Please Note: The transcript is now in verbatim format to accommodate those involved in making the "Talkies." Thank you for your understanding. Mary Kris

0:00 Good evening. Happy Shabat to one and all. I'm delighted to be with you again. Shabat is just beginning to occur here in the US Virgin Islands. Where you are, Kirk, it's probably about four days away in the People's Republic of California.

0:21 It was an interesting week with the president and the Weekend at Bernie's announcing he "was too old and feeble to run for president. That would make him too old to be president, but let's not bring that up because then you'd have Kamala Harris as president and you've his address, you've got the classy classy Kamala that decided that she would rather attend a college fraternity party than she would do her job and be a chairwoman for a joint session of Congress. That is actually her job. But a college fraternity function was more important to her. She doesn't even have the character to say, "I didn't want to be there because my fellow Progressives despise Israel and Netanyahu." No. She just said it was a "scheduling conflict." Then she has her meeting with Netanyahu and brags that the second phase of the hostage deal has an end to the war. This is an exceedingly evil woman. The Democratic party has gone from comatose to appalling. It's a woman who has absolutely no qualifications to be Vice president, much present. But she is far worse than just incompetent my dogs to be incompetent, to be President of the United States, but they're not evil. She is. She has absolutely no character. She's a very, very dangerous person.

2:12 Netanyahu's speech, probably his worst. He had many elements of the speech which were quite good, but his delivery and his timing were very poor. It was obvious that he was trying desperately to give dramatic impact, and his enunciation and his emphasis just did not work really at any point during his speech. He tried to make it inclusive by bringing in various elements and praised a Muslim that was in the IDF as if that was a good thing.

2:42 But here's the bottom line. I've said this many times. There are many things that Israel is doing incorrectly, but two in particular that I want to talk about tonight. One is that so long as Israel continues to parrot the myth of the Palestinians, so long as they do not from their media and from every politician in unison claim there is no such thing as a Palestinian, there can never be a Palestinian state, the Muslims that are here originate from many different countries, Jordan primarily, but also Syria, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Egypt, Gaza was part of Egypt but Egypt doesn't want it back. The Muslims living in the West Bank were part of Jordan, but Jordan doesn't want them back. They are not Palestinians. The last Palestinian was eliminated well over 2,300 years ago, and most of them were eliminated almost 3,000 years ago. And even when they existed, they were not a civilization. They were a group of bandits, mean spirited, uneducated, illiterate and vicious, they were the worst of humanity. And that says a lot. They were also foreign invaders even then. And if you're going to use the name, then the only place the name is known is through the prophets and the writings amongst the Yahowah's prophets and His Oracles. You use them and the definition of a Philistine is a foreign invader and terrorist, and you realize that they do not belong there, and they were savages. This is not their home.

4:33 And if you don't use that, then the people never existed because nothing else is known of them. So, it is a complete marketing myth. And so long as Israel continues to give lip service to it, they will lose because it will eventually lead, and I think it's within two years, I think it will happen in May of 2026, Israel will be capitulated into awarding what I would call the final solution. The moment that a terrorist state of Islam is carved out of Israel and they lose the ability to police it to minimize the amount of weapons in it, no matter what the world says, no matter what the world has ever said about policing and monitoring and protecting Israel's right to exist and minimizing the weapons in a Islamic enclave next to it, they have never honored any of their commitments and it will become rife with all manner of weaponry.

5:34 The reality is that what occurred on October 7th, as savage as it was, it was amongst the most savage events in human history. Muslims went so far as to cut off the legs of the women that they were holding hostage and raped them, even as they were bleeding to death. There's never been a more disgusting group of people than these Muslims. And then you have protesters around the world that are flying the Hamas flag and that are rallying on behalf of the Islamic terrorists. Kamala Harris is one that would shout down anyone who would protest against the Fakistinians. And it's ubiquitous among younger people in the West and in America, and also in Europe. They're just too stupid, too ignorant to be anything but a danger to themselves and the rest of the world. And all the while, Israel is being accused of genocide when they're practices in urban warfare are the least genocidal in the history of urban warfare. No one has ever come close to protecting civilians to the degree that Israel is doing it.

6:47 Frankly, there are no civilians. Everyone in Gaza is complicit. Even the youngest of the Gazans has already been indoctrinated to hate Jews. They are Vipers, and they will grow up to be terrorists. And then nothing will stop. So, there is no reason to protect anybody in Gaza, and yet Jews are doing a marvelous job while being accused of genocide by moronic Muslims and progressives. All the while, the overt statements of these rioting and protesting Muslims and progressives is "From the river to the sea Palestine will be free" and there is no Palestine and there has never been any freedom in Islam. Islam actually means submission and all Muslims are slaves to Allah. There is no democracy in the Islamic world, never will be. So, this is the craziness that we live in. And so long as Jews give lip service to the existence of Palestinians, they're doomed because they will not survive the imposition of a Islamic State carved out of their heart.

8:03 The second thing that Netanyahu did that is incorrect and it's pervasive amongst all Israelis, they want to declare war against Hamas and say they're fighting against a terrorist organization. Hamas is meaningless. First of all, Israel has zero chance of ever eradicating Gaza of Hamas, even if they dropped nuclear bombs, which they're not going to do, and they killed every Gazan. There are more Hamas in Judea and Samaria and the areas controlled by the Palestinian Authority than there are those who are in favor of the Palestinian Authority. So, Hamas is an Islamic fundamentalist club, a terrorist organization that is motivated by pure and simple, unadulterated regular Islam, not radical Islam, just regular Islam. All good Muslims are terrorists according to the Quran. So, by saying that they're fighting against Hamas, a terrorist organization, they're missing the entire point. They're not fighting against Hamas. Hamas isn't who attacked them. The fact is that the majority of the militants that came in Israel were not even affiliate with Hamas anyway. They were either regular, unaffiliated Muslims or they were Islamic Jihad. It's like Hamas is meaningless. It's like saying I'm going to solve Chicken pox by washing a person down with water. No. You can't lash out against the symptom and think that you're fighting against the actual cause. Muslims declared war on Jews 1,400 years ago. They perpetrated genocide against Jews in Arabia. Literally.

10:07 And a subsequent show, I just don't have it handy tonight otherwise I would go through it, but if you look at the population of Jews throughout what would be the Islamic Middle East as of 1948 and then you look at the quantity of Jews and all of those countries since 1948, there has been a 99.9% reduction of Jews. Now that is genocide to the extreme. At the same time, the number of Muslims in Israel has grown tenfold. So, the Muslims in Israel has grown tenfold, and the Jews and all of the Islamic nations has declined 99.9% and yet progressives are so stupid they want to point their fingers and say that the problem is the Jews. So, when you're fighting something like this, you need to be really blunt. You can't play into the lie and that's unfortunately what Netanyahu did throughout his speech. Israel wants so badly to be accepted that they play along, and they use terminology they think that won't be offensive but I'm sorry, Islam declared war on you 1,400 years ago. Their goal, and they state it regularly every day vocally, is to wipe you out, to exterminate every Jew, to eliminate Israel. So that is the reality and until Israel, from top to bottom, says it, then the future is really dire for the country.

12:01 As an update, we are back up with Amazon. Almost all the books have been recovered in terms of images. We were able to buy my favorite image, which is a lovely picture of the great Isaiah scroll that now graces An Introduction to God, volumes one, two and three, and it was a lovely negotiation with the owner of that print to earn the right to use it. We have reimaged the whole Observations series with the lovely Manowrah and the earth behind it that Jacki commissioned. And we came up with a team concept of an image for God Damn Religion that has written blood underneath a pretty vicious snake image with "Kill every Jew" in quotes and it actually put the three sources from which that quote was taken on the cover, and then writes about it on the inside front cover and on the back cover.

13:09 But there was concern that people would read right past the fact that it is a quote that Mohammed said it, that we've given the three references and that we explained the reason we're using the quote. My goal was to be so bold that I could solve the problem that we did not have previously.

13:33 When I wrote Prophet of Doom 20 some years ago, I met a publicist, the number one publicist, really worldwide, in terms of television and talk radio program. And he agreed to take me on as a client for free. Normally you would pay thousands of dollars for a three-to-four-minute radio spot and much more than that for a short television spot. And he took me on for free. And he booked something in the range of 5,000. Interviews for me didn't charge me a dime. Almost every interview I did was initially booked for the typical three-to-five-minute slots, and most of them lasted 1-2 and three hours. And almost every show that I ever did, I was invited back 10/20/30 times by the same host. And so, you had 5,000 radio interviews and also television interviews and 20 years to promote Prophet of Doom, you had the worst terrorist act in the history of America as the springboard for it, I had the realization that I was the only American to meet with Al Qaida and live through the experience and the fact that it was unique. No one had ever reordered the Quran chronologically and set it in the context of Muhammad's life.

15:01 And at the time, I knew Islam better than any Muslim and I debated imams in large public gatherings, sometimes as many as 5,000 people, to live radio audiences in large arenas. So, after 5,000 radio interviews and 20 years of work, it made no difference. It had minor, actually significant difference in Iran, which was the highest readership per capita for Prophet of Doom, but it didn't resonate in Israel. It didn't resonate among Jews in America. And so, my thought was I need something on this cover that makes it impossible for Jews to ignore. Because I don't have, we don't have, 20 years. We have at most two years to three years, depending if you want to talk about the next hellacious attack on Israel or the time that Israel will forfeit her heartland to Islam.

16:12 So with two to three years rather than 20 years and now our outreach is on social media, between Twitter and YouTube and Facebook and the like. While we are getting much, much better at that and much more effective, particularly with these movies, with voiceovers, the fact is that I had zero chance of garnering enough attention to actually awaken Israel to the nature of their enemy, and they need to know, this is their enemy. So, the idea was write in blood below the image "Kill every Jew" and put it in quotes and attribute it to Muhammad. Unfortunately, I wouldn't say unfortunately. The reality is that that there was pushback. My wife was one of them. She said, "You know, I really am uncomfortable with that image." And no one had pushed back on it and said you know, we're not going to throw a hissy fit or anything else, but you really ought to rethink this, because if somebody doesn't read those quotes and they think you're saying it, it's going to cost quite a commotion. And I said, "Good, that's the intent. That is the ___."

17:29 But you know, I'm in a different place than is everybody else. I know this religion. I spent nine months rewriting Prophet of Doom. I spent two years writing Prophet of Doom. I have been under the threat of Muslims promising to kill me for over 20 years. I know exactly what I'm up against, and I know what my job entails, which is to awaken Israel to the threats against her so that she can consider Yahowah's invitations. So, understanding that I thought it was a prudent risk.

18:22 But I was in a minority, and I do not operate alone. Yes, you know the nature of this role if you look at the hundreds and hundreds of prophecies regarding it, speaks of a single individual but just as Yahowah works through people on all things, so do I. Without the team, I do not succeed. So, we have to have a supportive team which is in our case a family. Without that family supporting this effort we have, I have, we have no chance to prevail. So when you know, I get pushed back, I listen.

19:06 And so my good friend, many of you know him as Yow'el, happens to, to arrive here last night and is going to be here for three or four days. Yow'el did a really nice job of creating that original AI image that then the team manipulated that is currently on the covers of An introduction to God, and if you want that on a cover of one of your books to start a conversation, as I have ordered a bunch of them, better order them now because the cover is going to be replaced here forthwith. Today we worked on a new cover, and it is so powerful it gives me goosebumps. It is just amazing. There're some subtleties to it whereby the star that you would normally see by the Crescent in the Islam depiction, rather than being a star, it is Allah written in Arabic. And better than that, the part of Allah's name in Arabic that looks like a snake is drawn in green and the part that looks like a sword is in gold. And it is just chilling. And then since the snake is representing Allah, who Muslims have to admit as part of their religion because as they were talking about the building and rebuilding of the Kaaba, every time that the Kaaba is rebuilt, there's always a snake underneath it. The snake, which is a Viper with a split tongue, has woven into its body a skull in the shape of a Crescent moon. And so, you have Mohammed and Allah, and it says in blood, scratched finger writing Islamic terror. It's gruesome. So, it is an image that can't get me, can't get us taken off Amazon while we build our own store while at the same time doing the job of being shocking and telling a very powerful story. So, this is one of those many cases where you have to listen and make adjustments and sometimes the end result is better than what you started with. So that's where we are and I wanted to share that with you all. Tomorrow, we'll work on the store so that we can sell our books directly and also ___ all apparel and other kinds of things that will be good for the family.

22:05 On the writing, I finished the first volume of Twistianity. I have now entered the first four chapters, I think now of the team edits and we'll by early tomorrow morning I will have the 5th chapter and then they'll send me the rest as they finish it over the next few days and we'll have the first volume of Twistianity ready. It has a new image too. The wolf is much more vicious and the sheep that it's wearing is now far more dignified and elegant with the ram with horns and golden fleece that Dee, I think your daughter was the one that drew in the golden fleece and colored the horns It has this gruesome wolf with Replacement Theology under its paws. It's gripping too. We're making progress on this and as soon as the other three volumes are completed of Twistianity then I've got a little homework to do to resolve the fact that Dowd fulfilled the first three Mow'ed Miqra'ey. The fourth one is upcoming on Shabuw'ah which is May 22 in 2026 and Taruw'ah is actually going to occur on September 25th in 2033, ten days prior to Dowd's return. So, we have a little bit of cleaning up to do to get all the pieces right. And that's always a pleasure because we want to be right. We're growing, we're learning and the goal is to be right.

23:54 All right. That said, we're going to turn to where we were. We were covering a prophet that most people don't talk about very often. His name is Yow'el. It's convenient because when Joe was doing this program with us his name de Plume was Yow'el, and it either means "Joe is God" or "Yah is God." Which of the two? "What's the difference?" He says, "What's the difference?" For those of you who recall long ago, Joe maybe has a drier sense of humor than I do and he is more sarcastic than I am and that takes a lot because I work very hard at being sarcastic.

24:46 All right, so we were on Yow'el 2:2. He's sitting on the sofa in my office as we're doing this program.

25:00 "It will be a day of darkness during a time of ignorance and confusion (yowm chosek) (when much is obscured) when there is a reduction in the sun's light (wa 'apelah), a day of obscuring phenomenon (yowm 'anan), gloomy and miserable (wa 'araphel), similar to (ka) the swarthy blackness (shachar) which is spread out (paras) upon the mountains ('al ha har) with an enormous number of dimwitted and unenlightened many people so numerous so as to be uncountable from a large and powerful army ('am rab 'atsuw), the likes of which (kemow huw') has not existed previously, even to the dawn of time (lo' hayah min ha 'owlam).

And after this (wa 'achar huw'), it will never occur again (lo' yasaph) throughout the years ('ad shanah), generation unto generation (dowr wa dowr). (Yow'el 2:2)

25:57 We may be able to do the entire program this evening on just what this statement means, and how it is important to Israel. First of all, when God speaks of a time of darkness, of a day, of darkness, are you guys familiar with the extended meaning of Arab in Hebrew? It means "to be dark." It means "to show ignorance and to be gloomy." And so, by saying, "there's going to be a day of darkness, a time of ignorance and confusion, when much is obscured," all you really need to do is to take all of those Muslim morons and progressives that are protesting around the world on behalf of Fakeistan and on behalf of Islamic terrorists and imagine them all armed flooding into Israel with the desire to torture Jewish children, rape and dismember Jewish women, mutilate and abduct Jewish men. It is what occurred on October 7th times 1,000. Times 1,000. There won't be 3,000 angry, demented, confused jihadists perpetrating monstrous crimes. There'll be 300,000. There won't be 5,000 crude rockets that are fired into Israel but between missiles, rockets, drones, anti-personnel rounds, and artillery the onslaught from the air is not going to be 5,000, but 500,000. It will so overwhelm the Iron Dome as to make it useless within the first 30 minutes of the conflict. And even if there were enough Interceptors to last an hour Israel would go broke in the process because they would be shooting down $1,000-aerial bombardments with $100,000 interceptors. That can't win that war. And with the missile barrage this time and the drones and the aerial bombardments totaling 500,000 projectiles many of them will be far more accurately guided, and they will destroy Israel's infrastructure: Electrical generation plants, some of her airports and Airforce bases, some of her ports, her offshore oil extracting fields, her hospitals, water treatment plants. Israel will be taken back into the Stone Age.

29:45 You could say, well, the same thing will happen to Lebanon and to Egypt and to Syria and to Jordan, from which these Islamic terrorists will come. So, let's say it's true. So what? It doesn't change the reality of what's going to happen to Israel.

30:08 Imagine what happens if there are so many projectiles 1,000 times, which is what Yahowah is saying here, the 1,000 times more projectiles, and they're better guided and longer ranged, and they fly into Tel Aviv and into Jerusalem, and throughout the most populated areas, and they're all ablaze and they have no electricity, no water pressure, no ability to put out the fires. At the same time rather than 3,000 monsters, savages coming in to rape and abduct and torture Jews now there's so many that even if the IDF responded in time, they don't have enough bullets. An IDF that tries to stop them are just going to be part of the carnage. In the smaller communities they will become nothing but prisons for Jewish hostages and rape victims, mutilation centers. And in the largest cities, they will be engulfed in flames.

31:26 I'm not saying this because I want it to happen. I have risked my life to keep it from happening. I went through the cover and spent nine months rewriting Prophet of Doom as God Damn Religion to minimize the effect of it happening, to help Israel stop it from happening. But unfortunately, the politicians in Israel aren't willing to listen. The IDF has many good men that fight for it and rotten leaders and the whole world has turned on Israel. So, it's going to happen and all you can do if you're Jewish is to be on Yahowah's side before it happens, be part of His Covenant or you will be swallowed up in it. And there will be no negotiations this time for a truce, for a prisoner exchange, not going to happen. And that is what you're up against. And God wants you to know that you're up against that.

32:30 He is not doing it either. You've actually done it to yourself. When you released 1,000 convicted terrorists to free one Israeli servicemen, you did it to yourself. When you're started negotiating with Hamas terrorists because you wanted your hostages released and you were willing to negotiate with them and cave in to their demands, you made it inevitable. When you didn't have the courage to make the deal that I suggested you make. You either release every hostage today or I destroy the Dome of the Rock. You release every hostage the following day. Should you renege on that decision I'll destroy As-Aqsa Mosque and I will tell the world how both of these structures are complete embarrassments to Islam. But you didn't do that. And so now you're in a position where all you are doing is abetting your own demise. And because you continue to speak of trying to improve the Palestinian Authority and coming up with an Islamic government over Gaza you just signed your own funeral invitation. That's what you've done. So, God is telling you this is going to happen.

34:04 "It will be a day of darkness" of Arab Muslims, in particular, beyond the number that you can even count.

34:12 "As ignorant and confused as they are and much will be obscured" because Jews themselves, as smart people, don't understand. They don't know who Yahowah is, they don't understand His Covenant, they do not understand His Mow'ed Miqra'ey. They do not understand that the most religious among Jews are the most offensive to God and they are a house divided. And so virtually every aspect of Israel is part of this problem.

34:51 when there is a reduction in the sun's light. You know who the "sun" is when Yahowah is talking about the sun's light. Dowd. He's first mentioned in the opening chapter of Bare'syth/Genesis. He is the greater Luminary who is here for the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, which is what it says. He's fulfilled and is fulfilling and will fulfill all seven of them. And so, that is who the sun's light is, and Israel has continued to obscure what he represents. Virtually no one in Israel speaks of him as being the Messiah. They're waiting for a nameless Messiah to return. It's Dowd. Israel is completely opposed to the idea of God having a son. Yet Dowd is the son of God. They can't wrap their minds around the realization that Passover isn't a historical event. It is the event that opens up the door to heaven and to life, and that Dowd himself was the Passover lamb. They don't even understand that unyeasted bread/Matsah is the single most important of the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey, and it represents the time that Dowd took the guilt of every Covenant member with his soul and deposited into She'owl never to be seen again. No concept of that. No concept that the man that Yahowah refers to as His firstborn became the fulfillment of First-born children on Bikuwrym. And because they don't understand these things, they can't capitalize upon them. And until you understand the role, that's Dowd/David, the Messiah, King, the Zarowa', Sacrificial Lamb, our Shepherd and Savior played in fulfilling the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, then you're just a victim in waiting. That is what He's talking about as a reduction in the sun's light.

37:13 It's a day of "obscuring phenomenon." You know what the obscuring phenomenon is? It comes in three forms. Religion, politics and conspiracy. That is the obscuring phenomenon. Religion is the worst, politics is the second, conspiracy is the third. Those are the obscuring phenomenon that keep God's people from recognizing this prophecy, and what it represents.

37:45 "Gloomy and miserable are the result similar to a swarthy blackness." Again, this is a flood of jihadists, more jihadists than can be counted, a thousand times what happened on 10/7/23.

38:04 Should you be interested in the timing of this putting all the pieces together; I I can tell you for certain what days certain events are going to occur, what certain what days the prior three Mow'ed Miqra'ey were fulfilled even to the hour and the day the last two will be fulfilled, right to the second. The next two I think we have a good understanding of. It's the only thing that fits the entire picture, so I'm going to go ahead and share it with you and that will lead to the time that this flood of Islamic jihadists is going to occur.

38:50 When we read Yasha'yah 17 and 18 the Prophet speaks of America acting belligerently, which is what it's currently doing against Israel, that when America arms and abets Israel's foes and negotiates and enriches Israel's foes and ultimately abandons Israel and forces the so-called "two-state solution," the final solution on the nation which America is now the foremost advocate in the world, (Muslims don't want a two-state solution, by the way). They know that the Fakestinians are impossible. They have no interest in that and even the Pakistanis don't want a two-state solution. They're not saying on their chant "From the river to East Jerusalem," "From the river to the state." They want a one state solution and that is what they're demanding and it's obvious.

39:56 So when you read Yasha'yah 17 and 18 and then you listen to what Dowd, who was Gabry'el, that's his name du Plume when he visited Daniel, speak about the timing of world events to come, he not only told us the exact day that he was going to arrive in Jerusalem, his city, to fulfill Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym in year 4000 Yah, 33 CE on our calendars, he actually told us when he was going to return and he told us what was going to happen along the way. When you take that into consideration and the timing he gives us, the specific number of days and years with what we read elsewhere the conclusion we come to is that the harvest of standing grain, which is both of Yahuwdym and Gowym, representing the two loaves and its wheats plural. So, it's different types of wheat, that Gowym and Yahuwdym, then the largest harvest in the history of Yah's interaction with humankind, is going to occur on the Shabu'wah that is seven years away from Yahowah's return. And that the Time of Ya'aqob's Troubles, Ya'aqob's Troubles is synonymous with Israel. The time of Israel's troubles, the word is tsar for troubles. It means "to narrow and to oppress, to subjugate." The Time that Israel will be narrowed and therefore the Islamic State carved out of its heart where 70% of its people live leading to carnage is going to occur seven years before Yahowah returns while the Shabu'wah that is 7 years before the year-6000-Yah return is in 2026. The date of the Shibuya harvest is May 22nd. It is a Shabat. And so, all evidence tells us that we can count on a very significant number of Gowym and Yahuwdym being harvested on Shabu'wah prior to this onslaught on the 22nd of May 2026. I would strongly encourage everyone listening, whether be Gowy or Jew to take advantage of this opportunity. First of all, Yahowah is delightful to be around. His son is incredibly magnanimous. Being with him is vastly superior to being estranged from him, and he is offering the ultimate reward, eternal life in his presence inheriting all he has to give, and if you accept this gift now understand what he's offering and expecting in return through the five conditions and five benefits of the Covenant and how they are delivered through the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, you can learn all of that by going to yadaya.com and reading the books on the bookshelf there. They're all free, all 33 of them are free in their entirety. You can buy them at Amazon.

43:24 We're back live with Amazon. They totally capitulated, said, "Oh yeah, we're reinstalling you. Didn't have any, didn't find anything wrong." It just reinstalled us. Anyway, you can go and read those books and you can buy them royalty free at the cost of printing and shipping from Amazon or you can read them free online on whatever device you want to use. I would encourage you to do that because if you do that and you do it soon, then you can spend all of your free time reading. Read every one of those 33 books, read them all. Some of them read twice. Most of the people who are productive in the Covenant Family have read them 3-4 and five times easily. And once you have, you own the material. It becomes part of you. You just know it, you understand it. You can speak with authority on behalf of Yahowah. And for those who are listening, who haven't done this once you do that, then you have whatever time between now and May 22nd of 2026 to be productive. You can make a difference on eternity. People that wouldn't otherwise be part of it can be if you get off the sofa, stop playing video games, stop being distracted and make your life count. You've got all the eternity to celebrate. You're going to get your time back an infinite fold. But right now you've got the opportunity to be productive.

45:11 Just to tell you how enormous this is, I was speaking with Yow'el and Yow'el was really, really active. Read all the books, helped edit the books, put the books on online, and was part of the show for lots of years. And then Yow'el got off and was pursuing, as many have to do, his economic interest to take care of his family and I wasn't keeping up on what we had learned over the last three years in particular. It's interesting his lovely wife Mary had and Mary's a very active contributor now in the Covenant Family, but Joe's changed. He decided, you know, maybe I got to come back up to speed again. And the thing that is the hardest for somebody who has not been part of what we're doing for the last three or four years but was connected with us say five years ago is the role we play in all of this. It's not just the amazing discovery of who Dowd is and what he's done. It's also who we are and what we're doing. And the fact that there are hundreds upon hundreds of prophecies regarding this, it's a really big deal from Yahowah's perspective. Christianity made an entire religion out of two mentions of Messiah and yet this role isn't spoken of twice but hundreds upon hundreds of times, and there isn't an unnamed reference to it. The references are named, and they're very long. There are entire chapters of Yasha'yah devoted to it. The first reference to it is in the first chapter of Bare'syth. So, it's a big deal. Why is it?

47:05 Why is it a big deal? Well look at the problem. Yahowah was facing when He was with the Jews 3, 450 years ago, almost 3500 years ago, just a few years shy of that, and removed them from Mitsraym and the crucibles of human oppression with a strong hand because they didn't know Him, they didn't trust Him, they didn't even like Him, so with a strong hand He removed them because the Children of Yisra'el wouldn't exist if Yahowah hadn't rescued them. They would have died there. So, He rescued them with a strong hand and they hadn't gotten their shadows out of Mitsraym before they started bellyaching. It didn't get any better. In fact, it got worse. They were miserable to God and early on God says, "I'll tell you what, Moseh, to take some of the pressure off you, you gather all the people together. I'll come down off the mountain. I will reveal myself to them. I will speak directly to them, and I will tell them that I am not only God, but I'm the one that is inspiring these words for all the credibility that that will provide for you." So he did. And what did the Jews say? "Don't talk. Get Him out of here! Get Him out of here! We never want to see Him or hear from Him again, ever!" He is a much more characterized and principled individual than I am. I probably would have said. OK, good, good riddance. See how you see how you fend on your own. That's probably the way that I would have handled it. But you know, I'm not the substance of Yah.

48:57 Yah though had a very interesting approach. It's something so difficult for most people to wrap their minds around they don't even think about. God said, "I agree with them, I agree with them. That's what they want. I concur. We're going to give them exactly what they want." Now why did Yahowah say that? It should be fairly obvious. Would you want to spend your time hanging around a bunch of ingrates who are embittered, complaining all the time and are just miserable to be around that don't want you to be part of their lives who would prefer to make up false gods and to be religious? Of course not. God had no interest in talking directly to them. If you could talk to Moseh and Dowd or Yasha'yah, for example, these are really great men. Brilliant. Or you could talk to these embittered jerks who want to be making up their false gods. Who would you want to talk to? So, Yahowah said, "I'm good with this. This works for Me." But what does it do?

50:03 When God makes a promise, He honors it. That means between now and the time that He returns, He's not going to ever speak directly to His people the Jews ever. And He hasn't. A hundred percent of what He was through individuals like Moseh, Dowd, like Shamuw'el, like Howsha', like my buddy Yasha'yah. All of them. The last of the people that He spoke through was Mal'aky in 447 BCE. From that time, God said, "You know, I looked, I looked, I looked, I looked for someone that would listen to Me that I could speak through. I never found anyone. Not one." And so, God's not going to speak directly to His people. He's going to speak through someone. If there's not a single person that's willing to walk away from religion and politics, be open to Yahowah's calling, to His name, to His purpose, to go where His words lead, to devote themselves to this mission, then there's no one for Him to communicate with because He's not going to force me.

51:12 Yahowah solved this problem actually before the universe was created because He knew it was going to happen because He could look at where our bad choices lead. He solved it in a very clever way. "Because My people won't listen to Me, I'll get a Gowy. He may not be the sharpest tool in the shed, but I'll tell you what. What I can do with him is going to make all the difference after 3,000 years of not listening to Me. There were only two very brief periods. You can guys can correct me if I'm wrong. I'm aware of two very brief periods where Israel listened, when people who were attuned to Yah spoke to them. One time it was a very brief period in Dowd's life and maybe the first year or two of Solomon's rule. Most of the time, under Dowd, the people were rebellious. Before he was king, they were following Sha'uwI. They chose Sha'uwI over Yahowah, and then, when Dowd was in power, he had that great 'Abshalowm rebellion. And so there were lots of times where Israel was not responsive to what I think the greatest of the prophets had to say, Dowd, to them. 00:52:46

52:46 And then the second was, sometimes the necessity is the great inventor. They had what was the largest army in the history of the ancient world, 185,000 Assyrians, that had gathered outside of Jerusalem to destroy it. And at that time, Hezekiah found a copy of the Towrah somewhere stuffed somewhere in Yahowah's Covenant home, in the Temple. He read it and said, "Holy crap, are we in trouble!" I think that's probably the terms that he used. I know I wasn't there at the time, but I'm pretty sure that's what he had to say. "We're in trouble." And first thing he did is, he said, "For us to have any chance of solving this problem, we have to remove all traces of religion." It's the first time it happened in the history of Israel and the evidence of this has been found through archaeology. All religious artifacts in the province of Judea, the northern Kingdom was already gone. The Assyrians had destroyed it. All religious artifacts anywhere around the province of Judea were destroyed. And then Hezekiah started training the Lowy, the Levite Kohen/priests on what their job was and how they were supposed to communicate the meaning of the Covenant and the Mow'ed to the children of Israel. And then Hezekiah says, "There is no way I can get this done between now and the time of Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym, and there's 185,000 Assyrians ready to kill us. What am I going to do?" And he went to Yahowah and said, "Yahowah, I can't get this done in two weeks. I'm trying. Can we have a two-week extension? We'll celebrate Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym but we need two weeks to do it right as opposed to do it now and do it wrong." God said, "Fine. I've got no problem with that." He held the Assyrians at bay. They started celebrating Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym as it was intended. They removed all traces of religion, 185,000 Assyrians died, and didn't fire a shot. In the last couple of months, they found the encampments of those Assyrians and of course, a number of years ago they found a written inscription in Assyria of specifically of this incident and the failure of it from the Assyrians perspective. Courage, just as Yahowah said. Those are the only two times. No other times that I'm aware of.

55:40 So, if you've gone 2,900 years without having any Jews respond to Yahowah, 2,500 from the last of them that was Mal'aky. But in terms of a community of Jews, 3,000 years, what was going to change that was going to cause the Taruw'ah and Shabuw'ah Harvests to take place? Would there be one person there or none for Shabuw'ah? When the Taruw'ah Harvest came around, would there be one person there or none? All evidence is that over the 2,500 years there has been none. God said there were none. There would have been none. Well, how do you fulfill a harvest if there's nothing to harvest? And then the Day of Reconciliations when Yahowah is returning with Dowd and it's a great Family reunion, if there's no Family the at all, and there wouldn't have been, there's no reason for God to return, and if he doesn't return, there's no Shabuw'ah Harvest, no Taruw'ah Harvest, no return on Yowm Kipurym, there most certainly is no fulfillment of Sukah, of camping out together for 1,000 years. It's all for naught. The entire human experience. We blow ourselves to smithereens, we kill ourselves, we end life on the planet and there's nothing left. All for naught.

57:18 So, darn right Yahowah had a lot to say about the role that we're playing because it's what's making the difference in this world. And that's why He wants you, if you're an Israelite, to listen.

57:40 "It will be a day of darkness during a time of ignorance and confusion when much is obscured when there is a reduction in the sun's light, a day of obscuring phenomenon, gloomy and miserable, similar to the swarthy blackness which is spread out upon the mountains with an enormous number of dimwitted and unenlightened people as so numerous as to be uncountable, the likes of which has not existed previously even to the dawn of time."

58:08 I did a study on this to find out what the largest armies that had ever been assembled. How many? And this will be the largest ever. And they're all coming into a narrow, little, tiny place savagely to torture, rape, abduct, and murder Jews to destroy it. And there's only one way out, Yahowah. And when Yahowah realizes that although He is not establishing the Time of Trouble, it is inevitable, it's man's choices, that with their back up against the wall, the realization the IDF cannot save, then the realization there is no politician worth listening to, the realization of their rabbis were only right about one thing they are dressed in their black mourning suits for their own funeral. Other than that, they got nothing right. With their backs up against the wall some will listen and that is why we have this message prepared for them.

59:17 And after this (wa 'achar huw'), it will never occur again (lo' yasaph) throughout the years ('ad shanah), generation unto generation (dowr wa dowr). (Yow'el 2:2) because there will be a Shabuw'ah Harvest, because there will be a Taruw'ah Harvest, because there will be a family reunion on Yowm Kipurym, because there will be lots of celebration as we camp out with Yahowah forevermore.

59:39 DEE: We've been getting a question, if you don't mind me interrupting you. A lot of people are asking, after the Shabuw'ah Harvest will there be another chance for people that are not in Yisra'el to be harvested on say a Taruw'ah Harvest or is Shabuw'ah the final call for the nations abroad?

59:53 YADA: No. First of all, Shabuw'ah is the big harvest. If you don't make the Shabuw'ah Harvest, your chances of surviving are exceedingly small because there's very little time left, there's going to be a period of a number of years where there's not going to be a witness other than our books, these audio programs and social media. The echoes of what we have done are going to be the only thing for people to pay attention to and Jews around the world are going to be fighting for their lives. So, the sure bet is Shabuw'ah. And so rather than say, what about if we don't make Shabuw'ah, what are the opportunities? That's the wrong approach. The only sure way out is Shabuw'ah. Capitalize on Shabuw'ah or your chances are not nonexistent, but they're really low.

1:00:52 Now the Taruw'ah Harvest is a different harvest. Shabuw'ah is of standing grain. It's wheats. There are two loves, Gowym and Yahuwdym. That is not the case with Taruw'ah. Taruw'ah is described as an olive harvest. There is two or three from the uppermost branches that would be Yahuwdym. There are four or five from the broken off branches that were separated. That would be Yisra'elites. It's a harvest of God's people. It is a much smaller harvest. There could be as few as 7,000 people that are part of that harvest. That harvest will be prompted largely by the work of the two witnesses during the last 3 1/2 years. And there's really not a lot of time to position oneself to capitalize on that.

1:01:57 Yahowah is always willing to accept a Gowym who accepts Yisra'el, who accepts the same Towrah, who accepts the same Covenant, who accepts the same Mow'ed Miqra'ey, accepts His same Son as the Yahuwdym do. So even though it is a harvest intended for Yisra'elites, I suppose in fact, Yahowah would be inconsistent if this was impossible, for a Gowym who is sojourning, if you will, with Yisra'el to be part of it to be grafted into those branches, but you're going to be grafted into a branch that the world despises. So, keep that in mind.

1:02:50 Also understand that while the time between May of 2026, when the terrorist state of Islam will be carved out of the heart of Israel to the time of this final war, this invasion of Israel in such numbers that they obscure the horizon, that they are uncountable, that it's beyond anything that has occurred before, that from the time that the Two-State Solution is imposed or accepted, and the time this occurs is likely 13 months. The reason we think this is 13 months is we read the statements of Gabry'el, who is Dowd, who clearly knows, spoke about in terms of the things that were going to occur during the last 3 1/2 years. And this event, if we're reading correctly, is going to occur 13 months after the May 22nd Day, which I think is a day in June of 2027 is when this is likely to occur.

1:04:12 Now, that doesn't mean that Hezbollah doesn't continue to lob rockets and their ongoing skirmishes there, but they're not intending to go mildly into Israel. They're intending to have nuclear bombs, they're intending to have an arsenal the size of the 500,000 munitions aerial bombardment that I've spoken of. So, this will put them in at that timeline.

1:04:49 There is a gleaning, that is really Taruw'ah is a gleaning. But there is also the homecoming of Yahuwdym on Yowm Kipurym and it could be hundreds or thousands of Jews. But you know the difference is we've had basically, 3,500 years of exposure to the Towrah and Prophets to prepare ourselves to be harvestable on Shabuw'ah. So I've had my whole life and generations and generations available before me, it's been a long time, plenty of time, ample time to be part of this harvest. I've been studying this now for 23 years.

1:05:44 Taruw'ah is a different story. On Taruw'ah, since it's only 7 years from the Shabuw'ah Harvest, the most mature that any Yahuw'dym or Yisra'elite can be in the Covenant Family is 7 years. That is the absolute most and most of them are going to be much less than that. We're going to have a lot of very immature people who make the right decision, but at the last possible moment. And then when you get to that final Remnant after all hell breaks loose in Israel and Jerusalem, now He's removed His family twice, so Yahowah is doing the right thing. He's removing His family from the worst of this and the worst of the worst of it, and that last 10 days is going to be literally hell where life would be extinguished on Earth if He doesn't intervene. But there will be a remnant of Yisra'el who will be there in Jerusalem, who will be looking up to Him. On the Taruw'ah Harvest I don't think the specificity of being in Israel is an absolute necessity, but nonetheless the Witnesses will be in Israel and it's an olive harvest, and the olive is rooted in Israel, so the wise thing to do is to be in Israel at that time. And, of course, for the Yowm Kipurym return it is to Jerusalem. And so that's the only place you can be and capitalize upon it.

1:07:23 And once this occurs, we move into a period where Yahowah restores the earth to the conditions experienced at Gan 'Eden/the Garden of Great Joy and there is no more religion, no more conspiracy, no more politics. None of these things exist at that point. The conditions are the kind of same celebration of life and of a relationship with Yahowah that existed with 'Adam and Yahowah so many years ago, almost 6,000, in fact, nine years shy of 6,000 years ago, was when they were in the Garden. And so, that's how this concludes. A powerful statement. Israel, that is the reason why the cover of God Damn Religion now says, "Islamic Terrorism." This is what He's talking about.

1:08:17 While Yahowah is light He is arriving at the darkest moment in our planet's turbulent history both from the actual obscuration of the sun's illumination, from debris in the atmosphere, but also from human, religious and political and military malfeasance, all designed to confuse the ignorant at the last opportune time. You should know that there will be a solar eclipse on Taruw'ah in 2033, year 6000 Yah. Those are rare, but there's a full solar eclipse on the day of Taruw'ah. And you should know that as we move past the fulfillment of Kipurym to the first day of Sukah in year 6000 Yah, 33 CE, there is a full lunar eclipse. That is an extremely rare occurrence to have both in the same year, but that is what's going to happen. That same year, by the way, on Pesach on the 1st of 'Abyb, and also on the fulfillment of Pesach and Matsah, there will be a solar eclipse and a lunar eclipse. So, it's a special year for heavenly fireworks.

1:09:47 There will be lots of reasons for the sky to be obscured. There's likely going to be issues related to worldwide fires from the effects of global warming, and it is occurring. It's a part of a natural Earthen Cycle, but that is likely. There will be likely a volcanic event that spews enormous amounts of ash into the sky. It is likely that there will be nuclear war with all of the crud that that stirs up in the atmosphere. You can't have that many Muslims and that many bombardments and that many fires caused by them without obscuring the sky. Look at Hezbollah now trying to burn down the north of Israel. So, there are lots of reasons that the sky will be obscured. And of course, prior to this time, far too few people know Dowd, who is returning as brilliant as the sun.

1:10:50 Yow'el has deployed in this one passage, Yow'el 2:2 a full arsenal of words depicting a deprivation of light and that is why I turned to the root of 'am/people which is 'anam – "to convey cognitive function of this invading horde which is dimwitted and unenlightened." The average IQ of the Muslims living around Israel is about 70. The old term for that was "mentally retarded." Now they say "mentally disabled or mentally handicapped," but since they're Muslims we can say just stupid. God said it. Why can't we say it?

1:11:40 In some cases, at least when associated with Israel 'am can mean "family" and on rare occasion when depicting foes, as is the case here, 'am is correctly translated as "militants or army." But in this situation, there are two things which the Prophet wants us to appreciate that there are going to be more than can be counted suggesting hundreds of thousands or even perhaps a million belligerents and that they have arrived as thick and menacing as blowing sand off the desert. A haboob of Mujahideen. I particularly love the alliteration of haboob which you can look it up. It's an actual term. It means "a sandstorm." It's an Arabic term that is "blinding." And, of course, they with this haboob will be Mujahideen. Mujahideen has as its root jihad. So, they are jihadists.

1:12:57 Yasha'yah also addresses this moment in the 17th and 18th chapters of Yasha'yah/Isaiah saying that upon the narrowing of Israel at the waist the final solution, I could also call it the final dissolution, that there will be a massive flood of combatants. He speaks of them being far more than can be counted, far more than can be restrained. To put this largest ever pronouncement in perspective, the largest invading army at the time this was written would have been 185,000, the Assyrians, who were sent to besiege Jerusalem in 701 BCC. By comparison, Alexander the Great, he had less than 50,000 men at his command. In Antiquity's greatest battle, Rome put 86,000 troops up against Hannibal's 60,000 Carthaginians. During the Battle of Cannae in Italy in 216 BCE. Collectively that's less than half of the number that's going to invade Israel. And speaking of the Romans, a legion was comprised of 5,000 soldiers and four of them were brought to bear against Judea in 70 CE. And three were brought in in 133. Genghis Khan, one of the greatest marauders of all time, amassed a highly mobile army of nearly 200,000 warriors but they were never deployed in any single invasion. While the Germans sent upwards of five million men into the Soviet Union they did not arrive at or fight at the same time. Many were sent in to reinforce those who were slaughtered before them. So if looking for the largest invasion force ever deployed, it would be D Day's Operation Overlord in June 1944, just over 130,000 troops landed on Normandy's beaches with only 120 living to survive the day. In contrast to this, 3,500 Muslim Mujahideen were sufficiently savaged last year to bring Israel to its knees.

1:15:37 This next invasion will be so massive Islamic jihadists will darken the hills. They will stir up vast amounts of dust, as if forming a tsunami of sand. They will number over 130,000 and could total 6 to 10 times that number. And yet the good news is that man will never be this bad again. This will be the worst incident in all of human history perpetrated by Muslims against Jews. This will be the last battle and the Muslims looking for booty and babes will soon know that they have entered hell.

1:16:36 As they approach (la paneh huw'), fire will consume them ('akal 'esh), As they approach (la paneh huw'), fire will consume them ('akal 'esh), and behind them (wa 'achar huw') a flame blazes (lahat lehabah) as the Land and Earth (ha 'erets) come to resemble (ka) Gan 'Eden | the Garden of Great Joy (Gan 'Eden) before them (la paneh huw'). But behind them (wa 'achar huw') is a desolate and unpopulated wasteland clothed in horror (shemamah), and in addition (wa gam), there is no escape or deliverance for them (peletah lo' hayah la huw'). (Yow'el 2:3)

1:17:09 I have a great love for the words of my King, Dowd, and for my brother Yasha'yah and I have more respect for Moseh than any man in human history. But it's hard not to have a bit of a bromance with Yow'el. This man was so articulate. I have a passion for painting pictures with words and yet this may have been among the most articulate of all Prophets.

1:17:46 He says: As they approach (la paneh huw'), fire will consume them ('akal 'esh), and behind them (wa 'achar huw') a flame blazes (lahat lehabah)

1:18:06 What is the best way to rid the world of trash without having any of the pathogens that typically grow out of garbage? Incinerate it, right? They're going to be incinerated. They're not innocent. This is not like Allah taking all disbelievers into hell and torturing them forever, no. These people came with a singular purpose: to torture, to abduct, to rape, to mutilate and to murder Jews. They will have earned what happens to them. They will deserve what happens to them. And so, as they approach, fire will consume them because.

1:18:51 As they approach (la paneh huw'), fire will consume them ('akal 'esh), and behind them (wa 'achar huw') a flame blazes (lahat lehabah)

1:18:57 Because Yahowah will allow them to go to the point where there is no other opportunity, where the last option for free will and for His people to choose Him expires, and where the only option is for Him to put an end to it, and He will do that, and that is why fire is occurring.

DEE: At this point it's merciful to do so.

1:19:21 YADA: Yes. One of the things that I think I was the first person ever to write about this, that just seemed so obvious to me, and this goes back now, probably 15,18, 20 years ago. You know the story of the Garden of Eden is being told for a reason and the 7th of the Mow'ed Miqra'ey, the destination that God is taking us to, of camping out together sounds a lot like 'Eden. So, it's pretty obvious that the story God is telling us is He created this perfect environment for us to enjoy life together. After that we rebelled, so He came up with a means to open the door to clean us up of all the religious and political gunk that we had affiliated with and to readopt us and then harvest us and reconcile His relationship with us so we could go back to the Garden and camp out again. It was so obvious this was God's idea of a good time. And what do we read here? That the earth is going to come to resemble Gan 'Eden again. It's a statement, a conclusion I've thrown out for 20 years, and here it is in black and white: "The earth will come to resemble Gan 'Eden, the Garden of Great Joy before them."

1:21:02 But behind them (wa 'achar huw') is a desolate and unpopulated wasteland clothed in horror (shemamah), and in addition (wa gam), there is no escape or deliverance for them (peletah lo' hayah la huw'). (Yow'el 2:3)

1:21:12 Now that depopulated desolate wasteland, is to say that none of those who are coming to attack Israel and more importantly, He speaks of the Gazans, which I say are not civilians, all of those who educated and indoctrinated them, and armed them and equipped them and celebrated them, leaving to go destroy Israel and annihilate Jews in genocidal rage, God's going to take care of all of them too, because they are not innocent. That's the fire that is behind them. That is that lifeless, depopulated wasteland that is clothed in horror from which there will be no escape. God's not going to send His Covenant Family with rifles into the Islamic world and say, "Be careful of the little civilians now don't harm the baby Vipers." This is how He's going to handle it, and He's right. It's what needs to be done and the whole earth will be purged of religion, and politics, and militancy and conspiracy. There will be no escape and at this time there will be no deliverance. You're either with Yahowah and you're there as part of the Shabuw'ah Harvest, part of the Taruw'ah gleaning, or the Great Family reunion on Yowm Kipurym, or your toast, quite literally. That is the story that God is telling.

1:22:49 Now, for those who have read God Damn Religion, you can order it now if you want "Kill every Jew," that quote on the cover. Otherwise, sometime tomorrow, my guess is it's going to be replaced with "Islamic Terrorist." The new cover really is, though compelling.

1:23:10 Throughout the Quran Allah was preoccupied with roasting almost everyone in hell fire. The Kaphar are the principal roasties. It's from a Hebrew word. Kaphar means "to reconcile." It's the basis of Kipurym. It's the basis of Kaporeth, the Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant. So, Allah's fixation is on those who have been reconciled because they're the ones that preclude his victory. Because of Yada Yahowah and what Yahowah has done to enable Yada Yahowah there will be reconciled Yahuwdym and with reconciled Yahuwdym Satan loses, Yahowah prevails. The remaining Mow'ed Miqra'ey are carried out as they were foretold. So, Allah dreams about roasting Kaphar in his hell fires forever. So, when it is the Muslims that are roasted by YaHoWaH for coming to dispatch Jews to the Hellfire, this is going to come as a rather shocking role reversal. Rather than the virgins that they were expecting as part of Allah's "Pay for Slay", they're going to experience what Allah threatened the Jews with in hell. So it will be interesting to see the expressions on the faces of those militants who were believing that Allah would dish up a decadent treat rather than Yahowah being there to incinerate them.

1:24:29 Don't gloat if you're a Rabbinic Jew, if you are into the Haredim cult because you will not survive, any of this.

1:25:13 Now this is the best possible news for the survivors among the Jewish people because not only are the Muslim Mujahideen thwarted in their sadistic desires, not until after, by the way, they've perpetrated enormous carnage, and then consumed in blaze, the blaze is the blaze is transformative, leaving beautiful gardens in its wake. On one side is the horror of religion. On the other side is a loving and joyous relationship with God.

1:25:46 This is the final assault against the Promised Land, even with militants busted by militaries, they will be no match for God. Although it is possible that suws which can be rendered as either "something which flies" or a "war stallion" could speak of a "barrage of missiles, rockets or drones" replicating what occurred just nine months ago in Israel.

1:26:19 I now want to share Yow'el 2:4 with you, it reads.

1:26:25 There will be what could be compared to the appearance of (ka mar'eh) swift warhorses as mobile military transports (suws). This phenomenon could be perceived (mar'eh huw') as being similar to armored personnel carriers and mobile cavalry (wa ka parash), especially pertaining to the way they run and are driven in pursuit of their foes (ken ruwts). (Yow'el 2:4)

1:26:50 As with the loud roar and thunderous rumbling (ka qowl) of these wheeled military vehicles (merkabah) upon the summits of the mountains, their leaders seek the high ground ('al ro'sh ha har) as they leap about, springing into the air (raqad) like the crackling of a flame (ka qowl lahab) of fire devouring ('esh 'akal) stubble (qash). Such is the nature of this multitude of unenlightened people, this vast and severe throng of militants drawn up, aligned, and arranged ('arak) for war (la milchamah). (Yow'el 2:5)

1:27:24 From their presence (min paneh huw'), the people ('am) tremble and shake writhing in anguish terrorized and tormented of their power and wealth (chayl). Every face (kol paneh) becomes flushed and pale (qabats pa'ruwr). (Yow'el 2:6)

1:27:37 Like warriors (ka gibowr), they charge ahead (ruwts) quickly chasing their prey as men (ka 'ysh) of war equipped with weapons (milchamah), they scale ('alah) barriers, protective barricades, blockades, and walls (chomah). Each individual travels in his own route for the cause (wa 'ysh ba derek huw' halak). They do not renounce their pledge or swerve (wa lo' abat) from their path or conduct ('orach hem). (Yow'el 2:7)

1:28:10 Yahowah wants Jerusalem and Jews/Yahuwdym to know that while this will be the greatest onslaught the world has ever seen, the single worst that man has ever perpetrated on humanity, and that it is unavoidable apart from those who are harvested and miss it because they experienced Taruw'ah, and Shabuw'ah, that while this will occur, and while He has promised that at the end of this great conflict He will conduct urban renewal, sometimes we as people have this tendency to read through something, "That's really bad, but it has a happy ending. Let's go on to the next item in the story," God knows His people. He says, "No, he says. No, no, no, no, don't do that. Let Me share with you really how bad this is going to be because you don't want to be there". And so, after telling us what's going to happen and that there is a happily ever after, "I really want to make sure I have your attention. This is what you should be expecting," because God's not going to intervene in 2026, 2027, 2028, 2029, 31 or 32 or even early 2033. He is not going to intervene until the 7th month on the Hebrew calendar which will be October, early October in year 6000 Yah, the 120th Yowbel year which is 2033 CE. That is when He's going to intervene. 01:30:03

1:30:05 And so, over the ensuing seven years, in particular during the last three years of this, it's going to be hell. Jewish women are going to be abused, Jewish children are going to be mutilated, many Jews are going to die; it's going to be the most horrendous battle that humankind has ever experienced, and it's all going to be focused in one place. Now I'm quite certain that the way the United States has managed to array the world where we have pushed Russia and China and Iran together and the United States is in partner with Europe that this is going to be a World War because everybody will have a stake. And as China is becoming exceedingly involved, they just brought Hamas and the Palestinian together in a pretend handshake, they have more influence in the Middle East now than does America and they are exceedingly tight with Russia and with Iran. So, this is likely to break out into World War. Now, Yahowah's not going to tell us much about how many Americans die, or Europeans die, or Russians or Chinese die in this war because He doesn't give a crap. Quite frankly, He does not care.

1:31:44 The Gowym are almost universally opposed to him. The Gowym that are not opposed to Him, He's going to harvest on Shabuw'ah and so the rest of them He does not care about. He's not trying to save them; He's trying to spare a remnant of His people so they are part of His family forevermore. And in this regard, He wants Israel to know what's going to happen to them.

1:32:10 He says that what's going to happen could be compared to swift flying armaments and military transports. Just view what happened on 10.7.2023 and multiply it by a minimum of 1,000. That's what H's describing here. "The phenomenon could be perceived as similar to armored personnel carriers and mobile cavalry, especially pertaining to the way they run and are driven in pursuit of their foes."

1:32:46 "With a loud roar and thunderous rumbling" the noise is going to be overwhelming. "of these wheeled military vehicles upon the summits of the mountains" as they descend into Israel.

1:32:59 “They will leap about springing into the air.” You see Muslims celebrating their carnage, “the cackling and crackling like a flame like a devouring flame eating the stubble. Such is the nature of this multitude of unenlightened people, this vast and severe throng of militants all arranged for war.”

1:33:24 And so their presence is going to terrorize, Israel. To be a Jew anywhere in the world now is to live in fear. They will perpetrate great anguish and torment on God's people and the only expression then will be to be “flushed and pale.”

1:33:51 “Like Warriors,” they're going to charge ahead. They will chase down their prey. Savages. “Equipped with weapons” They will do as they did in Gaza. They're going to scale the barricades, they're going to rip through the fences, the walls, they're going to enter Israel from all sides. “Each individual travels a different route” which means they're going to come 360° into Israel. The pledge is the Pledge of Aqaba to wage war against all mankind. At the beginning of the Islamic era, it will be the end of the Islamic era. It defines their path through life and their conduct.

1:34:43 Other than being responsible for committing 90% of the world's most heinous terrorist acts, Muslims aren't very good at most things although we can count on them for being boisterous, agitated, just as this prophecy foretells. They also fit the bill when it comes to being unenlightened and militant in addition to numbering in the billions. Further, not only are they all aligned against Jews and overwhelmingly in favor of war with Israel, as we have seen, as we have heard, they have a thing for scaling walls and invading protective barriers. Also insightful, the single most defining event in Islam was the pledge of Aqaba which was a declaration of war against all mankind. Here we are told that they will not renounce their vow to kill. They will continue to fight in Allah's cause until death which is why Yahowah will be accommodating them. But before He does, Muslims will reenact October 7, 2023, on an even more sadistic and macabre scale.

1:36:16 Yow'el 2:9: Walking around with their weapons (halak wa ba'ad ha shelach), they attack (naphal) without relenting (lo' batsa'). (Yow'el 2:8) They rush (shaqaaq) into the city (ba ha 'yr) from within the walls and barriers (ba ha chomah), running into the houses (ruwts ba ha beyth) by climbing through the windows ('alah ba'ad ha chalown), entering like thieves (bow' ka ha ganab). (Yow'el 2:9)

1:36:30 When Muslims entered the homes of Jews they raped the women. They even raped the men. They mutilate them. They cut off their fingers and toes their legs. They continue to rape both women and men while they are dead. They will burn little children alive. They will cut off their fingers and toes, they'll gouge out their eyes. They will pee on them. These are inhuman savages. That is what Islam does to people. It is why I'm so opposed to Islam. The world doesn't get it. It's not Hamas. It's Islam and this is what the Prophet saw. That's why I put on the cover of that book, “Kill every Jew.” It's a quotation directly from Mohammed.

1:37:32 Walking around with their weapons (halak wa ba'ad ha shelach), they attack (naphal) without relenting (lo' batsa'). (Yow'el 2:8) They rush (shaqaq) into the city (ba ha 'yr) from within the walls (ba ha chomah), running into the houses and barriers (ruwts ba ha beyth) by climbing through the windows ('alah ba'ad ha chalown), entering like thieves (bow' ka ha ganab). (Yow'el 2:9)

1:37:51 This is your future because you didn't have the guts to realize that your war was against Islam, that they had declared war on you 1,400 years ago, because you didn't have the courage to say there is no such thing as a Palestinian, because you were so caught up in your progressive politics and your disgusting, ancient, primitive religious rites that you wouldn't even say your God's name. You pay no attention to Him and as a result, this is what's going to happen, and it is going to be a living horror. This will be far worse than the Holocaust. Germans were savages. They rounded Jews up. They put them into train cars, they stole all their property and those they didn't starve and work to death they incinerated after they had killed them with a cyanide gas.

1:39:00 That's not what's going to happen this time. They're not going to kill Jews with gas. They're going to mutilate them. They're going to rape them, they're going to ravage their dead bodies. They're going to torture their children. They're going to do this not in a concentration camp, but in their own homes. This is the plague of Islam as it is presented in the Quran, as it was lived by Mohammed, as it was showcased on October 7th of 2023. And here is Yow'el, the prophet whose name means "Yahowah is God," the one thing that Jews still not admit, telling you exactly what's going to happen, and you're unwilling to do anything about it. He is not mentioning Hamas here. Hamas is meaningless. Wake up, Israel! Your God is trying to get your attention.

1:40:20 It is as if Yow'el has taken us forward in time to witness the Muslim atrocities that have been and will once again be perpetrated against His people. This is precisely what occurred. It is what's going to occur. Make no mistake, Muslims are a special kind of savage unlike any other militants in the history of the world. They are far more perverted, ruthless and cruel.

1:40:58 The earth will quake before them (la paneh huw' ragaz). The heavens will be shaken (ra'ash shamaym). The sun and the moon (shemesh wa yareach) will grow dark (qadar) and the stars (wa kokab), their brightness (nogah hem) will be taken away ('asaph). (Yow'el 2:10)

1:41:21 Even heaven's going to cry. God himself will cry.

1:41:25 I have known this is going to happen for years. I have written about it. I have devoted my life to warning Israel about it, to taking Israelites away from it through these harvests. And yet I'm going to cry.

1:41:38 But I will tell you one thing is for certain. There is something that will happen that I was at one time exceedingly opposed to and that is that Yahowah and Dowd are going to do as they have always done. They're going to delegate, and when it comes time to condemning and holding these Muslims accountable, God has already chosen his delegate, and I'm going to tell you I will show no mercy. For the sake of the children whose fingers and toes they cut off and whose eyes they gouged out as their parents had to watch them torment their children, and then they did the same thing to each of the parents and then peed on them and giggled why they did so, I will tell you that you're going to wish you hadn't done it because I'm going to assure that you are tortured many, many times worse than the torture you inflicted because being sent to the place of separation into She'owl/Hell is not enough for what you have done. And for all of the Muslims in the West who are fanning the flames of Islamic terrorism, I'm going to hold you accountable too. I'm going to be your worst nightmare.

1:43:20 And it is a job that I did not want because I'm squeamish. I just do not like it when anyone suffers pain. I am a nonviolent person. I have always in my life chosen to use words. I will use words bluntly and boldly and powerful. I encourage people to find nonviolent solutions to their problems. It's going to change. Divine retribution is necessary for God to be just, and He is not going to change His personality at this last moment.

1:44:10 And so there will be a series, not really of trials; there's going to be nothing but convictions. We're going to get this done. I don't know how long it will take us to get it done, but I know that Yahowah wants us to do it. And when it comes to understanding the ill effects of Christianity, the ill effects of Islam, the ill effects of Progressives, and the harm they have perpetrated on God's people, along with the Nazis, and the Roman Catholics over the years, I don't think anyone is as well read or studied as I have become. And so, as much as I love Israel and will stand for and offer my life for Israel, I'm going to make certain that those who have come to harm Israel will be held accountable.

1:45:12 The earth will quake before them (la paneh huw' ragaz).

– but I will tell you they will quake before us

The heavens will be shaken (ra'ash shamaym). The sun and the moon (shemesh wa yareach) will grow dark (qadar) and the stars (wa kokab), their brightness (nogah hem) will be taken away ('asaph). (Yow'el 2:10)

1:45:29 The sun is Dowd I am the moon in this metaphor. And you might say, wait a minute. How's Dowd this sun? God calls him the greatest luminary. He's going to return as brilliant as the sun. He is the source of light in our world going forward. But as I say, like Father, like Son, he's going to delegate. What is the moon? It's the source of reflected light. What light does it reflect? The sun's.

1:45:57 DEE: If anyone has an issue with it, they can just read Mizmowr 132:17. It answers the question.

1:46:03 YADA: It does. It does. In fact, in the rewrite of Volume 1 of Twistianity we were dealing with the sun and the moon, and as it relates to Mizmowr 89. And I was motivated by something that Dee had said in passing to finally figure out why it speaks of the sun and moon at this time on this occasion. And I finally figured it out. That is the role that we're playing.

1:46:35 God is really serious about the role that we're playing at this time, because if we don't do this and we don't do this well, the entire human experience is for naught. That doesn't mean that we're special. It doesn't mean that we're unique. It just means that we were the one thing that God needed. We were willing.

1:46:54 DEE: And as you just said, the Crescent moon devours these individuals and your role as the guide of the full moon reflecting Dowd fulfills the feast, if it makes sense, but the crescent moon is a rams Horn, a Taruw'ah horn, a showphar that is aggressive. It's a ram coming to fight.

1:47:24 YADA: Yes. And, of course, the full moon occurs at Pesach and Sukah. It's under the time that Dowd was the most brilliant. He will never be more brilliant than he is in the fulfillment of those dates.

1:47:38 And so, this prophet, Yow'el, has told Israel exactly what's going to occur. We have repeated it. We hope that Israel listens. We hope that Dee, you and Molly and my wife, Leah, are able to create some wonderful movies of this and get people's attention.

1:48:05 From Heaven's perspective, this darkness is a great sadness. Even though it's a very short period of time, but how savage humans can be, how demented and demonic a religion like Islam can make Muslims. They will be out of their minds when ravaging God's people. We know that the 3,000 Mujahideen were so barbaric they left a permanent scar on Israel on 10.7.23, so, it's hard to even fathom the havoc that 1,000 times that number will cause. But this is exactly what Yahowah is telling Israel will occur. And while these Muslims will be intent on genocide, Jews should be forewarned that they are readily distracted by rape and plunder, even sadistic torture as these things were encouraged by their wannabe god and false prophet. It is a great savagery.

1:49:17 And it doesn't make any difference if the Jews are in Israel or not in Israel in this particular case because the entire world now is far worse than the conditions experienced at the prelude to the Holocaust. Now it's a worldwide event, and it's particularly prevalent among the young, and among Progressives, the elitists, and among Muslims who number in now to the 2 billion and who permeate all of the capitals of Europe, the United States and the West, and who surround Israel.

1:49:54 So, this is what we face. It doesn't matter where you live, there's only one escape. Complete escape. And that's to be part of the Shabuw'ah Harvest. Join us for it. Read Yada Yahowah, be productive between now and then, and if you miss the Shabuw'ah Harvest and you're able to hear these words, then by all means join Yahowah's Covenant Family on Taruw'ah. Listen to 'Eiyah and Yada as they call you back home. And, of course, for those foolish enough not to capitalize on either of those harvests, the final meeting is a remnant of God's people on Kipurym. But after that, it's all over. So please, time is running out for you to make the right choice.

I think this is probably a good place for us to stop this this evening. It sounds dreadfully sad, and it is dreadfully sad. But there is a happy ending. There is a happily ever after. There is an opportunity for you to be part of it. There is no excuse. Those of you who have heard this program know what you need to do. You need to walk away from religion. You need to stop being political. You need to embrace Yahowah's name. You need to understand that there's five conditions of the Covenant and five benefits, and those benefits are provided through the fulfillment of the Miqra'ey, that Dowd was the Passover Lamb, that he perfected us on Matsah and showed us the way home on Firstborn Children, and that the next harvest that is enabled because of what Dowd/David did as our Savior, the Zarowa', the Sacrificial Lamb, as our Messiah and King is on Shabuw'ah, the harvest of the standing grain seven years before this all comes to a crashing end as we are reading here, which will be May 22nd of 2026. Please join us before then.

May Yah bless. Have a wonderful rest of your Shabat. I hope that we have your ear this time next week. I don't think it's possible for Yahowah to have found a more articulate prophet to tell you what's going to happen so that you don't have to endure it. Please listen to your God.

May God bless good night.
