lands and while it was kibbutzim, the fields themselves weren't ransacked. So, God's not discussing what happened on October 7th of 2023, although I will tell you that there is an interesting marker here because on October 7th in 2033 is when Sukah will be fulfilled in year 6000 Yah when the earth is returned to the conditions enjoyed in the Garden of Great Joy, ' of Eden, and we come full circled and we are returned to the conditions of uh of 'Eden. It's exactly 10 years to the day that that occurred.

1:03:57 Since the devastation of the olive trees and the fields did not occur on October 7th of 2023 this is a far more egregious attack on Israel and this next time farms will not fare as well. These devastating and depopulating attacks on Israel are going to lead to a spiritual assault as well when the corporeal manifestation of the Adversary appears in an attempt to forestall the benefits of the Miqra'ey. It is something that I constantly reminded readers of as I was writing the Babel series on excoriating the book of Ezekiel and then all five volumes of God Damn Religion that to a very significant degree at this time the principal battle that exists in the world as it relates to those who will either spend their eternity with God or apart from Him is this war that is being waged between myself and the Adversary HaSatan. For Satan to prevail, and his goal is not to be cast into She'owl at the end and his means to that goal has been to fool the world including, and mostly Jews, into believing that he is God, that he became the god of Islam, he is the god of Christianity, and he is very much the god of Rabbinic Judaism, of the Haredim. So, if he can convince people that he is God then they are not going to know the real God. And if he can't convince you that he is God, the reason that Christianity and Islam are so viciously antisemitic and deadly with one creating the environment that led to the Holocaust and the other declaring war on Jews and trying to commit genocide on them for the past 1,400 years beginning with genocide of the Jewish people in Arabia under Muhammad's leadership, if he can kill every Jew, and the Book of Ezekiel actually depicts 25 different ways to kill Jews, then there is no return to a Remnant of God's people. If he can kill every Jew, half of those being harvested on Shabu'ah aren't there and Shabu'ah is not fulfilled. If he prevails in convincing, either killing Jews or causing them to be religious and therefore not engage in a relationship with Yahowah, there is no Taruw'ah Harvest. The prophecy goes unfulfilled and worst of all there's no Remnant of Yisra'elites to reconcile for the family reunion when Yahowah and His Son Dowd return on Yowm Kipurym.

1:07:26 So, if he can, and he did. He is batting a thousand. He hadn't lost anyone for 2,500 years. For 2,500 years every Jew on the planet was estranged from Yahowah. So, the purpose of this mission is to change that because if there are no Jews to return to, no Yahuw'dym on Yowm Kipurym, there is no reason for Father and Son to come back. They're not going to come back for a family reunion without a family. So, if things didn't change, if we did not convince Yahuw'dym to walk away from religion and politics and to finally forgo that which has estranged them from God and to embrace Yahowah by name through His Mow'ed Miqra'ey, through His Beryth, Covenant, and most especially by coming to understand the great gift that Dowd their Savior, their Messiah and King is offering, that there will be many Yahuw'dym and Yisra'elites there for Taruw'ah and a wonderful Remnant of God's family waiting for Yahowah and Dowd as they return. And so long as we have a family to return to based upon this message then Satan loses. He's immediately escorted into She'owl. If there's no one to return to God would have no reason to come back. The earth will be depopulated, but what does Satan care. He's a loner, he's a loser, he's a recluse, he is a snake after all. You don't see snakes typically dancing with other snakes. The ___ is single file and usually one snake, so he doesn't care. He gets to avoid going to She'owl and that is the battle that we're fighting. It is very much a spiritual battle and it's important that you know that this is what's occurring. The next passage from Yow'el, Yah is God, 1:14 reads as follows. It says:

1:09:45 “Dedicate as special and set apart (qadash) abstinence of fasting (tsowm). Announce by reading and reciting an invitation (qara') to an assembly to meet. Gather for the Harvest

(asaph) the prominent and mature (zaqen) and all of the inhabitants of the land to the home and family of Yahowah your God. Then cry out to summon Yahowah.” (Yow’el 1:14)

1:10:14 Yow’el was inspired to say what I just told you that the small smart move for you if you are a descendant of Ya’aqob, if you are a Yisra’elite or Yahuwd, Jew, is to announce by reading and reciting (qara’) which is the basis of Miqra’, which are the titles that Yahowah used to describe His seven annual invitations to be called out and meet, that we gather and meet on those days recognizing that there is a harvest approaching which is Shabuw’ah, that there is a gleaning approaching which is Taruw’ah, and recognizing that the final Remnant of God's people will be gathered unto Him at the ultimate family reunion on Kipurym. So, He’s saying:

1:11:13 “Gather to the harvest the prominent and mature (zaqen)... is an inside reference to the harvest of Shabuw’ah because Shabuw’ah is a wheat harvest and the Hebrew word for wheat, the basis of that word, means “to be prominent, to stand out, to be exceptional, to stand up against the crowd,” to do what we're doing to tell people what they need to hear even if it's the opposite of what they hear through their religion and through politics. “To stand out, be prominent and to be mature” which is what zaqen means, so it’s “prominent and mature grain represented by the Hebrew word for wheat. So, it's an inside reference to that.

1:12:03 “... and all of the inhabitants (kol yashab) of the Land (ha ’erets) to the Home and Family (beyth) of Yahowah (Yahowah), your God (’elohym ’atem).

1:12:10 The land to the home and family of Yahowah is not just Yisra’el, not just Yahuwdah within Yisra’el, not just Yaruwshaliam. Yaruwshaliam means “the source of reconciliation, and instruction on the source of reconciliation), not just Jerusalem, not just Mowryah, not just the Temple Mount but all of it. All of these things represent God's home and He's going to transform the entire earth into His home. His family is not just the Remnant and harvested children of Yisra’el, but the Covenant. It’s the Beryth. It is the Family that God created the universe to enjoy. So, He’s calling His people home, calling them to the Beryth, family, calling them to gather for the Harvest, calling them to be prominent, to stand out and be mature in His Testimony, assemble and meet and

1:13:32 Then cry out to and summon (wa za’aq ’el) Yahowah (Yahowah). (Yow’el 1:14)

And this is even telling because in the book of Zakaryah we're told explicitly that this final remnant of Yisra’el will look up to Yahowah, and accompanied by the one who was pierced, and they will wail for him as for a firstborn. Well, the Firstborn is Dowd. It’s Dowd that was pierced and it’s Dowd that is returning with Yahowah and they're going to cry out at this time. It’s going to be a bittersweet because those that are part of the Remnant on Kipurym will have figured out that Yahowah is God and will accept Him by name and that Dowd is the Messiah and Savior. They will figure this out in 10 days. They will have missed, those who are part of that Remnant, will have missed the Taruw’ah Harvest, which is 10 days prior to Kipurym. So, these are not the mature and prominent but the these are a very important Remnant of God's people because the harvest of Taruw’ah is going to precede that.

1:14:49 And the reason that Taruw'ah Harvest is so close to the end is that that final 10 years is going to be so God-awful hellish that God wants to remove His family from it. It's the very reason why Shabuw'ah Harvest occurs 7 years before Yahowah's return at the beginning of the time of Ya'aqob's Troubles, of Yisra'el's Troubles, because there's no reason for those who have chosen to be part of Yahowah's family who have come to God through what He has said in the Towrah, Prophets and Psalms who have read Yada Yahowah, who've come to know Yahowah to endure this great insult to God, to His Son, to His people, to His Towrah, to His Miqra'ey. It would just simply make everybody angry.

1:15:42 It's kind of like reading the news today. It's hard to do because it's distracting because it makes you so angry that people could be that stupid in the International Court to make that kind of a determination that Israel was wrong to build houses on land they own and land that was deeded to them by God and that somehow the terrorists are more deserving than they. It's irritating to know that people in positions of power are that universally stupid. So, God doesn't want us to have to deal with it and so He's harvesting and gleaning and then returning to His people. And that is what Yow'el 1:14 said.

1:16:29 The whole prophetic texture of the book of Yow'el is so powerful and poignant to our time. So, it is important to do all of the above, everything that God just proclaimed. His people must abstain from what the world is dishing up particularly at this time. As always, but particularly now, it's critical that we remain special and distinct from a planet in the throes of spiritual death. Our whole planet is headed in a death spiral led by the plague of death Pauling Christianity and the death cult that is Islam. There's no better time to invite those who are interested to meet with God doing so by reading and reciting His appeal to them, and that's what you find in Yada Yahowah.

1:17:43 We're reminded that this in-gathering is for the prominent and mature which comprise the Covenant family, all who will have been brought home during the Shabuw'ah Harvest of standing grain and when it comes to summoning Yahowah by name they will have chosen Him now prior to 2026, prior to the worst of the time of Israel's Troubles rather than later or never.

1:18:14 And that would be my strong encouragement to everyone listening to this program. I've said this a number of times previously. If you come to know Yahowah reading Yada Yahowah and you accept the terms and conditions of the Covenant and you attend the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, understanding what they mean, and you grow in your knowledge of God and of our Savior Dowd, then not only do you have the world's greatest life assurance policy, nothing bad can happen to you. All you have is an eternity of being enriched and empowered and emancipated and enlightened by Yahowah in your future.

1:18:58 But you have the opportunity to return the favor. You can be part of those who is reaching out to Yisra'el, to Yahuwdym. That's why I so love the things that are being done on YouTube now with our movies with the audio over them. They are so compelling to God's people that it's the most effective means yet to convey what Yahowah wants His people to say because you're able to combine the written word, which God loves with a passion, with the spoken word. So, it is a real positive development in this regard.

1:19:52 So, this is our mission and if you become part of the Covenant family sooner rather than later then you have the chance to help us, help Dowd, help Yahowah, help the Covenant family reach out to others and increase the quality and size of God's family so that other people choose our Heavenly Father as well. If you don't, then you're going to go through that seven hellish years. You might not even survive it so that you can be part of the Taruw'ah Harvest. But why put yourself through all of that? And recognize how little you're going to contribute to the Family in that seven years because the principal voice that's going to be communicating is Yada and 'Elyah, and Yahowah is going to be empowering us in very powerful ways during this time. Wouldn't you rather spend eternity with Yahowah as your Heavenly Father knowing that you made a contribution to the Family? I would. I would as well, and this is why I would encourage all Yisra'el and Yahuwdym to join the Covenant family, to be part of the Shabuw'ah Harvest, and to help us communicate this message.

1:21:17 Yow'el 1:15 reads: This is a notification ('ahah) to those approaching this day (la ha yowm) because (ky) the Day (yowm) of Yahowah (Yahowah) is near (qarowb). A great force will be exerted (wa ka shod) upon (min) the arrival (bow') of Shaday | the One Who is Satisfactory and Sufficient (Shaday)." (Yow'el 1:15)

1:21:43 That's what this is. That's the purpose of Yada Yahowah. All of the 35 books that comprise this series, it is a notification. God is putting His people on notice that this day is approaching and as we share it here on a Shabat evening, Friday the 19th of July, 2024 with you His return is just nine years away, but it's going to be the most hellish nine years in the history of our planet, and if you're listening to this program the odds are that nine out of 10 people that are alive today will not be alive 9 years from now. So, you're so being put on notice the time is approaching. It's near.

1:22:36 And "A great force will be exerted." God is not coming back with open arms waiting to save the world. He's going to terraform it. Everyone who has been against His people will be annihilated. If you're not part of the Covenant family and you haven't overtly antagonized His people the best you can hope for is to endure and enter the final Shabat as a servant to those who are part of the Covenant family, otherwise your soul is being extinguished which is not a penalty, but not a favorable outcome. Or your soul is sent to the place of separation, which is She'owl, for an eternity of separation from God and His Family. And that is a punishment. That is for Muslims who attacked Jews, for Roman Catholics who tortured and tormented Jews, for Europeans who did this same thing, for the conspiratorial that speak against Jews, for the Progressives who condemn God's people and His place Yisra'el. So, you're being put on notice God is coming back with "considerable force upon (min) the arrival (bow') of Shaday | the One Who is Satisfactory and Sufficient (Shaday)." (Yow'el 1:15)

1:24:09 Shaday is one of my favorite terms because it is just so Yahowah. It's rendered by people who don't know what the word actually means and don't know who God is "the Almighty" or

“the ultimate,” the “greatest,” the “highest of high,” the “most high.” That’s not what the word means! What the word means “satisfactory and sufficient.”

1:24:41 Dee: This was the primary term Yahowah used to introduce Himself to Ya’aqob and Yitschaq and to ‘Abraham. So, He’s speaking directly to His people using today here.

1:24:55 Yada: What it means is “I’m satisfactory, I’m sufficient. Everything you need to become immortal so that you live forever, everything you need to be perfected so you can enter My presence, everything you need to be enriched and empowered so that you can go from being a material being trapped in three dimensions to being liberated all the way through the seventh dimension, all the knowledge you will need to operate and the judgment and increased mental capacity and awareness that you will need for all of these gifts I am absolutely capable of supplying you with a sufficient amount of these things.”

1:25:40 The thing that makes Yahowah so unique besides the fact he is the only actual God, besides the fact that He created the universe and conceived life within it, wrote the DNA code to make life so expressive is that He’s humble. He knows He’s God. He’s the opposite of the Quran where Allah is constantly bragging that he is the biggest, the best, the smartest, the omnipresent, the greatest there is and of course he’s none of those things - he’s a snake. But the real God doesn't need to brag, and He doesn't brag. He wants to be approachable. One of the reasons that He prefers to communicate through people is because when He communicates through dunderheads like me and, you know to a large degree ‘Abraham wasn't the sharpest guy around either. But when He communicates through people then we're put in a position where we can choose not God. He’s not so imposing that it's either you choose Him, or you're scared to death. God wants us to be able to make an informed decision and all He's saying here is “I'm satisfactory, I'm sufficient. I will honor My promises. I will do what I have promised to do. You will receive the benefits that are necessary to enjoy My company forevermore, but I'm not going to be so imposing that you're not comfortable in My presence.”

1:27:32 There are four days remaining to be fulfilled as we broadcast here in July of 2024 and any one of them could rise to the occasion of the Day of Yahowah, all of which are near since the furthest is now less than a decade removed from the time that we are speaking to you this evening. And we are now in the shadow of Shabuw'ah, 2024. May 22nd is now just 2 years away from May 22nd of 2026. So, the Day of Yahowah could potentially be May of 2026, May 22nd, that's the fulfillment of Shabuw'ah, on a Shabat, and it would also include the Taruw'ah in-gathering and that is on September 25th in 2033. So, that’s the second option for the Day of Yahowah in addition to the first day of Sukah which is exactly 10 years removed from what occurred on October 7th of 2023 and that great assault against Israel. In this case, the first of Sukah in 2033, God’s going to transform the entire earth to the conditions experienced in ‘Eden which means there'll be no religion, no politics, no forms of human governance, no deceptions of any kind, and no pollution. It will be a marvelous celebration of life.

1:29:28 But the greatest of the four days that remain to be fulfilled on God's calendar will be Yowm Kipurym. It is the Day of Reconciliations that we have talked about when Yahowah returns with Dowd. He is returning at sunset in Jerusalem October 2nd, 2033, and that is your 6000 Yah, the 120th Yowbel year. And while it is interesting to note that three of these four fulfillments occur on a Shabat when God does His best work, be aware that neither Yahowah nor His Son are returning like lambs. Been there, done that. The tremendous force that will be unleashed is to rid the world of the combatants and pollutants that have been so deadly and destructive.

1:30:21 Now we've talked about Shaday. God is not approaching His children in a way to be pretentious. He is perfecting the planet for our benefit. He does not want to boast but instead to perform. He's going to do a satisfactory job of restoring this blue planet in the midst of this space time such that it is a beautiful place to live. I actually have a hunch, and there's a number of places that seem to confirm this, that when God says He's going to create a new universe with us being present to witness it, I'm not so sure that the present universe needs to be destroyed. I think that we'll have the opportunity to explore it and this particular planet, if you were to return this planet to the conditions that were experienced in 'Eden it would be such a treasure and such a wonderful place to live and to celebrate life that I'm expecting that it will be part of our tomorrows for many many many tomorrows to come.

1:31:48 DEE: It's so funny because I was just telling your wife something like that last night that I think that when we witness creation it will be, you know when you're outside of time and you can see all possible outcomes and once you become eternal, like once I'm eternal, I'll never not be eternal anymore. It's just how it is. You just exist eternal at that point. So, at that point we could go back and recreate or like reterraform Earth and live our existence almost again but in perfection.

1:32:21 Yada: Yeah. You have to be a little bit careful of that. There's a really an interesting paradigm of maneuvering in time such that going forward in time is permissible, experiencing all time is permissible, but going back in time has to have tremendous limitations and it's because of the paradigms of what has occurred has most certainly occurred and therefore you can't change what has occurred and if you did you would end up with an endless loop of disasters. We will be like light. Light can enjoy all time at any time, can experience time in any way that it wishes to experience time, but it either stops time so that if we wanted to, for example, it appears that the Covenant family is going to be very busy throughout eternity working with Dowd because he's going to be a delegator. He'd be fun to work with. Yahowah's fun to work with. Dowd will be fun to work with, but he's going to delegate a lot and we're going to be engaged doing things. But God's the opposite of a slave driver; He's a liberator. And so, we will have lots of enjoyable vacation time, if you will, as part of this and because of the nature of a spiritual being and the ability to slow time, if you wanted to take a Shabat holiday, that could be 10 years from the way that you experience time. So, we'll be able to slow time and we'll be able to use time such that we can navigate great distances.

1:34:30 For example, if you are moving at the speed of light and you experience time as a photon of light it takes no time to cross the universe. So, right now the distances are unsurmountable; we can't even approach as a material being, you can't even approach the speed of light. All bad things happen as you even near it as a particle. But as an energy-based entity we can move at the speed of light but at the speed of light it still is not going to take billions of light years to cross the existing universe because our perception of time will be simply that the moment of travel will seem like a fraction of a second because time can be experienced as a whole and therefore you can travel billions of light years in no time. So, it makes the universe accessible to us. There's lots of concepts of time that enable us to enjoy this entire universe to be at any part of it at any time and still to enjoy stretching time in any one place. One of the beauties of that is that as an energy-based being, as light, we will also be able to enjoy what Einstein explained in that very beautiful formula  $E = mc^2$  which means that matter and energy are the same things they're just different amounts of the same thing so that if we as an energy-based being wish to enjoy what it's like to swim in like we have 90° tropical waters here and you want to swim with sea turtles and dolphins you can do it quite comfortably and if you wanted to feel the sand between your toes and the waves lapping up and the warm tropical breeze you can convert some of your spiritual energy into matter without diminishing who you are in any way and then cause time to slow at that moment so that you can enjoy a wonderful holiday and three seconds later be back where you were. So, that's the kind of maneuvering time.

1:37:18 While it may be possible to view things that happened in the past for the most part, we don't want to do that because the march of civilization has been a death march. It is very abusive to people and there really was no civilization that treated its people or its neighbors well. They were all vicious, they were all religious, they were all counter to Yahowah, including God's own people and I think it would be so sad and traumatic that that's really the last thing we would want.

1:37:59 I do think that because Yahowah loves animals that's one of the things that we're told that He enjoyed doing with 'Adam to the point that He was looking actually for a companion for 'Adam which means that 'Adam would be able to have talked with them and they with 'Adam, so, we'll have a language we can actually communicate. But I think because of the nature of DNA as we go forward in time one of the interesting things we'll be able to do is to conceive life and then communicate with that life.

1:38:35 There are just so many wonderful things we have to look forward to but to be part of all of that you have to walk through the doorway that Dowd holds the keys that he himself opened by fulfilling Pesach/Passover in year 4000 Yah, 33 CE and the following day after his basar/corporeal body fulfilled Pesach that he served as the one unyeasting our souls of the fungus of religious and political guilt and he took all of our guilt with him into She'owl and deposited it there in a black hole in Hell never to be seen again which makes us look perfect in God's eyes. And then we become reborn spiritually as part of the Covenant family on Bikuwrym following Dowd home enriched and empowered by our God. This is the thing that God is offering. He offers it through the Covenant, and its conditions and benefits, and through the Mow'ed Miqra'ey that reinforce those promises. So, if you come to know Yahowah by name and embrace His Son, accept the conditions of the Covenant and understand the purpose of the Mow'ed Miqra'ey and accept the invitation, then these are things you will enjoy. But that is the only way to them and you're not invited, in fact you're disallowed, if you're religious and political so you will have to walk away from those things.

1:40:22 This past two weeks ago I guess we had the assassination attempt on Donald Trump in the Republican convention. They're saying, "It was the hand of God that intervened to saved him!" I can guarantee you that Yahowah and Donald Trump have no relationship whatsoever. I can also tell you that when the choice is between who would become president if Biden were to continue to run and win, he is so incapacitated that his vice president would become president and she is among the 20 most anti-Semitic politicians in Washington. If Kamala Harris becomes president, it is devastating for Israel and Donald Trump turned out to be as pro-Israel as any president in American history. So, God would clearly have a preference there but God doesn't play politics and so He most certainly did not intervene to save Donald Trump. Somebody with Donald Trump's ego is never going to be accepted in Yahowah's family. As a matter of fact, the very realization that to run for president you are political would exclude you from the Covenant family. The first condition of the Covenant is to walk away from your country. In 'Abraham's case it was from Babylon which is where religion and politics were first comingled and integrated. So, this is where we find ourselves with Yahowah saying that He is sufficient to meet the needs of His people at this time.

1:42:13 Now there will be at this time an all-consuming fire that is going to be incinerating most of the world. This fire initially will be of man's doing. We can expect a nuclear exchange between nations, we can expect the blaze as being an extension of what Hezbollah is doing now in Northern Israel engulfing it in flames, we can expect that there could well be an asteroid strike at this time. There could be a super volcano erupt; we are warming as a planet and it's part of annual cycles, but that warming period is going to be more conducive to fires. This is something that God is not necessarily opposed to doing because the best way to rid the world of trash is to incinerate it and behind those flames God's going to create this beautiful garden. So, while it could be Yahowah was doing it as He incinerates the religious and political, the conspiratorial incinerating the trash, if you will. It could also be of man's doing and that as that fire rages God will terraform what remains of the earth. If it is the latter, we are being encouraged to sound the Showphar to warn the world about what lies ahead otherwise if blown after the blaze ensues it would only serve the purpose really if the fire is of man's doing. But this is the statement that that God said to open what is now the second chapter of Yow'el.

1:44:20 This is Yow'el 2:1: "To You ('el 'atah), Yahowah (YaHoWaH), I call out (qara')."

1:44:28 Qara' is one of my favorite Hebrew terms. The verb is "to invite and to summon, to read and recite, to greet and to welcome, to proclaim." So,

1:44:40 “To You (‘el ‘atah), Yahowah (YaHoWaH), I call out (qara’). For indeed (ky), fire (‘esh) has devoured (‘akal) the dwelling places (nawah) where the word is questioned (midbar) and ablaze with flames (wa lehabah lahat) are all the trees (kol ‘ets) of the field (ha sadeh).” (Yow’el / Joel 1:19)

1:44:53 “Sound the Showphar (taqa’ showphar) in Tsyown and among the Signs Posted Along the Way (ba Tsyown), signaling future action, providing a warning, an explanation, and a shout of exaltation (ruwa’ – which is the basis of Taruw’ah) on My Set-Apart mountain (ba har qodesh ‘any) – which would be that whole ridgeline of Tsyown that runs between Dowd’s home and Yahowah’s home on Mount Mowryah (which means to revere Yah).

1:45:29 Be roused to anger (ragaz) all of you who live in the Land (kol yashab ha ‘erets) because the Day (ky yowm) of Yahowah’s (YaHoWaH) return (bow’) is near (qarowb). (Yow’el / Joel 2:1)

1:45:36 It’s interesting that the prophet would conclude it, by saying, “Be roused to anger all of you who live in the Land because the day of Yahowah’s return is near.” I said something probably the first time 15 years ago that I’m sure is still shocking for many, but it is that hate is a virtue and that you can’t love without hating and that until we know what to hate and how to hate it’s impossible for us to be compassionate. Progressives and Liberals have completely corrupted this concept of hate turning hate into a dirty word that should be avoided at all costs. But we must hate the religious who mislead billions and cause them to do things like we witnessed Muslims doing in Israel torturing, mutilating, raping, abducting, mass murdering. It is moral and wise to hate such things. It is moral and wise to hate a religion like Christianity that robbed God’s Son Dowd, our Savior, of all of his accolades and of the great gift that he has provided us. One should hate pedophiles and pedophilia, rape and rapists, murder and mass murderers. We need to know what to hate and then how to hate. You don’t hate by punching somebody in the nose. You don’t hate by shooting someone. You hate by exposing the person who is doing the heinous act, stopping them if you can, but by using words. If you’re in a position where you can, and there’s somebody raping an innocent child, by all means intervene and stop it. But our hate ought to be expressed by wielding words wisely. It’s what Yahowah did, and we’re being encouraged at this time to hate. Why? Because the world is being torn apart because God’s people Yisra’el are being hated upon on, and attacked and, dehumanized and demonized, and the cry is to exterminate them and we ought to hate that. There is a war going against not only God’s people but against His Towrah and religious Jews will be leading that parade. We ought to know what to hate and how to hate and to join our God in hating that which is hostile to His people. When you despise the rapist, you can be compassionate to the women and preclude the next rape right. So, these are concepts that God wants us to understand.

1:49:23 Now as it relates to the showphar, we have been conditioned to associate the ram’s horn, the showphar, with the celebration of the Miqra’ey, Invitations, particularly of Shabuw’ah and Taruw’ah. At first I thought mostly of Taruw’ah where God makes a big deal of it, but clearly God speaks of this showphar being blown also on Shabuw’ah. So, it is something that is used to announce the Harvests of Shabuw’ah and Taruw’ah which are the two major harvests. But it’s also designed to draw attention to any important message or event and this one and day certainly qualifies. But be aware of the distinction that for most people of the of the world at this time between Kipurym and Sukah, God is not a happy camper at this point. On Kipurym He'll be a happy camper. He'll be a happy camper come Sukah because all of the irritants are gone. But not on Kipurym. On Kipurym He has a job to do which is to cleanse the world, purge the world of religion and politics and conspiracy and all caste systems that have abused and enslaved people and systems that have sought to control people.

1:50:54 So, God is not happy at this point. He is cleaning house, ridding the world of those who have been so caustic to His creation. So, that is a date that He is committed to saving and protecting His Covenant family.

1:51:09 And let's be clear. There's only one place on Earth that really matters to God. Now He's going to terraform the entire planet, but there's only one place on Earth that really matters to God and that is Tsyown on Mowryah. This is the epicenter of where today ends and tomorrow begins and I have asked for the opportunity, I don't know if I'll be given that opportunity or not, to be the person who gets to destroy the Dome of the Rock and Al-Aqsa Mosque. Yahowah is going to build His own house for the Covenant Family. Dowd will help. We may be able to make some contribution, but it's going to be constructed of light so it's going to be a pretty spectacular home multi-dimensional, I'm certain, a portal to Heaven.

1:52:12 I do want to be part of the "go boom" of the Dome of the Rock. I mean if 'Elyah and I are asked to convey Yahowah's message on Mount Mowryah, then the last thing I want to have to endure is a lot of black-suited morons as Haredim bobbing their heads at the Western Wall as if it was some kind of religious icon. I'd like to begin terraforming there and then to completely obliterate all traces of Islam on Yahowah's home, the Temple Mount. So, I hope to have that opportunity. uh but um understanding

1:53:01 Understand that these are the kinds of things that are going to happen on Tsyown and Mowryah upon Yahowah's return. This is what the Prophet says: this is what the prophet says:

1:53:09 It will be a day of darkness during a time of ignorance and confusion (yowm chosek) when much is obscured when there is a reduction of the sun's light (wa 'apelah), a day of obscuring phenomenon (yowm 'anan), gloomy and miserable (wa 'araphel), similar to (ka) the swarthy blackness (shachar) which is spread out (paras) upon the mountains ('al ha har) with an enormous number of dimwitted and unenlightened people, so numerous as to be uncountable and the likes of which (kemow huw') has not existed previously, even to the dawn of time (lo' hayah min ha 'owlam).

1:53:41 And after this (wa 'achar huw'), it will never occur again (lo' yasaph) throughout the years ('ad shanah), generation unto generation (dowr wa dowr). (Yow'el 2:2)

1:53:53 We do not have enough time to fully explain this so this is a wonderful place for us to start. I will probably devote 30 minutes to this magnificent statement at the beginning of our program next week. There is just so much richness in this. What it means to be in a time of ignorance, what is that ignorance, what is being obscured. What is it about the sun's light that God is talking about? Is He actually, literally talking about this orb, our star in the sky, or is He instead talking about His Son Dowd and all of the lies that have created the counterfeits and the myths to rob him of his accolades and achievements? Is this the result of religion gone amok in trying to devastate Israel and in cahoots with politics? That is the obscuring phenomenon is that man's wars have kicked up this much impediment in the sky. Is Yahowah speaking specifically of the solar and lunar eclipse that are going to take place in year 6000 Yah in the Fall on both Taruw'ah and on Kipurym? And, of course, this dimwitted and unenlightened people that are so numerous as to be uncountable is this the thousand times iteration of the aerial and militant attack on Israel that is so vastly worse than what God's people experienced on October 7th of 2023? And following the creation of a Fakestinian state of terrorists for Islam Israel will be so vulnerable to this as it will be unavoidable. As Neville Chamberlain's "peace in our time" led directly to the second world war, this will just be much more devastating and just like the Holocaust was the most hellish part of that war Muslims attacking Israel in genocidal fashion will be the worst part of World War III. That is where we're headed.

1:56:33 The prophet Yow'el/Joel wants us to know about it, and so we're going to share what we know with you at this time next week, and then we'll share what Yahowah is offering as the great exception to what man is offering in contrast to what man is offering.

So, I wish you a wonderful rest of your Shabat. I thank you for listening. I'm delighted that we can announce that we have books again at Amazon. I'm also delighted that we have the team focused now on many more options regarding how you can come to know Yahowah through the YouTube channels Yada Yahowah and Yada Yahowah Radio, through this wonderful website yadayah.com, through the 35 books that are part of the Yada Yahowah family of written material, and through this program as well, through the social media outreach that continues to grow. There are so many ways now that we are reaching out to God's people calling them home.

May Yah bless. We wish you a wonderful week. We'll be back with you this time next week.
